Later the rowdy element formed again in the vicinity of the embassy and tore up the lamp posts, trees and benches and erected a barricade.

Bullets Miss Police Chief M. Lepine, prefect of police, soon arrived at the head of reinforcements and was received with a volley of shots from the crowd.

The cavalry charged, using their sabres freely, and stormed the barricade. The police arrested a dangerous Spanish anarchist, Emmanuel de la Torre, who admits having fired at Lepine.

Letter Denouncing Trial In a letter written to the Siecle by Ferrer October 7, the Spanish revolutionist declared that the evidence against him at the court martial consisted of depositions made by 999 persons confined in the prisons in Catalonia and the hearsay testimony of others.

There was not a single witness who gave any direct evidence implicating him in the assassination of the king. The Paris newspapers issued extra editions with glaring headlines, some of them expressing the belief that King Alfonso had compromised his future by failing to intervene and prevent the execution of Ferrer.

Indignation in Paris Interviews that were printed show that many persons prominent in the scientific and political world are both indignant and pained at the day's events in Spain. A member of the legislature said he was stupefied at one action, which he characterized as an act of political cannibalism.

Madrid Papers Censured A special dispatch to the Temps from Madrid says the Spanish minister of the interior announced today that he intended to publish the three articles by him since Madrid is permitted to print only the official communications regarding the case of Ferrer.

The dispatch adds that hundreds of persons assembled on the sidewalks surrounding the Ministry of the Interior and by the troops from approaching the prison. Juarez, the deputy who yesterday addressed a mass meeting in protest, had an interview with the minister in which he predicted that if Ferrer was shot a conflagration would be started which would not be extinguished.

Socialists Blame Alfonso BRUSSELS, Oct. 13.—The People, a Socialist organ, commenting today editorially on the death of Ferrer, says: "The awful news will unchain a tempest. We fear that in refusing to stop the execution of Ferrer, Alfonso has signed his own death warrant."

Demonstration in Rome ROME, Oct. 13.—The execution of Ferrer has caused a profound impression here and tonight there was a serious demonstration of protest against the action of the Spanish government. There were cries of "Long live Ferrer," "Down with reactionism," "Down with the Jesuits," "Down with Merry del Val."

The police and troops succeeded in maintaining comparative order and prevented the approach of the demonstrators to the square where the Spanish embassy stands. It is reported that a few days ago Ferrer's daughter telegraphed to the pope from Rome, pleading intervention to save her father's life.

Merchants of San Francisco Alive to Necessity of Taking the Offensive President in Speech at Phoenix Says He Will Help in Statehood Fight

Traffic Bureau Abandons Policy of Defensive and Will Make Sortie Against Enemy Refers to Oklahoma Constitution as Being a Zoological Garden of Cranks

Continued from Page 1 PRESIDENT Taft won a hearty welcome into Arizona today by proclaiming wherever he went that he was heartily in favor of statehood for each of the territories of Arizona and New Mexico.

When the joyousness which greeted this statement had died away, Taft had sober words for his audience, in which he sought to impress upon them the necessity for deliberation in framing a state constitution. He declared that all such constitutions should follow the simplicity of the constitution of the United States and should be general in scope, with simple rules of litigation.

Taft urged the people of Arizona to profit by what he termed the mistakes of Oklahoma in constituting making. He characterized the Oklahoma constitution as "a zoological garden of cranks."

Deposed Minister to China Says He Wonders if Resignation Reached President

Knox Seems Satisfied and Chief Executive Shows Interest, But Says Nothing

[Special Dispatch to The Call] WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Charles R. Crane, late minister to China, said tonight that he had not heard from President Taft and was wondering whether his telegram of resignation had reached the president.

"I don't regard this as a closed incident by any means," he said when informed that the state department had so described the situation. "What are your plans?" "I haven't any just now," replied Crane.

Secretary Knox has returned to his farm at Valley Forge, well satisfied with the chore he did yesterday. Huntington Wilson, assistant secretary, who is accused by Crane of failure to keep appointments and of neglect of his official duties, is too ill to be interviewed.

Crane said today that he had a 50 minute talk with Assistant Secretary Adee before leaving for San Francisco. According to Crane, 30 minutes of the time was devoted to a talk on microscopy and the other 20 minutes to photography. Adee being an enthusiast on both these branches of science, Crane said not a word of instructions was given to him.

Taft Will Not Interfere PRESOTT, Ariz., Oct. 13.—President Taft evidenced great interest today in the press dispatches from Washington concerning the Crane case, but gave out no statement regarding it, the intimation being that there will be no statement from President Taft at any time.

Secretary Knox is in full control of the state department and all matters connected with it and it is to be presumed that he has been authorized by the president to accept Crane's resignation forthwith. Hastens Japanese Action PEKING, Oct. 13.—Japan has taken official cognizance of the reported efforts of British and American interests to arrange with China to build the Kin Chowtse Tsihar railway, as it is considered that the proposed construction of this road has grown out of the defeat of the plan to build the Hsinmin-tung-Fakuman railway. Japan has formally notified China that while it does not intend to obstruct that government, yet it will maintain its right to be consulted with respect to Manchurian railways.

Recent events in connection with the recall of Charles R. Crane precipitated the inclusion of American interests in the action of the American secretary of state followed Japan's solicitations, not only on account of Crane's alleged utterances, but because the American activities in Manchuria are under a former American official, whom the Japanese regard as exceedingly active in the anti-Japanese movement in Manchuria following the war.

The Japanese appear to be alarmed at the American activities, which seem to bear the stamp of governmental direction. Will Write Crane Play NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Charles Klein, the playwright, who wrote "The Lion and the Mouse" and the "Third Degree" and makes a specialty of topical plays, has chosen as the subject for his next effort the sensational dismissal of Charles R. Crane as minister to China by Secretary Knox. The play, as he outlines it, will deal with the humors of diplomacy.

WORTHLESS CHECKS KEEP POLICE DETECTIVES BUSY Three Alleged Offenders Cause Complaints From Tradesmen The affairs of B. M. Levy, who represents himself to be a lieutenant in the United States army, and who, while flying under those colors passed a worthless check for $32 upon the firm of George W. Roche & Co. of 247 Bush street, are being investigated by the police, who believe they will uncover a long trail of deceit in the mysterious stranger's past.

Levy attires himself in a tan hat and blue suit, and judging by the complaints Captain of Detectives Anderson is receiving, has no difficulty in impressing victims with his rank and worthiness. Detectives Burke and Armstrong are now endeavoring to locate the swindler.

Joseph Kelly, who attempted to pass a bogus check on J. A. Anderson, proprietor of a saloon at Mariposa and Kentucky streets, was brought into the court here today and was sentenced to 180 days in the county jail. Kelly was arrested by the patrolman and will be used as evidence against the prisoner.

SIX GOLD FISH STOLEN FROM PARK TEA GARDEN Piscatorial Thief May Also Have Appropriated Bathtub The mystery of six stolen goldfish and the theft of a porcelain bathtub is agitating police circles, and Captain of Police Anderson needs only the report of some stolen goldfish to send him into hysterics.

Detectives Manuel de la Guerra and Frank M. PORTLAND ROBBERS BAR THEIR WOES

Barrier to Trade Erected by Freight Rates at Oregon Boundary Trouble Began When the Union Pacific Went Into Receiver's Hands

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 13.—Five more businessmen of this city appeared before the interstate commerce commission today and added the weight of their testimony to those who testified yesterday, that 20 years ago Portland was able to job its wares profitably as far east as Pocatello, Idaho, and that year by year they have seen parts of that territory lopped off by unfavorable rates, until today Portland's distributive area is but a fraction of its previous extent.

They testified that there had been a barrier arbitrarily erected at the Oregon boundary line, past which they must not go, and that in some of the territory that is saved they are now compelled to absorb part of the freight charges in order to meet competition from the east.

HISTORY OF RATE MAKING Henry Hahn, a wholesale grocer, and for several years head of the transportation committee of Portland's chamber of commerce, was the star witness for the complainants. He went at great length into the history of rate making in the Pacific northwest. Among the statements he made was that Portland had never had any trouble with its rates to interior points until 15 years ago, just after the Union Pacific railroad went into the hands of a receiver.

Suddenly, and without apparent reason, witness declared, the distributive rates from Portland east were readjusted. Idaho was walled off and other parts of its territory restricted so as to make jobbing here impossible or difficult.

All of Portland's witnesses declared eastern made goods now meet them on an even footing as far west as Boise, Idaho; Baker City, Ore., and Spokane, Wash. THE RAILROAD SIDE The railroads had their innings this afternoon. They contended that the rates at present in force are not unreasonable. Counsel for the Oregon railroad and navigation company declared he would prove that his road is earning less than 7 per cent on its invested capital and between 2 and 3 per cent on the present valuation of its property. Only one of the railroads' witnesses testified this afternoon and the commission adjourned for the day at the conclusion of his cross examination.
