We have no location downtown yet, nor will we have any till the rents come down where they should be. Our Oakland house is packed to the doors, and from now on we will sell our San Francisco pianos in the East until we have the proper location downtown at the proper price. This sale will last for a few days only, as we must get the goods out. We do not need money. If you haven't got it to spare we will place a piano in your home free. You can use it for a while, and send it back when we have a new location, or you can pay us on easy terms, or you can get the benefit of our sacrifice by paying cash. Come in and investigate.
