The outgoing officers and their successors were called upon for addresses and the only outsiders—Dr. C. Marcelus Troppmann, grand recording secretary, and Dr. J. J. Eastern Star

On the evening of the second Tuesday in the current month, Imperial Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star gave a Valentine tea party in Cottell Hall. There was a large attendance of members and invited guests, and each on entering was presented with a pretty painted valentine as a souvenir of the occasion. Under the direction of Daisy I. Kiefer, chairman of the entertainment committee, there was presented a pleasing program of numbers as follows: Instrumental solo, Mrs. Buttneck; piano duet, Max and Florence Bayless, and instrumental selections by Professor Worbes. After the programme, which was a musical treat, there was the grand march and dancing, the serving of refreshments, less, piano and violin, the opening of a grab bag and the telling of fortunes. Colonial Players Discuss Salome a former director of the Maurice Grau Opera Company, has gone to France to spend several months with him.

"Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model," is Al H. Wood's latest melodramatic success concerning the trials and triumphs of a poor but honest working girl. Scientifically it is said to outdo all his former efforts, having recently had its premiere in New York.

In Fresno recently the stock company in a vaudeville house was putting on the old farce, "Ghost in a Pawnshop," and when it came time for a shot to be fired the stage revolver refused to play its part. The artist who was handling the weapon became red in the face and very much excited, but the piano player, who constituted the orchestra and who is also a deputy sheriff of Fresno County, rose to the occasion. He continued to play the piano with his left hand and with his right whipped out a revolver which he always carried and let go through the orchestra floor into the cellar with a shot which not only raised the hail of the audience and actors but saved the act.

Jess Dandy played his one thousandth performance of Hans Wagner in "The Prince of Pilsen" at Bluefield, Va., last night a week ago.

Mme. Rejane has adopted a new plan at her theater in Paris. She has arranged a special matinee each week for young ladies. Only such plays as are inoffensive and suitable for such audiences are to be given at these performances. Among the list is Ibsen's "A Doll House." In this country we are not quite ready to pronounce Ibsen a subject for young lady matinee discussion.

Margaret Hillington, who is Mrs. Daniel Frohman in private life, and who is at present leading lady for John Drew, is to be graduated to stellar honors next season. She is to appear in a play called "Dr. Wake's Patient."

Beebohm Tree, the English actor, has just arranged to give a series of Shakespearean productions and other performances in Berlin within the near future. He undertakes this at the express wish of the Kaiser.

John C. Fisher has started on a tour of Cuba and South America with a company of comic opera. He will open in Havana and intends to present "The Runaway Girl," "Florodora," "The Wizard of the Nile," "The Idol's Eye" and a number of other favorites.

Gilbert, D. D. G. C., assisted by Theresa Mann of Oakland as grand manager and Anna M. Byerly as grand senior. This temple is on its feet again, and will in a short time be as bright as it ever was.

The following named have been installed as the officers of Hermon Temple for the current term by Nettie D. Gilbert, D. D. G. C., assisted by Adele B. Towne as grand senior and Minnie Matzen as grand manager: Mrs. Dora Jones, P. C.; Mrs. Lizzie Whaley, M. E. C.; Mrs. Frank Moninger, E. S.; Mrs. Cora Parker, E. J.; Mrs. Alice Morrill; Mrs. Clara Simpson, M. of R. and G.; Miss Emma Lyman, M. of F.; Miss Annah Hill, P. of T.; Mrs. Emma Lyman, O. G.; Mrs. Minnie Pooley, trustee.

The ceremony of installation, which was public, was added to in a great measure by the clever work of the degree team of sixteen young ladies. A feature of the ceremony was the appearance of Flora, Miss Gladys Lyman, attended by Elizabeth Bishop, Irene Johnston, Dorothy Simpson and Lucia Roberts. These were all dressed in spicily white and carried flowers, which were distributed to the grand officers and new officers of the temple.

Dora Jones, the most eminent retiring chief, was presented a handsome and diplomatic pin, as was also the mistress of records and correspondence, who has served three consecutive terms, which gives her the honors of past chief.

Minnie Trousdale, D. G. C., assisted by Grace Bray as grand senior, and Ida McCreedy as grand manager, installed the officers of San Francisco Temple for the current term. At the close of the ceremony the retiring chief was presented by the temple with an emblematic pin of her rank in the order, after which a collation was served.

Redmanship

The board of relief of the Improved Order of Red Men has elected the following named as officers for the current term: Frank La Torres, president; W. F. Schofield, vice president; J. Harry Huttaff, secretary, and William M. Joseph, treasurer. The reports received at the close of the term were on hand $124. Of the money advanced there has been repayment of all but $21.25.

The Hall Association of the Improved Order of Red Men will be organized by the following named for the current term: J. Samuel, president; A. Jackson, vice president; J. Harry Huttaff, secretary; George W. Collins, treasurer; S. H. Wilcox, E. Lastreto, P. L. Biers, L. H. Enemark and J. Boyes.

The report shows that the association is building a class A structure on the site of the old one at 220 Golden Gate avenue. It is now so far advanced that it is safe to say that it will be ready for occupancy by May.

The chiefs who have been raised up for Althabon Tribe for the current term are L. V. Nightingale, sachem; J. W. Hansen, senior and E. R. M. Armstrong, junior saganore; A. Schneider, prophet; J. Hansen, chief of reg.; Charles Frank Hardy, collector of wampum, and J. Hansen, keeper of wampum.

The masquerade ball recently given by Walla Walla Tribe in Lyric Hall was an enjoyable affair, which was participated in by a large number of people who were loud in their praises of the manner in which the committee handled the function.

Althabon Council of the Degree of Pochontas at its last meeting had a contest for the most popular member of the council and the result was in favor of incumbent Pochontas Beecher. As a testimonial of this she was presented a beautiful Oriental vase. Miss Robinson came in a close second. The social committee of this council, of which Mrs. M. Doyle is the chairman, is making a record for presenting something entertaining for each meeting and as a result of this there is a large attendance at each meeting. At the last held meeting each one was presented.

In consequence of business engagements, George Wheeler, the efficient drillmaster of the team of Mazatlan, Council of the Degree of Pochontas, has been forced to retire from that position and William Winter has been selected to succeed him. In the short time that he has been in that station Wheeler has introduced several innovations in the scouting and floor work. A remarkable feature of this council is that, no matter what changes take place in the personnel of the chiefs, the work is always put on in admirable order. At the last held session of the council, Emma Wedemeyer, the prophetess, was presented by the council a beautiful emblematic pin in recognition of her services to the council while serving as chief of records, and as a great help to the team of Mazatlan. Past Great Pochontas Annie Margaret Bliss has recovered from an attack of illness which confined her to her home for several weeks.

The Americans

The assembly of the Americans at Willits, Mendocino County, recently gave a ball at the Hotel Willits, which attracted a large number of the people of that place and from the vicinity. It was a great success and a large number of that place have petitioned the senate officers for an organizer.

During the last week in January Oakland Assembly was visited by a number of the senate officers, who each delivered an encouraging talk for the good of the order, and at the close of the meeting there was a banquet in honor of the visitors.

This formula is given out by the great lung and throat specialist of Philadelphia, and he declares that it has no equal, but warns people against the use of the ordinary, but dangerous and patent medicines sold under the name of "Oil of Pine." These contain much resin and other injurious and are sure to produce nausea and kidney disorders. The assembly at Santa Rosa has divided itself into two sections, each of which will strive to secure more candidates than the other within a certain time. The losing side is to treat the winning side to an oyster supper.

The fourth session of a whist tournament in which the members of the local assemblies took part, was held in Oakland Hall in this city. There was a large attendance, many players and much good whist. Prizes were awarded to the winners for best and worst playing and at the close of the games there were dancing and refreshments.

The local assemblies are all active, bringing in candidates for membership at almost each meeting.

Fraternal Brotherhood

Columbia Lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood became somewhat drowsy during the temporary absence of the supreme deputy, Mrs. C. J. Allan, but now that she has returned to her post of duty this, the "banner" lodge, has again become active and there is unusual enthusiasm during the meetings. Past president Purdy is filling the station of past president, after having served in the president's chair for two terms. President Furniss, recently installed, announces that during his term ambition will hum as he proposes to interest every member in its advancement, and Mrs. Reid, the vice president, has promised to help the president. Edna Williams, who proved herself an energetic worker during the recent contest, was awarded a magnificent pillow donated by the supreme deputy for the member that should make the best showing in a limited time. Another decorated pillow has been offered for the month of February.
