Two More Ministers Will Surrender Their Portfolios Within Next Few Days

ALL DISLIKE DURNOVO

Retiring Ministers Will Open Campaign Against the Foe of Premier de Witte

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 19.—The disruption of the Russian Cabinet is coming to pass more speedily than was expected. Although Premier de Witte and Minister of the Interior Durnovo remain, Minister of Collections Nemecheff and Comptroller of the Empire Filossoff will follow Kuler and Timiriazoff into retirement in a few days. Finance Minister Shipoff also is said to be slated for retirement, though this is not certain.

Nemecheff has just returned from "swinging around the circle," inspecting railroads. He is said to have declared that it was impossible to maintain an efficient service while the police are imprisoning the best and most intelligent of the railroad operators, and that he quits his post in disgust. The vacancies in the Cabinet probably will be filled temporarily until the meeting of the National Assembly and in all probability by the promotion of Vice Ministers.

On leaving the Department of Commerce Timiriazoff has severed his connection with the bureaucracy and will continue as a full-fledged parliamentarian. He has been offered the leadership of the party of Commerce and Industry, one of the most important factions of the Constitutional Monarchist Federation, and will be its candidate for the National Assembly.

Freud from the Department of Cabinet secretary, the retiring Ministers purpose to train their artillery on Minister of the Interior Durnovo, whose public career is sure to offer many salient points of attack. It will be the endeavor to lay the responsibility for reaction at his door. Interesting revelations are promised this week.

SIERASTOPOLE, Feb. 19.—A court-martial here has sentenced forty-two of the mutineers of the Russian battleship "Kniaz Potemkin" to imprisonment, one of them to fifteen years. Twenty-five men were acquitted.

CHERNIKOFF, Russia, Feb. 19.—Kerenski, the man who made an attempt upon the life of Governor Knovostoff, was hanged here to-day.

Nephew of Daniel Rice, the Famous Showman, Dies in San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—Daniel Rice, a nephew of Daniel Rice, the famous showman of years ago, was buried this morning. Rice was being treated at the County Hospital at the time of his death and the body was held since Thursday for word from his relatives in the East. A telegram was received yesterday giving instructions to bury the body in the Catholic Cemetery. Father Brady conducted the services this morning at 10 o'clock.

SCHILLER CASE IS AGITATING WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA CLUB

The Schiller case is still the main topic of discussion at the California Club. The members of the board of directors will wait the decision of Judge Graham before taking action. All declare that the case of Mrs. Schiller is not a fair instance by which to judge clubwomen or the influence of club life on the home.

Declare She Is Not Representative Member.

Board of Directors Favors Waiting for Proof

Denies Organization Tends to Break Up Homes.

There is something stronger than tea brewing at the California Club these days. The old question of "Why is a woman's club?" roused by the Schiller divorce proceedings, with the accompanying side issue in the Police Courts, is at the front. Art is a dead topic in the club just now; as for literature, it has been temporarily given a seat in the balcony. Clearly subjects that were wont to stir up interest are passed by. The directors of the California Club, the most exclusive organization in womanhood, feel that the elevation of the eyebrows of the world at large in this matter is unwarranted.

With the dignity of Roman matrons of the elder day, they are awaiting the results. Inside the club there is some discussion. There are some who say, "Cast out this woman." There are others who demand that the club stand by their sister in distress.

"The directors take the dignified attitude. 'Let us wait,' they say. 'In a man's club they would not condemn a brother unheard. Why should we be in a hurry to cast stones?'"

Mrs. Schiller was not a representative club woman, they say. If her home was unhappy it was not the fault of the club. None of the ladies at the California Club ever remained in the building until the soup had boiled over at home listening to the dissertation on Japanese art or any other kind of art. It is not the custom for the average member of the California Club to tarry at a literary function until it is too late to chop the corned beef for the evening hash. Far from it. They consider the practical side of life at the California Club. They refer you to their men folk who corroborate their assertion.

Had Mrs. Schiller lived up to the ideals of the California Club, they say, there would have been no trouble in her household. They have the statistics to show that many homes have been improved and elevated by the influence of the California Club. It keeps no unseemly hours, such as have been attributed to it through this Schiller incident. The lights are out before 9 p. m., not a m.

Most of the wrath is turned upon the husband in this case because of the statements he is alleged to have made. The others are angry at the wife, whom they believe used the club in excuses for late homecomings. The entire organization is united in dislike for both in creating a scandal that has linked with it in even the most innocent way this prominent body. It is a shame that the club should have been dragged into it," is the consensus of opinion.

The directors of the California Club are waiting to hear the decision of Judge Graham in the Schiller case. Until then Mrs. Schiller will continue to be a member of the organization. The club will maintain the attitude expressed by the president, Mrs. Aylett R. Colton, in an interview given The Call of last Sunday.

SHOULD POSTPONE ACTION.

The board of directors coincides with her in the main as the following statement will show:

Mrs. E. L. Baldwin—I do not see how the club can take any action in the matter unless charges have been filed. A man's club would not do anything here of this kind. There are 330 women in this club and this is the first time that anything of this sort has happened. As a man's club it is a shame that such cases would there be?

Mrs. Richard J. Whelan—The claim said to have been made by the husband that the California Club broke up his home is utter foolishness. If his wife told him that she remained out late at the club and he believed it, he should have come around and interviewed the junior. The club has the approval of our husbands and our brothers.

Mrs. Emilia Tojetti—The California Club does not stand for the breaking up of homes. It works to make them brighter and happier. I know that the members of the California Club had ideal home lives. Mrs. Schiller was not a representative clubwoman. She has only been in the California Club since last May. She did not take any active part in the club work, so how could the club have kept her away from her home? The work of the California Club is a noble one. The club should be for the best in the home and in the community.

Mrs. C. R. Johnson—It is terrible and it is unfair that the name of the California Club should be dragged into this. Why, Mrs. Schiller was scarcely ever here and I hardly know who she is! I am not in favor of any action being taken, as there is none called for as yet. Mrs. James C. Crawford—it is a shame that the club's name has been dragged into the affair by these two people. The woman is not a representative member of the California Club. Nobody has any right to consider her case as that of a representative clubwoman. The women of the California Club are doing good work and it is a shame that this unfortunate case is held against it.

NEARLY PERISH ON MOUNT ROSE

Special Dispatch to The Call.

RENO, Feb. 19.—Dr. J. E. Church Jr., head of the Latin department of the university, and his aid had a very harrowing experience on the summit of Mount Rose, during the late storm. They reached this city to-night with the story of their narrow escape from death on the mountain.

Dr. Church left Reno the day before the storm for the purpose of making some scientific investigations on Mount Rose, which is the highest mountain peak in Nevada. While the men were on the mountain a terrible storm arose and the surroundings were completely hidden from view by the dense fog and heavy clouds. Knowing that to attempt to remain in one spot would result in death from cold and having no fuel with which to build a fire, the doctor decided to attempt to descend into the valley.

Acting on this impulse the return march was begun and soon the two men realized the fact that they were wandering around. For twelve hours they wandered around the top of the mountain, wading through snow and many times being on the point of plunging over rocky cliffs to a certain death hundreds of feet below. They were saved by a faithful dog, which apprised them of their danger. Finally the dog led them to the trail and the mist clearing away they succeeded in making their escape to the slopes of the foothills and thence to Reno.

People who try to get bilged to riches on the short line find themselves routed through to ruin.

GERMAN TARIFF BILL POPULAR

DICTATED BY POLICY

Kaiser's Government Averse to Precipitating a Trade War With United States

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—Chancellor von Bulow is confident that the Government will have an easy majority over the opposition on the bill to give the United States reciprocal tariff treaty rights for sixteen months in order to see if the United States will not agree to a new commercial treaty. The Chancellor, Count von Posadowski-Wehner, the Imperial Secretary of State for the Interior, and Herr von Delbruck, the Minister of Commerce, have talked over the subject with the Conservative, Center, Moderate-Liberal and National-Liberal leaders and, although the views of such men as Count von Kanitz, Count von Schwerin-Loewitz and Herr von Oldenburg of the two Conservative parties are by no means identical with those of the Chancellor, it is understood that his policy will find ample support even among the mild Agrarians.

The deciding reasons are those of policy, as this is not regarded as a time to engage in commercial hostilities which would be likely to lead to a political estrangement with the United States.

The quite dominant subject of the day is the Government's bill, which is printed in the papers to-day. It favors affected prices on the Bourse here and caused animation in the large provincial cities, especially Hamburg and Bremen.

PECULIAR VIEWS BAR TO WEDDING

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—Perhaps the most peculiarly interesting character ever placed behind the bars of the local jail is Edward Hummel, who was brought in from Redlands yesterday on the charge of living in apparent wedlock with pretty 18-year-old Lulu Case, yet positively refusing to procure a marriage certificate or go through the accepted legal forms of matrimony. The father of the girl caused his arrest. Hummel says:

"I have never had any trouble before anywhere, although I have lived in Redlands a greater part of three years and have to a certain extent expanded my views there. I have always said that I would refuse to swear to anything and this is the only cause of my being in jail. The terms of my marriage with Lulu are that I will not take any oath, and as I cannot get married according to the established law of man without being a lawbreaker, here I am behind the bars, although by the holiest ties I hold this young girl with whom I have lived for some time to be my wedded wife.

Moreover, did God ever intend that it should be necessary to pay $2 toward the maintenance of a plutocratic government when entering into the bonds of matrimony, man and woman? They may call me a Socialist or a fanatic, but I will prove to any man in any argument that I am right in my contentions.

Hummel says he came from St. Charles, Ill.

In the meantime the girl wife is heartbroken. She could not be driven away from the Redlands jail while he was incarcerated there. Last night after the object of her love had been transferred here, she bravely took to the road and went here this morning begging piteously, but in vain, to be allowed to see the object of her affections.

ENDS HIS LIFE IN FAR NORTH

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SEATTLE, Feb. 18.—The dead body of a man was found in an igloo on a tributary of Willow of the Casa de Pago district on November 10, by Richard Crisp, a musher on his way from Nome to Council Bluffs. The body proved to be that of James Kelly, formerly of San Francisco, who came to Chitkin and Council in 1888 with the Mermald party. He was well known in Council, where he was identified with the early history of the camp. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World and a number of other fraternal organizations in San Francisco.

Crisp states that he was overtaken by darkness, and when he saw the igloo he went in there to get out of the cold. On striking a light he found the dead man with his head thrown forward, sitting at the table. From the position of the body he judged that the dead man must have died suddenly, and the presence of a table and a bottle containing strychnine indicated that death had been occasioned by a dose from that drug.

FIND BODY OF MAN IN CAR AT COLTON

Special Dispatch to The Call.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—The body of a man supposed to be Lewis Miller from papers and cards in his possession was found in a car this morning at the Colton Fertilizer Works. The man had committed suicide. An empty bottle that had once contained morphine was found hidden under the car sill. The body was held to-day. The car in which he was found came in over the Santa Fe and was operated by the employees of the fertilizer factory. The car had been standing on the siding at Colton since Saturday. Miller was apparently 45 years of age and well dressed. He wore some valuable jewelry.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 19.—For several weeks past O. A. Hale & Co. of this city have been puzzled over the disappearance of numerous checks. Lester Harvey, 13 years of age, was given employment at the store the first week in January as a messenger boy, and according to his confession to O. A. Hale he has been opening letters entrusted to him for delivery at the postoffice, in many of which he found change that was being returned to customers. The checks he hid, and these were nearly all recovered to-day.

FRESNO UNDERTAKER AMONG THE MISSING

FRESNO, Feb. 19.—A. B. Hopkins, a well-known undertaker, has disappeared from his home here in a most mysterious manner and fears are expressed that he has committed suicide. Saturday he left for San Francisco and has not since been seen. Saturday night Mrs. Hopkins received a letter by special delivery from her husband, stating incoherently that he was in trouble and giving instructions as to the disposal of his remains and certain business matters in case anything happened to him.

Mrs. Hopkins' mother arrived from Oakland at the same time, having received a telegram from Hopkins at San Francisco, saying that her daughter was in great trouble. As Mrs. Hopkins was entirely well this is taken to refer to his own coming action.

Later more complaints were made, and it was found that Southall had forged checks on ten different firms for amounts totaling $625.85.

Southall made no denial when confronted with the checks, and immediately produced $200, which he had secreted in his shoes. He assisted in straightening out the tangle and made a full confession to the authorities. As far as is known he has no previous criminal record.

BOY WANTS COIN FROM TWO DOCTORS WHO TREATED HIM

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 19.—Dannie Danielson, a 16-year-old boy of Poway, this afternoon commenced suit in the Superior Court against Drs. J. V. Larzalere and G. M. Bumgarner, both of Escondido, to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 for alleged improper treatment of a broken leg last August. He says the physicians declared that no bones were broken and that he was suffering simply from a swelling of the muscles. The physicians, he says, caused him to remain in bed for six weeks. When he finally got out of bed the injured leg was two inches shorter than before the accident.
