By WALTER ANTHONY

"Fedora" introduced to us last night a new duo of stars in the International opera company, which is enjoying well earned success at the Princess theater this week. Giordano's opera was well received by a big audience, which voted Colombini, the tenor, and Mme. Therry, the soprano, individual hits.

Mme. Therry does not sing with the throat ease that characterizes the vocalization of many Latin singers, and a tendency to swerve from the straight and narrow path of perfect pitch is sometimes apparent; but her voice is large, vibrant and most expressive. Her "mezzo voice," which means nothing more formidable than between soft and loud, is pure and liquid and musical. She is equal to the dramatic demands of Sardou's heroine, and in the second act and last was splendid in the climaxes. Her Fedora was a vigorous impersonation and decidedly effective.

COLOMBINI CAN ACT

Colombini is an artist. He is a tenor who can act. Think of it, and wonder! He has facial play like a tragedian in the last act, when the calamity falls on Fedora and him, and he is graceful and insinuating in the quieter scenes. His voice is not large, but it has excellent carrying capacity. In the tempestuous moments in which Sardou and Giordano both revel he pushes his vocal powers to the limit of their possibilities, and while achieving a sensational effect, he does it at the expense of a beautiful organ which he should coddle and keep for many years. His tonal quality is sympathetic and warm.

It has been said before. Let me say it again. The present company differs from many another Italian organization which has visited us in the fact that the scenery is not painful to look upon and the costumes look as though they were made without being elaborate, and they are clean and fresh.

ORCHESTRA DOES WELL

The orchestra last night under Conductor G. Merola behaved itself tunefully and well. It rose to the theatrical high places of Giordano's music with nerve and firmness, and in the intermezzo which takes place in the second act was beautifully melodious and effective. The waltz movement with which the opera's second act opens also was a number in which the orchestra gave us good reason to be glad, and Merola became a star. For his conducting in this act he was called before the curtain to share with Colombini and Mme. Therry in the success of the great finale.

Arcangeli, with the big baritone voice, sang the role of De Sirix acceptably, and Mlle. Donner was a pretty countess.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" will be the double bill tonight.

SUSPECTED VESSELS ARE CLAIMED BY VENEZUELA

Supposed Filibusters Will Be Used to Patrol Lake

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Official advices from Venezuela today cleared up the mystery of the steamer Naticoke and tug Dispatch, suspected of filibustering, showing they were purchased by Venezuela. The department of justice has ordered its agents to abandon their observations on the vessels in North Carolina and to return to Washington.

The advices saying the two vessels had been bought by Venezuela came from Caracas. The vessels are for duty on Lake Maracaibo under the government navigation service.

Assistant Secretary McIlarg of the department of commerce and labor telegraphed to the collectors of ports on the middle Atlantic coast to grant clearance papers to the Naticoke and Dispatch.

A FEW WORDS WITH the LADY of the HOUSE

A Thought for Today

Some of us are content with the little pleasures. If we were, there would be much more happiness in the world and far less discontent. But we scorn the little things which might interest and amuse us and fret because we can't have the big ones.

Little pleasures are scarcely worth telling our friends about. Perhaps that is why we think so little of them.

Household Notes

When a sink or bath has an obstruction at the outlet which can not be removed with a long rubber suction pump—the usual resources—all the sink with water to the depth of four inches, take a piece of wood, six eight inches square and an inch thick, and float it over the outlet. Now take a small piece of wood, hold it on top of the flat piece and strike it with hammer. The shock of the hammer blow is transmitted to the obstruction, which is almost invariably cleared away.

The Boudoir—In the never ceasing fight for beauty that should be waged by every woman the necessity of fresh air can not be too highly estimated. For exercise and cosmetics will avail little if one sleeps in a poorly ventilated room.

Some persons have an idea that if a room is cold the air in it is fresh. No greater mistake could be made. Low temperature and ozone are not synonymous, as applied to a house. The coldest air indoors may be foul.

DEVILN SURE TO BE REAPPOINTED

Senate Judiciary Committee Finds No Merit in Charge by Dr. Perrin

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The senate judiciary committee is ready to report favorably upon the nomination of United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin to succeed himself. The subcommittee in charge of the matter, composed of Senators Piles, Borah and Overman, has examined the report made by Assistant Attorney General Harr, who investigated Dr. E. B. Perrin's charges against Devlin. They have also questioned Devlin personally and have conferred with Attorney General Wickham regarding the case.

HAS DONE HIS DUTY

"Devlin has done his duty and nothing more or less than his duty, as far as we can see," said a member of the subcommittee. "There are very peculiar features in this case, but there is no reflection upon Devlin in them."

"Senator Tillman is anxious to stir up the matter in order to find out what is meant by Harr in his report wherein he says that Detective Burns appeared in the grand jury room and declared that he had just returned from Oyster Bay and that President Roosevelt wanted Dr. Perrin indicted."

"Tillman seems to think there may be a good deal behind that, but I think we will report Devlin's nomination favorably and that he will be confirmed."

HARR'S REPORT

"Attorney General Bonaparte had Harr's report in a bundle of papers marked 'Secret,' not to be opened," Attorney General Wickham opened them at our request and permitted us to read this report, but he would not send the report to the capital.

"Why the report was kept so secret by Bonaparte we do not know. What we asked Wickham about the Burns matter he merely said: 'We have nothing to do with Burns. He is not in the employ of the department of justice.'"

GATHER IN COIN ON FAKE ORDERS

Two Men Representing Imaginary Distilling Company Trick Local Saloonmen

The Royal Arch has determined to prosecute two men who have been obtaining money from saloon keepers by representing themselves as agents for the Pine Top distilling company, Peoria, Ill., which existed only in their imagination. The two men are M. Spero and F. H. Hulsmeier.

Mark Ragusin, saloon keeper, 1 Greenwich street, accompanied by Attorney Choyenski, swore to a complaint yesterday charging Spero with obtaining $59 from him January 6 by false pretenses. The total amount secured in this city by the two men will, it is said, amount to $2,000.

Spero and Hulsmeier originally represented the Neversink distilling company of Lorraine, Pa., but were discharged, it is alleged, for crooked work. They opened an office in this city in the Foxcroft building, got papers printed of the Pine Top distilling company and commenced to solicit orders, giving receipts for money paid on the orders. No whisky came to the purchasers, who were put off with one excuse and another until complaints were made to the Royal Arch, and Attorney Choyenski was instructed to investigate.

The result was that Choyenski put the matter in the hands of the police, and Detectives Bunker and Freel were detailed on the case. Spero's wife was in this city and, by watching her mail, Spero was the other day located in Iowa, and a dispatch was sent by Captain Anderson to arrest him. Hulsmeier has not yet been located.

SAN JOSE BOOSTERS TO TOUR THE BAY CITIES

Whooping Up the Garden City Fourth of July

A trainload of San Jose boosters will invade San Francisco Tuesday next and with banners and a band of 20 musicians will extend an invitation to the city at large to attend the fourth of July celebration in their city.

It is to be a three day carnival, July 3, 4 and 5, and it is the plan of the leading citizens of San Jose to attract at least 50,000 people there for the occasion.

The train carrying the boosters will leave San Jose early Tuesday morning, making stops at the principal towns en route and reaching here about noon. Special streetcars will await them and they will be taken to Fourth and Market streets. From there they will march to the St. Francis hotel for luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Speeches will follow, and at 2 o'clock the men from San Jose will leave the hotel and march down Market street with their musicians, serenading the newspaper offices.

The 3 o'clock boats will convey them to Oakland, where a parade and more music will be given. The fact is that Oakland people that they may spend a happy fourth of July at San Jose.

For many years "Clam Charley" had been a familiar figure around the little seacoast village. Last night he said he was homesick for the land of his birth. "I am going back to Paris," he said, and when his companions laughingly asked him how he intended to make the trip he answered with a smile that he was going in his private yacht.

It is said that he had been drinking absinthe freely for a number of days, and his mind was probably unbalanced when he started out in a light skiff last night.

EMPLOYERS DRAFT THEIR ULTIMATUM

Employees Offered Work at the Wages Paid Prior to April 18, 1906

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

SAN JOSE, June 16.—In a secret session today an ultimatum clothed in courteous terms was formulated and is to be issued to the locked out union men. A resolution was passed requesting all employees to go back to work on their respective jobs Monday morning at the wages that were being paid prior to April 18, 1906.

If the union men are unwilling to surrender then their places are to be filled with nonunion men at that time.

The union labor leaders here today reiterated their assertions that they will not work at reduced wages. Work is going on as usual on most of the smaller jobs, union laborers figuring on some of the small buildings.

Boys and inexperienced men have been secured to fill the places of the striking teamsters who quit rather than haul materials for E. O. Engstrom, who has the contract for the state normal building.

ELKS TO DEDICATE HOME—Vallejo, June 16.—Elks from many cities about the bay will be held to Vallejo on Sunday, July 4, and Monday, July 5, to attend the dedication ceremonies of the Vallejo lodge of Elks, which will occupy its new $25,000 home in Sacramento street. The building is three stories and basement, with classrooms on the first floor, hall on the second floor and a roof garden and apartments on the third.

HARRIMAN GETS GEORGIA LINE—New York, June 16.—The purchase of the Central of Georgia railroad by the Illinois Central railroad company was announced today by J. F. Hanson, president of the Central of Georgia.

MAMMOTH EQUINES IN MONSTER TEAM

Ninety-six Animals Under One Driver's Guidance to Feature Work Horse Parade

Ninety-six horses that earn their daily hay by hauling heavy loads, matched as perfectly as may be, and forming one team, 12 rows of them, 8 abreast, or 16 rows, 6 abreast, will be one of the novel features of San Francisco's workhorse parade, September 9. They will represent, though in larger form, the teams used here in earlier days to lay the cables for the streetcar lines, and each sober equine, glorified for this one day in the year, will be groomed to look his best, and coaxed to change his usual plod to a decorous prance.

With this giant team of giant horses very little maneuvering will be possible, and only the widest of streets, Market and Van Ness avenue, it is thought will be able to hold them. The turn from the main thoroughfare into the avenue will be a triumph in horsemanship in itself, if accomplished successfully, and there is talk of securing a driver of some old California stage coach, such a man as swung his eight or ten horses around mountain curves with the coach on two wheels, to hold the reins over the animals.

The teams will be entered in the parade as representatives of the draying interests. George Renner of the Draymen's association has the arrangements under his charge. It is proposed to form a national association of workhorse parade societies for the purpose of improving and systematizing the events, and also of spreading the custom of holding them. A meeting to form this society will be held immediately after the conclusion of the convention of the National Team Owners' association in Boston, June 24, and many Californians will be present to represent this state and her magnificent horses.

"DOCTORED" WHISKY SUBJECT TO SEIZURE

Internal Revenue Bureau Gives Out Important Ruling

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Disonest wholesale liquor dealers who substitute inferior "doctored" whisky for aged whisky in distillers' original packages, bearing government warehouse and tax paid stamps, will hereafter run the risk of the seizure of their goods by revenue agents. A decision to that effect was made today by Acting Commissioner Williams of the internal revenue bureau, who ordered the seizure of all distillers' packages when, by chemical test, it shall be shown that other spirits than those inspected had been substituted.

WENCESLAW LOAIZA GRANTED DIVORCE

His Wife Makes No Opposition to Interlocutory Decree for Desertion

OAKLAND, June 16.—Another chapter has been written in the Loaiza-Hanley affinity divorce story, and the last word of the chapter, which was the signing of an interlocutory decree of divorce today by Judge Ellsworth, means that only one more year of waiting separates Wenceslao R. Loaiza, millionaire member of a noted Central American family, from lawfully wedded Louise M. Hanley, divorced wife of Harry G. Hanley, cashier of the Wells Fargo Nevada national bank of San Francisco.

Loaiza was granted the interlocutory decree today against his wife, Maria San Vicente Loaiza, who is at present in Hermosillo, Mex. The grounds were desertion, and Mrs. Loaiza made no contest.

Loaiza is a member of the firm of W. Loaiza & Co., with offices in New York and San Francisco, and doing a large importing business with Central America and Mexico. He has been for years one of the most prominent men in the Central American colony of San Francisco.
