Defense Troops

PORTLAND, Jan. 1.—The Oregonian will say tomorrow that adjutant generals of the three Pacific coast states have been invited by the war department to go to Washington, D. C., for a conference at the earliest possible date on the subject of coast defenses. Adjutant General W. E. Finzer of Oregon and General J. B. Lauck of California will leave for Washington tomorrow and General Otis Hamilton of Washington will start Saturday. The request from the war department for this conference is regarded here as peculiarly significant, indicating that the government intends to prepare for any emergency that may arise. The principal topic of consideration at the conference will be the training of volunteer coast artillery reserves to man Oregon, Washington and California fortifications.

FORGES MANY CHECKS AND ADMITS HIS GUILT
High Living Causes Downfall of Young Man in Los Angeles

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1.—After having lived at a beach hotel on the coast, mingled in good society, borrowed money on the claim that he is a son of a wealthy eastern family and passed forged checks to supply the means for his high rollings, Alvan Stewart McEldowney was arrested tonight on several charges of forgery. He promptly made a confession. McEldowney told the detectives of his experiences from the British border southward and admitted that he is wanted in nearly every large city on the coast. In Oakland, he says, he passed a score or more of forged checks and in San Francisco he secured cash on about as many more. He was arrested from $20 to $200. He secured several hundred dollars in the two cities by the bay, but left there before the authorities could act. He says he will plead guilty in court, provided the officers do not send him north for trial.

BLOODY CRIME RECORD
ENDS YEAR IN SEATTLE
Murders, Suicides and Accidental Death Close Page of Tragedies

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL
SEATTLE, Jan. 1.—One murder and suicide, in which negroes were involved, an attempted suicide by a woman, the accidental death of a man by asphyxiation, and the suicide of an unidentified man, was the record written in blood on the last day of the old year in Seattle. Miss Madge Henderson, a negro, was shot and killed by Steve Phillips, another negro, in a Jackson street lodging house, and William McClintock, also black, was seriously wounded. Phillips was arrested later in the day, but denied that he committed the crime. John Katz, a laborer, died from asphyxiation in his room. Nothing is known concerning him. Mildred Lavigne, a 21 year old girl of Blaine, swallowed corrosive sublimate at a Wanders lodging house, but her cries for help brought assistance, and she was taken to a hospital. The chances are that she will recover.

FIGMAN AND THE OTHER PLAYERS HAVE BIG WEEK
"The Man on the Box" Will Remain at American
Extra Seven Days
"WOODLAND" IS NEXT
Savage and Cohan Productions Will Be New Attractions

Max Figman in the comedy, "The Man on the Box," has made a conquest of San Francisco and is drawing record audiences nightly at the American theater. The production is by far the best that has been seen this season at the Market street theater. Figman has proven his right to be classed as one of the best of America's comedians, and he is supported by a capable company. His engagement here will be limited to two weeks. In New York the play ran 300 nights. Matinees, as usual, will be given Saturday and Sunday.

VAN NESS
In the revival of "Woodland," which comes to the Van Ness theater Monday night for a two weeks' engagement, it is asserted that Henry W. Savage has produced a greater musical extravaganza than the original was. Scenically the piece is new; the costumes are new and expensive; much of the "business" and the music are new. The piece is promised a notable presentation. "Woodland" had three New York seasons and has been pronounced the best musical fantasy ever staged in this country.

ALCAZAR
No signs of waning interest are manifest at the Alcazar theater this week. "The Sign of the Cross" has developed next week a new production of the cast, and the setting given the large and gorgeous. Bertram Lytell as Marcus Superbus, Thais Lawton as Mercia, Daisy Lovering as the Roman lad, John R. Maher as Globrio, Bert Wesner as Nero and others in the Alcazar company are doing splendid work before large and appreciative audiences. From appearances "The Sign of the Cross" should enjoy an extended run.

PRINCESS
"The Fencing Master" is in its last nights at the Princess and its drawing powers have not waned perceptibly. Next week a splendid production of "The Belle of New York" is promised. That musical play has not been given in San Francisco for many seasons, and interest is keen in the presentation which the Princess management has arranged.

NOVELTY
Following Harry Woodruff in "Brown of Harvard" at the Novelty comes the Cohan production, "George Washington Jr." The former play is attracting large audiences and the latter attraction has a big advance sale. "George Washington Jr." will appear Sunday night, will introduce to San Francisco Carter de Haven in the first comedy role. He was selected by George Cohan as the latter's best substitute and is a comedian of unctuous humor and originality. The chorus, while not large numerically, is said to be well selected. The girls can sing as well as dance, and they are fair to look upon.

ORPHEUM
This is the last week of the Orpheum road show, which continues to crowd the big vaudeville house twice a day. Next week an entirely new show will be presented. It will be headed by Miss Eugenie Fouger, a noted French singer, dancer and pantomimist. Other new acts will be Gus Edwards' school boys and girls in the musical play "School Days"; Merrill Correll, grotesque acrobat; George Wilson, minstrelman; the Juggling McAnnans and Arlington messenger boys. Lillian Burkhardt in a new sketch and other attractive numbers will complete the bill.

CENTRAL
Many thrills are found by Central theater patrons in the melodramá now on the boards there, "A Midnight Marriage." All the members of the company find scope in their roles for effective work, and the piece is going well. Next week will witness the return of Elmer Booth, a former favorite at the Central. He will appear Sunday night in the frontier play, "A Gambler of the West." New specialties will be introduced.

Accidents Mark Dawn of New Year

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A long record of killings, assaults, accidents and minor crimes were written in Brooklyn today in the water and slime of a usually peaceful Brooklyn was even more disturbed than in larger Manhattan. The police had scores of assault cases to handle in both boroughs. A man was killed by a falling stone from the air. Every window in the cars was shattered and Jesse Williams, a nonunion man, was badly hurt. The men manning the cars retreated and were removed to the police station. MYSTERY STILL VEILS
NEW JERSEY MURDER
Belgian Bloodhounds to Be Used in Effort to Trace
Fiend

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The mystery enveloping the murder of the "woman in red" is seemingly as impenetrable today as when the nude body was first discovered on Christmas day partially concealed in the water and slime of a pond near Harrison, N. J. Thus far the detectives have failed to find a single reliable clue to the identity of the woman or her slayer. The identification of the dead woman by Mrs. Hattie Hull and Detective Drabell of Orange, N. J., have completely collapsed and left the case more puzzling than ever. Word was received from Philadelphia today that the woman whose name Detective Drabell believed the woman to be, had been found in this city. Mrs. Hull's identification is not credited by the police.

IN THOUSANDS OF YEARS
Four Flies and One Worm Relished
by Batrachian From Carboniferous Era

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Pythagoras, the toad, took his first meal in thousands of years yesterday at the Bronx zoo. Four flies and an earth worm constituted the menu of the little black creature that had been buried for 500 million years in a limestone rock 500 feet down in a silver mine at Butte, Mont. The ancient toad is slowly recovering his eyesight and the use of his limbs, and is gradually turning green again, as he was in the middle ages. He has already emitted several feeble sounds, but the croak has not come back.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 1.—Seaboard lawyers left here on a special train at 6:50 for Danville to meet Judge Eritchard. Application for receivership was made to Judge Wordell tonight, but he referred them to Judge Eritchard. BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 1.—In an advertisement which will appear in tomorrow morning's papers Blair & Co. and Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. of New York offer to purchase the coupons, maturing today, on a long list of securities of railroads identified with the Seaboard air line system may be maintained pending an opportunity for the formulation of proper plans for the readjustment of its affairs.

S. Davies Warfield returned to this city tonight from New York, but when asked by a representative of the Associated Press, said that it would be inexpedient for him to make any statement relative to the Seaboard air line situation pending the application for the appointment of receivers. It is known here that conferences have been in progress, the outcome of which might possibly be the staying off of the receivership, but the Associated Press dispatch from Richmond is taken to indicate that the receivership is allowed to have not had a favorable outcome.

BLOODSHED ATTENDS
MUNCIE CAR STRIKE
Several Persons Injured During Attack by an Angry Mob

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 1.—Five persons were injured and two streets were riddled with stones late this afternoon in a riot that followed an attempt of the Indiana Union traction company to run cars manned by strike breakers. The strike followed the refusal of the company to re-sign the wage agreement that had been in effect for five years. Realizing that the local police were unable to cope with the situation, Mayor Guthrie this evening appealed to Governor Hanly to send troops to Muncie, but the governor replied that he would send Colonel Harry B. Smith to look over the situation and he would act as the latter's report guided him. Repeated efforts by the sheriff to swear in deputies were fruitless, as not a man would act. Shortly after 4 o'clock two cars were started through the business section, but a mob had gathered and a shower of stones filled the air. Every window in the cars was shattered and Jesse Williams, a nonunion man, was badly hurt. The men manning the cars retreated and were removed to the police station. Clarence Ship was struck by a wad from a blank cartridge fired by a person whose name is unknown were hurt. The company has 150 strike breakers housed for the night.

the Bones of Probable Prehistoric Race

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL
SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 1.—Word was brought to this city today of the unearthing at Laguna, nine miles up the coast, of 14 skeletons believed to be of a prehistoric race. Workmen of the Humboldt construction company while excavating yesterday afternoon for a bridge foundation on the coast found the discovery. The skeletons were completely buried and were imbedded in what seemed to be a mound of mussel shells. They are now in possession of Majors brothers at Laguna creek. Circles of peculiar pearlike sea shells were found around each body, the strings connecting the shells having rotted away. Other circles of smaller shells were found around the necks of the skeletons, which are exceedingly well preserved. In each case the bodies seem to have been placed in a sitting posture, with heads bent over toward the knees.

MANY BIG SMELTERS ARE READY TO CLOSE
Men Laid Off and Wages
Are Reduced at Helena Institution

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 1.—The American smelting and refining company, it is authoritatively announced here tonight, will shortly close down several of its smelting plants because of the depression in the lead market. At the East Helena plant today the company reduced its force 100 men and tomorrow a 10 per cent reduction in wages will be posted for the 250 men who are retained. Manager Frank M. Smith of the local plant received notice several days ago from officials of the company that the smelter would be closed. However, he prevailed upon his superiors to continue operations in Helena on a reduced force and on the wage scale which was in force November, 1906. This action was taken with the understanding that several other smelters have either already closed down or will in all probability do so, said Smith. "It is hoped that the employees of this plant will accept this reduction in wages and thus assist in keeping the plant in operation. Otherwise the plant will surely have to shut down for an indefinite period. It is planned to keep the H. & H. roasting plant and two blast furnaces in operation if possible."

IS ARRESTED
Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—Miss Ruby Castleman, a young woman, well connected and member of a fashionable church, who attained considerable notoriety two years ago by pleading guilty to several charges of forgery, was arrested yesterday in the First national bank while awaiting return on a check she had presented and which, it is charged, was forged. Miss Castleman is accused by the bank of having cashed three checks of $50 each bearing the signature of Harley Hamilton, leader of the Symphony orchestra, and of presenting one yesterday bearing the signature of F. W. Blanchard, an architect. In September, 1905, Miss Castleman pleaded guilty to the forgery of several small checks and was sentenced to five years. Leniency was extended by the court, however, and she was placed on probation for that period.

The express was approaching Montandon when a light locomotive crossed the siding to the main track. The engineer of the express was so close that he was unable to stop, his heavy train and it crashed into the shifting engine with considerable force. Both locomotives were completely disabled and a combination car, a coach and a Pullman sleeper, was so badly damaged that the passengers had to be transferred to other coaches and the wrecked cars taken out. Most of the passengers received minor injuries and were treated here.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL
SAN JOSE, Jan. 1.—A series of three crimes, coming in quick succession, kept the police of this city on the alert today. Edward Peterson, employed at the First national bank, was held up and chased by footpads early today. Later burglars secured $300 worth of jewelry from the residence of J. M. Carter at 130 East William street. The third crime of the day came when entry was made to the residence of Frederick Brown, a commission merchant, Brown, who is a widower, resides with his daughter at the corner of Brown avenue and Alameda. Early in the morning Miss Brown left the house for a few minutes, and on her return found that a handbag containing $300 in money and jewelry worth $100 had been taken from a clothes closet in her room. SALVATION ARMY SAVES
THOUSANDS FROM SUICIDE
Bureau's Work Shows More Men Than Women Seek to End Lives

LONDON, Jan. 1.—Twelve months ago General Booth of the Salvation Army opened antisuicide bureaus in various cities of the world, and he now has issued a review of the year's work. Altogether 1,125 men and 90 women sought the assistance of the London bureau to save them from self-destruction, while at least an equal number of the small number of women applicants applied at the branches in other cities. It appears from the review that the seekers for help belonged mainly to the middle classes. More than half of them attributed the desire to end their lives to financial embarrassment. From the small number of women applicants General Booth deduces that they are better able to bear up under sorrows and trials than men. He thinks it safe to say that 75 per cent of the applicants have been diverted from contemplated suicide and helped to surmount their difficulties.
