MAN WITH AN IDEAL NEEDED BY NATIONS

Baron Shibusawa, Japanese Commissioner, Advocates Spiritual Development Religion Described as Giving Strength and Vigor in Address Before Y. M. C. A.

Laying aside the materialistic view of businessmen on a tour of investigation, the visiting members of the Japanese commercial commission dealt with affairs spiritual yesterday at a mass meeting held by the Young Men's Christian association in Golden Gate hall, discussing the value of religion in the upbuilding of nations and in the maintenance of the peace of the world.

At the meeting was shown the calm, logical manner in which the Japanese mind considers religion. Baron Shibusawa, the leading banker of the orient, spoke for the commissioners.

"No observer of human affairs," he said, "can fail to see the value of the spiritual in the workings of the world. IDEAL MAN IN DEMAND "The man who devotes himself exclusively to the affairs of finance or of commerce and neglects the development of the spiritual side of his nature, falls far short of being the ideal man. And it is the ideal man that the state demands from its citizens or subjects, for the more perfect are the men comprising a community the more perfect is that community.

"The ideal man is he who can combine the material with the spiritual, the man who has his theory of life and endeavors to put that theory into practice. When a man is guided by a spiritual conviction toward the attainment of a material object, he will surmount obstacles with greater ease and with greater enthusiasm than if guided solely by purely material desires. Religion gives mankind an object, and without religion a man or a nation is without lasting strength and vigor.

VALUE OF Y. M. C. A. WORK "The Young Men's Christian association seems to have grasped the great value of combining the spiritual and the material, and its success in all lands shows that it is making rapid progress toward the attainment of its object—that of making better characters, better men, better citizens and a better state.

Baron Kanda, another commissioner, a graduate of Yale and one of the first to start Y. M. C. A. institutions in Japan, spoke of the work he had done where thousands of students travel annually from all parts of the Japan. "These young men," he said, "wander from boarding house to boarding house and find temptation on every hand. The Y. M. C. A. has a great field there and recognizing this fact takes advantage of every opportunity.

KING IN HUMBLE HUT "During the course of the speeches this afternoon reference has been made to presidents, kings and emperors, and also this meeting not being held in its own hall. Taking these two points, I call to your mind, gentlemen, that kings and emperors live in palaces, guarded and kept apart, but the king you worship and the king who worships lives in the humblest hut and the closest among us may commune with him at any moment.

Speeches were made also by Dr. William Rader Jr., Dr. Frederic Clappert, Rev. H. P. Johnson and Henry J. McCoy, secretary of the association.

The Japanese visitors devoted the remainder of the day to resting and informal visits among their countrymen. The main events today will be a reception in the Merchants' Exchange building by the chamber of commerce and a banquet at the St. Francis hotel. During the morning the visitors will be taken around the city in automobiles.

GOOD PROGRAM AT THE CHUTES DRAWS CROWDS

Novel Log Rolling Act Pleases Throng The attendance at the Chutes yesterday was large, attracted by the program that has been prepared for this week. In Ernest and Dugan, the log rollers, the Chutes has the most novel and attractive act presented thus far this season at this popular place of amusement. Dugan and Ernest are, in fact, lumbermen from eastern Canada. These young men perform all sorts of difficult feats upon a log placed on the lake of the Chutes. They run on the log, and the test of skill lies in one trying to throw the other into the water. They make many funny falls into the lake, and all in all present the best act of the season.

"Silvers" Oaks and his band of merry "Andrews" are presenting a series of new and funny comedy acts in various parts of the grounds and are great favorites with the youngsters. The aerial act of the Corning family is graceful and daring in the extreme. There are upwards of 19 free acts on the bill, and all of them of a meritorious character.

LIBRARY EXTENSION PLANS FOR COUNTY

Capital City Trustees Arrange With Supervisors to Establish Several Branches

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SACRAMENTO, Nov. 28.—A library extension plan has been agreed upon between trustees of the Sacramento library and the county supervisors, whereby residents of the county will be given the full use of the Sacramento library. The plan provides for the establishment of central points over the county of branch libraries, books being sent from one to the other as called for. It provides also for residents of the county securing books at the main library under the same conditions as residents of the city. The county is to raise a library fund of $4,000 to aid in the movement. The plan will give students of country schools full access to reference books and provide the people of the county with all the reading they desire.

HIGH LICENSE IS URGED FOR ROSEVILLE SALOONS

Ordinance Making Town "Dry" Is Also Advocated [Special Dispatch to The Call] ROSEVILLE, Nov. 28.—When the town trustees met Monday, December 6, to pass on an ordinance providing for high license for saloons of this town, it is probable several propositions will be submitted. The Citizens' league has an ordinance which it will ask the trustees to pass fixing the license at $1,000 a year, but it is known that a majority of the trustees favor a license of $500 and it is considered likely the figure will be cut.

On the other hand, however, Superintendent Sheridan of the Southern Pacific, at whose request the present movement was started, has declared emphatically that he favors a license of $1,200 or else an ordinance prohibiting saloons altogether. If the trustees fix the license at an exceedingly high figure or prohibit saloons entirely, he says it will be a matter of but a few years until Roseville will have a population of 10,000 as the railroad company has many plans in store for this town.

BOYS UNDER AGE KILLED IN ST. PAUL MINE HORROR

Evidence at Inquest of Labor Law Violations CHERRY, Ill., Nov. 28.—The coroner's inquest into the St. Paul mine horror will be resumed tomorrow. The state factory inspector will offer evidence of the employment in the mine of boys under age who were killed, and will ask the coroner to issue subpoenas for witnesses to inquire fully into the violation of the child labor law.

SISKIYOU COUNTY GOES PARTLY DRY

Saloons Outside Incorporated Towns Must Close as Result of Election

[Special Dispatch to The Call] YREKA, Nov. 28.—Sixty saloons in Siskiyou county will be closed if the board of supervisors abides by the decision of voters at the special election held throughout this county yesterday. The anti-saloon measure won by a majority of 165. The vote does not affect the incorporated towns of Yreka, Fort Jones, Etna, Stinson, Dunsmuir, Montague and Dorris, but covers only the 60 saloons outside these towns. The election was held under agreement between the anti-saloon league and the supervisors, the anti-saloon league paying the expenses of the election and the supervisors agreeing to pass an ordinance abolishing the saloons if the county went dry. The saloonmen fought against the election, but the courts on two different points held that it was legal and refused injunctions sought by saloonmen. With the addition of Siskiyou county to the dry column the anti-saloon league has added a distinctly artistic list in northern California. Plumas, Sutter and Yolo, with the exception of Washington and Woodland, have voted dry recently.

The campaign will be carried into other counties, according to announcement made by the leaders of the movement. Already a campaign has been launched to make Shasta county dry.

It is proposed to erect a 10 story building of steel and concrete with depot and general headquarters of the roads on the first two floors and office rooms in the remaining floors. The Vallejo and Northern road may combine with the two others in the construction of the building.

By R. R. L'HOMMEDIEU The Winton motor carriage company reports the delivery of a little six cylinder, 48 horsepower touring car to H. C. Rodgers of Ross, Marin county; also a similar car to J. H. Mackenzie. Mackenzie will use the car in Goldfield, where he has extensive interests. This is the second Winton he has purchased. Jerome Phillips has ordered a specially built Winton. It is to be finished in the light shades of brown so as not to show dust, as the first trip he will make after getting the car will be a trip across the continent. The car will be equipped with all the necessary appliances for camping on the way to the Atlantic coast.

Always noted for their portrayal of the greatest advance in the art of commercial printing, the catalogue of the Pierce-Arrow motor car company of Buffalo stands out this year as a specimen of a distinct step in advance of anything in this line ever attempted before. It is 32 pages in size and every page is made up of illustrations and illustrations of mechanical features of the car. Four full page color designs by one of the best known artists and illustrators in America, showing phases of motor car use add a distinctly artistic tone to the book. On the corners of the pages containing text matter are small illustrations of scenes from the Glidden and Hower trophy contests, both of which were won by Pierce-Arrow cars this year.

The catalogue has been sent to Pierce-Arrow dealers throughout the country and will be distributed only through them. W. L. Hughson, president of the Standard motor car company, reported yesterday the closing of an agency for Coalinga with Chrisman Brothers of Coalinga, which concern has made a contract for a large number of Ford cars. The first shipment to the new agents consisted of four machines, the cars being driven from this city to Coalinga by the new representatives of the Ford machines in that territory. According to Chrisman Brothers the demand for the light class of cars, such as the Ford, is going to be such that they expect to sell as many cars as they can secure. Chrisman Brothers will receive several of these cars each month.

NOTES OF THE AUTO Mrs. J. L. Smith, mother of A. J. Smith, the coast agent of the Elmore, has arrived from the east to visit in that territory. According to Chrisman Brothers the demands of the automobile builder the visible supply of trimming materials and stuffing hair is practically exhausted. Before the advent of the automobile industry the meat production of the country produced enough hair to satisfy all needs. But animals are killed not for their hair and hides but for their meat, with hair and hides as a mere byproduct, which now commands a larger profit for its sellers than ever.

Until He Would Bleed—Eczema Covered His Whole Body and Head—Suffered Keenly from Itching and Burning—Hundreds of Dollars Spent on Fruitless Treatments.

CUTICURA CURED HIM—NEVER TROUBLED SINCE

"My little grandson when a year old had eczema over his whole body and head. It lasted nearly three years. He had big sores on his head and the matter would run from them. He suffered from the itching and burning and would scratch until he would bleed. He was a perfect sight. We tried every kind of salve and soap but they did no good. After spending hundreds of dollars, and having several doctors, which did him no good, we saw the Cuticura Remedies advertised and we got some to see if they would help him. We used the Cuticura Soap to wash him with and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. They cured him nicely. He is now five and has never been bothered with it since.
