

JOHNSON PREPARES TO START HIS TRAINING AT THE OCEAN BEACH

BIG "CHAMP" PARADES IN HIS AUTOMOBILE

Plans to Box Every Other Day to Put Himself in Shape for Coming Battle

By WILLIAM J. SLATTERY
JACK JOHNSON, the black heavy weight champion of all the world, was easily the most conspicuous figure in all San Francisco yesterday. Driving his powerful racing automobile along Market street, he looked like the king of all he surveyed, and, if the truth were known, his looks betrayed his feelings. Every time his machine stopped an army of the curious ones would gather around and gaze with awe-stricken expressions on the big negro. They forgot everybody else when Johnson hove in sight.

What a difference between Johnson and Jeffries! A month ago, the once great white champion slipped quietly into town and immediately he slipped quietly away and hid himself. When the crowd tried to get a peek at Jeff he just scowled and ran for cover. When the rabble lined up in front of Johnson, he stopped his big machine, posed and smiled his golden smile.

NOTHING AT ALL HAS ANY ONE ON J. JOHNSON

Nobody had anything on him. Jack Johnson, champion heavy weight of the world, was on dress parade when he sailed along Market street, but later on he became exclusive. After doing the town in his rakish racing car, the champion, his wife and the other women members of his party drove out to the Seal Rock house at the ocean beach. Johnson was very tired, and after giving a few preliminary orders as to the arrangements for his gymnasium apparatus he retired to his room. He was too sleepy, too worn out to be disturbed. A champion must have his own time to himself.

Big Jack looks double the size of the former Johnson. He weighs 228 pounds, and this is no exaggeration, either. His face is round, but not fat. He is far from being the bloated, dissipated looking individual that some of the eastern writers have described him. On the contrary, he looks as though he will be fit to fight after a couple of weeks of hard work.

YOU CAN'T TELL WHAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN

He's just as crazy about his automobile as he used to be. This beloved machine will be an important factor in the black's training camp. He has stowed away in a special barn out at the beach, and he will be on the road for his morning spin just as sure as he awakens in the morning. Maybe he will be arrested for speeding again, too. Nobody can tell what will happen.

When he arrived at the Seal Rock house shortly before noon Johnson at once began to busy himself taking charge of the arrangements. He was very particular as to how things were set up, and every once in a while he would cast his eagle eye over the layout to satisfy himself that all was well. When he felt satisfied he took another spin and then went to sleep. The elaborate ring where the black champion will do his boxing has been set up on the stage in the pavilion at the beach. It is a regulation ring, the very best that money can buy. Near by are the punching bags, the wrist and rowing machines and the various other devices which Johnson will use in conditioning himself for the mighty effort of his life.

Johnson has his regular program for training outlined. He will go at his work gingerly at first. He does not want to take any chances of upsetting any of the delicate machinery in his fighting makeup. He intends to report at the ocean beach camp bright and early tomorrow morning. He will do a little road work and a little walking and a little motoring, but no boxing. The work with the gloves has been postponed till the latter part of the week, possibly Saturday afternoon, and then Jack will do just enough to keep him well warmed up and to train his eye.

TICKET TAKERS TO GUARD DOORS

Boxing days at the Johnson camp will be Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays of each week. On these special occasions there will be special ticket takers on the doors, so that nobody can beat the gate. These will be great days at the beach, and the chances are that the champion will play to packed houses every time he puts on the gloves with his sparring partners. They will all want to see him work out.

Assisting Johnson will be Kid Cotton and Young Cutler, the men he brought with him from Chicago, and Dave Mills, Jack Burns and Gunboat Smith. Mills reported for work yesterday afternoon, and Smith and Burns will be on the job presently. Johnson has taken good care to surround himself with husky young fellows who will make him hustle. What a contrast to the time honored veterans now at the Rowardennan retreat.

"I will take off between 15 and 20 pounds during my two months of training," said Johnson. "I know just what I want, and I will carefully follow my program. I like to train near the ocean, for the bracing air keeps me full of life and ginger all the time. I won't have to work hard, either, for I have two months left in which to get into condition."

EXPECTS TO LEARN SOME NEW TRICKS

"Give me the strong, young sparring partners all the time. I have a bunch of them here, who will keep fighting and coming in. This is just what I want. I am never too old to learn, and I will be kept busy practicing new punches and new tricks all the time. I will box from 12 to 15 rounds three days every week just as soon as I get warmed up. Johnson did not fail to pay his respects to Promoters Gleason and Rickard. He was down at the Market street office before noon yesterday, and he created quite a sensation when he hopped out of his racing car and walked into the elevator of the building. After a short conference with the promoters, Johnson was on his way again. He did not lose any time. On account of Friday night's ring tragedy, Johnson decided yesterday morning to call off his proposed boxing exhibition scheduled for last night at Dreamland. He was very sorry to hear of the death of poor little Tommy McCarthy, but at the same time, he said, he could not see how it would in any way interfere with his engagement with Jeffries on the afternoon of the fourth of July.

SOME OF THE CRACK THOROUGHBREDS OF DOGDOM TO BE SEEN AT THE SAN FRANCISCO KENNEL CLUB'S SHOW THIS WEEK

MOUNTAIN TROUT FISHING BEGINS

Twenty-five Members of Fly Casting Club to Whip the Truckee River

By FRANK O'DONNELL
After a month of more or less successful steelhead fishing in coast sport last week, the anglers will commence to get busy with the mountain trout in inland creeks and rivers today. Reports from all over the state seem to indicate that conditions are favorable for excellent fishing.

Following their usual custom, members of the San Francisco fly casting club will formally open the season at the club's lodge on the Truckee river. A party of 25 left in a special car for Boca last evening, among them being Charles H. Kewell, Walter Mansfield, J. B. Kenniff, James Watt, T. C. Kierulf, Carlos Young, W. Burlingame and Walter Sperry.

Steelhead continued to furnish good sport last week. Artificial flies were used with fair success at the White House pool in Paper mill creek. Among those at the pool were George Wentworth, Al Baker, George and Moe Uri, John Bordenfeld, Doctor Kearny and Fred Howard, Charles Bosworth and son, Bill Kennedy, Frank Dooliver, Pete Howard and Jim Maynard. Further up the creek, between Camp Taylor and Garcia, spoons were effective. This stretch of the stream was whipped by Joe Springer, Ed Cohen, Frank Smith, Harry Baker, Bill Eaton, Fred Franzen, Jim Lynch and others.

Lagunitas creek was visited by Dr. J. Augustin and wife, Doctor Chapman, Fred Howard, Charles Bosworth and son, and Charles Walker. Ned Bosqui, Jack Lemmer and other members of the Salmon Creek club whipped the stream of that name and gathered nice baskets. Two Johns, Siebe and Bergez, wet their lines in Throckmorton lagoon and landed five steelheads, and Charles Lassig took 25 fish from Novato creek, while Doc Wilson, Frank Marz and Hugh Draper found the going good on Mud creek.

San Mateo county waters were well to the front with steelhead results a week ago today, some splendid baskets being brought in from the Pescadero and San Gregorio lagoons. Doctor Morgan had good luck in Tunitas Glen lagoon, and Charles Breidenstein with Fred Sarcander and Harry Smith spent three days on Wardell creek, getting limit strings each day. Breidenstein stated that there should be some fine sport on Pescadero creek when fishing opens up there today.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Cumming, Hugh Copeland and W. Hillegas left recently for a two weeks' fishing trip at Klammath hot springs. Oscar Roleau and W. Lillenthal will leave for Big River in the Port Bragg country early this week with Pete Walsh of trap shooting fame.

Striped bass fishermen continued to find sport on the Yolo basin in the vicinity of Rio Vista and some good catches were made on the San Pablo flats last Sunday. The city sportsmen at San Pablo included Henry Rememberger, Al Foley, H. Petersen, John Davis, Charles Lehretter, H. Griff, Harold Ladd and F. H. Hart. The biggest fish for the day, one weighing 22 pounds, was negotiated by Lehretter. Charles P. Landresse and Charles H. Kewell hooked 20, most of which were too small to be retained.

Penny Wins National Relay Events

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Pennsylvania made a clean sweep of the national relay championships on Franklin field today, winning the one, two and four mile contests. In many of the events on the day's program it was the east against the west, and although the western colleges were better represented than in former years the eastern athletes took practically all the events. The exceptions were the one mile relay race for freshmen, won by Illinois, and the broad jump, captured by Wasson of Notre Dame.

VAUDEVILLE TO FOLLOW REGATTA

Cobleigh, 2 Davis, 3 Rapp, 4 Barry; intermediate, 1 Hunt, 2 Sleson, 3 Wallfisch, 4 Barry; junior barge, 1 Lundie, 2 Hiling, 3 Reidy, 4 Varne. ## WHITE WINGS TO DOT BAY TODAY

Several Clubs to Hold Cruises Following Auspicious Start of New Season

Both the Aeolian and Corinthian yacht clubs successfully launched the yachting season last Saturday evening with their opening jinks and the day following with the first sail of the season. Commodore Louis T. Ward in his flagship, the yawl Iola, led his fleet around the bay and up to Sheep's island, where a short visit was paid to the California yacht club. The Iola, Emma, Edna, Genesta, Speedwell, Thetis and several others participated in the opening cruise.

The Corinthian fleet with Commodore William J. Gogge at the wheel of his sloop Meteor left the Tiburon clubhouse close to noon and sailed out the channel. The San Francisco yacht club inaugurated its season with the regulation entertainment and dance yesterday afternoon. Today Commodore J. J. Hanley on his schooner Martha will lead his fleet on a trip about the bay.

The new Sausalito yacht club held its opening last night aboard its ark headquarters. Commodore Al Rubold on the flagship Pearl R will lead the fleet today on its initial cruise. The sloop Xanthus will not be in commission for at least a month, as many improvements are being made on it. The Dawn may get out of its first sail today. The Thetis is looking fine with a new set of sails. The Merry Widow has been at Sausalito all week, but returns to the Aeolian anchorage tonight to be ready for its turning up for the challenge race, which will be held within the next month. Most of the Alameda fleet will take the first sail to Paradise cove today.

The Corinthian fleet left for McNears last night. The sloop Dixie, which has been fitting out in San Leandro bay, is scheduled to sail from there to its Tiburon moorings today.

The Discolor and the Ruby will receive their first tryout today for the honor of being the Corinthian defender against the Aeolian challenger Merry Widow. The names of Captain Turner Commodore G. Phillips have been suggested as referees of the race. The new auxiliary yawl Mollison, built for Francis B. Smith, the former Vallejo yachtsman, but now of Honolulu, will be launched tomorrow. The yacht is 54 feet over all, 14 feet beam and draws 7 feet 6 inches. As soon as completed it will be taken to Honolulu, where Smith is employed in government service.

Two Cricket Games On Today's Card

Two cricket games are scheduled to be played today, one at Alameda and the other at the Stadium wicket. The game at Alameda between the Wanderers and the San Francisco team is attracting considerable attention owing to the Wanderers' two recent clean cut victories. The two teams have their best men in the field for this game, as it will be one of the hardest in the first round.

The teams will line up as follows: San Francisco—L. Brooks, H. B. Roberts, A. Sterling, E. Petersen, H. Renwick (captain), F. Loney, A. McLean, A. Pugin, A. von Tegen, Captain Cross, W. Dewhurst. Wanderers—S. Charlton (captain), Dr. Seager, B. Stuart, J. Downey, A. Saragant, W. Dunin, F. Hyland, P. Clements, D. Hathaway, A. Goff, J. Chown.

The Barbarians and the Golden Gate team will meet for the first time this season on the Stadium wicket. The Barbarians will again be minus the services of their skipper, H. R. Elliott. The teams will be as follows: Barbarians—A. H. Howdy, W. Newman, B. Oederessen, A. Simmons, S. Steves, A. Anster, E. V. Niell, W. Wainwright, W. Thomas, L. S. Reading, B. T. S. Pugh, F. B. Anster. Golden Gate—E. Perkins, B. Bird, W. Chester, J. Priest, T. Millen, A. Kaufman, A. C. Spencer, F. J. Spencer, A. G. Paice, W. McKenna, F. Wheatley, J. Tassell.

BASEBALL SERIES NARROWING DOWN

First Semifinal in the Academic League May Pit Palo Alto Against Sacred Heart

By HERBERT HAUSER
The first of the semifinal baseball games for the Academic athletic league will be played next Saturday afternoon. While the league committee has not positively decided upon the games, Chairman Rhodes expects to pit Sacred Heart, winners of the local sub-league, against Palo Alto, winners of the Peninsula league, the game to be played at Palo Alto, and at the same time Stockton winners of the San Joaquin valley branch will play Alameda on the latter team's home grounds, Alameda recreation park, or else the Fruitvale grounds.

The Public Schools athletic league baseball championship will be started this week and the contest among the local grammar schools promises to be a hot one. The Spring Valley lads, runners up last year, will line up as follows: First base, Albert Schultz; second base, W. Starck; third base, R. Barton; shortstop, E. Douglas; left field, A. Gregori; center field, M. Lesser; right field, P. Boring; pitcher, H. Hayes; catcher, S. Carlson; substitutes, R. Sloan and W. Thies.

The school expects great things of its battery and the numerous heavy hitters. Both Lowell and Lick schools are making great preparations for their final meet under their new agreement. The contest will be held next Saturday afternoon at the Presidio athletic grounds, and both teams are out training faithfully for the contest.

From the season's work Lick looks to be the stronger of the two, but the Lowell lads are figuring to capture the honors in spite of their opponents' prestige gained through the work of a couple of stars. Of course Rogers should capture both the hundred and the furlong, but Captain Cohn of Lowell has covered the shorter distance in 10:1-5 and can be looked upon to make Rogers hustle in order to win.

Lowell expects Leo Meyer to capture the quarter, and looks to Tobin to give Wynne a rub in the hurdles. Lick expects Wallace to carry off the honors in the half mile, and possibly both of the schools' heavy hitters being weak in each of these events.

Dunshie and Esola are again expected to fight out their tie of the San Francisco league meet, while Hohman and Wynne can be counted on to show up strong in the Lick jump. Haffin of Lick has the best hammer throw record.

Jeff All But Gives Berger The Count

BEN LOMOND, April 30.—Jeffries began active training again today with renewed enthusiasm, finishing a businesslike period in the gymnasium in the morning with a fast bout with Sam Berger. The big fighter appears at last to have given heed to the urgent advice of his trainers to begin some serious boxing, and so earnest was the engagement with Berger that the latter was almost stowed away by a pile driver smash at the end of the second round. Berger warned Jeffries at the beginning of the mill that he intended to live things up, and told him to send his punches in hard. Jeffries responded so readily that Berger was kept on the defensive throughout and almost took the count when he planted his neck in the way of the wicked left drive. Four tame rounds with Bob Armstrong followed, after which bag punching and handball kept the champion busy until noon.

The afternoon was spent on the baseball diamond. Jeffries thoroughly enjoyed baseball, and frolics around the bases like a small boy.

DOGDOM IS READY FOR BEACH SHOW

Judging of 454 Entries Slated to Begin Promptly Next Wednesday Afternoon

Everything is in readiness for the first annual dog show to be given by the Golden Gate kennel club at the Auditorium, corner of Page and Fillmore streets, beginning next Wednesday morning, May 4, and lasting until Saturday night, May 7. Dogs will be received at the Auditorium any time after 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and judging will begin Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp and be conducted with all possible expedition. The management expects to have all regular classes judged by Thursday night and as it has so happened at previous shows that much unnecessary time was wasted in making awards and many complaints were registered in consequence, the officers and members of the Golden Gate kennel club are anxious to establish a record in this particular.

Two of the most eminent dog fanciers in the world are being sought to this city to act as judges, George S. Thomas of Boston and B. F. Lewis of Philadelphia. Thomas was judge in the New York show of last year and for many seasons has judged for leading shows in England and in the principal American cities. Lewis has made a life study of the sporting dog and has followed dogs and dog shows since his youth.

Four hundred and fifty-four entries have been made and Secretary John Bradshaw predicts an exhibition full of interest and as good as, if not better, than any ever given in San Francisco. More than 50 trophies have been hung up. They include:

President's cup for the best dog in any show ever bred; Miss Jeanie A. Crocker's cup for the best Pacific coast bred Boston terrier; Hotel St. Francis' cup for the best French bulldog; Templeton Crocker's cup for the best French bulldog, opposite sex; Mrs. J. J. Jordan's cup for the best pointer; Mrs. C. J. Saxe's cup for the best cocker spaniel, any color; Mrs. F. J. Jordan's cup for the best cocker spaniel, opposite sex; Harry Hastings' cup for the best greyhound; Freeman Ford's cup for the best Boston terrier; Mrs. J. J. Jordan's cup for the best English bulldog, opposite sex; Mrs. J. J. Jordan's cup for the best Alameda terrier; J. Athens Folger's cup for the best Alameda terrier, opposite sex.

The Greyhound club of America offers six special prizes for greyhounds, the Pacific bulldog club offers trophies for the best bulldog and building bitch, the Pine Hill cocker kennels offer a special medal for the best California bred cocker bitch and the Ladies' kennel club of California offers a cup for the best dog owned by a member.

Catholic League Will Hold Big Meet

The second annual outdoor meet of the Catholic Schools athletic league will be held in the stadium of St. Mary's college Saturday afternoon, May 7. On that occasion the parochial schools of San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley will be represented by full teams, while individual entries will appear from Catholic schools situated at a distance from the bay.

From the inception of the athletic movement in the Catholic schools, which resulted in the organization of the league the boys have taken a decided interest in track events. The preliminary practice for Saturday's meet has been going on for several weeks in the schools on both sides of the bay. The local institutions have been training at the park stadium, while the Oakland and Berkeley schools find convenient tracks at St. Mary's college and St. Joseph's academy, Berkeley park.

To prevent undue advantage accruing to any school, however, the board of directors has decided that the points scored in the unlimited events will not count in the totals. Individual prizes will be given to the winning teams, but their showing will not in any way affect the standing of the schools.

Lowell High Loses to Academy Nine

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
SAN JOSE, April 30.—The Lowell high school baseball team was defeated by Anderson's academy today on the local boys' field. The score was 6 to 3. Though the game started out as a poor exhibition it ended up in several exciting plays. The clever playing of Cooper and Runtree of Anderson's were the main features of the game.

FAVORS CLOSER INSPECTION

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
BERKELEY, April 30.—Athletics in the high schools of the state should be conducted under the closest supervision by physical and medical directors. Such was the opinion voiced by Prof. Walter E. Magee, head of the department of physical culture at the University of California in an address on "Play," which he delivered before the Berkeley Teachers' association today.

BERGER OUTPOINTS CALLOWAY
PITTSBURG, April 30.—In a fast six round bout Bill Berger of Pittsburgh had the better of Ralph Calloway of San Francisco tonight.
