PORTLAND WINS GAME

Portland won the game in the concluding inning. The old-time fans of Casey started the music. Casey laid down his second bunt and after Barry had failed to center, Otis Johnson stung the ball safely over second and the Pearl broke the 4 to 4 deadlock...

BEAVERS PLAY FAST

In the seventh the Beavers took another pinch on the head showing two more in. Once more Garrett started the rally with a bingle. After Casey had sacrificed, Raftery beat a slow roller to center. The Beavers were engaged in retreating to base at first. McWay pulled up at the third station and Johnson sent him through with a long fly to Lewis.

Gloves Will Swing at the Big Smyth Testimonial Tomorrow Night

The followers of the fighting game, as well as every member of the sporting fraternity who knew Bob Smyth so well during the many years he labored among them, are looking forward with eager interest to the great amateur boxing benefit to be tendered as a testimonial to his memory tomorrow night at Dreamland rink.

As a preliminary to the great boxing contests the local musicians' union will give a grand concert at the corner of Post and Steiner streets between 7 and 8 o'clock. The best musicians in the city will make up a band and a varied program of popular and classical melodies will hold the attention of the crowd.

Pine Pickers Weld Firestone Does Good Work in Tryout

Williams' Colt Emphasizes Probability of Being Dangerous Factor in Opening Stake

There was more life and snap to the training operations at the Emeryville track yesterday morning than on any previous occasion this season. The tightening up process was decidedly in evidence, and it is now quite apparent that there will be horses aplenty ready for opening day—and horses of infinitely better class than ever before seen in action on the coast at that.

By J. R. Jeffery

The most notable move of the day was credited to T. H. Williams' Opening handicap candidate, Firestone. This colt stepped a mile in 1:55, and did it very impressively. This is the fastest mile so far shown, and coming as it did on his first sharp work since he was given his first sharp work since his arrival from the east. He went three-eighths in 44.

Delaney and Kaufman Arrive From East

Maker of Champions Says Pros- tege Will Take on any White Man, but Bars Negroes

Look, who's here. Billy Delaney, maker of champions, and big Al Kaufman, the material of which Billy expects to pound out a new one. Delaney and Kaufman arrived from New York yesterday, and while other fighters have been humming little songs of how tame and shy and catchable are the dollars along the training operations at the Emeryville track yesterday morning than on any previous occasion this season.

By T. P. Magilligan

Delaney was asked if Kaufman would consent to hook up with Sam Langford. The question almost dropped off his tongue. He was thinking of sending a call for his old foe, New York's William revived. "No, Kaufman will never fight Langford or Johnson," he said. "I would let him fight a negro, but there are a few boys in the game that the silver king is passing up. There are a few boys in the game that the silver king is passing up. There are a few boys in the game that the silver king is passing up.
