ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH DAMAGED BY FIRE. Flames Are Confined to the Central Portion of the Building. ORIGIN IS UNKNOWN. Loss to the Structure Will Amount to Several Thousand Dollars.

OAKLAND, Oct. 6.—St. John's Episcopal church, at the corner of Eighth and Grove streets, was damaged at midnight last night by a fire which has started in the church in the last 20 years. The fire, which was confined to the central part of the building, started in a narrow passageway that connects the choir room with the main building.

The flames were discovered by J. Crowhurst, who sleeps in the front part of the building. He was driven from bed by the smoke and found the central part of the structure burning on the inside. The pastor, Rev. Edgar F. Gee, and passersby were summoned. Before the fire department arrived the flames had destroyed the passageway and were eating through to the outside of the building.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The door was kept locked, but on each side were windows. These were so burned that it was impossible to tell whether they had been opened or not. The fire burned from each side of the passageway, entering the choir room in the rear, used as a Sunday school room, and ruined the interior. At the main end of the passageway the flames reached a small room and burned through into a larger room, but were checked before much damage to the walls had been done. The loss will be between $2,000 and $3,000.

Fire Chief E. J. Keating endeavored to ascertain the origin of the fire. There were telephone wires passing through the walls of the burned rooms, and these, when the fire was discovered, had been cut off and were hanging on the outside, with fire burning at the insulations. It is possible that crossed wires may have caused the fire. The lock of the door leading from a rear yard to the hall was found to be open, the bolt turned, showing that it had not been unlocked.

In December, 1897, when Rev. F. G. Mynard was rector, the old church was burned. The fire on that occasion was caused by defective repairing of the furnace flues. Later young incendiaries set fire to a rear porch of the main building. This fire was traced to small boys who had been playing in the yard.

The roof of the main building was burned last night, the fire doing most damage at the top of the building. The auditorium was not damaged and church services were held there this evening. The loss is covered by insurance.

St. John's is one of the leading houses of worship of the county. Had the fire not been extinguished early the loss would have amounted to many thousands of dollars, as the furnishings of the church are of great value.

GARDEN FETE AT PALO ALTO ATTRACTS MANY. Booths Are Presided Over by Women of Presbyterian Church to Raise Funds for New Organ.

PALO ALTO, Oct. 6.—The afternoon garden fete held by the ladies of the Presbyterian church at Palo Alto proved to be a decided financial and social success. The grounds were an ideal place for holding a fete, the beautiful oaks and the morning glories, the charming background for the various booths and the gowns of the women.

Buses met those who traveled to the Seale home by means of the Waverly street car line, the majority of the guests, however, coming in their own motors or rigs. Apron, china, candy, icecream, lemonade, fancy and tea booths presided over by a number of charming middle aged matrons claimed the attention of the throng.

A greater portion of the afternoon. Games and various amusements were provided for the youngsters, whose happy shouts sounded through the grounds throughout the afternoon.

The fete was given for the purpose of providing a new organ for the church. Among those in charge at the booths were: Apron—Mesdames E. F. Welsch, J. W. Roller, China—Miss Mabel Smith, J. W. Cooley, Candy—Theresa Harman, E. Taylor, Icecream and cake—Mesdames F. Wersling, J. A. Gill, S. H. Shumate, F. Skinner, George Mosher, Lemonade—Mesdames C. S. McCowen, B. Little, M. G. Dodge, Tea and fruit—Mesdames E. A. Soper, F. J. Allen, Van Etten, W. McKinney, Tea—Mesdames Herdman and Wood and Misses Hughes and Wing. Mrs. Robert Ewell and Mrs. R. M. Alden were in charge of the children's department and kept careful watch over the youngsters.

OAKLAND ORPHEUM ADDS TO LAURELS OF OPENING. Second Week's Bill Presents Many Interesting Acts to Patrons of Vaudeville House.

OAKLAND, Oct. 6.—Fears of persons who might have fancied that the new Orpheum theater in Oakland might have "shot its bolt" in presenting so superb a program its opening week were set at rest this afternoon, when the second week of the new vaudeville theater's existence was ushered in. The place was packed at the afternoon and evening performances and witnessed a bill which pleased the crowds.

"Ye Colonial Septette," a musical spectacle, held the stellar place on the bill, which included Helicaine brothers, Charlene and Charlene, foreign artists, Fred's monkey actors, and Ione MacLouth, a Scotch ballad singer. Guyler and Crispi are to appear tomorrow. Lillian Burkhardt staged a new comedy, "A Deal on Change," O'Hara Sam and company repeated their Japanese fantasy, and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barry appeared in a new comedy sketch, "A Skin Game."

SHOT STOPS ESCAPE. OAKLAND, Oct. 6.—Jerry Donovan, George Johnson and Albert Morris were arrested by Policemen A. B. Smith and Hunley while crossing the estuary from Alameda to Oakland this evening with three flower pots in their possession, which they were suspected of having stolen from the porch of Mrs. S. F. Arnold of 1519 Pacific street, Alameda. Morris tried to escape at Second and Franklin streets yesterday. Several pieces of jewelry were not taken, although kept in the same box.

REPORTS THEFT OF DIAMOND PIN. OAKLAND, Oct. 6.—Mrs. C. Lowder, who conducts an apartment house at 403 Telegraph avenue, reported to the police today that there have been several complaints of petty thefts at the place. She lost a diamond pin valued at $75 yesterday. Several other pieces of jewelry were not taken, although kept in the same box.

JORDAN TO MEET STUDENTS. STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 6.—President David Starr Jordan of Stanford university will meet representatives from the organizations of men students in the university on Tuesday night to discuss any difficulties which may have arisen between the faculty and students. The needs of the campus community will also be discussed.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 6.—Stanford University will hold a regular meeting tomorrow night. An ordinance fixing the next tax rate at $1.27 on each $100 of assessed valuation has been prepared for passage.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 6.—Mark A. Miller, formerly of the real estate firm of Miller & Banta, which recently dissolved, has embarked in business for himself and has opened offices at 1344 Park street, which have been fitted up in an attractive and comfortable style. Miller has had wide experience in the local realty field and is looked upon as one of the best posted land brokers in Alameda. He was at one time associated with the firm of Hammond & Hammond. Since he branched out for himself a few days ago Miller has put through several important deals.

Hally & Co. made the most important sale of real estate during the past week. This firm negotiated the transfer of the Jack Wastley property, on the north side of Santa Clara avenue west of the city hall, to E. S. Kelly, a mining man, who recently took up his residence in Alameda. The property was offered a few weeks ago to the city council as a site for a schoolhouse for $15,000, and it is understood that Kelly paid a price in the neighborhood of this sum. It has a frontage of 150 feet on Santa Clara avenue and is 207 feet deep. There are several old buildings on the lot. Kelly, the new owner, with others, plans to build a hotel on the land and now has the project under consideration.

Hughes & Co. is one of the busiest of the local realty concerns, and since moving from 901 Lincoln avenue to a location on Park street has gained many patrons. Hughes & Co. report an increasing demand for Alameda property, improved and unimproved, since the announcement by the Southern Pacific company that the corporation is to proceed at once to convert its local steam roads into electric lines. Mr. F. Banta has purchased the interest of M. A. Miller in the firm of Miller & Banta and will continue to do business at the old stand, 1424 Park street. Banta has built up an extensive realty patronage since he started to operate in the local field several years ago.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 6.—Felt lake, where the body of Chester Silent was found floating Wednesday, was visited today by throngs of curious persons.

The boat which first led the students to make a rigid search of the lake and which resulted in the discovery of the body of Silent was the object of considerable curiosity. The dull red stains which have been analyzed as human blood furnished ample material for the amateur detectives in the crowd.

It is expected that a last attempt to wreck the dam and secure the lost gun or reveal the absence of any weapon will be made within the next few days. The Delta Tau Delta fraternity men made no move today to clear the mystery. They still believe that their first brother was the victim of foul play and taboo the suggestion of suicide.

CAR RUNS INTO AUTO. BERKELEY, Oct. 6.—An automobile driven by Lon Sidell and owned by C. A. Orr of the Dwight way repair shop was struck by car 326 of the Telegraph line at Shattuck avenue and Center street this morning. The two headlights, fenders and tires of the automobile were broken. The car was also damaged. Sidell says no warning gong was sounded by the motorman of the car which came upon his machine from behind.

WILL LECTURE ON GREECE. STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 6.—Consular General George Horton will lecture at Stanford university under the auspices of the Stanford branch of the archaeological institute of America on the 11th inst. Horton, as consul to Greece, has become thoroughly familiar with the conditions existing in the country and is regarded as an authority upon Grecian customs. His subject is, "The Greeks of Today."
