

Electors Will Be Named Today a Republican State Convention

LEADERS FAIL TO COMPLETE SLATE

Convention Will Assemble in Oakland Today to Name Presidential Electors

"Black" Hayes Has Hopes of Winning Over Druffel in Fifth District

Although the republican state convention will be called to order in Yerkes hall this afternoon, the slate for presidential electors has not been completed.

For the first district Dr. G. W. Dwinelle of Siskiyou will probably be chosen. For the second Alden Anderson is the most likely choice.

During the meeting of the state convention a number of district conventions will be held in Oakland.

There will also be a meeting of the chairman of the county committees of the state and a meeting of the state executive committee.

The democratic state central committee, more courageous than the builders of the Denver platform, has come out in favor of government ownership of railroads.

The plank, which is the work of John F. Murray, secretary of the committee, goes thus:

"We favor the construction and operation by the federal government of a railroad from Puget sound to the gulf of Mexico."

BAR MACHINE SPEAKERS

Democrats Will Not Employ Southern Pacific Orators

That is the notice which has been served on the democratic speakers committee of the state central body.

This decision was reached at the meeting of the speakers committee, which consists of Curtis Bradley, Thomas E. Hayden, Harry Bocchio, Paul Scharenburg, Frank Gould and John E. Barker.

It would have been present there who undoubtedly have been friendly to the very best of the party.

NEW HANDBOOK BOOSTS COUNTIES ROUND BAY

California Promotion Committee's Latest Publication Valuable to Readers

Full justice is done the country and counties contiguous to San Francisco bay in a compact handbook entitled "Around San Francisco Bay."

The book declares that the shore line of San Francisco bay is 1,900 miles in length and points out that while the state and federal government have spent practically nothing to develop its possibilities, the bay is large enough to accommodate the navy of the world.

The important position that San Francisco will find on the commercial map when the Panama canal is completed is shown and the trade figures and statistics of the port of San Francisco are given in tables.

The handbook contains items of interest concerning all the bay points and a map of the region.

STOP CIGARETTE SMOKING—Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 26.—F. B. Bark, superintendent of the Rock Island railroad, today issued a bulletin notifying all employees that cigarette smoking will not be permitted and that violators of the order will be discharged.

Candidate for Third District

Representative J. R. Knowland

PROGRAMS SUBJECT TO QUICK CHANGES

Various Rearrangements of Republican Slates for Legislative Nominees Made

Various rearrangements of the republican program of legislative nominees continue to be made.

Sammy Beckett, who thought that he had made sure of the assembly nomination in the thirty-eighth district, wakes to find his dream shattered against a disagreeable reality.

In the forty-fourth district Manne Strauss still thinks he is on the slate to stay and is not disturbed when Mattias, the famous restaurateur of the Latin Quarter, is mentioned as a possible opponent.

Charles M. Fisher, late assemblyman from the thirty-ninth district, has announced to some of his friends that he will run as an independent republican against E. J. Callan, who is the choice of the league for the nomination.

Dr. Tisdale of Alameda was sponsor for Knowland, who was seconded for renomination by George Hilliday of Vallejo, L. R. Mead of Contra Costa county and other delegates, including William R. Davis and A. P. Leach of Oakland.

Representative Knowland delivered an address before the convention in which he said that he should, if elected, continue a campaign in congress for further improvement of Oakland harbor, all mention of which was omitted from the platform, and should also continue to try for additional appropriation for Mare Island.

The new congressional district committee was organized as follows: Forty-sixth district, C. L. Crellin; forty-seventh, E. E. Johnson; forty-eighth, W. J. Bassett; forty-ninth, Eugene E. Stachler; fiftieth, Everett J. Brown; fifty-first, J. W. Evans; fifty-second, J. Arthur Elston.

KNOWLAND NAMED FOR RE-ELECTION

Republican Convention in Oakland Rejects Berkeley Delegate's Proposal

William Elston Declares His Name Was Presented Without His Permission

OAKLAND, Aug. 26.—Opposition from a number of Berkeley delegates prevented the unanimous nomination of a rollcall today of Representative J. R. Knowland from the third congressional district at the republican congressional convention, which was held in Harvey's hall, Eleventh street, near Broadway.

Without his knowledge or consent Arthur Elston of Berkeley was placed in nomination by W. H. Payson, a member of the college town delegation, and was given the eight votes there.

These were the only ballots that were cast against the incumbent, who received 70 votes. Payson explained his action by declaring that he desired to go on record as favoring those who stood for good government.

The adoption of the platform, which carried fulsome eulogy of Governor Gillett, United States Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland, was met by a demand from Delegates Contra Costa for hearing on a minority report. Payson said that he opposed the platform as presented because he did not stand for Governor Gillett, the United States senator and Congressman Knowland mentioned. Outside of these differences the convention ran smoothly.

The convention was called to order by Dr. C. L. Tisdale, chairman of the congressional committee. The delegates were from Alameda, Contra Costa and Solano counties, comprising the third congressional district. M. R. Jones of Martinez was chairman, T. M. John Stewart of Oakland sergeant at arms.

Committees were appointed as follows: On credentials—D. M. Fletcher, Farley R. Granger, L. D. Dinn, Sid H. Wilson, W. G. Thornhill, J. A. E. Johnson, D. Robertson, George Boyson, E. E. Johnson, D. Robertson, L. B. Mead, W. C. Hilliday, J. Tisdale, Dr. O. B. Hamlin, R. B. Granger, J. W. Evans, W. H. Payson.

On permanent organization the committee chairman, J. W. Evans, announced his objections to the independence of the governor, United States senator and congressman, but was otherwise satisfied with the platform. The platform was adopted as amended. It dealt chiefly with the three officials and representatives, expressed admiration for President Roosevelt, pledged support to Taft and Sherman, urged more appropriations for Mare Island navy yard, development of the government arsenal and barracks at Benicia and concluded with a plank in favor of a direct primary law.

Dr. Tisdale of Alameda was sponsor for Knowland, who was seconded for renomination by George Hilliday of Vallejo, L. R. Mead of Contra Costa county and other delegates, including William R. Davis and A. P. Leach of Oakland.

Representative Knowland delivered an address before the convention in which he said that he should, if elected, continue a campaign in congress for further improvement of Oakland harbor, all mention of which was omitted from the platform, and should also continue to try for additional appropriation for Mare Island.

VICTORY RICH, WED, THELEN RETIRES

Energetic Secretary of the Berkeley Lincoln-Roosevelt League Resigns

Recent Defeat of Machine at Polls Due in Large Part to His Efforts

BERKELEY, Aug. 26.—Max Thelen, secretary of the Berkeley Lincoln-Roosevelt club since its organization a year ago, has resigned his position on account of pressure of his law practice. No one has been selected for Thelen's position, which has been filled by the late, Eleventh street, near Broadway.

For the last eight months I have devoted all my spare moments to the service of the club and have attained every immediate end for which it has been striving. I feel that I should endeavor to get back into the ranks and devote my time more exclusively to the attainment of my present ambition—the establishment of an independent law practice. In resigning the secretaryship of the club I wish to congratulate the citizens of Berkeley on their splendid achievements during the last few months. Here, where people are supposed to believe in good government, but to be too impracticable and listless to work for it, the citizens of Berkeley have established the largest and best organized Lincoln-Roosevelt republican club in California, with a membership of over 1,200 voters.

After permanent organization the committee chairman, J. W. Evans, announced his objections to the independence of the governor, United States senator and congressman, but was otherwise satisfied with the platform. The platform was adopted as amended. It dealt chiefly with the three officials and representatives, expressed admiration for President Roosevelt, pledged support to Taft and Sherman, urged more appropriations for Mare Island navy yard, development of the government arsenal and barracks at Benicia and concluded with a plank in favor of a direct primary law.

Counterfeits.

Read what one of the GREATEST NEWSPAPERS IN AMERICA has to say on this subject:

"The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trademark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents, and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Conger Bros. of St. Paul, Minn., say: "Fletcher's Castoria is certainly full of merit and worthy of recommendation." C. G. A. Loder, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "For 20 years we have sold Fletcher's Castoria and are pleased to state that it has given universal satisfaction." The Scholtz Drug Co., of Denver, Colo., says: "Fletcher's Castoria has surely become a household word. Seemingly every family where there are children uses it." Hoagland & Mansfield, of Boston, Mass., say: "We have nothing but good to say about your Castoria and we do not hesitate to give it our unqualified endorsement." Riker's Drug Stores, of New York City, say: "Fletcher's Castoria is one of the oldest and most popular preparations in our stores. We have nothing but good to say about it." Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "Of the thousands of patent medicines for which we have demand there are a very few of them that we can conscientiously recommend and your Castoria is included in this few." D. R. Dyche & Co., of Chicago, Ill., say: "The increasing demand for your Castoria shows that a discriminating public is not slow to seek out a remedy of merit and once convinced that it does all and even more than claimed they do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends." The Owl Drug Co., of San Francisco, Cal., says: "We have always been a believer in the 'original man protection' and have been particular never to sell anything but the genuine and original Castoria (Fletcher's). We have many calls every day for this article from people who say they would not be without it in their homes."

Republican Convention of Sixth Congressional District Meets in Modesto

MODESTO, Aug. 26.—In an outdoor session held in the courthouse park in Modesto and attended by friends and politicians from all over the district, the republican convention of the sixth congressional district today, by acclamation, renominated Congressman James Carson Needham of Modesto to succeed to the office of congressman in the United States house of representatives.

L. L. Dennett of Modesto placed the congressman in nomination in a ringing address. Seconding speeches were made by Robert H. Henderson, C. L. Neumann and Commodore J. Gardner of Santa Cruz and W. L. Williams of Modesto.

Congressman Needham made a short address, thanking the convention, in the course of which he said: "I have no higher or greater ambition than to represent the sixth congressional district of the state of California. Neither have I aspirations further than to represent you in the lower hall of congress."

The convention was called to order by L. L. Dennett of Modesto. J. W. Knox of Merced was elected temporary chairman and A. H. Marlin of Stockton temporary secretary. The resolutions adopted were: That the congressman Needham and reaffirmed faith in the principles of the republican party, endorsed Taft for the presidency, in favor of the primary law, and urged vigilance and his statesmanlike administration of the affairs of the sixth congressional district. The resolution, in part, follows:

"We believe that in him (Needham) the fruit industry of our country as well as the affairs of state and nation, has a wise, courageous and ever watchful defender. His position in the war and means committee and the influence he can exert in the coming tariff reform make his reelection by an increased vote imperatively demanded in order that the industry of the state may be properly protected and that our position and interests in this question may not be undervalued. We call on all our people without regard to party to vote for a direct primary law for congressman Needham by a larger vote than ever."

The new congressional committee was named as follows: Santa Joaquin county, Frank E. Ellis of the twenty-fifth district and J. S. Moulton of the twenty-fourth district; Merced, John Osborn; Stanislaus, J. W. Bassett; Colusa, J. W. Bassett; Contra Costa, W. J. Bassett; Monterey, W. J. Hill; Santa Cruz, J. E. Gardner; Fresno, Haight Jones of the sixteenth district; Stanislaus, L. L. Dennett; at large, F. A. Cressey of Modesto and M. B. Harris of Fresno.

Following the convention the congressional committee met and organized by naming M. B. Harris of Fresno as chairman and L. L. Dennett of Modesto secretary and treasurer.

SUFFRAGISTS ACTIVE

Women Will Make Plea to the Republican Convention

OAKLAND, Aug. 26.—Political headquarters has been opened by the state central committee of the suffragists' organization in the Bacon block. The rooms are decorated with the national colors and a large banner is hung across Twelfth street.

The headquarters is in charge of a committee consisting of Mrs. E. S. Schaezter, Mrs. E. S. Mitchell, Mrs. Alma Kower and Mrs. Agnes Ray. Representatives of the suffragists will meet at the headquarters tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock and will march to the republican state convention at Yerkes hall, at 10 o'clock.

The suffragists invite all worthy women who are in sympathy with their movement to join the street parade. The state central committee, of which Mrs. Lillian Harris Coffin of San Francisco is chairman, will ask the convention to pledge republican legislators to submit a constitutional amendment providing for the extension of suffrage to the women of California.

The committee on resolutions will meet tomorrow morning at the headquarters. Committee rooms have been opened at the Hotel Metropole also.

Primarys Show Voters Not for New York Governor

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE CALL NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—What effects the results of the up state primaries will have upon the candidacy of Governor Hughes for renomination will not be clearly established until the meeting of the advisory committee of the republican state committee on Friday. The committee on resolutions will meet tomorrow morning at the headquarters. Committee rooms have been opened at the Hotel Metropole also.
