

NEW VERDICT IS CALLED FOR SEVENTH JURY PANEL IS EXHAUSTED, WITH NO TALESMEN PASSED

Fixed Opinions Regarding Defendant's Guilt Prove to Be Stumbling Block

John H. Powers, Temporarily Accepted, Excused Owing to Ill Health

By W. Russell Cole

Instead of progressing, or even standing still as it has been doing for several days, the Calhoun case took a step backward yesterday.

Dr. James H. Seymour, who has been attending Powers since he became sick, was not recalled to court for further examination, but Judge Lawlor said that he had held another conference with the physician over the telephone and that the latter had warned him that there would be grave danger of a recurrence of Powers' illness in the event that he was forced to remain in attendance at the trial for several weeks.

Stanley Moore of the defense urged that the matter of dismissing Powers be put over until a more definite report could be had on his condition, but this suggestion was not looked upon favorably by the court.

Judge Lawlor declared that he did not intend to risk interference with the progress of the trial after it was once under way.

CRACKSMEN BLOW UP ANOTHER SAFE

Robbers Secure the Sum of $180.55 From the Sonoma Meat Market

The cracksmen who burst open the safes of W. H. Bogan and the Peerless leather tire company, Golden Gate avenue near Larkin street, Saturday morning, were operating again early yesterday morning in the Sonoma meat market, L. B. Weller, proprietor, in Polk street between California and Sacramento.

The safe, which weighed 700 pounds, had been moved from its place from the center of the store to a meat refrigerator in the rear and blown to pieces. Cash to the amount of $180.55 and checks aggregating $231 were stolen. Detectives O'Dea and Graham are working on the case.

Burglars broke into the residence of Mrs. R. Jones and Mrs. M. A. Chiborio, 1115 Seventeenth street, on Wednesday during their absence and stole jewelry valued at $500.

The grocery of C. D. Vasey & Co., 321 Third street, was entered early yesterday morning, but the only thing missing was a dollar from the cash register.

A burglar attempted to break into the office of the Thomas Finn metal works, 348 Second street, early yesterday morning, but was driven away by the watchman, who fired three shots at him while he was running away.

A burglar entered the residence of Willis Jacobs, 1719 Oak street, Wednesday night. He was seen and jumped out of the window without obtaining any booty.

The tailor shop of H. A. Spencer, 1692 Haight street, was entered early yesterday morning and two suits of clothes, valued at $85, stolen. Evidently the same burglars broke into the drug store of Dr. T. A. Rottazzi, 1698 Haight street. Nothing was stolen.

Sneak thieves and pickpockets were busy Wednesday and early yesterday morning. Edward King, 303 Miguel street, had a gold watch, valued at $85, stolen on Valencia street car Wednesday night. Mrs. A. McDonald, 1309 Page street, was robbed of her satchel containing $20 and a gold medallion on a Haight street car.

Mrs. J. Thalman, Hotel San Rafael, was relieved of her handbag containing $7 in the Coliseum Wednesday night, and O. D. Childs, 287 Valencia street, of a purse containing $125 at a dancing pavilion at Sutter and Pierce streets.

MARKET ST. BANK SETTLEMENT NEAR

Receiver Mosher Authorized to Accept Offer of Assets Realization Company

Beginning next Monday, and using the utmost expedition, Receiver Mosher will distribute $514,019 among the depositors of the insolvent Market street bank, representing 50 cents on the dollar of their claims.

Judge Sturtevant signed the order yesterday accepting the offer of the Assets realization company of $233,300 for all assets of the bank, other than cash, which will permit the receiver to pay a first and final dividend. Before he had done so he was informed that the appeal of the bank against the judgment declaring it insolvent had been dismissed, and that the injunction issued by the federal circuit court had been so modified as to permit bond holders in the Market streets securities company to exchange their bonds for their bank books.

Of the $233,300 to be paid by the Assets realization company, $50,000 is now on deposit in the Wells-Fargo bank and the balance was telegraphed for yesterday.

Unless other arrangement is made, Mosher will pay into court the deposits of those depositors who accepted bonds in the securities company and afterward assigned their bonds to brokers.

FARMERS' SPECIAL VISITS TOWNS THROUGH SOUTH

Hanford, Visalia and Traver were visited yesterday by the special agricultural, horticultural and demonstration train of the Southern Pacific. A stay of three hours was made at Hanford, the center of one of the richest fruit growing sections in the state, and the lecturer by the evening professors were listened to with keen interest and many questions were put and answered.

Visalia was reached at 1:30 p. m. and two hours were spent in that town, which was filled with people from the neighborhood who came to see the train and hear the lectures. There were two sessions at Traver. One in the afternoon and the other in the evening, and both lectures were well attended.

H. R. Judah, who represents the Southern Pacific, in the course of an address, said: "I want to tell you how this train was started. Our people noticed a falling off in the tonnage from various agricultural and horticultural districts and our representatives were instructed to find out the reason. They naturally came to the state university for corroborative evidence. These learned gentlemen assured our people that this was not the case, for with proper cultivation the soil would produce as formerly. This is why we started the train, and we shall feel that we are amply repaid if the farmers by proper husbandry get better crops. Yes, of course, we will have better tonnage to haul, but, gentlemen, pray exercise your imaginations and think of a railroad company as a philanthropist."

HARRIMAN PLANS TRIP TO MEXICO

Railroad Wizard Will Inspect Extension of New Lines in Diaz's Realm

E. H. Harriman will leave New York city some time next week to inspect his southern and Mexican properties. At least, this was the railroad wizard's plan when W. H. Crocker left New York. Harriman told the banker that it was his wish to come west earlier than was his usual custom, and that he would be in California, probably, about the end of March.

According to present plans Harriman will leave New York for New Orleans next week and will inspect the Lafayette-Baton Rouge cutoff, which has already cost several millions of dollars to build through swamp land. It is reported that the Harriman plan is to take pictures of the proposed line from the frontier to the City of Mexico for Harriman's inspection. The plan, however, were destroyed, so Harriman will satisfy his curiosity by a personal inspection of this territory. The road is now open as far as Cullman, and passengers are booked to that point in Pullmans, so Harriman will experience no hardships on the trip.

RECONCILIATION IS DENIED BY EVANS

Navy Man and Former Wife Both Brand as False Tale of Proposed Reunion

Woman to Appear in Vaudeville Sunday Week and Will Make Long Tour

"There will be no reconciliation between Lieutenant Evans and myself. We lived together more than 12 years, and every year saw us farther apart. We are good friends, but can never be anything more. I will appear at the National Vaudeville circuit next week in a sketch with Harry de Laine and Francis Gillette. The deal was closed today and we sign a contract to go over the Considine circuit at once."—Mrs. Maude Evans.

A reconciliation between Mrs. Evans and myself is impossible. We have taken the step and it is irrevocable. There is not a vestige of fact in any of these stories to the contrary."—Lieutenant Commander Holden Evans.

In emphatic terms both Mrs. Maude Evans and Lieutenant Commander Holden Evans yesterday denied the stories which had been circulated to the effect that a reconciliation between them had been effected. Interviews in which the pair has been quoted as having had all differences had been cleared up were branded by both as absolutely false.

Both admit that they met Wednesday night, but that their business deal, which they have an interview with Mrs. Evans left town, and Mrs. Evans says that although well meaning friends have all along endeavored to effect a reconciliation neither she nor Lieutenant Evans has at any time altered the determination to make the separation final.

"I have just closed with Archie Levy, the booking agent," said Mrs. Evans last night, "and will appear in Mr. de Laine's sketch at the National Vaudeville circuit. The part I will play is that of an innocent country maid, the niece of an old aunt who has written a play. People expect to see a brazen woman, but they will be mistaken."

These continual references to Mr. Evans are unkind and unjust, as he has nothing whatever to do with my life now and as he has just been promoted he is busy with his own affairs. My booking agent, the Considine circuit will take me far from here over a chain of vaudeville houses to New York and ultimately to England. Of course, I will use Mr. Evans' name at first as I am known by that name, but when I reach England I will use my maiden name, with which my work with English opera companies has been identified."

Archie Levy, the booking agent, said that Mrs. Evans and her company had been engaged for a long tour over the Considine circuit. The act will be booked as the Mrs. Lieutenant Commander Holden Evans company, with Harry de Laine's rural sketch, "The Old Maid's Hobby."

It is said that a wealthy young Englishman now living at the Fairmont is to play a part, accompanying the troupe for recreation and singing a chorus to aid Mrs. Evans' songs from the audience.

They call attention to the fact that the trip can be made from London to San Francisco via the British stopovers in New York and Chicago, in 10 days. The notice reads: "San Francisco is the winter paradise of the sportsman. The season under the management of Captain E. D. Miller, D. S. O., opens November 20 and ends March 15. Among other a prize of $5,000 is offered for golf. International polo and lawn tennis tournaments, aeroplane and motor boat racing contests are held on a gigantic scale during the season."

EXPLAINS TO THIN LADIES

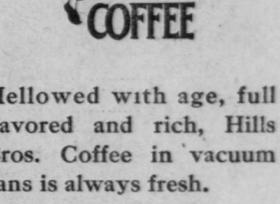

A Simple But Sure Method of Developing a Well-Rounded Bust and Figure.

(From New York Journal.)

It is a simple but sure method of developing the bust, arms, neck, hips and shoulders of women, who through some defect of nutrition and circulation are forever being humiliated by their more fortunate sisters. First, it must be understood that the human skin is an enormous network of fine vessels which contain at one time over one-third of all the blood in the body—that is, if nature is perfect.

The relation of the skin to the vital organs through the nervous system in controlling the blood supply is such as to put them as a team working together. Get separately two ounces glycerine, three ounces of rose-water, one ounce tincture cadomene composed (not cardamon) and five cents worth of borax. Mix the glycerine with tincture cadomene, shake and let stand two hours, then add a teaspoonful of borax and the rose-water. Apply to the parts needing development morning and night, rubbing until thoroughly absorbed; then wash off with hot water and soap and dry.

It is believed by expert dermatologists to be the most effective prescription ever conceived for the purpose.
