

Hale and Hearty at 104 Received on 90th Birthday

Johann Arnold of Reading, Pa., and Mrs. Phebe Pratt of Chelsea, Mass., say their sturdy old age is due to the regular use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

It makes the old young and the young strong

Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure in my old age to testify to the benefits I am deriving from the judicious use of your Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I am now 104 years old, hale and hearty, have a good appetite and perfect digestion. I have tried a number of wines and whiskeys for their stimulating effect, but my stomach would not retain them. Duffy's agrees with my stomach perfectly. It is certainly a God-send to the aged, who need a stimulant to tone up their stomachs, increase their digestive powers and strengthen their weakened nerves.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

There are 4000 men and women in this country alone who have passed the hundred year mark, and nearly every one of them has publicly acknowledged that he or she owes health, strength, continued use of all the faculties and extreme old age to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, the great cure and preventive of disease, the true elixir of life. We will send you free a booklet containing portraits and letters of many of these old people, and valuable medical information.

Mrs. Pratt writes:— Gentlemen: I am now almost 91 years of age and am in excellent health, owing to the regular use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Catarrh of the throat troubled me for four years, and I tried many remedies, without any benefit, until a friend induced me to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. My general condition was very poor also until I used Duffy's, but I am very glad to state that since using this grand medicine the catarrh has left me, my general health is better than it has been for years, and I know that it has prolonged my life. I most certainly would not be without it.

AVOID SUBSTITUTES

Be sure you get the genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk—by all reliable druggists and grocers, or direct, price, $1.00. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal whiskey and contains no fuel oil. This is a guarantee. Look for the trade-mark on the label, and be certain the seal over the cork is unbroken. DENIES THAT CLUB LADIES HAVE TRAITS OF THE OWL

Continued from Page 29, Column 7. to burst into an oratorical demonstration, but was quickly silenced by Judge Mogan. His Honor assured him that there would be ample time in the future to air his grievances.

Schiller declares that while he was attempting to get a line on the movements of his wife and was haunting the vicinity of her home for that purpose McRae approached him and flourished a revolver in his face. McRae is an ex-policeman of Alameda and a former Reliance football player and was at one time employed as a detective by the Southern Pacific Company.

The divorce proceedings will come up again in Judge Graham's court tomorrow. Meanwhile the California Club is agitated and indignant at the husband. Mrs. Cotton when interviewed on the question of clubwomen's hours said: "The California Club will never condemn a woman unheard. If the charges made against her are true, of course the club will take action. But it is not the spirit of the California Club to condemn a woman unheard."

CLUB PRESIDENT TALKS. Mrs. Schiller's sponsors are most estimable people, and I am sure that she herself comes from a family upon whom there is not the shadow of a blame. You may be certain that her conduct as far as the club is concerned was perfectly proper. Outside of that I know nothing, and in the club it is not our policy to take accusations for fact.

Mrs. Schiller's husband did come to me and complain that the club had been keeping his wife out until unseemly hours. I did not think any the more of him for that. Functions that are California Club functions proper do not last after 5 in the afternoon. The affair of which Mr. Schiller complained specifically, the Stewart recital, was not under the auspices of the club, although it was given in the building.

It did last un- 11 p. m., and I understand that Mrs. Schiller arrived home at about 11:30. Now if she had

STEAL AWAY IN AUTO AND GET MARRIED

Rich Chicago Girl and a Wealthy Gothamite Elope.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 17.—Aided by an automobile driven and owned by Harrison M. Zier, the Pasadena millionaire, Mrs. Maude Burdick Milligan of Chicago and Albert Galatin Cooke of New York, two of the most prominent members of Pasadena's exclusive circles, eloped from that city this afternoon and were married this evening by the Rev. H. E. Benton, rector of All Souls Universalist Church at Los Angeles.

Miss Milligan, who is the daughter of Charles F. Milligan, owner and proprietor of the Victoria Hotel, Michigan avenue, Chicago, left her home, 4929 Echo street, Los Angeles, this morning at 11 o'clock, ostensibly for a short visit to one of the beach resorts, but in reality to meet her fiancé at the Main-street Van Nuys Hotel after joining Cooke the pair boarded a car for Pasadena, where Mr. Zier was in waiting at the Raymond Hotel, with Stephen Templeton Jr. of Princeton, Ill., and Cobbold W. Parsons of Louisville, Ky.

Here the young couple were showered with violets and roses. The start for Los Angeles was made at 1:10 p. m. Excellent time was made in reaching the Hotel Glenwood, the party arriving at 4:40. Here they met a friend, T. Edward Murtaugh, who assisted in procuring the license and clergyman. At the conclusion of the ceremony at the parsonage Mr. and Mrs. Cooke were driven to the Glenwood, where they are guests of honor to-night at a brilliant dinner given by Mr. Zier, who acted as best man.

The bride is one of the noted beauties of Pasadena and Los Angeles, where she has resided for the last three years. She is a stunning blonde and was one of the most popular girls at the Hotel Maryland in Los Angeles. Her groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooke of New York, and is a son of the Lan Francho family, known as the earliest settlers in Los Angeles. He is 25 and his bride is 22. They will remain at the Glenwood until Monday and then will go to the Alexandria, Los Angeles, to make it their home.

Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals or more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It is in a constructive measure, resulting in the most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients. Remembering that this is the fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which his popular medicines are composed. This has done more for the health of the people than all other measures, and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are now of known composition. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Landowners Cause of Failure of Plan to Improve Highway in San Mateo

SAN MATEO, Feb. 17.—The county road within the limits of this town is destined to remain in its present wretched condition for some time to come. This result is particularly discouraging, as many determined efforts have been made to obtain the tremendous traffic which naturally belongs to this county but which is diverted to the Alameda shore because of the poor condition of San Mateo County roads. Public and private corporations have used every endeavor to obtain this traffic, but the primary condition of success is a radical improvement in the county road.

The Board of City Trustees was asked to assist and readily acquiesced. It called upon property-owners to appear and show cause why they should not submit to an assessment to defray the expense of improving the road. A majority of the realty owners voiced an emphatic protest to the proposed assessment on the ground that the rate fixed would be a practical confiscation. They urged that all property-owners, not only those having frontages on the county road, should share in the burden.

On the other hand, certain property-owners on the road expressed their willingness to submit to the assessment of $2 50 a foot as fixed by the city engineers. These people, however, were in the minority, and the proposed improvement of the highway must rest without action for some time.

Exchange of Notes Between French and German Delegates Gives Encouragement

COMPROMISE PROBABLE Representative of American Government Takes Lead in Effecting a Settlement

ALGECIRAS, Spain, Feb. 17.—An important step forward has been made in the Franco-German controversy over the question of the control of the Moroccan police.

Last night M. Revoll, the ranking French delegate, sought Herr von Radwiz, the German envoy, and delivered to him a written response to the proposition the Germans had previously submitted. Secrecy is maintained as to the contents of the French document, but it is known to be a serious effort toward conciliation.

Henry White, the head of the American delegation, said in an interview: "The communications that passed between France and Germany were in no sense proposals, or even notes. They were aides memores, giving with precision the points of view of the two countries, but may undoubtedly be considered an important step forward."

Discussing the question already taking shape along lines which White is understood to have suggested. It was on White's proposal that the conference to-day exempted merchant training ships not engaged in trade from the formalities imposed by the new customs regulations.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The British Government has not been advised late this evening of the nature of the French reply to the German note on the Moroccan question, handed to the German representatives at Algeciras to-day.

The Foreign Office does not expect France to make any concessions from her first demands respecting control of the police. As a result, Great Britain has not been notified that France will modify her case, which, in view of the close relations between the two countries, would seem to be the probable course had a modification been contemplated.

An official said he did not believe France had made any compromise in regard to the policing of Morocco, but she might agree to international control of the State Bank of Morocco, France and Germany having two representatives on the administrative council of the future bank. This would be contingent on Germany agreeing to French control of the police.

Great Britain apparently is somewhat in the dark as to what is passing between France and Germany at Algeciras and fears are expressed in certain quarters that the Germans are endeavoring to interfere with the friendly relations between the two powers. The British Government is insistent that it is desirous of an amicable settlement, but it cannot go behind the agreement entered into with France to support her demands.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—With their eyes toward the setting sun, "the last of the Mohicans," a party of Americans weary of the woes of the winter left for Canada on the steamship Lake Champlain. They have been an unfortunate experience. Full of hope, they came to England less than a year ago and at the Earl's Court exhibition showed their skill as archers and paddlers of canoes. They were not, however, Englishmen being now familiar with the feathered redskins and the wild men from Borneo, and their show was not a financial success. They were later taken to Holland, where they were married. A widow married one of the chiefs, who called himself American Horse, and is going back with him to the camps on the Great Lakes.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, is an obstinate cause of disease, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants. Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined cod liver oil, which is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone Root, Black Cherrybark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs. As will be seen from the writings of the eminent Dr. J. Grover Coe of New York; Bartholow of Jefferson Medical College, Phila.; Scudder of Cincinnati; Ellingwood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in their several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of non-chronic, chronic, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrh in all its various forms wherever located.

One More Wonderful Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla. "Needham, Mass., Jan. 26, 1906. "C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass. "Gentlemen:—I believe it will be nothing more than justice to you for me to write a few lines in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it has been a great blessing to me and to my wife. I was laid up a whole year with an ulcer on my ankle, which I supposed came from a humor in my blood, which has troubled me from boyhood. I went to the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston for treatment twice a week during a period of three months. The attending surgeon advised me to give up work and take all the comfort I could. It was said that my case was the worst one of the kind they had treated at the hospital, and the doctors advised that I have my leg amputated. I would not consent to this, but began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for my blood. I have taken a dozen bottles, and now I am as well as ever. The sore was all healed up, and I am working all the time. My health never was better. I shall always speak well of Hood's Sarsaparilla."—CYRUS G. UPHAM.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has effected thousands of wonderful cures of scrofula, eczema, ulcers and all other blood diseases. It makes people well.

SPECIAL.—To meet the wishes of those who prefer medicine in tablet form, we are now putting up Hood's Sarsaparilla in chocolate-coated tablets as well as in the usual liquid form. By reducing Hood's Sarsaparilla to a solid extract, we have retained in the tablets the curative properties of every medicinal ingredient. Sold by druggists or sent by mail. 100 doses one dollar. C. NEVADA MAIL THIEF CAUGHT

George Mitchell Arrested in Denver After Leading Detectives a Merry Chase

DENVER, Feb. 17.—George Mitchell, who robbed the mail sack at Hazen, N.W., on November 28 of last year, was arrested by Pinkerton detectives in this city to-day. The prisoner had led his pursuers a merry chase through the country for three months. His loot consisted of a number of drafts sent out by members of the American Bankers' Association of Goldfield and Bullfrog.

Mitchell is a past master in the criminal art of forgery and check raising. He commenced negotiating the paper and raised funds in every city he visited. He traveled throughout the East and was on a return trip when apprehended. He is considered to be one of the shrewdest men in the business, and his capture re-
