BOHEMIANS MAKE READY FOR THE WEEK

Annual Encampment of Club Is Opened and Members Leave for Grove

Elaborate Production of Mythological Norse Drama Will Be Given August 8

The annual encampment of the Bohemian club opened yesterday and the first installment of Bohemians left the city for the grove, there to prepare and make all ready for the jinks which will take place August 8.

The theme of the jinks is an impish and mischievous one. It has been gathered amid the snowflakes and flocks of mythological Norseland.

The story is purely allegorical and deals with the triumph of the sons of Baldur, the sun god, against the machinations of Loki, god of evil.

Among the solos of the production will be two by Mackenzie Gordon, who takes the part of a minstrel. His first will deal with wine, women and love and the last will be the finale of the piece.

New Drug, Poslam, Now Obtainable in Small Quantities

Since its discovery one year ago, the new drug poslam, has successfully cured thousands of chronic cases of eczema and other distressing skin afflictions.

Heretofore poslam has been dispensed solely for the benefit of eczema patients in large jars sufficient for a month's treatment. This was found to be an inconvenience to many thousands who use it for minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, etc.

Samples for experimental purposes may still be had, free of charge, by writing to the laboratories for them.
