W. T. Anderson Will Ship From New York; Local Man Tells of Racing in Europe

Secretary Percy W. Treat of the New California Jockey club received a telegram yesterday notifying him that W. T. Anderson would ship some horses from New York along with a "Plunger" James Macnamara, Anderson went east for the purpose of adding to his stable, which was raced in the west last season.

The sight I witnessed is almost indescribable. It was estimated that about 700,000 people saw the racing of the Derby. When the various tracks, minor and the home a mighty throng gathered to see the race. Thousands gathered around the grand enclosure and some started to sing before the King of the Turf had even begun to take up over the course and the strains of the band were drowned by the volume of the cheering.

While on the continent I saw much racing in France, Germany and Belgium, and found the American jockey doing well at the various tracks. It was a pleasure, indeed, to see how the best people in England and other countries regarded the sport and the feeling is in marked contrast to that entertained by some people in this country.

When Tom Holland beat Fireball at Linton last week, H. G. Bedwell bid me up from $700 to $1,200, but he was retained by Owner Stevens.

Stewart Polk wrote from Ogden to Secretary Treat asking for three stalls at Belle Meade.

Ferd Owen, who was at Victoria and Vancouver during the meetings there, is coming to the coast to race.

Robert Turner has announced that he will be a 20 days' meeting at Savannah commencing about the middle of January. He will act as starter.

Big Sale of Seats for the Oakland High Sophomores Rugby Game

By WILLIAM UNMACK "Never during my long experience in handling a sale of the Stanford-California football tickets do I remember ever having had such a phenomenal demand for the tickets as has taken place since they were put on sale last Friday."

L. A. Wolff, manager of A. G. Spalding & Brothers, where the tickets are on sale, made the above statement yesterday, and in his judgment the largest crowd that has ever attended these annual contests is already assured for next Saturday at Palo Alto.

The demand is equally great at Berkeley. Robert Turner has announced that he will be a 20 days' meeting at Savannah commencing about the middle of January.

When Tom Holland beat Fireball at Linton last week, H. G. Bedwell bid me up from $700 to $1,200, but he was retained by Owner Stevens.

Stewart Polk wrote from Ogden to Secretary Treat asking for three stalls at Belle Meade.

Ferd Owen, who was at Victoria and Vancouver during the meetings there, is coming to the coast to race.
