POPULAR COUPLE ON WEDDING TRIP

Miss Frances O'Connell and Silva Alexander Rossi Married in Stockton Church

[Special Dispatch to The Call] STOCKTON, April 21.—Silva Alexander Rossi and Miss Frances O'Connell of Stockton were married this morning by Rev. Father Sorasio at St. Mary's church.

The bridegroom was attended by Bert McDowell of Sacramento, while Miss Jennie O'Connell, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The bridegroom is one of the city's leading businessmen. He is prominent in fraternal circles, belonging to Stockton lodge No. 215, F. O. E., and is past president of Stockton parlor of Native Sons.

The bride is recognized as one of the city's most beautiful daughters. She is accomplished and a favorite in local social circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Rossi avoided their friends who were waiting outside the church by jumping into a taxicab and hurrying to Lodi, 10 miles south, where they boarded a train for San Francisco.

After a short visit in that city they will spend a month in Santa Barbara, Los Angeles and San Diego. On their return they will live in the new hotel until their bungalow is completed.

The best man prizes a beautiful diamond stickpin and the bridesmaid a diamond brooch presented to her by the bridegroom. Rossi gave his bride a diamond and pearl brooch.

APPLIES AGAIN FOR RAILWAY FRIANCHISE

Route With Few Exceptions Is Same as Original

[Special Dispatch to The Call] STOCKTON, April 21.—The Stockton Eastern and Terminal railroad company through its president, M. J. Gardner, last night applied for a new franchise through this city.

The route with one or two exceptions is the same as before. The road enters the city at East and Roosevelt streets and extends west on the latter thoroughfare to Union, thence south on Union to Fremont, west along Miner channel to American, south on American to Miner avenue and west to McClelland's lake. It will cross the lake on a trestle to Cross street and will have its terminal at the water front. The tracks on Union street will extend to Weber avenue to make connections with the Western Pacific and Southern Pacific depots.

May 9 was set as the time for hearing protests against granting the application.

CORRUPTION STILL EXISTS, SAYS JURY

12 Men considering Pittsburg Councilman's Case Unable to Reach Agreement

[Special Dispatch to The Call] PITTSBURG, April 21.—After deliberating over the case of Councilman V. Simon for 24 hours the jury failed to reach a verdict when court adjourned for the day and was locked up. Simon is the second of the indicted councilmen to be put on trial for bribery.

Early in the day the jury sent a note to Judges Fraser and Cohen. The note asked for dismissal, as the jury was unable to agree. The request was denied.

The grand jury made its final report, saying it had nothing further to report in connection with the councilman's case, although it believes corruption still exists. This will be left to the grand jury which convenes next Monday.

A new turn was given the case of Max G. Leslie today when his counsel caused the district attorney's office to be served with notice of a prayer filed with the supreme court asking for a change of venue from Allegheny county and charging the prosecution with selecting juries by dishonest means.

TEMPERANCE UNION MEETS IN CONVENTION

[Special Dispatch to The Call] PALO ALTO, April 21.—The county convention of the Woman's Christian temperance union is being held in Palo Alto, with 60 delegates from Santa Clara and San Mateo counties present.

A business session was held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Sara J. Dorr, state president, addressed the convention on "The Call to Service" in the evening. The second address was given by Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of the "Movement Against the Saloon."

The equal suffrage movement was taken up tonight, when addresses were made by Mrs. A. K. Gurney, Mrs. Elizabeth Lowe Watson, Mrs. Sophie Durr and Thomas Hayden, former president of the San Francisco board of education.

RELIC OF ST. JOHN IS BROUGHT TO NEW YORK

[Special Dispatch to The Call] NEW YORK, April 21.—From its place in the ancient church of St. John the Divine at Ephesus in Asia Minor, where the body of St. John is supposed to be buried, a section of tiling has been brought to New York to form a part of the great Episcopal cathedral on Morningside heights, which takes its name from the apostle. The tiling dates back to the year 510 A. D. It will be set in the floor of the chancel.

JANE ADDAMS ELECTED TO MEN'S ORGANIZATION

[Special Dispatch to The Call] CHICAGO, April 21.—A woman has for the first time been elected to membership in the Chicago association of commerce. The constitution and by-laws do not exactly provide for members from the fair sex, but the ways and means committee ignored such titles. Its luncheon yesterday and unanimous choice of Miss Jane Addams of Hull house an honorary member, after she had delivered an address on the subject of social centers in schools.

SALOON SHIELDS THUGS IS CHARGE

Police Chief Demands That Liquor License Be Taken From Macey & Spencer

[Special Dispatch to The Call] STOCKTON, April 21.—Macey & Spencer, proprietors of the Sherman House saloon, must show cause before the city council why their license should not be revoked.

Chief of Police Frank B. Briare last night filed with the council charges against the saloonmen upon which he based his plea that the license be denied.

The first instance of alleged unlawfulness on the part of the saloon keepers is said to have occurred on or about July 5, 1909. It was upon that occasion that Policeman John Gayou had an encounter with two burglars who attempted to break into Fritz Wille's saloon, corner Grant and Main streets. The officer wounded one of the men, but both escaped. The trail of blood was followed for half a mile. Upon investigation the chief, so he avers, learned the wounded man had taken refuge at the Sherman house, had been sheltered by Macey & Spencer, and that the police were not informed until they had made their escape.

It is also charged that December 30, 1909, J. C. McPhail and James Martin got into a fight in Macey & Spencer's saloon and that Martin stabbed McPhail five times, according to the evidence obtained by the chief the saloonmen kept the affair quiet.

The charges declare that January 10 a man named Paden, who had stolen $1,500 worth of ostrich plumes from Sacramento, called at the Sherman house and asked Spencer for permission to place the trunks containing the stolen plumes in another guest's room, to which Spencer consented.

The chief lastly charges that February 1 the saloon keepers shielded one Fred Peters, alias Zent, alias M. Moran, wanted in Springfield, Ill., on a felony charge. Moran was later caught down the valley by Detective Donahue.

The council set May 4 at 8 o'clock as the time for trying the case against the saloonmen, and instructed City Clerk Kuhn to serve copies of the charges on Macey & Spencer.

STOCKTON LODGES TO UNITE AT CELEBRATION

[Special Dispatch to The Call] STOCKTON, April 21.—The three lodges of Odd Fellows and their branch organizations are preparing to celebrate the ninety-first anniversary of the establishment of Odd Fellowship in America.

The anniversary occurs Tuesday and the committee on arrangements has planned a reception to be held in the parlors of the Central Methodist Episcopal church from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. From 8:30 to 10 o'clock the Odd Fellows will congregate in the main auditorium where a literary and musical program will be rendered.

The principal speaker will be William H. Barnes of San Francisco, who is considered one of the best orators among California Odd Fellows.

The local lodges are: Stockton No. 11, Charity No. 6, Truth No. 55, Lebanon Rebekah No. 41, Rainbow Rebekah No. 97, Parker emblem No. 3 and Canton Ridgely No. 15.

Other matters that will come under a bond issue are additional fire department apparatus including automobile equipment, hose and new hydrants, and a cutoff sewer system in Lafayette street from El Dorado to the pumping station.

Everybody but the chauffeur appeared to be intoxicated. The machine was driven through town so fast that the police were unable either to stop it or to obtain its number. Several plate glass windows were broken.

FEAR HILLSBOROUGH INSURGENT MOVEMENT

Regulars Pass Many Busy Hours Dealing Election Cards

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SAN MATEO, April 21.—Are the regulars of Hillsborough imbued with the apprehensive idea that Walter Hobart and other insurgents are coming out in open opposition at the election of the officials of the fair city next Monday?

In spite of the fact that the program of the millionaires' town seiff at the mere thought of an opposing party, they give ample ground for suspicion by ordering countless election cards distributing them freely throughout the manors and estates of their hoped for constituents.

And not satisfied with a generous circulation of printed matter, they have proclaimed the name of their slated party as "The property owners' ticket."

Meantime the ominous shuffle of election cards is disturbing the everlasting peace and quiet which will rule after Monday is over.

PLEADS GUILTY TO MURDER CHARGE

Chinese Admits Killing Countrymen Through Jealousy Over White Woman

[Special Dispatch to The Call] STOCKTON, April 21.—Ah Suey, the Chinese charged with having murdered Sam Kee at Lodi on February 2, this morning entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced by Superior Judge W. B. Nutter to life imprisonment at San Quentin.

Frankie Adams and Alice Barton, white girls, detained as witnesses and over whom the murder resulted, were discharged from custody.

Suey shot his victim through the head with a revolver and then backed his face with a hatchet. Jealousy over Frankie Adams was the motive for the crime, Suey said.

Frankie Adams is an attractive girl 30 years of age. Kee was going to elope with the woman, said Suey, and left at night in search of a horse and buggy. While on that mission Suey shot him down.

The body of the murdered Chinese was found in an outhouse in Villinger's grove, Lodi, the next day, and a few hours later the two girls were located hiding in a garret. Suey's arrest followed.

The chain of evidence was made so complete that Suey, who was represented by Lin Church of Oakland, H. R. McNobis and A. V. Scanlan of Stockton and Avery T. Searle of Lodi, decided to plead guilty.

The big Chinese companies sat upon the case and came to the conclusion that Suey was guilty. They therefore offered District Attorney George F. McNoble any possible assistance in prosecuting the accused.

SALVAGE COSTS PAID TO ASCLEDO

SANTA BARBARA, APRIL 21.—That it costs $5,000 a month to maintain Riven Rock in Montecito as the private sanatorium of Stanley McCormick, the incompetent son of the late Cyrus McCormick of reaper fame is revealed in the first annual report of his guardians to the superior court.

When these guardians, Katherine Dexter McCormick, his wife, now of Boston, and Henry B. Favill and Cyrus Bentley of Chicago were appointed last April they were allowed $3,000 a month, but they find this sum insufficient.

They ask the court to increase the allowance to $5,000 a month.
