

NEWS

HANN STEVENSON PROMOTIONS ARE MADE BY BOARD OF REGENTS

Meese May Bring a Contest for Seat in Oakland City Council

BEATEN BY 5 VOTES New Member of the School Board Is a Railroad Machinist

OAKLAND, March 12.—Councilman Edwin Meese will contest the re-election of Councilman E. C. Hahn from the Fourth Ward...

OAKLAND, March 12.—The Regents of the University authorized the following promotions and changes of professors today...

"JOE" ULLMAN IS SENT TO BELMONT SANITARIUM Sporting Man, Who Is Heavy Owner in San Carlos Opera Company, Suffers Nervous Collapse

Suffering from nervous prostration, "Joe" Ullman, known throughout the country as a sporting man, has been placed in a private sanitarium in Belmont...

LEASE THREE FLOORS IN GEARY-STREET BUILDING Strauss, Greenberg & Sachs to Have Large Area in New Gunst Structure

Strauss, Greenberg & Sachs are to occupy the three lower floors and basement of the Gunst building at the corner of Geary and Powell streets...

WANT CHAPMAN TO FIX STREET Alarmed at the tardy efforts of the United Railroads to lay new tracks along Mission street...

TESTIFIES AGAINST SON BAKERSFIELD, March 12.—August Bigot, an aged Frenchman, who was given poisoned wine by his son, John, was on the witness stand this afternoon in the trial of the latter...

MAIL CLERKS ORGANIZE Nineteen of the United States railway mail clerks stationed in this city organized yesterday a council of the Brotherhood of Railway Mail Clerks...

ELECTION IN MAREN SAN RAFAEL, March 12.—C. Chapman, James Fay and C. J. Fall were elected Trustees of Sanitary District No. 2, Corte Madera, today...

DANGERS FROM GRIP An attack of grip seldom results fatally, but it is the indirect cause of many deaths. If it does not result in pneumonia, which is frequently the case, it leaves its victim with a cough which lingers on long after every other symptom of the disease has vanished...

TWO BODIES RECOVERED REDDING, March 12.—The bodies of two of the twenty Green laborers who were drowned in the Sacramento yesterday by the overturning of a boat were recovered today...

PALO ALTO PARK SITE PALO ALTO, March 12.—After deliberation over various proposed sites, the Board of Trade last night recommended to the City Trustees the purchase of the G. B. Parkinson half block on Waverly street for use as a city park...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

Rev. George Scott Is Claimed by Death

Gifted Priest of Oakland Succumbs to Attack of Appendicitis

OAKLAND, March 12.—Unable to withstand the shock of an operation following a severe attack of appendicitis, Rev. George Scott, assistant pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, died this morning at Providence Hospital...

Father Scott was a native of Lincolnshire, England, and graduated from Stoney Hurst College as an ordained priest in 1899...

Father Scott was the youngest of a family of five children, and was the second of the family to embrace holy orders. His brother, Rev. Lancelot Scott, is now in New York...

CRUISER BOSTON STARTS FOR CENTRAL AMERICA Rest of Pacific Squadron Leaves San Diego for Target Practice at Magdalena Bay

SAN DIEGO, March 12.—The Pacific squadron, composed of the cruisers Albatross and Boston and the torpedo boats Preble and Paul Jones, under the command of Rear Admiral Sandbourne, sailed this morning at 7:30...

CHIEF OF POLICE BOUND OVER TO CRIMINAL COURT Salt Lake Official Charged With Conspiracy to Defraud Tourists by Swindling Games

SALT LAKE, March 12.—Chief of Police George Sheets, charged with conspiracy to defraud tourists passing through Salt Lake City, was held today by Judge Whittier to answer to the criminal division of the District court...

GOVERNMENT WILL BUILD LARGE TORPEDO FACTORY Admiral Mason Completes Plans for Establishment to Be Operated on Great Scale

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Admiral Mason, chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, has completed plans for the construction of a torpedo factory at the Newport naval station...

JUDGE WAYMIRE GETS A STAY OAKLAND, March 12.—Judge Wayne of Alameda was granted three days' extension of time by Judge Waste today to raise the money necessary to settle the claims of the Hilbert Savings and Loan Society...

KILLED BY A TRAIN OAKLAND, March 12.—With both feet cut off above the ankles, indicating that he had been run over by a train, the body of an unidentified man was found this morning beside the Southern Pacific tracks east of Alameda...

FUNERAL OF "UNCLE JIM" HELD AT MARE ISLAND Many Floral Tributes to Honor Memory of Naval Hero and Beloved Friend of Children

VALLEJO, March 12.—The funeral of Sergeant James Melville, U. S. M. C., a veteran of the navy in the Civil War, was held at Mare Island this afternoon with full naval honors...

Brief Local News KAUFMAN IS FINED—Deputy County Clerk H. Kaufman was fined $100 yesterday by United States District Judge de Haven for having acknowledged a signature to a petition who had not been sworn by him...

ORDERED TO PAY ALIMONY—Rafael Romero, son of a wealthy family living in Berkeley, was ordered by Judge Graham yesterday to pay $40 a month alimony to his wife, Louise Wilkins Romero, by whom he is being sued for maintenance and against whom he has a divorce suit pending...

LARGEN CASE CONTINUED—The filing of the agreed statement of facts on which an appeal is to be brought in the injunction suit of District Attorney Langdon, which resulted in an order from Judge Sewall preventing the Board of Supervisors from interfering with his office, was not filed yesterday. The case was continued until today...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

PEMBROKE ALIBI TO BE ATTACKED BY WITNESS

Traction Employee Expected to Throw New Light on the Case

OAKLAND, March 12.—The prosecution in the case of Percy Pembroke, charged with the robbery of Edward Stanley, hints at important new evidence which it will introduce in the coming trial, when an attempt will be made to break down the alibi sworn to by Pembroke's brothers in the previous trial...

An employe of the Oakland Traction Company has been found who is expected to shed light on the whereabouts of the youth on the night in question. Seven members of the jury which will try Pembroke were chosen today from the special venire...

"CRYSTAL PALACE" EFFECT LURES ZINC MINE BUYER Frank Rockefeller Sues for $265,000 That He Says Fake Property Cost Him

ST. LOUIS, March 12.—Frank Rockefeller took the witness stand today in his suit against Henry Cross for the restitution of $265,000 spent for a zinc mine in Southwest Missouri. Rockefeller alleges he was induced through misrepresentations to buy the mine and will endeavor to show that the "crystal palace" effects witnessed by him on a visit to the mine did not faithfully portray the worth of the deposit of ore...

BRAUN WILL INVESTIGATE ESCAPE OF VILLAREAL President Sends Personal Representative to Learn the Facts and Report to Him

EL PASO, Tex., March 12.—To thoroughly investigate the escape of Antonio Villareal, the Mexican revolutionist, from the immigration office who had him in charge, Marcus Braun, special immigration inspector, is in El Paso. Inspector Braun comes as the personal representative of the President...

WOUNDED ROBBER CAUGHT WICHITA, Kans., March 12.—One of the Hunewell (Kans.) bank robbers was captured late tonight lying in a strawstack near Caldwell, Kans. He gave his name as Charles Arthur and claimed St. Louis as his home...

ST. LOUIS MAN DIES AT SEA ST. LOUIS, March 12.—Charles Gordon Knox, secretary of the St. Louis Commercial Club, died yesterday of typhoid fever at sea on board the steamer Prinz Joachim off the South Carolina coast, according to a wireless message received here...

BOY NAMED BY CAR George Tenny, a 13-year-old boy living at Devilsadero and Pine streets, was struck by car 1189 of the Eddy-street line last night, near his home, and maimed for life...

GOVERNMENT WILL BUILD LARGE TORPEDO FACTORY Admiral Mason Completes Plans for Establishment to Be Operated on Great Scale

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Admiral Mason, chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, has completed plans for the construction of a torpedo factory at the Newport naval station and he expects to advertise at once for proposals...

JUDGE WAYMIRE GETS A STAY OAKLAND, March 12.—Judge Wayne of Alameda was granted three days' extension of time by Judge Waste today to raise the money necessary to settle the claims of the Hilbert Savings and Loan Society...

KILLED BY A TRAIN OAKLAND, March 12.—With both feet cut off above the ankles, indicating that he had been run over by a train, the body of an unidentified man was found this morning beside the Southern Pacific tracks east of Alameda...

FUNERAL OF "UNCLE JIM" HELD AT MARE ISLAND Many Floral Tributes to Honor Memory of Naval Hero and Beloved Friend of Children

VALLEJO, March 12.—The funeral of Sergeant James Melville, U. S. M. C., a veteran of the navy in the Civil War, was held at Mare Island this afternoon with full naval honors...

Brief Local News KAUFMAN IS FINED—Deputy County Clerk H. Kaufman was fined $100 yesterday by United States District Judge de Haven for having acknowledged a signature to a petition who had not been sworn by him...

ORDERED TO PAY ALIMONY—Rafael Romero, son of a wealthy family living in Berkeley, was ordered by Judge Graham yesterday to pay $40 a month alimony to his wife, Louise Wilkins Romero, by whom he is being sued for maintenance and against whom he has a divorce suit pending...

LARGEN CASE CONTINUED—The filing of the agreed statement of facts on which an appeal is to be brought in the injunction suit of District Attorney Langdon, which resulted in an order from Judge Sewall preventing the Board of Supervisors from interfering with his office, was not filed yesterday. The case was continued until today...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

REV. GEORGE SCOTT.

MECHANICS OBJECT TO PHYSICAL EXAMINATION Southern Pacific Shopmen Come From Bakersfield to Protest to Officials of Corporation

BAKERSFIELD, March 12.—Representatives of the different departments of the Southern Pacific shops are in San Francisco in conference with the company in regard to the physical examination which each applicant must undergo before entering the employ of the company...

STRIKE OF PHONE GIRLS HELENA, March 12.—Alexander Fairgrieve, president of the Montana State Federation of Labor, ordered a strike of telephone girls in Billings, Red Lodge, Livingston, Lewiston and Great Falls this afternoon...

BOY NAMED BY CAR George Tenny, a 13-year-old boy living at Devilsadero and Pine streets, was struck by car 1189 of the Eddy-street line last night, near his home, and maimed for life...

GOVERNMENT WILL BUILD LARGE TORPEDO FACTORY Admiral Mason Completes Plans for Establishment to Be Operated on Great Scale

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Admiral Mason, chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, has completed plans for the construction of a torpedo factory at the Newport naval station and he expects to advertise at once for proposals...

JUDGE WAYMIRE GETS A STAY OAKLAND, March 12.—Judge Wayne of Alameda was granted three days' extension of time by Judge Waste today to raise the money necessary to settle the claims of the Hilbert Savings and Loan Society...

KILLED BY A TRAIN OAKLAND, March 12.—With both feet cut off above the ankles, indicating that he had been run over by a train, the body of an unidentified man was found this morning beside the Southern Pacific tracks east of Alameda...

FUNERAL OF "UNCLE JIM" HELD AT MARE ISLAND Many Floral Tributes to Honor Memory of Naval Hero and Beloved Friend of Children

VALLEJO, March 12.—The funeral of Sergeant James Melville, U. S. M. C., a veteran of the navy in the Civil War, was held at Mare Island this afternoon with full naval honors...

Brief Local News KAUFMAN IS FINED—Deputy County Clerk H. Kaufman was fined $100 yesterday by United States District Judge de Haven for having acknowledged a signature to a petition who had not been sworn by him...

ORDERED TO PAY ALIMONY—Rafael Romero, son of a wealthy family living in Berkeley, was ordered by Judge Graham yesterday to pay $40 a month alimony to his wife, Louise Wilkins Romero, by whom he is being sued for maintenance and against whom he has a divorce suit pending...

LARGEN CASE CONTINUED—The filing of the agreed statement of facts on which an appeal is to be brought in the injunction suit of District Attorney Langdon, which resulted in an order from Judge Sewall preventing the Board of Supervisors from interfering with his office, was not filed yesterday. The case was continued until today...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

MILLWORKERS' STRIKE IS CLOSING SMALL PLANTS

Factories Depending on Mills for Fuel Are Shutting Down

PORTLAND, March 12.—The strike of the mill and box workers in this city is having the effect of shutting down small factories which depend on sawdust and slabwood for fuel. Unless there is a change in the conditions before the end of the week several large plants will close down because of lack of boxes in which to ship goods...

THOUSAND-MILE EXCURSION AROUND THE GREAT VALLEY Irrigation Congress Delegates Will Get an Opportunity to See California's Farming Region

SACRAMENTO, March 12.—A special excursion completely encircling the great valley of California is among the advantages that will be offered to delegates attending the National Irrigation Congress at Sacramento next fall. The board of control in charge of the preparations for this event is to arrange for special trains to carry all who may desire to make the trip, which will be a thousand mile circuit of the most interesting valley in the world...

POSTAL RECEIPTS INCREASE WASHINGTON, March 12.—Postal receipts at San Francisco during February were $131,789, against $143,671 during February, 1906. Los Angeles receipts were $32,953 last month, against $66,040 in February last year. San Francisco receipts are rapidly gaining...

SAN FRANCISCAN INJURED DENVER, March 12.—While crossing the street here today G. M. Guywitz, a traveling man, whose home is in San Francisco, was struck by a trolley car, knocked to the pavement and injured seriously. He was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

TELEGRAPH NEWS FERGUSON GETS FLU—Washington, March 12.—R. T. Ferguson of San Francisco has been appointed a $1000 clerkship in the immigration service at that port.

SALON KEEPER KILLS SELF—Covelo, March 12.—Charles Stevens, a salon keeper, committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the head. He had been gambling and drinking heavily for several days, and had lost all of his own money and all that he could borrow.

TABLET STEALER CONVICTED—New York, March 12.—Albert Bohman, aged 19, was convicted in court yesterday of stealing the bronze tablet from the monument to the Union victims in the Lutheran Cemetery on November 9 last. Three other youths are under arrest for complicity in the robbery.

RETURNS MANY INDICTMENTS—Columbus, Ohio, March 12.—The Grand Jury which has been considering the street paving bribery cases returned 117 indictments true bills today. Joseph Beck, former Assistant Engineer, and Nelson Tanner, ex-superintendent of the Cleveland, Trinidad Paving Company, were arrested.

BRIDEGROOM TO BE DEPORTED—Los Angeles, March 12.—Frank Chew, a Chinese resident of Los Angeles, who was recently married to Miss Emma Culver of Albuquerque, N. M., is liable to deportation next week, when a stay of proceedings taken in the United States District Court will expire. Mr. and Mrs. Chew were married at Albuquerque after the bridegroom had been ordered deported.

ST. LOUIS MAN DIES AT SEA ST. LOUIS, March 12.—Charles Gordon Knox, secretary of the St. Louis Commercial Club, died yesterday of typhoid fever at sea on board the steamer Prinz Joachim off the South Carolina coast, according to a wireless message received here. He was with a party returning from a trip to Panama.

BOY NAMED BY CAR George Tenny, a 13-year-old boy living at Devilsadero and Pine streets, was struck by car 1189 of the Eddy-street line last night, near his home, and maimed for life. Both of his arms were badly fractured, and he also sustained painful and serious lacerations of the scalp. He was treated at the St. Francis Hospital.

GOVERNMENT WILL BUILD LARGE TORPEDO FACTORY Admiral Mason Completes Plans for Establishment to Be Operated on Great Scale

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Admiral Mason, chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, has completed plans for the construction of a torpedo factory at the Newport naval station and he expects to advertise at once for proposals...

JUDGE WAYMIRE GETS A STAY OAKLAND, March 12.—Judge Wayne of Alameda was granted three days' extension of time by Judge Waste today to raise the money necessary to settle the claims of the Hilbert Savings and Loan Society...

KILLED BY A TRAIN OAKLAND, March 12.—With both feet cut off above the ankles, indicating that he had been run over by a train, the body of an unidentified man was found this morning beside the Southern Pacific tracks east of Alameda...

FUNERAL OF "UNCLE JIM" HELD AT MARE ISLAND Many Floral Tributes to Honor Memory of Naval Hero and Beloved Friend of Children

VALLEJO, March 12.—The funeral of Sergeant James Melville, U. S. M. C., a veteran of the navy in the Civil War, was held at Mare Island this afternoon with full naval honors...

Brief Local News KAUFMAN IS FINED—Deputy County Clerk H. Kaufman was fined $100 yesterday by United States District Judge de Haven for having acknowledged a signature to a petition who had not been sworn by him...

ORDERED TO PAY ALIMONY—Rafael Romero, son of a wealthy family living in Berkeley, was ordered by Judge Graham yesterday to pay $40 a month alimony to his wife, Louise Wilkins Romero, by whom he is being sued for maintenance and against whom he has a divorce suit pending...

LARGEN CASE CONTINUED—The filing of the agreed statement of facts on which an appeal is to be brought in the injunction suit of District Attorney Langdon, which resulted in an order from Judge Sewall preventing the Board of Supervisors from interfering with his office, was not filed yesterday. The case was continued until today...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

PIONEER WOMAN DIES—Alameda, March 12.—Mrs. Caroline Lauenstein, who arrived in San Francisco in 1849, died today at her home, 2014 Central avenue, aged 76...

WOMAN STRUCK WITH LAMP—A quarrel last night between Thomas Gino and Antonio Calabro, neighbors, living in Vermont street, nearly second, a lighted lamp was hurled, which struck Calabro's face and she was badly burned...

FRANK CARILLO MIXES WITH POLICEMAN KENNEL

Former Loses Locket and Watch During Encounter and Peter Enright Is Accused

As the result of a fight in Fillmore street on Friday night, Policeman James Kennedy must stand trial before the Police Commission; Peter Enright, one time king of the newsboys, must answer to the charge of grand larceny, and Frank Carillo, the Bakersfield sport, is displaying a badly bruised countenance...

THOUSAND-MILE EXCURSION AROUND THE GREAT VALLEY Irrigation Congress Delegates Will Get an Opportunity to See California's Farming Region

SACRAMENTO, March 12.—A special excursion completely encircling the great valley of California is among the advantages that will be offered to delegates attending the National Irrigation Congress at Sacramento next fall. The board of control in charge of the preparations for this event is to arrange for special trains to carry all who may desire to make the trip, which will be a thousand mile circuit of the most interesting valley in the world...

POSTAL RECEIPTS INCREASE WASHINGTON, March 12.—Postal receipts at San Francisco during February were $131,789, against $143,671 during February, 1906. Los Angeles receipts were $32,953 last month, against $66,040 in February last year. San Francisco receipts are rapidly gaining...

SAN FRANCISCAN INJURED DENVER, March 12.—While crossing the street here today G. M. Guywitz, a traveling man, whose home is in San Francisco, was struck by a trolley car, knocked to the pavement and injured seriously. He was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

TELEGRAPH NEWS FERGUSON GETS FLU—Washington, March 12.—R. T. Ferguson of San Francisco has been appointed a $1000 clerkship in the immigration service at that port.

SALON KEEPER KILLS SELF—Covelo, March 12.—Charles Stevens, a salon keeper, committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the head. He had been gambling and drinking heavily for several days, and had lost all of his own money and all that he could borrow.

TABLET STEALER CONVICTED—New York, March 12.—Albert Bohman, aged 19, was convicted in court yesterday of stealing the bronze tablet from the monument to the Union victims in the Lutheran Cemetery on November 9 last. Three other youths are under arrest for complicity in the robbery.

RETURNS MANY INDICTMENTS—Columbus, Ohio, March 12.—The Grand Jury which has been considering the street paving bribery cases returned 117 indictments true bills today. Joseph Beck, former Assistant Engineer, and Nelson Tanner, ex-superintendent of the Cleveland, Trinidad Paving Company, were arrested.

BRIDEGROOM TO BE DEPORTED—Los Angeles, March 12.—Frank Chew, a Chinese resident of Los Angeles, who was recently married to Miss Emma Culver of Albuquerque, N. M., is liable to deportation next week, when a stay of proceedings taken in the United States District Court will expire. Mr. and Mrs. Chew were married at Albuquerque after the bridegroom had been ordered deported.

ST. LOUIS MAN DIES AT SEA ST. LOUIS, March 12.—Charles Gordon Knox, secretary of the St. Louis Commercial Club, died yesterday of typhoid fever at sea on board the steamer Prinz Joachim off the South Carolina coast, according to a wireless message received here. He was with a party returning from a trip to Panama.

BOY NAMED BY CAR George Tenny, a 13-year-old boy living at Devilsadero and Pine streets, was struck by car 1189 of the Eddy-street line last night, near his home, and maimed for life. Both of his arms were badly fractured, and he also sustained painful and serious lacerations of the scalp. He was treated at the St. Francis Hospital.

GOVERNMENT WILL BUILD LARGE TORPEDO FACTORY Admiral Mason Completes Plans for Establishment to Be Operated on Great Scale

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Admiral Mason, chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, has completed plans for the construction of a torpedo factory at the Newport naval station and he expects to advertise at once for proposals...

JUDGE WAYMIRE GETS A STAY OAKLAND, March 12.—Judge Wayne of Alameda was granted three days' extension of time by Judge Waste today to raise the money necessary to settle the claims of the Hilbert Savings and Loan Society...

KILLED BY A TRAIN OAKLAND, March 12.—With both feet cut off above the ankles, indicating that he had been run over by a train, the body of an unidentified man was found this morning beside the Southern Pacific tracks east of