

DRUGS FOR TEACHERS

President of New York Association Arrives With Relief. City to Get Part of Coin Produced by Five-Per-Cent Bill.

Magnus Gross, president of the New York City Teachers' Association, called upon Superintendent Roncovieri yesterday morning, bringing with him a draft for $10,000 for the relief of San Francisco teachers in distress.

Superintendent Roncovieri yesterday received a telegram from Representative Julius Kahn in Washington stating that the House of Representatives had just passed the 5 per cent bill, and that it now goes to the President for his signature.

Let us have Yamhill County represented in this worthy cause by permitting each pupil in the grades to give 5 cents, each high school pupil to give 10 cents, each teacher to give 25 cents, each principal to give 50 cents, the County Superintendent to give $1 and others as much more as they see fit to give.

Ask your School Clerk to receive the money and on July 2 to send it to J. F. Foster, County Treasurer, who will send it on July 4 to San Francisco as an independence day offering.

Boys, buy one bunch less of firecrackers and show your patriotic zeal by helping the boys and girls of the stricken city.

Superintendent James A. Barr of Stockton, president of the California State Teachers' Association, who has been one of the heartiest supporters of this movement since its inception, strongly favors the holding of a San Francisco day, on which donations may be made throughout the country.

It has been suggested that, as further collections for this fund must be indefinitely delayed, the sum collected be turned over to the State of California to erect a monument in Golden Gate Park, or now considering the advisability of giving over that money for the erection of such a monument in front of the new Lincoln School.

Superintendent Roncovieri reports that he has received the additional sums of $10 from Keith Parlor No. 133, N. D. G. W., the originator of the plan of interesting the women's clubs of the country in this movement.

Miss Mary Very, corresponding secretary of the South Park Settlement Mothers' Club, has sent $5 to Mr. Roncovieri, as the Settlement's school reconstruction contribution.

Superintendent of Schools Alfred Roncovieri, chairman of the executive committee of twenty-five appointed by Mayor Schmitz to prepare for a noiseless Fourth of July celebration at Golden Gate Park, is making arrangements for an immense chorus of school children who will sing patriotic songs under the direction of Miss Estelle Carpenter, supervisor of music.

The children of all public and parochial schools are requested to meet Miss Carpenter, supervisor of music, to practice for the Fourth of July celebration which is to be held in Golden Gate Park.

All children on the north side of Market street will meet in Pacific Heights School, Jackson street, near Fillmore.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grade children will meet on Tuesday, June 26, at 10 o'clock.

The seventh and eighth grade children and high school scholars will meet on Thursdays, June 28, at 10 o'clock.

The children on the south side of Market street will meet in Haight School, on Mission street, near Twenty-fifth, at 10 o'clock.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grade children will meet on Wednesday, June 27, at 10 o'clock; the seventh and eighth grade and the high school scholars will meet on Friday, June 29, at 10 o'clock.

It is especially requested that the children who graduated on June 2 will attend rehearsals, and also that some of the teachers will volunteer to be present.

The children are asked to learn the words of "America," "Star Spangled Banner," "My Own United States," and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

Wilfred Clarke Heads New Bill Which Opens Sunday Afternoon.

Nita Allen and Company Will Present Comedy of Merit.

Wilfred Clarke, one of the most popular vaudeville comedians that ever faced a vaudeville audience, will head the new bill at the Orpheum Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Clarke and his leading lady, Theo Carew, are favorites here and they are bound to receive a welcome in their new comedietta, "What Will Happen Next," described as a veritable whirlwind of merriment.

Another important engagement is that of Miss Nita Allen and her company, who will present Will M. Cressy's latest one-act comedy, "Car 3, State-room 1," written in this author's happiest vein. The action takes place on the "Oval" train between this city and Los Angeles and elaborate scenic effects are carried for the production.

Miss Allen, who is a former San Franciscan, numbers among her company Dr. Frank Rodolph, who has taken the stage name of Frank Erwin, and whose fine baritone voice has often been heard at society and charity functions in this city.

Cliff Gordon, "the German politician," promises a monologue as amusing as it is original. As a mutilator of the English language Mr. Gordon has few equals and his talk is said to be very funny.

The brothers Damm are muscular marvels and perform astonishing feats of strength and dexterity. When last here five years ago they made a big hit.

LOOKING ABOUT FOR NEW HOME Notice to Vacate School Is Now in Hands of Health Board.

Official notification to vacate the Durant School was received by the Board of Health at its regular meeting yesterday morning from the Board of Education, which says the school building will be needed by the first of July.

The communication was filed. While no committee was appointed to seek a new home, it is understood that President Ward has that matter in charge and will report as soon as he finds a desirable location.

G. E. Lick, secretary of the Lick and Wilmerding Improvement Club, filed a resolution recently adopted indorsing the action of the Board of Health in condemning the sanitary reduction works and protesting against the works being allowed to rebuild in that locality.

The secretary states that the locality is used as a residence section and that it is not appropriate for the reduction works to be in that section of the city. Dr. Ward was instructed to investigate.

C. J. Lawton protested against the establishment of a stable on Fulton street, near Gough, and the matter was referred to Health Officer Ragan.

Upon the request of the California Medical College Drs. G. A. Mearcle and H. S. Martin were appointed as inspectors at the City and County Hospital. Drs. J. G. Noble and G. L. Lynch were appointed as internes at the same hospital from the College of Physicians and Surgeons and Drs. Joseph Butler and H. R. Dunn as externs.

On motion of Dr. Harvey an ordinance will be requested of the Board of Supervisors providing for the removal of persons afflicted with contagious or infectious diseases.

Joseph Collins and Mae E. Baley, having finished the course as nurses at the City and County Hospital, were granted diplomas.

Only Two Out of Five Buildings Are Now Fit for Use.

Lick and Other Private Institutions Are in Condition.

What will the lads and the lassies of the high schools do when the 23d of next month arrives? This is another of the many knotty propositions the School Department is striving to solve.

Before the catastrophe there were five public preparatory schools. Now there are only two fit for habitation, and one of these, the Lowell High, had been condemned before April 18.

The Polytechnic High and Commercial High are things of the past, and, according to the report of the experts, the magnificent Girls' High School at the corner of Geary and Scott streets, is rent from top to bottom uncracked beyond repair.

At the last meeting of the board of directors of the Board of Education it was decided to allow the girls of the Girls' High School partial use of the adjoining Hamilton Grammar School. This seemed to take load off the shoulders of the board, but today Superintendent Roncovieri declares: "It would not be right for a high school to usurp the privileges of a grammar school. I don't see how the matter can be adjusted along those lines."

This would seem to indicate that the girls will have to look further for accommodations. Lowell will undoubtedly be conducted as formerly, with a decided increase in attendance. Everything connected with the Polytechnic has gone to feed the flames, and Roncovieri has written to the Supto help to see what is to be done and also to the regents of the University of California with the idea of locating the institution temporarily in the Affiliated Colleges.

Mission High was not damaged to any appreciable extent by the quake and will be able to resume its functions. The Commercial High School had a small attendance in comparison to the other high schools, but performed an important duty in the education of girls for commercial activity.

Nothing has been done or suggested for the future of this institution. Although the free private preparatory schools are intact, The California School of Mechanical Arts, located in the Potrero, was unharmed, as the buildings had been planned to withstand earthquakes.

The Wilmerding School is also in first-class condition and because of its exclusive devotion to instruction in industrial arts it will be in large demand to equip the coming generation for the task of rebuilding the city.

The Cogswell Polytechnic College, far out on Folsom street, escaped with slight loss and is capable of enrolling a large number of students in academic and industrial branches.

BOARD DISPOSES OF OLD METALS

Remains of Buildings Purchased by George W. Emmons Co.

The Board of Education met yesterday morning at the unfinished quarters of the School, 1224 Broadway, and considered bids and contracts for the junk representing all that is left of the schools in the burned zone.

The highest bidder was the George W. Emmons Draying Company, which agreed to pay $4 a ton of 2240 pounds for iron. For copper they bid $240, for iron $100 for brass, but it is unlikely that any amount of either of these metals will be found, as looters have been active.

In fact, thieves have pilfered to such a marked extent from the school property that the board has issued a permit to the contractors who are to remove the debris and has notified the Police Department to arrest any one found hauling material from the various sites who has no permit.

W. L. Hartman was next highest bidder, offering $3.10 per 2000 pounds for scrap iron and $2.45 for steel. Max Groves bid $3 for cast iron and $2.65 for steel and wrought iron. The other bidders were: J. J. B. Co., $2.70 per ton for scrap iron and $1.80 for scrap steel and wrought iron.

At the afternoon session the Police Department was granted permission to erect a building on the school property at Clara and Fourth streets, to remain one year. Miss Elver H. Elder was retired and voted eligible for the teachers' annuity fund. Miss Lena Hanson was granted leave of absence from July 1 to the beginning of the spring term.

McLAREN MUST APPROVE.—John McLaren, Park Superintendent, addressed a letter yesterday to the Board of Education, stating that all plans for buildings to be erected in the public park must have his approval.
