Both Men Undergo a Very Severe Questioning. Proclamation Calls on All Japanese to Aid in Trailing Assassins.

his companion before them. He was also given a thorough going over. It is believed that the local officers do not know this man as a criminal. His name is still being held back, and it is known that Wren is in communication with the police of the Eastern cities, whom he hopes will be able to identify the suspect.

Childs' partner is a well-built man about 5 feet 10 inches in height and weighs in the neighborhood of 175 pounds. He is of light complexion, and when arrested was attired in a light gray suit and light hat. He is noticeable for his long, bushy hair.

What disposition Wren has made of Childs and his partner is not known. Both men were quietly smuggled out of the detective's office before night-fall last night. It is known that they were separated, as the police are determined to question the men further.

It is known that Childs and the stranger were paraded through various streets of the city yesterday, closely followed by sleuths. The police in doing this resorted to an ancient trick of the trade in the hope that the men would be approached by confederates and another clue to other suspicious characters obtained. No one save Childs and his partner and the detectives know whether this ruse worked or failed.

The police practically admitted last night that they had been on the trail of Childs ever since the crime. They gave out from day to day that they had a line on a notorious criminal and hoped to land him at any moment. There are so many of these persons roaming the streets of the city at the present time that the identity of the man sought was not suspected.

ARREST OF CHILD.

The arrest of Childs and his associate came about in a peculiar way. Patrolmen, who know the notorious convict well, spied him and his confederate skulking in the vicinity of the Japanese quarter ten days or two weeks before the murder and robbery. Whenever Childs dodges around any certain neighborhood those who know him look for trouble, so the criminal and his companion were closely watched for many days.

It was noted that Childs and his companion seemed to have a liking for Japanese poolrooms, saloons, cigar stores and other places where the little brown men are wont to congregate. The suspects were seen to enter and leave these places at all hours of the day and night and appeared to be very familiar with the surroundings and the lay of the land.

Childs and his confederate were very anxious to make the acquaintance of every Japanese who was disposed to talk at all. They finally became very friendly with a great many of the thrifty little fellows and were always bent on securing information from their new-found acquaintances, but were careful to do this in an off-handed way so as not to arouse suspicion.

On the afternoon of the murder Childs and his companion disappeared. This fact was noted by the informants of the police. A diligent search failed to reveal the whereabouts of the two men. This aroused suspicion and when Wren received the information he nearly jumped out of his chair, for Childs was the very man he had been searching the city for, and the fact that the ex-convict had been seen in the Japanese quarter strengthened the belief of the acting captain that Childs could furnish a valuable clue.

KNOWN AMONG JAPANESE.

Detectives were sent into the Japanese quarter and worked on this end of the case. As they expected, Childs and the mysterious big man were known to many of the little brown men in the Japanese quarter. They told of their visits, of their questions, and finally of their mysterious disappearance on the day of the shocking crime.

Now the police are firmly convinced that Childs and the stranger were simply working the Japanese quarter to secure information. Childs is a polished crook, who talks well and is capable of mixing with any class. Thus it was easy for him to win the good graces of the unsuspecting Japanese and secure from them valuable information.

Childs and his companion were often seen to enter and leave a house in the neighborhood of Steiner and Sutter streets. They seemed to have free access to this place, for they were wont to come and go at all hours of the day and night. The police are inclined to believe that the men lived there.

Childs' associate was seen carrying a suit case out of the house a couple of days before the robbery and murder. The case was evidently empty, for the man swung it with careless ease.

The two suspects were seen in the vicinity of this house the day before the crime at the bank. The police are sure they have resided there for some time. They refused to say last night whether or not they have visited the house, though it is believed they have.

CHILD'S WELL KNOWN.

Childs is known from ocean to ocean as one of the most desperate criminals that ever turned a trick or did time in the penitentiary. His record is at the fingers' ends of every Chief of Police in the United States, and he has been followed and shadowed by detectives everywhere.

He and the daring Piggott were confederates for years. They did not stop to commit any crime in order to gain money without working for it. Childs did a seven and a half year term in San Quentin for robbery some years ago and since that time he has been under Proclamation issued by the Japanese Society of San Francisco. A translation of the document, which was published exclusively in The Call of Friday, is as follows:

"To the Japanese of San Francisco: In the murder of M. Murakata and the assault on A. Sasaki by the thieves who looted the Kinmon Ginko on Wednesday, Japanese have been the victims of one of the cruellest and most reprehensible crimes ever perpetrated on our countrymen in the United States. Picture for a moment the incomparable malignity of it: Inveighed into believing that they were dealing legitimately with Americans, they were lured into corners by thugs who for weeks had been tricking them into confidence and there beaten into unconsciousness and abandoned for dead. Then their murderers made off, passing out into the sunlit street with their plunder, while the life blood of their victims was welling.

"It is the opinion of the Japanese Society of San Francisco that Chief of Police Dinan and the police force of San Francisco will exert every effort to bring these criminals to justice; but the society would also emphasize the fact that it is the duty of all Japanese in San Francisco to become personally interested in these efforts and do all in their power to aid in their apprehension.

"Any information that might furnish additional clues to those already in possession of the police and the society should be immediately reported to us.

"Adopted on the 4th day of the 10th month of the 39th year of Meiji."

any inspired the confidence of Captain Wren in the young man.

Yesterday morning Charles E. Herman, a barber employed by Charles Witte & Sons, 1756 O'Farrell street, reported to the police that within an hour after the murder on Wednesday a young man of the appearance of the portrait of the arrested man published in yesterday's Call went to his shop to be shaved. The customer was nervous. He had a tawny complexion of several days' growth on his face. The barber suspected that he might have been the man wanted by the police, but his closer description of the man does not fit that of either of the murderers as being an exception to the rule was illustrated by the elaborate attire those who saw them enter the bank before the commission of the crime.

Japanese Bank Teller Continues Delirious and Reason Is Likely Gone Forever.

Up to a late hour this morning A. Sasaki, the Japanese bank teller who was wounded by the robbers Wednesday, was still delirious, and it is the opinion of the doctors who are attending him that he will never fully recover his reason, in which case he will never be able to assist the police in directing their work of bringing the criminals to justice.

Whether Sasaki will really regain his physical health is a matter of some uncertainty, but the physicians express an opinion that he will be able to walk about again at some future time. He seems to recognize no one who calls to see him, and at times lies quite unconscious, while at other times he talks incoherently.

Every effort has been made by the doctors to bring Sasaki back to his reason, and for a long time it was believed that this would be accomplished and that he would be able to inform the police of the details of the attack and to give some description of his assailants, but this hope has almost been given up.

Curious Chinese Ideograph on Blood-Smudged Laundry Interests Police.

A Chinese ideograph of eccentric inflections that is stamped on a bundle of blood-smudged laundry divided the attention of Captain of Detectives Wren and his men yesterday afternoon following the sweating of the suspect that had engaged them all morning. What Wren expects to prove by the strangely characterized brush marks on the laundry he is closely guarding, but that he regards as being of exceptional interest was illustrated by the elaborate attire those who saw them enter the bank before the commission of the crime.

Every effort has been made by the doctors to bring Sasaki back to his reason, and for a long time it was believed that this would be accomplished and that he would be able to inform the police of the details of the attack and to give some description of his assailants, but this hope has almost been given up.

Wren Laughs at Silly Story of a Negro Being Involved in Banker's Murder.

Captain of Detectives Wren laughed yesterday at the idea that a negro may be involved in the murder and robbery.

All of our efforts have been expended in running down white men in this crime," he said. "There is no doubt as to the color of the criminals. They are neither black nor yellow. We have certain information on this score."

BEATEN BY FOOTPADS.

Belated Pedestrian Is Attacked While on His Way Home.

John Shea, an employe of the Globe Milling Company, who lives at 2900 Dupont street, was held up at 1 o'clock yesterday morning at the corner of Francisco and Powell streets. He was set upon by three men, who beat him on the head until he was unconscious. Shea does not recall what happened afterward, but when he regained consciousness his money was gone.

Shea's injuries, while painful, are not serious.

FUNERAL OF BANKER HELD.

The funeral of Banker Murakata, who was murdered last night at the Golden Gate Bank, was held yesterday from undertaking parlors at 1868 Geary street. Consul Uyeno and a big gathering of Japanese attended the funeral. The remains were cremated and the ashes will be sent to the dead banker's home in Japan in a bronze urn.

itus, where the Santa Clara commission is working, indicate that the former rebels in that province are not yet entirely reconciled to disarmament and General Machado has reported that volunteers fired on a rebel camp, causing a serious drawback to the operations. In a fight today a former rebel killed a comrade and fled to the mountains.

The battalions Indiana and Kentucky will leave here tomorrow for New England.

REBELS ARE THREATENING.

Ride About the Towns of Guinez and Quizar Waving Machetes.

HAVANA, Oct. 7.—Reports received late tonight from Guinez and Quizar declare that disbanded rebels are riding about these towns and waving their machetes in a threatening manner. General Pustun will go to Guinez tomorrow morning. The members of the disarming commission from Santa Clara, accompanied by Jose Miguel Gomez, Garcia Garric, former Speaker of the House of Representatives, and other military officials, will leave for entry to Trinidad, this evening. There are 1500 insurgents camped outside Trinidad, while in the town there are thirty rural guardsmen and 175 volunteers still with their arms. In order to avoid a clash the revolutionists are not entering the town. The disarmament will take place tomorrow. The members of the commission and Jose Miguel Gomez were given a banquet at Trinidad last night.

The city of Pinar del Rio reports absolute quiet.

The last organized body of rebels in Havana Province was disbanded this evening at Alquizar, when 350 members of the disarming commission, ministered by General Castillo, turned over 180 guns to Major Ladd of the disarmament commission.

The police at Guiera were disbanded today. The Mayor or Guiera has requested the presence of twenty American soldiers, who will be sent there tomorrow.

The preliminaries of an organization to be called the Good Government League of Cuba were begun this afternoon at a meeting of Americans, Cubans, and others, at which resolutions were passed to the effect that the purpose of the association should be "the promoting by all legitimate means the maintenance of a permanent, stable and lawful government, competent to administer justice, insure domestic tranquillity, promote the general welfare and insure the blessings of liberty to all the inhabitants of the island."

While there was no expression to that effect, the movement generally is expected to be eventually controlled by American control or oversight in Cuban affairs than is vouchsafed by the Platt amendment.

REFUSE TO HANDLE 'AMERICAN.'

Retreat Unfairly by Hearst, Chicago Newsboys Take Action.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Claiming that the Hearst papers had broken faith with them, the News Carriers' and Newsboys' associations of Chicago at a joint meeting last night refused to handle the Chicago American. The news dealers assert that the action of the American in raising the price of papers, accompanied by the refusal to permit the dealers to raise the retail price, was done for the purpose of adding to Hearst's campaign fund in New York. "The increase in the wholesale price would mean a loss of several thousand dollars to the dealers."

Up to the present time the wholesale price of the American has been 50 cents per hundred and the publishers now propose to charge an additional 10 cents per hundred. The dealers claim that at a selling price of 1 cent the proposed increase would wipe out the profit.

In reply to the demands of the dealers the publishers offered to authorize their agents to charge 30 cents a hundred for their regular customers. The present price is 26 cents and the Sunday edition is not included in the schedule the boys claim that they would lose their trade if such an increase were demanded.

"They are trying to break up our union," shouted H. W. Libman, a member of the committee. "The Hearst papers have tried to down us ever since we organized. Hearst broke up the Carriers' Union in New York and he is trying to do the same thing here. His friend in the editorial page, but his business policies oppose the laboring man."

FINE DISPLAY OF LIVESTOCK.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 7.—The eighth annual American livestock show will open here tomorrow. The show will last all week. There are entries of upward of 700 breeding cattle, 100 steers, 60 carloads of fat and feeding cattle, 250 draft, coach and hackney horses, including a string of eight wards of the state of King of England, and 700 hogs, sheep and goats.

ENTIRE TOWN DOOMED.

CAPE MAY POINT, N. J., Oct. 7.—Fire which originated tonight in the Cape May Hotel is sweeping this town. There is no fire department, and it has been ascertained that the Cape May Hotel is temporarily expected from that city. The buildings already destroyed are the Peckham cottage, Cape House, the largest hotel in the town, the public school building and several small cottages.

Provisional Governor Magoon and Party Will Take Steamer at Tampa.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 7.—Provisional Governor Charles E. Magoon and Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the army, passed through Jacksonville today en route to Tampa to take the steamer for Havana, where they will arrive Tuesday morning. Accompanying them were Colonel Valery Havard, assistant chief surgeon in Cuba; Colonel Blair D. Taylor, surgeon; Major Downey, chief paymaster; Major D. G. Gallard, corps of cavalry; Major Foltz of the Fifteenth Cavalry; Captain Geddes of the medical corps; Captain Spinks of the pay department; Captain W. M. Wright, adjutant general; several non-commissioned officers and a party of civilian employes.

Mrs. Taft, wife of the Secretary of War, and Mrs. Bacon, wife of the assistant Secretary of State, were in the party. The train was two hours late in arriving here.

Two Squadrons of Troops Leave on the Transport Panama.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 7.—With two squadrons of headquarters troops and the band of the Fifteenth Regiment aboard the United States transport Panama sailed this morning for Havana. Major General Charles T. Whipple left on this ship, taking with him $27,000 to pay off the soldiers now in Cuba. Pastor Says He Wouldn't Stencil Because He Wouldn't Have To.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In his sermon today Dr. Madison C. Peters of the Baptist Church of the Epiphany, Madison avenue and Sixty-fourth street, talked concerning the political situation.

"To be an officer of the city government," he said, "should be a trust as sacred as that of deacon; the needs of the state should be as religiously considered as the affairs of the church. The purpose of the city government should be good citizens. Politics and religion should be mixed if you have the religion to mix."

The present uprising of the people is a might protest against accumulating property by legalized robbery by which a few appropriate what the millions earn. I am not making statements any stronger than the President of the United States has made in his indictments of the criminal trusts.

"Mr. Hughes is no more wanted by the politicians than is Mr. Roosevelt; Mr. Hughes stands for all that is best and clean in politics; his declination of contributions from the corporations indicates very plainly his own position."

"The Government at Albany needs reform from top to bottom; the departments are reeking with rottenness; the insurance department, the banking department and the Railroad Commission—these are offices which have made men rich and which have scandalized our State as much as Tammany our city. Members of the Legislature who have regularly sold their votes to the corporations have been permitted to remain wealthy on small salaries. The Augean Stables of the capitol need a thorough cleaning and a Hercules is in demand."

Neither Mr. Hearst or Mr. Hughes will be Governor of the State. The administration of the affairs of the State, Mr. Hearst does not have to steal and Mr. Hughes won't steal."

One of the lines of the last paragraph in order to learn Rev. Mr. Peters' real opinion of Hearst.

BLAMED FOR OUTRAGES.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Tangier correspondent of the Times says that the recent assaults upon Europeans, including the German Consular Agent at Morocco City, were committed by followers of MacLain and are a direct result of the Sultan's astounding infatuation "for this uneducated and fanatical man, who hates everything European."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry today ordered the battleship Wisconsin to convoy to San Francisco the steamship Manchuria which recently went on the rocks in the Hawaiian Islands. The Manchuria is able to proceed under her own steam, but her owners feel that in her crippled condition it is unsafe for her to proceed alone. The convoy duty will delay the Wisconsin somewhat, but not seriously.

When about to travel, if subject to headache, nervousness, dizziness, or car-sickness, take one or two doses of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills before starting. They will insure you against an attack.

There are a great many who are sure to have headache, whenever they go to church or places of amusement, or where there is any excitement or oppression. Take them with you, and on the first indication, take a tablet and see how quickly it will disappear. To such persons Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a great blessing. They soothe the nerves and allay irritation and excitement.

"We always keep Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in our home, and find them a remarkable remedy for the most severe headache, but one is usually sufficient. By taking a Pain Pill before going out to places of amusement, we find we do not have those distressing headaches that formerly came with every little excitement."
