El Dorado Circle of the Druidesses on the night of the 1st Friday in October had a class of eight young ladies to initiate. The work, with Arch Druidess J. Viganego leading the officers and the star, was done in a most admirable manner. Initiation was followed by a fish-pond party and the presentation of a programme and dancing. Those who took part in the programme were J. Cuneo, M. Poresani and M. Porcini, a mandolin trio; Miss L. Scatena, vocal solo, and Miss L. Lanza, piano accompanist.

The funeral of the late Frank Lewis, once noble grand arch of California, was held in Pleasanton, the ceremonies being conducted by the officers of the El Dorado Circle of the Druidesses. Those officiating were Noble Grand Arch Antonovich, Grand Secretary Martinioli, Grand Marshal Welsh and Grand Guardian Cramer, assisted by Past Noble Grand Arch Bahrts and Beck and Rev. Mr. Becken. The hall in which the service was held was hung with mistletoe and oak leaves. There were among the mourners the Board of Trustees of Pleasanton and the circle of Druidesses from Livermore.

The work was very impressively done and the new officers with Hattie Beach as arch Druidess, and Alice Goodell, Emma Wedemeyer, Minnie Betts, Maria Bamman, Clara Cramer, Emma Rice, May Aegerian and Edith Perpol as the other officers, after being obligated, promised to do as well as did the retiring arch Druidess.

During her term in the past arch Druidess, Mrs. Wheeler, by personal influence succeeded in building up the circle, which previous to her advent had dwindled down to a small number. It now stands one of the most prominent in the order. May Kerrigan, the retiring past arch Druidess, was presented a handsome badge of her rank in the order, and flowers were presented to the retiring arch Druidess, the district deputy and to Forest Coburn, the new conductor.

After the installation there was a short programme of entertainment and then a banquet to the retiring and new officers. Those who contributed to the programme were Mr. Bahrts, Emma Ruhlmann and Etta Rahimian, Mrs. Arndt, Mrs. Schwindt and Little Viola.

The officers of Boadecia Circle, whose names have already been published in this column, were installed on the 25th of Saturday in the current month by District Deputy Grand Arch Druidess McKewen, assisted by acting grand officers. The work was most creditably performed, entirely without book.

During the past week the officers of Alpin, South San Francisco, Aurora and McKinley groves were installed for the current term. From reports to Grand Secretary Martinioli it appears that during the term, Alpin made a gain of 22 members, Aurora 12 and South San Francisco 26. McKinley maintained its own. The new officers of that grove promised to make a record for it, one that will be most creditable to the entire organization. The Grand Grove of the State of Washington has been organized and instituted. It includes seven groves. Dr. P. H. de Bruyne was chosen the first noble grand arch and M. F. McDonald grand secretary.
