

Arms Beats Ampedo a Neck in Ascot Park's Feature

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—With a track as fast as it is possible for the Ascot course to be, today's races, in point of time, were not up to the standard, although the card was not a poor one. The crowd also was below par in point of numbers, and only the "regulars" saw the six events of the afternoon contested.

Ascot Selections

- First race—Neatness, Ero Puro, My Choice.
- Second race—Magazine, Hooger Red, Katie Rains.
- Third race—Renaw, Kirkfield Belle, Garter.
- Fourth race—Van Tromp, A. Muskodaj, Mandarin.
- Fifth race—Mandarin, Don Hamilton, Tartar.
- Sixth race—Orlean, Meddling Daisy, Bribery.

The excitement began with the victory of Balbus, a 20-to-1 shot, owned by G. J. Long, in the first race. Well ridden by Boland, the outsider defeated the favorites, Turnaway and Saucy M. by a narrow margin.

The feature of the afternoon was the fourth race, a purse event at a mile for three-year-olds. It was won in a hand drive by J. J. Walsh's good colt, Arimo.

Sarcra and Green Seal scored easily in their respective races, and the last event of the day was taken by Vinton, the favorite, in a whipping finish.

BOXER BRITTS HAS RETURNED FROM THE SPRINGS

James Edward Britts returned from Byron Springs last night, accompanied by Manager Jim Coffey and Tim Keeling. Britts remained in the city but a short time, leaving for Shannon's villa, San Rafael.

During his stay at the springs Britts' training was of a light nature, but it is his intention to start active operations for his fight with Gans immediately. He will have the assistance of Tim Keeling in getting into condition. The latter has been with Britts in all of his important fights.

The rumor that Mike Riley was unable to obtain sufficient financial backing to promote the Gans-Britts fight apparently is not worrying Manager Coffey. The latter said last night that he was basely certain that Riley would fulfill his contract.

Boxer Joe Thomas departed for the East last night with Harry Foley, his manager, and Tommy West, a 110-pound boy who expects to get some matches in the East. Their destination is Pittsburg.

While Thomas has a victory over Honey Melody to his credit Melody's weight boxer because of his recent defeat of Joe Walcott. Thomas knocked out Melody before the latter had won the title from the colored boxer. Thomas says that his mission to the East is to bring back to California the welterweight champion. He will go right after Melody for a fight.

Los Angeles looks like a lucrative field to Frankie Nell, the bantamweight. It is likely that Tom McCarey, California's boxing promoter, will match the local lad with Tommy Walsh, the fast Eastern boxer. Jim Nell was angling for one of those beautiful purses offered by the Nevada promoters for Frankie, but he has decided that he cannot overlook the offer made by McCarey. The elder Nell sent a telegram to Los Angeles yesterday assuring that $5000 be posted for a fight between his son and Jimmy Walsh and that $500 be allowed for training expenses.

Both of these boxers have been defeated by Abe Attell. Should Walsh and Nell come together the result of the bout would settle the question of supremacy among the bantams, as they are the best of this class, Attell being a featherweight.

DONLIN HAS GRIEVANCE AGAINST GIANTS' MANAGER

California Threatens to Quit the New York Team if Compelled to Play a Doctor's Fee

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Mike Donlin, the heavy hitting outfielder of the Giants, threatens to withdraw his signature from a 1907 contract unless his doctor bills for last year be paid by the club. Donlin broke a leg in a game last season and the club officials sent him a doctor of their own choosing.

Donlin, after he was able to walk, had to report to the physician, who in turn turned the club as to Donlin's condition.

Donlin's salary was paid while he was laid up, but now the club insists that he shall pay the doctor's fee. Mike refuses to settle, saying that he was hurt in the performance of his duty.

Sum Gay landed at Los Angeles and claimed that he had previously lived in the United States. He raised the point that the commissioner at San Francisco was without jurisdiction.

Head of Great Agency Has Brilliant Record

Charles Roswell Erwin, who recently became the President of Lord & Thomas, the Chicago agency which controls advertising appropriations running into millions of dollars annually, has a record of over twenty years' continuous service with the house.

The head of the Placing Department, who takes care of the interests of the firm's advertising clients, has held that important post for an equal length of time.

The dean of the Soliciting Staff is a man who has been with the agency for twenty-two years, while the half dozen or more men associated with him have been getting on for twenty-two years.

So, his advertising career has been one of the interesting chapters in the annals of advertising.

Incidentally, the story of his success throws a side light upon the wonderful development of modern advertising.

FROM "MESSENGER" TO TELLER

Mr. Erwin has been connected with Lord & Thomas for over twenty-two years, but his active business life began in his sixteenth year, when he secured a position with the Commercial National Bank of Chicago as messenger.

He worked for six months without salary in order to get a foothold. In eight years he was receiving teller, with a foothold sufficiently secure, but the top rungs of the banking ladder were blocked by others and his instincts as a clammer made him restive.

So he climbed down from the banking ladder and began looking about for one that reached to greater heights.

Although the advertising business was then in its infancy, Mr. Erwin, with the rare foresight which has made his judgment carry weight with the heads of so many great commercial interests, decided to make it his life work as the possibilities of the new business appealed to his imagination and aroused his ambition.

FROM $10 A WEEK TO CONTROL OF MILLIONS

The young firm of Lord & Thomas offered him a job as solicitor at a salary of $10 a week, and Mr. Erwin promptly accepted it, though he had been earning five times that sum in the bank. This was in 1884.

Advancement came rapidly. Advertising was fast becoming a factor of great importance in the promotion of all lines of business, and Mr. Erwin was far-sighted enough to realize its almost unlimited possibilities. By its aid the foundations of big fortunes were being laid. Mr. Erwin became a recognized authority on methods of successful advertising.

He acquired at first hand a fund of information covering every phase of the subject, and kept his finger on the pulse of publicity. His knowledge of publications kept pace with their phenomenal rapid increase. He kept his eyes open, and worked with tireless industry.

HAS GENIUS FOR BIG THINGS

His success as a "business getter" is attested by the fact that in ten years from 1892 to 1902—he controlled a larger volume of advertising than any other man in the United States.

For the last four years the business controlled by Lord & Thomas has been controlled by Albert D. Lasker, Secretary and Treasurer of the Company, and the appropriations controlled by Mr. Erwin have been of about equal volume.

In manner and methods Mr. Erwin combines the banker's hard-headed conservatism with the aggressiveness and buoyant optimism of the advertising success.

SUCCEEDS AMBROSE L. THOMAS

The marked executive ability displayed by him while Vice President of Lord & Thomas, in the building up of the most efficient advertising organization in the world, gives assurance that the place at its head recently made vacant by the death of Mr. Ambrose L. Thomas will be acceptably filled by Mr. Erwin.

For the three or four years preceding his death, Mr. Thomas had practically relinquished to his younger associates, Mr. Erwin and Mr. Lasker, the active management of the agency. The business, therefore, will be conducted along the same aggressive and remarkably successful lines as heretofore.

A WONDERFUL ORGANIZATION

The working force is wonderfully organized. The various departments are headed by highly trained men who have grown up with the agency.

The Space Buyer—the man who comes in contact with the publishers—
