UPPER PULLMAN BERTHS OBJECTED TO BY WOMEN

Witnesses Before Interstate Committee Declare Tips Are Necessary to Get Service

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—The upper berth in a Pullman was further disparaged today, when two women took the witness stand before Interstate Commerce Commission Lane, who is considering a plan that an upper berth should cost only half the price charged for a lower.

"In traveling in Pullman cars do you find it necessary to tip the porter?" asked Attorney Hannah.

"It is if one expects to get any service at all," answered Mrs. McNulty. "I have learned by experience that the porter is impertinent and will not give you the service you are entitled to unless you tip him."

"JACK THE SLASHER" BANDITS DYNAMITE IS TRAPPED ON CAR TRAIN ON O. R. & N.

OAKLAND, Dec. 17.—Charged with being "Jack the Slasher," J. P. Frenna, who styled himself a capitalist, was arrested by a special policeman today, who says he caught him in the act of ruining a woman's gown. He gave $10 bail.

The victim of the "slashers" keen scissored was Mrs. G. Proctor of 680 Tenth street, whose dress was cut in two places yesterday while she was riding on a Telegraph avenue car.

Mrs. Proctor did not observe the act, but Special Policeman George W. Lyons was sitting inside the car in a position to see the malicious work. Presently he accosted Frenna, who is a portly man of about 55 years, and placed him under arrest.

Lyons' statement was supported by the word of G. R. Hutchison, employed by the Key Route ferry company to watch at the viaduct in Fortieth street. He also said he saw the capitalist ply the scissors.

"I was standing outside the car leaning against the door, and my dress hung partly inside," said Mrs. Proctor. "I am told that the man rolled the folds around his fingers, then snipped the cloth twice with his scissors. I felt nothing and did not know of the damage until Lyons told me I was the victim."
