

"BELL WASNER," SAYS BELL TO PEOPLE.

Democratic Nominee Tells Voters of Whittier That He Will Not Be Bossed

OUTDOOR GATHERING

By C. A. Horne.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL. WHITTIER, Oct. 10.—Before an audience of two-thirds of the 600 voters of Whittier, Theodore A. Bell expounded tonight the issue of his campaign. Keeping to the single point of railroad control of legislation, he promised his hearers that if he were elected Governor he would give them an administration that would not have any agent of the Southern Pacific as its master.

Although he was preceding the most other speakers and it was an outdoor meeting, at which those who listened were compelled to stand, Bell held their attention to the end.

One of the features of the meeting was the speech of W. L. Porterfield, a banker of Long Beach and the president of the local branch of the Home Telephone Company. Porterfield is a long Republican, but when he heard Bell's speech at Long Beach he made up his mind to vote for him and publicly expressed the determination at tonight's meeting.

Bell spent the forenoon visiting the merchants of Long Beach. In one bank he found that every officer from the president down was going to vote for him. "Ninety per cent of the business men with whom I have talked in Los Angeles are going to vote for me, irrespective of party lines," Bell says. "and you may say I am convinced I will carry the city of Los Angeles. In regard to the whole southern territory, I am not yet prepared to speak, but the vote in Los Angeles County will be close."

Leaving Los Angeles at 2 o'clock, Bell came here by electric car, going first to the Whittier School, he being the first candidate for Governor to have visited that institution. He was greeted by Superintendent George W. Dyer and by the school band of thirty pieces. After an examination of the buildings the nominee was led to the platform of the chapel, where he found himself facing 400 boys from 8 to 10 years old. It is a question which was most interesting in the other, the distinguished visitor or the boys, whose faces changed from gay to grave as Bell told them first an amusing incident of his experience as a student in the Whittier school, and then a story of one downfall did not mean that a man was out of life's race. In the girls' department Bell met a girl who had been saved from San Quentin by his efforts and who will soon go to the State Normal School. Father Edwards of St. Joseph's parish also addressed these pupils. He wore a Bell button and spoke of Bell as the next Governor.

After the visit to the school the party was taken for a drive through the surrounding orange orchards and at 7 a banquet was served at the hotel, at which twenty-five Democrats were guests with Bell.

The meeting tonight was held in the main street, a stand having been erected for the speakers. The first to be introduced to the audience was W. L. Porterfield, who delivered a short campaign speech which was the occasion of considerable comment and that he had never before seen such disgraceful proceedings as were enacted at the Santa Cruz convention.

The following is the itinerary of the Democratic candidates as far as it has been arranged: Tomorrow night, Riverside; October 12, Santa Ana; October 13, Colton and Redlands; October 14, San Bernardino; October 15, San Bernardino; October 16, San Bernardino; October 17, Upland and Ontario; October 18, Pomona; October 19, Pasadena.

On Saturday, the 20th, Bell will stop at some point between here and San Francisco and will then return to Los Angeles. He will spend the following two weeks in the counties near San Francisco, returning to Los Angeles for a closing rally on Saturday evening, November 3.

LOSES THE SPEAKERSHIP. Through some mishap not yet explained, Rufef has lost his chance for naming the Speaker of the Assembly. This distinguished official will choose the committee where the work is handled. Rufef had George McGowan as his first choice, but McGowan declined the nomination. Even Rufef wouldn't have the astounding assurance to suggest any other in his bunch of legislative beauties for the place, so it looks as if the Speaker will be selected from the ranks of the Democrats.

The Bush-street boss is striving his utmost to overcome this handicap. With eighteen Assemblymen and nine Senators from San Francisco he has a force formidable enough to be recognized, and his purpose is to control this delegation completely without influence from Herin. This year this control will have meaning only in reference to the lobby. Two years hence it may determine whether or not Rufef will grace California as her junior representative in the United States Senate.

Among the measures that will be introduced at the approaching session of the Legislature and one that will probably recommend itself as just, is a bill growing out of the outrages perpetrated by the insurance companies that operated in this city. As a matter of fact there will be a group of these bills, and the first of them is the endorsement of Insurance Commissioner Wolf. One of the most important, if it becomes a law, will force the insurance companies to make a correct appraisal of insured property at the time when the risk is assumed and not after. This will prevent the rascally quibbling and evasion that have cheated so many of the insured out of what was justly due them.

PLANS RALLY AT SAN JOSE. Republican County Committee Makes Arrangements for Campaign. SAN JOSE, Oct. 10.—The Republican county central committee decided this afternoon that the rally for the State and Congressional ticket should be held on October 24. The meeting will be addressed by James N. Gillette, Warren Porter, Congressman E. A. Hayes and Congressman J. C. Needham. The hall where the meeting will be held has not yet been selected. It may be either at the Victory Theater or the Redmond Theater.

Next Monday evening there will be a composite legislative and State rally at Los Gatos. The State central committee has suggested the name of Colonel J. J. Eddy as that of the principal speaker at that meeting. The committee outlined plans for a vigorous and thorough campaign throughout the entire county. Candidates and members of the committee from various sections of the county were present and gave encouraging reports.

EUREKA TO TALK FOR GILLETT. OREKA, Oct. 10.—Fletcher A. Cutler, law partner of J. N. Gillett, Republican nominee for Governor, will address the citizens of Blue Lake Saturday night on Gillett's labor record. The meeting will be non-political, except in so far as it concerns the next Governor. It is interesting to note that Cutler is a former Democrat, was once in the Democratic party, and once ran for Congress and for some

RAEF'S HIGH REGARD FOR PUBLIC MORALITY

Abel Ruef is lettering a new slate that may hit the people of California into a realization that their citizenship involves a few duties and responsibilities. The Bush-street boss is determined to name the members of the committee on morals of the lower house of the Legislature, which measure is one of the most important in the august body which will be chosen to make for us some of our laws and unmake others. Before this committee was named some of the most vituperative measures of proposed legislation and to it will be submitted several of the most serious clinch bills which the craft of the politicians can conceive.

Ruef's high regard for public morality is of course an inspiration in this instance. Public morality is about all that seems to have overlooked in his campaign to govern our affairs. With Mayors, absentees and acting, at his command, with commissioners everywhere, Ruef has some of the most powerful in his grasp and Judges, actual and prospective, at his office door, it is not amiss he should grasp at the Legislature and its enforcements. He is lettering his slate before he sees the handwriting on the wall.

To a man of Ruef's orderly and sensitive disposition the management of affairs legislative at the last session was depressing. The clumsy error that occurred in the case of the bill to amend the Emmons and Emmons to jail and Wright to South Africa would have been impossible if the lobby was rightly organized. Ruef intends to see that the organization of the third session is absolutely up to the most approved standard.

PREPARING CINCH BILLS. And the lobby at the approaching session of the Legislature will be such as to make glad the hearts of the gentlemen who for health's sake and the State's well being swallow the marshmallow of the lobbyist. Every vested interest in the State, legitimate and illegitimate, will have to call at the captain's office. Corporations good and bad, insurance companies, race-track operators, railroads, directors of companies and everybody else who has more money than the law reasonably allows will know early in January that something is doing at the State capital.

They would know it now if they would go to the office of the bill makers, for the process of preparing cinches has commenced. One of the most sweeping that will be presented to the Legislature and referred to the committee on public morals is a Sabbath law, so-called. This measure is ostensibly designed to prevent us from going wrong on Sunday. In reality it is a scatter gun that is expected to bring to earth every theatrical man, director of companies and everybody else who has more money than the law reasonably allows will know early in January that something is doing at the State capital.

As a law this benign measure will close on Sunday every place of amusement in the State. As for the lobby, it is expected that the Supervisors of San Mateo County will look upon the bill as an intruder on their reservation of special privilege and golden opportunity. The bill probably will not come to a vote, but will live in the deliberations of the third house.

Then, again, a race track war is brooding in Los Angeles. It may not hatch without assistance, but all who are concerned in the matter will induce the rest of us to play the ponies will have to spend a few anxious days at Sacramento. From every point of view the prospect is rosy for a lobby more powerful than any that has disgraced California.

ONE TELLS OF PROFITS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 10.—After having evaded the United States customs and immigration officers for more than two weeks the schooner yacht Frolic, which left Placentia, N. F., with a cargo of contraband Chinese immigrants, was boarded in the Providence harbor today and confiscated in the name of the United States Government. Portuguese members of the crew were placed under arrest, they being the only persons found on board the boat, while seventeen Chinese, believed to have been smugglers on the Frolic, were also arrested.

The Frolic entered the harbor in broad daylight at 10 o'clock yesterday. Despite the vigilance of the coast guards and the revenue cutters from Maine to Cape Hatteras the schooner came up the harbor without attracting any attention, those who saw her taking her for a fishing schooner.

It was by the purest accident that it was discovered the schooner was at an early hour this morning a man employed at the coal pockets stumbled over two Chinese huddled on the wharf of the coal yard. He was about to eject them from the premises when some one on board the schooner cried out: "Don't bother those fellows. I will look after them."

The workman reported to the office of the company and the revenue cutters to the night watchman, who in turn informed the police of what had happened. Officers were dispatched to the scene and in a short time the Frolic was confiscated.

Edward K. Jenkins, William A. Duncan and John C. Lehmann of Boston, connected with the smugglers, who were arrested later, were brought before the United States court here and spent in jail in default of $2500 bail each.

Lehmann stated that the smuggling of Chinese into New England States has been carried on for years and that he had been in the business for an expedition like that of the Frolic netted about $15,000.

MAY DECIDE TO BE MARRIED HERE. Speculation Concerning the Wedding of Miss Ide and Cockran Next Month

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—No time has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Annie Ide, daughter of former Governor General Ide of the Philippines, and Bourke Cockran. Friends of Miss Ide in Washington are awaiting the announcement with keen interest, as it is rumored that California and not Washington has been selected as the scene of the wedding. It is understood the coronation will be held some time in November and that final details await the arrival in San Francisco of General Ide.

The most interested friends of the New York Congressman and Miss Ide are those who were members of the famous Taft party to the Philippines. They are anxious the ceremony should take place in the city where they might be given an opportunity to take part as they did in the wedding of Miss Alice Roosevelt and Representative Longworth and also the marriage of Mrs. C. S. Hoey and Representative Shirley, the other two couples who were brought to the altar last through the influence of that famous trip.

RAISES POINT OF LAW. Attorney William E. Cowan Questions Method of Filing Nominations for Office. SANTA ROSA, Oct. 10.—Attorney William E. Cowan, whose nomination for a position on the Appellate Court bench by the Democratic central committee, was not filed with the Secretary of State within the time allowed by law for nominations for State officers, declares that there is no law requiring such a filing and that the failure to do so will not be a bar to his figure in his case. According to the law as read here, the certificate has to be filed in the county of the candidate's residence and by the County Clerk of that county, and certified to by all of the other county clerks in counties within the district. This being done, then each of the county clerks in the district in the preparation of the ballots, must place the candidate's name on the respective ballots. The filing of the certificate of nomination of the Appellate Judges with the Secretary of State has been simply a matter of caution and not one of necessity.

CRUISER'S CRUICEST IS TODAY.

SWIFT WARSHIP CALIFORNIA MUST SHOW SHE HAS ENDURANCE WITH HER SPEED FOUR HOURS' SPRINT

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL. SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 10.—The supreme test of the new cruiser California will come tomorrow, when the vessel will be sent out on a four-hour's endurance run. The California has already proved herself a sprinter, a veritable groundhog of the sea, and it now remains to be proved whether she can go the distance. Those who watched the vessel's performance during the standardization trials Tuesday have no doubt of her ability to live up to the contract requirements to the letter and believe that the cruiser's great engines will make the required number of revolutions during the four hours' tests without trouble.

By her standardization trials the California has established the fact that she is one of the greatest cruisers of her class. The average of the five high speed runs was over half a knot better than the required twenty-two knots and her fastest run was almost a knot in excess of the speed which the contract called for. Neither the Union Iron Works representatives nor the members of the trial board had much to say prior to the final test, but it is easy to see that all who are connected with the trial trip are enthusiastic over the performance of the big ship. The way in which she reeled off the knots was a surprise, even to those who were most interested in the success of the latest addition to the navy.

All day today the California lay at her anchorage, while the firemen were taking a much needed and well-earned rest. The engine room was kept tuned up for the endurance run. There are a number of minor adjustments and repairs to be made to the engines after the great strain to which they were subjected Tuesday, but when the California weighs anchor at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning and puts out to sea, she will be tuned to the hour.

The vessel will probably steam west for thirty miles and will then turn and weigh anchor at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning and puts out to sea, she will be tuned to the hour.

CHORISTER FALLS TO HER DEATH. Drops Four Stories From the Sill of a Window in a New York Hostel

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Miss Florence McDonald, 26 years old, a member of the chorus in the "Blue Moon" company, now playing at a downtown theatre, was killed early today by falling out of a fourth-story window in the Windsor-Clifton Hotel. She plunged into an air-raft and her body struck the heavy plate glass roofing of the roof, which was broken by the fall. The only witness to the accident was Miss M. de Bohner, a member of the same theatrical company. Miss de Bohner told the police that Miss McDonald had come to her room with the intention of eating a light luncheon and that while sitting on the window sill and she lost her balance.

Miss McDonald was known on the stage as Florence Raymond. Her home was at 166 Essex street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Although the police expressed themselves satisfied with the story told by Miss de Bohner, she was placed under arrest, but was released two hours later.

ALLEGED BRIBER DISCHARGED. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 10.—H. C. Vignes, a deputy sheriff, charged with attempting to buy votes at the recent Republican county primary, was discharged from custody today, the indictment against him having been declared invalid by reason of the fact that the man whom it was charged he had attempted to bribe was not a legal voter in the precinct where it was claimed Vignes desired him to vote. The man whom Vignes was accused of attempting to bribe, and who caused his arrest, was Harry Carr, a local newspaper reporter.

AKRON SCHOOL FUNDS SHORT. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 10.—A report of the examination of the school funds of Akron, made by S. C. Young today, states that Fred E. ORIENT WADED BY UPPER'S BODY MAY URGES UPLIFTING DREAD MALADIES. BE RECOVERED. OF NEGROES. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—"Such men as Holden Smith, John Temple Graves, Vardaman and Tillman ought not to be able to obtain any service from a colored man," said Oswald G. Villard in an address before the Afro-American council now in session here. Villard also declared that in his opinion no negro should think of contributing as much as 1 cent to the support of the anti-negro newspapers in Georgia. He urged the negroes to organize, to band together for defense and to fight for their rights. "The time is ripe for serving notice on the country," he said, "that further action in any section of the land to degrade the negro to a servile position, to create that impossible thing, a republic with millions of persons taxed but not represented, shall be fought from now on in session here. The fight in cold blood to the last, the proudly call itself the superior, the better civilized."
