

MRS. CHADWICK IN PENITENTIARY

Begins Serving Her Ten-Year Term for a Conspiracy to Wreck Oberlin, Ohio, Bank

SECOND TIME IN PRISON

Woman Identifies Her as Mme. de Vere, Who Served a Sentence for Forgery

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick arrived at the penitentiary today to begin a sentence of ten years for conspiracy to wreck the Citizens' National Bank at Oberlin, Ohio. She was taken through the baggage-room, under the general waiting-room in the Union station, placed in a carriage and taken to the prison. Ten policemen were sent to keep the crowd back and three policemen escorted the woman to the carriage. Mrs. Chadwick traveled to Columbus in a Pullman.

No special preparations were made in the women's department for the reception of the woman. She will be compelled to sleep on a cot in the corridor of the prison, as the women's department is filled.

The prison officials are skeptical as to the illness of Mrs. Chadwick. They say that she will be treated as any other prisoner. They think the reports that she had heart trouble are groundless, and after an examination if it is found that she is able she will be put to washing or other work. If not, she will be placed in the sewing department.

The young woman clerk in the secretary's office of the penitentiary identified Mrs. Chadwick soon after she arrived at the prison as Madame de Vere, who had served a term in the penitentiary in 1901 for forgery. Mrs. Chadwick after the identification neither admitted nor denied that she was Madame de Vere.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, escorted by United States Marshal Chandler and a deputy, left Cleveland this morning for the State penitentiary at Columbus to begin her sentence of ten years' imprisonment. Shortly before the train left Mrs. Chadwick said:

"I am going to try to be brave and keep up now to the last."

William Tinkler, expressman for Gilbert Bros., residence 434 1/2 Clementina street, says: "I have been laid up in the house for three or four weeks at a time and have been afraid to go to bed, because to turn caused excruciating twinges. If I stooped I suffered, and if I straightened it was just as bad, all on account of an aching back. I had attacks of it for several years, some of them so virulent that in my endeavor to find relief I actually rubbed the skin off my back with liniments. The last medicine I used was Doan's Kidney Pills. That is six months ago. I never felt better in my life than during the time which has elapsed nor at the present moment. ## NEW YORK LIFE WILL REMAIN IN MISSOURI

Suits Against Company Will Be Rescinded as Result of Changes.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.—After a lengthy conference with F. W. Lehmann, special counsel retained by the Missouri Insurance Department, State Superintendent of Insurance W. D. Vandiver today said his suit to oust the New York Life Insurance Company from doing business in Missouri probably would be rescinded as a result of the retirement of President McCall and the restoration of the $235,000 given to Attorney Hamilton for legal services.

"The New York Life," said Vandiver, "has conceded the justice of the position taken by my department. Its trustees at a recent meeting carried out practically all the requirements set forth in my letter to them some time ago."

"Recently the company instituted injunction proceedings in the Federal court to restrain me from revoking its charters. That proceeding will also be withdrawn, as a matter of course."

Superintendent Vandiver to-night sent the following letter notifying J. H. McCall, general solicitor of the New York Life Insurance Company, that the order of suspension issued against the company had been revoked:

I have your favor of recent date, saying that George W. Perkins resigned both the vice presidency of the company and the chairmanship of the finance committee; that John A. McCall resigned the presidency of the company; both resignations being at once accepted by the board of trustees; that Mr. McCall before resigning returned to the treasury of the company $85,000 in cash and gave his note for $150,000 with ample security, thus covering the $235,000 known as the Hamilton lobby fund.

In addition to these important reforms, I am informed that the requirements made by me and accepted by the company have been made in the by-laws. These and other changes now effected will make it impossible for the abuses recently disclosed ever to occur again. This being in substantial compliance with the requirements made by me and accepting it as the promise of a management which is faithfully to conserve all the interests of the policyholders and the public, I have today revoked the order of suspension issued by me against the company on November 8, 1905, and this is to give to you and through you to the company forthwith notice of the fact.

CARRIAGE MAKE ROGERS ANSWER

Attempt of Attorney General Hadley Met by Successful Plea for Postponement

ATTACKS PROSECUTOR

Trust Claims Missourian Is Making Play for Notoriety by Posing as Its Foe

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The attempt by Attorney General Hadley of Missouri to compel Henry H. Rogers, vice president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, to answer certain questions put to him during his examination before Commissioner Sanborn came up before Justice Gildersleeve in the Supreme Court today.

Counsel for Rogers asked for a brief adjournment, but it was not granted. Rogers' counsel protested that it was impossible for them to proceed immediately, and the hearing was adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Hadley said that he should leave New York Saturday night in order to attend to a motion in the United States Circuit Court in Missouri, relative to the New York Life Insurance Company doing business in that State.

The first claim on behalf of Rogers was that the questions are immaterial; second, that a contest regarding the admissibility of the same questions is pending before the courts in Missouri; third, that the Attorney General of Missouri has no legal right to take depositions in New York and that the questions are under consideration in the courts of other States; fourth, that the Attorney General of Missouri is not asking the questions at issue for purposes of public policy, but is bringing the proceedings in order to gain advertising and personal notoriety as a foe of the Standard Oil Company.

To support this last-named claim the answer set forth that the newspapers have been fed with sensational stories by Hadley and his associates, holding up Rogers to contempt and ridicule. It was further contended that newspaper photographers and artists have been given a free hand at the hearing before Commissioner Sanborn, causing Rogers great annoyance.

HADLEY SECURES TESTIMONY.

Minor Witnesses in Missouri's Suit Against Oil Trust Are Heard.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Attorney General Hadley Missouri late today recommended the taking of testimony in the suits by which the State of Missouri sues to oust the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and other companies from the State of Missouri and the hearing was recommended.

A. V. Jockel, a former bookkeeper and subordinator manager for the Standard Oil Company, was recalled to the witness stand. He testified that on his way to Oklahoma City to serve as bookkeeper at the Waters-Pierce Company he stopped at the Waters-Pierce Company's office in St. Louis and received instructions from persons whom he knew to be connected with the Standard Oil office at 28 Broadway, New York.

Jockel of cross-examination said that the term of his employment in Oklahoma as bookkeeper for the Waters-Pierce Company was ten weeks.

He had been asked by Tinsley, according to instructions given him by R. H. McNaull at 28 Broadway. He said that at 28 Broadway McNaull had instructed him that he must not let it be known in Oklahoma City that he had formerly been in Oklahoma. He had been paid a salary by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey while working in Oklahoma City. He was not Mr. Hagerman's.

"I was not. My salary commenced with the Waters-Pierce Company when I got to Oklahoma City in December."

The witness said he had never told any one in Oklahoma that he had been employed by the Standard Oil Company, other than former employees of the Standard Oil who knew of the fact.

The witness said that when Manager Eble at Oklahoma City told him the Standard Oil Company had secured control of the Waters-Pierce Company through the purchase of the Standard Oil stock he got $624 per year salary with the Standard at Newark and $1200 in Oklahoma City with the Waters-Pierce Company.

Asked about a criminal charge made against him, Mr. Jockel said it was brought in June, 1904, in a Police Court in this city. He said he had subsequently made an application for a bond to a surety company in this city.

"And because of not getting the bond you had to quit your position in Oklahoma City?" continued the lawyer.

"That was one reason, and the other was that I wanted to get back to my folks in a civilized country."

The witness explained that the National Conduit and Cable Company had accused him of taking $100 and that he had received $100 in jail as a result. Jockel denied with emphasis, however, that he had received or taken the $100.

The witness asserted again that the major portion of the barreled oil handled by the Waters-Pierce Company in Oklahoma City came from the Standard Oil properties.

Further testimony will be taken tomorrow afternoon pending the hearing in court in the matter of compelling H. H. Rogers to testify.

MORRIS CASE MAY BE SUBJECT OF CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY.

Woman Ejected From the White House Is Slowly Recovering From Effects of the Shock.

WIFE OF FORMER ARMY SURGEON WHO WAS EJECTED FROM WHITE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The condition of Mrs. Morris was so much improved today that she was able to answer inquiries over the telephone as to her health.

Mrs. Morris, who is the wife of Dr. Minor Morris of this city and a younger sister of Representative Hull of Iowa, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, called at the White House a week ago and to Assistant Secretary Barnes announced that she wanted to see the President. She told Barnes that her husband had been discharged from the Government service and she wanted to demand from the President his reinstatement, or at least to discuss the matter with him. Barnes explained to her that the President had nothing to do with such subjects, whereupon Mrs. Morris declared in a loud tone that she had come to the White House to see the President and proposed to see him even if she had to camp there for a month.

Mrs. Morris was finally removed by officers, assisted by White House servants, and taken to the police station, where she was placed in charge of the matron. Later she became hysterical and for several days she was ill.

The case has attracted considerable attention here because of Mrs. Morris' election from the White House, and it is not improbable that Congress will take up the matter.

Pittsburg Detectives Investigate Story of Domestic Who Claims to Be Heiress

GIRL IS NOW MISSING

Search Is Being Made for the Servant and Man Supposed to Be Her Accomplice

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—Katherine Gray, alleged Vaasa girl graduate, who has been working as a servant girl in this city for the past four months and who claimed to have at last come into a fortune of three to five hundred thousand dollars, in United States bonds, has disappeared. Superintendent McQuaid of the Pittsburg detective force is looking for the young woman and also for a man who is believed to have assisted her in concocting her hoax.

Two weeks ago she received a letter telling that her father's fortune of over $300,000, in United States bonds, which had disappeared when he died, had been found. Attorney W. G. Stewart was called in and the girl furnished him with money to go to Washington and meet her uncle, Colonel John Gray, at the Willard Hotel. No Colonel John Gray was found there. The girl's employers then demanded that she show proofs of her claims, and she indignantly quit their service on Thursday, and has not since been seen.

Inquiry at Norfolk and Richmond discloses that there never was a Senator Ashbury Gray, and that no Colonel John Gray is known in the former Confederate capital.
