Police Save Barry the Humiliation of a Knockout

EXPECTS TO RUN FULL SCHEDULE AT ASCOT

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16.—J. M. Brooks, manager of Ascot Park, says that plans for running full time are going on. City Attorney W. B. Mathews says that the law will be enforced if he must raid the park every day. Councilmen are non-committal as to repealing the anti-barking ordinance, but say the law just be enforced. The story of a half-time schedule may be based on the presence in San Francisco of George Rose, the largest individual stockholder of Ascot.

SANTA ROSA SKATERS VICTORIOUS
SANTA ROSA, Nov. 16.—At Madera last night the Santa Rosa polo team on skates won from the team of that city by a score of 2 to 1. The local team claim the championship of California. Each of the games played on its present tour, at Selma, Fresno and Madera, the Santa Rosans won by a single point.

PLEA, A GOOD THING, GOES WRONG AT LATONIA

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16.—A killing of large proportions went wrong this afternoon when the horse Plea failed to finish in the money in the steeplechase, the feature race at Latonia. It is estimated that $5000 was lost by bettors on the good thing. Lady Jocelyn, with Jockey Archibald in the saddle, won by three lengths. Peter Becker was second and Frotable third. Just at post time a large commission was sent into the ring on Lady Jocelyn, forcing the odds down from 2 to 1 to 3 to 2. Plea going up in the betting. As the post betting foreshadowed, the race was a gift to Lady Jocelyn. Plea making a miserable showing. Results:
First race, six furlongs—Sir Vagrant won, Sagapanak second, Ben True third. Time, 1:16 3/4.
Second race, six furlongs—Daring won, Simon Kent second, Lord Dixon third. Time, 1:15 2/5.
Third race, one mile—Ben Brummel won, Crafty second, Miss Lida third. Time, 1:41 3/5.
Fourth race, steeplechase, clubhouse course—Lady Jocelyn won, Peter Becker second, Frotable third. Time, 2:39 2/5.
Fifth race, one mile—Temple won, Beatrice K second, Globe Runner third. Time, 1:42 1/2.
Sixth race—Henry O won, Ganseler second, Dan McKeena third. Time, 1:41 3/5.

Young Choynski Stops Victorious Career of Clever Lightweight

By R. A. Smyth

Tommy Barry, who has been regarded as the cleverest of the light weight boxers taking part in the four-round bouts, was spared the humiliation of a knockout at the hands of Young Choynski last night by Police Lieutenant Kelly. The rival boxers met in the principal bout on the card of the Central Club at Dreamland Pavilion. The first two rounds were fairly even, although Choynski showed an inclination to force matters from the first tap of the gong.

Near the middle of the third round Choynski brought over a wild right swing which seemed to start a long way off. It caught Barry flush on the jaw, turned him completely around and dropped him to his knees in Choynski's corner. Barry's head cleared rapidly and he jokingly complimented his opponent on the effectiveness of the blow.

He took all the rest allowed by the rules and then tried to fight on. Choynski was over anxious to finish his man and rushed him about the ring. Barry was wrestled to the mat again but was up quickly. Choynski was after him again and landed repeatedly. When the round was nearly at an end Lieutenant Kelly ordered it stopped. Barry had no chance of winning at the time and could hardly have lasted out the next round.
The program was one of the best promoted in months. Spider Kelly was the referee and handled the bouts in clever style. He kept the boxers busy and the card was run through in fast time.
Willie Canole lasted less than one round against the rushing tactics of Harry Dell. Canole was on the receiving end of a shower of jabs and uppercuts and right crosses. He went to the mat and stayed there when there were still fifteen seconds of the round to go.

L. Granfield and Jimmy Barris went four rounds to a draw. The judges disagreed and Spider Kelly, the referee, discreetly called it a draw. Barris was the aggressor throughout, but his blows fell short. Granfield did the bulk of the scoring.
Al Emmick knocked out Jim Burns in the second round of a sensational fight. Burns was knocked down with a short right hook to the jaw in the first round. They had barely started the second round when Burns was wrestled heavily to the floor. Soon after each landed a full right swing flush to the point of the jaw. Both went down but were up quickly. Emmick proved the stronger of the pair and finally put Burns down with a series of hard rights to the jaw. The bout was one of the bitterest seen here in some time.

Willie Johnson had a shade over Jim Ford but the judges called it a draw. Johnson proved a clever boxer, while Ford was the fighter of the pair. The latter took a terrific beating. In the third round he scored a hard right to the head which took some of the speed out of Johnson. The latter was knocked down in the fourth round with a right to the jaw. He was up quickly and came back fighting.
Tad Riordan stopped Walter Mareno in two rounds. Mareno was knocked down three times and was then sent through the ropes. He had all the fighting he wanted and stopped just as the bell sounded the end of the round.

The old San Francisco Athletic Club has been reorganized with the following officers: President, Julius Samuels; vice president, Alex Gregains; secretary, Alex Djeau; treasurer, Sam Harris; trustees, Frank Schuler, Fred Gillette, G. Djeau; boxing instructor, Alex Gregains; matchmaker, Frank Schuler. The club has secured Walton's Pavilion, at Golden Gate avenue and Franklin street, as a gymnasium and exhibition hall.

There is another hitch over this month's fight, in which Joe Thomas agrees to stop two men. The boxers have agreed upon Billy Roche as referee, but he is not acceptable to Graney and Levy. As the other promoters side with the fighters Roche will probably resign.
Sam McVey is established in training quarters at Colma for his fight at Vallejo with Matt Turner on Thanksgiving day.

Another match has been made for Thanksgiving eve at Colma. The principals will be Lew Powell and Fred Ward. The latter has fought Landers and others and is considered a promising lightweight.

DUAL FIELD MEET TO TRY OUT ATHLETES

A track meet between the Webster, Century and Olympic athletic clubs will take place tomorrow morning on the Alameda High School cinder path. The principal object of the meet is to try out the members of the clubs for the Thanksgiving day games at the Stadium and still have it in the form of competitions, which is considered the best way to bring out likely material.

All the track and field events with the exception of the hurdle races will be run off, and in most of the events the finishes will no doubt be close. Vogelmann should win the hundred, with Anderson of the Olympic Club and Venacke of Webster close second and third place men. Macaulay of the Century Club and Anderson, Olympic, are the best men entered in the 220-yard dash and should make things lively for each other during the few seconds it takes to run the race.

The 440-yard dash should prove one of the closest races of the day. Garner, Munn and Macaulay of the Olympic Club and Century clubs, respectively, have old scores to settle, and such a thing as "letting up" for an instant will not be indulged in by any member of the trio.
Padilla, Olympic Club, and Free, Century Club, also will decide their old-time rivalry, and just what the outcome will be is hard to predict. The former has trained conscientiously for the last few weeks, and it would not be surprising if Padilla managed to turn the trick.

The mile race should go without difficulty to Raleigh Kelly, the consistent runner of the St. Ignatius Club and organizer of the Webster Athletic Club. For second place Hassard of Century and Ed Norman of Olympic should run close together.
Albert Munn will certainly win the high and broad jumps unless Channing Hall is in better shape than he was at the last P. A. A. meet. His best height in this meet was five feet six inches. Anderson of the Olympic Club and James Block of the Century should come close seconds.

In the absence of Plaw, Captain George Meagher of the Webster Club

MISS MEYER LOOKS LIKE WINNER AT TENNIS.

Two tennis tournaments will be played on the Golden Gate Park courts today. The young ladies will meet in a handicap singles event for the Subscription cup. The members of the Golden Gate Junior Club will participate in a class singles tournament. The drawing for the handicap singles tournament was held yesterday afternoon and resulted as follows:

Miss Golda Meyer (own 3-6) vs. Miss Annabel Voden (own 2-6); Mrs. Fletcher (15) vs. Miss Cook (15); Miss Ida Mearns (own 1-5) vs. Miss Anita Greenberg (scratch); Mrs. Nalmeyer (scratch) vs. Miss A. Myers (15).
Miss Greenberg is the present holder of the cup, but will not have as large a handicap as in the last tournament. With the odds allowed, Miss Golda Meyer, the most heavily handicapped player, looks to have the best chance to win.

VANDERBILT HEADS THE LIST.
PARIS, Nov. 16.—William K. Vanderbilt, according to official statistics which will appear tomorrow, heads the list of winning owners in France, outstripping Edmond Blanc from the position he has held for many years. Vanderbilt has won a total of $245,983. His 3-year-old Maintenance leads the winning horses with purses valued at $18,135. This is the greatest amount ever won by a single horse in any season in France.

Tom Dillon for correct styles in hats, corner Van Ness avenue and McAllister. $2.50, $3.50, $5.00.
will win the hammer throw, with Munn a close second.
The pole vault will be a toss-up between Andy Glarner, Poehlmann and A. Anderson. The former has trained hard for this event and should prove a victor.
Otto Wallfisch will have no difficulty winning the shotput.
After the track meet the runners will go to the Vampire football grounds and witness the scheduled association football game.
The officials for the track meet are: Starter, Fred Berge, O. C.; referee, Herbert Hauser, secretary P. A. A.; timer, Walter Christie.

BETTING ON RACES TO BE STOPPED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A warning to gamblers that they will be prosecuted to the extent of the law and that a bill will be introduced in the Legislature to repeal the present law, which permits betting at racetracks, was given today by District Attorney Jerome in the Supreme Court.

It was supported by Judge Otto Rosalesky, who declared that he would impose the severest penalties upon persons convicted of gambling. At the same time, Jerome announced that in the future all gambling cases will be tried before Judge Rosalesky.
On the calendar called before Judge Rosalesky today were thirty-six indictments, involving nearly 130 persons, who had been arrested during pool-room raids and other forms of gambling. In a majority of the cases first offenders were arraigned and upon the motion of the District Attorney fines were imposed, and the other indictments should there be any, were dismissed. As a general rule $25 fines were imposed, with a warning that subsequent fines will be heavier. In addition to this, Jerome forced the prisoners to tell the names of the owners of the various gambling-houses.

HYLAND DEFEATS THOMPSON IN HOT FIGHT PUGILIST WARD IS KILLED BY A BLOW ATTELL IS UNABLE TO PUT AWAY DE COURSEY

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL.
OGDEN, Nov. 16.—After twenty rounds of fighting tonight, during which the men never stopped for a minute, Fighting Dick Hyland won the decision over Cyclone Thompson. The house was largely for Thompson and cheered the decision, although it was not won by a large margin.

Hyland was the aggressor for the first fifteen rounds, when Thompson came in with a rush, and in the sixteenth and seventeenth rounds had the best of it, in fact had Hyland apparently all in.
Hyland came back in the eighteenth and finished the last two rounds fighting Thompson to a standstill. The men did a great deal of wrestling, and during the rounds Thompson was unable to tell the names of the men who did fight and break clean. Thompson had a better chance, and used his left effectively on Hyland's jaw. Referee Williams did not try to break the men until the last two rounds, when he forced them to separate and fight it out.

From this time on Hyland smashed Thompson right and left. In the twentieth round the only knockdown of the fight occurred. Hyland swung on Thompson's jaw and the Chicago man fell partly from the blow and partly by slipping. He was up in a moment, but Hyland was at him again and had him in a bad way as the gong sounded.
The men weighed in at the ringside under 132 pounds and seemed to be in the best of shape, and the fact that they were able to go the fast pace proved this. Thompson won the applause of the crowd by his ability to take the gaff. Several times he went to his corner apparently all but out, but each succeeding round he came up strong and was nearly always the first to rush into the fight.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL.
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 16.—Mike Ward, the pugilist of Sarnia, Ont., died today as the result of a knockout blow received in a fight last night with Harry Lewis of Philadelphia.
Ward died of cerebral hemorrhage, according to the physicians who attended him. He was unconscious until his death, except for a short period. Four physicians worked over him throughout the night. Harry Lewis, Referee Ryan of Detroit and Frank O'Brien, Lewis' trainer, were arrested last night when it became apparent that Ward was in a grave condition. Other arrests and prosecutions are expected.

Lewis and his friends assert that it was not the knockout blow which caused Ward's death, but the heavy fall to the floor that followed. They say the floor was not sufficiently padded. Others assert that the terrific final blow received by Ward caused his collapse and death. He had just risen from the floor after taking a count of nine seconds, following a hard swing on his jaw. Lewis swung again to his jaw and Ward dropped to the floor and was unconscious when the count of ten was finished.
Lewis said today: "I didn't know how hard I was hitting him in that last swing. I saw my chance to win the fight and I let go. I only wish I could do something to bring him back."

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL.
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 16.—Abel Attel retained his title of champion featherweight of the world tonight in his fight with Billy DeCoursey. He got a decision at the end of the fifteenth round.

The first rounds were stalling matches on the part of DeCoursey. Attel's evident unwillingness to hand out a few well covered men of the time, but by the end of the eighth round his face began to show the effect of Attel's jabbing. DeCoursey was on his feet fighting when the bell rang at the end of the fifteenth. Attel was practically unmarked.

WEST OAKLAND CLUB FIGHTS
OAKLAND, Nov. 15.—The management of the West Oakland Club has announced its card for its regular monthly fight show, to be held next Tuesday night. For the wind-up Dick Murray, the hard-hitting blonde scrapper, has been matched with Harry Williams, a chap with a knockout of Harry Baker to his credit, besides a draw with Al Emstiek. The programme includes a special event between Eddie Mensor and Frank Majja. George Leahy vs. Roy Truman, Kid Alameda vs. Young Casey and a scrap between Eddie Lovejoy and Kid Josephs furnished the rest of a card which is calculated to win the favor of the fans.

Philadelphia in what promises to be an interesting East vs. West battle. There is a lot of power in the Quaker eleven that has not yet come to the surface, and the Wolverines are handicapped by the loss of their end and captain, Curtis. Yost's well-known ability, even with only fair material and one star, Garrells, should give the Westerners a shade the best of it, although both teams have been severely handicapped, the one by faculty restrictions the other by inability to "get together." Both teams are fairly uncertain quantities, but the coaching balance dips in the direction of the visitors.

Minnesota meets the Carlisle Indians in the West, and though the redskins are handicapped by lack of weight and by the long journey, they should give a good account of themselves. Harvard ought to have an easy session with Dartmouth, but Cornell will have to show its best form to get away with Swartmore.
Michigan meets Pennsylvania at

The latter conscientiously confines himself to a single class of ills and masters them. I do not scatter my faculties, but I concentrate them all on diseases and weaknesses peculiar to the male. Recently I have treated scores of stubborn cases for some of the best men of San Francisco and vicinity, and not a failure nor an unpleasant result has been reported.
