Capt. John Wuizen, Noted Pioneer Who Has Passed Away

SCHUTZEN VEREIN LEADER IS DEAD

One of California's Most Prominent Germans Succumbs at Age of 84

ALAMEDA, May 8.—Captain John Wuizen, California pioneer of 1850, for 26 years commander of the San Francisco schutzen verein, veteran insurance manager and one of the most prominent men of German birth in the state, died at his home here, 1030 San Antonio avenue, this morning at 2:35 o'clock.

BORN IN BREMEN

Captain John Wuizen was born in Bremen, Germany. He came to California by the Cape Horn route 60 years ago. He was attracted to the state by the stories of fabulous fortunes in gold that were being taken out of the newly discovered mines in California.

CAPTAIN 26 YEARS

It was as a member and captain of the San Francisco schutzen verein that Captain Wuizen probably was best known. He joined the organization soon after it was formed in 1859. In 1862, when the commander of the company, Captain F. Seidenstricker, enlisted in the federal army, then a lieutenant, succeeded to the captaincy. He served in that capacity for 26 years.

RIOTING PREVENTED

Chief of Police Burke, who was in charge of the situation, covered the points most likely to be attacked. The loyal and resolute schutzen verein company was assigned to duty near the headquarters, to be within easy distance of what was expected to be the rioting center.

Captain Wuizen and his men were on duty for two strenuous and wild days and nights and were then relieved by a company of federal troops. By a coincidence the captain of the federal troops was a former member of the San Francisco schutzen verein, and Captain Wuizen, upon turning over the situation to the regulars, feelingly referred to the support of the San Francisco schutzen verein.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING

Captain Wuizen and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary two years ago. They were married in San Francisco, the bride being Miss Minna Schmidt. Wuizen took leading part in the golden jubilee celebration last year of the San Francisco schutzen verein. He is survived by the following daughters and sons: Mrs. M. Lalner, Mrs. Al Strunz, both of this city; Mrs. Max Gundlach of Bakersfield, Mrs. H. Devine of Sacramento, Otto Wuizen, George Wuizen and Richard Wuizen of this city. He was the grandfather of Mrs. J. I. McKee and the great-grandfather of Mary Catherine McKee.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CORNERSTONE LAID

Rev. Thomas A. Boyer Delivers Telling Address on Work

OAKLAND, May 8.—The cornerstone of the new church of the First Christian congregation was laid at Webster street and Grand avenue this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. Thomas A. Boyer, pastor of the church, and Professor H. C. Ingram.

The services were commenced by Rev. Dr. Franch St. Fort, pastor of the First Christian congregation of San Francisco, who led in prayer. This was to be followed by the principal address of the day, which was to have been delivered by Rev. Dr. Herbert Yuell of the National Evangelist Christian church of Washington, D. C., but he was unavoidably absent.

The principal address was made by Rev. Dr. Boyer, who spoke at length on the subject of the Christian church and the infinite amount of good that is being accomplished through its efforts.

It is indeed an honor to be present upon such an occasion, and the laying of this cornerstone will constitute a mark of the great work being done by the Christian congregation that will stand through the ages. The congregation is congratulated in having so generously contributed toward the erection of an edifice that will always prove a landmark that will reflect honor and credit everlasting upon those who are engaged in the work of salvation.

OAKLAND, May 8.—W. H. George, a real estate salesman employed by the F. K. Mott company, was struck and fatally injured by a motorcycle tandem ridden by two 16 year old boys, James Chick of 804 Sixteenth street and Richard Eaton of 1368 Grove street, at the corner of East Fourteenth street and Seminary avenue, about 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The boys were riding west in East Fourteenth street when the casualty occurred and, according to their story, were not going faster than 10 miles an hour. They said that they saw George standing on the sidewalk ahead of them and that as they drew near he started into the street to signal an approaching car. He was looking away from them, the boys declared, and made no attempt to get out of their way. The machine hurled him violently to the ground and he sustained a fracture of the skull and other injuries.

E. B. Bull, manager of the Mott real estate company, janitor of the employer's place, secured an automobile and took him to the receiving hospital. This means that Dunbar has been sent back here to face the numerous charges of passing spurious checks, which have been lodged against him at local police headquarters.

Dunbar has had a spectacular career in crime. He was arrested in this city on a charge of grand larceny last year, and was bound over to the superior court for trial, but the intercession of his young wife, an Oakland girl, procured his release on probation.

He went to live in Fruitvale, but rumors of crooked transactions and "bad paper" soon reached the ears of the police, and November 11 he disappeared. He was arrested in Columbus, Ohio, on a charge of passing counterfeit money. He was held in Columbus last week.

OAKLAND, May 8.—A genuine countess, Leontine, wife of Count Perksky of Posen, Germany, is one of the attractions in the show which opened today at the Bell theater.
