FOURTH COLLISION

Several Injured in Leona Heights Streetcar Wreck Are in Serious Condition

OAKLAND, June 1.—Orville Lewis of Berkeley, 17 years old, died early this morning at the Aepolis sanatorium, Fruitvale, the fourth victim of the streetcar collision of Monday near Leona heights. The boy had lost both his legs in the accident.

Harold Hull, the other 17 year old student of Berkeley, died at the same sanatorium the day of the accident, a few hours after C. A. Christensen, motorman, expired. Maude Rothrock, also of Berkeley, died yesterday at Providence hospital.

Orville Lewis was the youngest son of Mrs. E. R. Bartholomew, 1618 Ward street, Berkeley. The funeral will be held Saturday and the remains sent east.

Mrs. Frank P. Sharp, 655 Thirty-second street, whose injuries were feared to be fatal, is recovering, according to an announcement made today by her physician, Dr. H. B. Mehrmann. She has a compound fracture of the left ankle, a lacerated left leg, bruised hip and serious internal injuries.

Gessie Audibert, 17 years old, 609 Thirty-ninth street, is improving. His right leg was broken, his body bruised and he was internally injured.

Dr. J. M. Shannon and Dr. J. H. Callen, who attended Lewis, have hope that other victims of the accident under their care will be saved.

Coroner Tisdale has decided that one inquest over the four victims will be held. This will be Tuesday morning, at the Oakland morgue, the time and place appointed for the jury's inquiry into Miss Rothrock's death.

ROAD UNDER CRITICISM A. Hulse of Fruitvale appeared before the board of public works this morning and demanded an abatement of Fruitvale residents that the Oakland traction company be compelled to station a car dispatcher in East Fourth street at the California railway junction, and also one at Leona heights, to prevent another collision.

Resolutions attributing the collision to the overcrowded condition of cars No. 251 and calling upon District Attorney William H. Donahue to enforce the state laws in regard to the crowding of streetcars and trains were adopted unanimously last night by the board of public works.

Members of the organization declared that had the platforms been clear of passengers there would have been no fatalities.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED Following the reading of the resolutions a committee of five—W. H. Locke, J. S. Dietzman, R. R. Clarke, K. Bergendahl and E. L. Larsen—was appointed to appear before Donahue tomorrow and demand that the Oakland traction company be compelled to place more cars on its East Fourteenth street main lines, as well as on the cross roads on Fruitvale avenue, Leona avenue and California railway.

President L. Ernest Phillips will accompany the committee.

The resolutions declared that the company by overcrowding its cars has violated the state law requiring a common carrier to provide a seat for each passenger and demand that the district attorney notify the company that if it continued violation of the law will be followed by a presentation of the matter to the grand jury.

Condition Serious ALAMEDA, June 1.—Three persons injured in the collision, on the Leona heights line are still patients at the Alameda sanatorium. Alvin Pratt, the boy who had both of his legs badly crushed and one amputated, is the most injured. He may recover.

J. G. Anstott was removed from the sanatorium to his home in San Francisco yesterday. Anstott had several ribs fractured.

Mrs. Leo Miller, 3617 Virginia avenue, Fruitvale, who sustained a fractured nose, is in a serious condition. Her health is delicate before the accident.

Harold Weston, a boy who made his home at Mills college, is recovering at the sanatorium from shock.

School in Mourning BERKELEY, June 1.—On account of the tragic deaths of Maude Rothrock and Harold Hull, two members of the eighth grade, in the Washington school of this city, no graduation exercises will be held there, and the school will be closed this year without ceremony. Most of the pupils will attend the funerals, which will be held tomorrow.

The services over Harold Hull will take place at the Oakland crematory tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The funeral of Maude Rothrock will be held at 2 o'clock from the Church of the Nazarene in this city. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

Ray W. Olsen, son of former Trustee Ben Olsen at the expiration of a three years term for burglary, was bound over to the superior court by Police Judge Samuels this morning on a charge of grand larceny.

LAD LEAPS OFF CAR FOR HAT; FRACTURES HEAD 16 Year Old John Milina Probably Fatally Injured OAKLAND, June 1.—To rescue his hat, which had been blown off a streetcar, John Milina, 16 years old, jumped from the car while going at a high rate of speed along San Pablo avenue. He landed on his head, sustaining a severe concussion of the brain and fracture of the skull. His recovery is considered doubtful.

NEW PLANTS ADDED TO CAMPUS HERBARIUM BERKELEY, June 1.—Twenty-five new varieties of plants of old Mexico have been found by Curator L. S. Brandegee of the herbarium in the large shipment sent by C. A. Purpus, special collector in the field for the department of botany. Among some of the plants were several described nearly 50 years ago by a Spanish scientist.

Tents, cups, camp stoves and tools at H. Schellhaas, 408 11th st., Oakland.

Student Engineers Are Engaged by Government for Irrigation Projects of West

BERKELEY, June 1.—Ability of student graduates in the work of the department of irrigation of the university has won for two of the members of the 1910 class positions in the reclamation projects of the United States government.

H. T. Johnson, one of the most brilliant of the graduates of the department, has joined the federal staff of the Flathead reclamation project in Montana.

Paul Taylor is now working with a corps of engineers in the development of Yakima valley.

Johnson received his degree from the college of engineering and was registered from National City. He was popular on the campus and was affiliated with the Paloma house club.

Taylor is a graduate of the same college and his home town is Fillmore.

THREE MEN FINISH FAST OF FIVE DAYS

Trio Experienced Little Discomfort in Abstaining

BERKELEY, June 1.—Two and a half pounds a day was the average loss in weight of three Berkeleyans who commenced a five days' fast last week, which ended today. A. D. Cox, steward of the Carlton hotel, lost 17 pounds, while J. B. Rutledge, clerk of the hotel, and E. C. Wraywood, a laundry wagon driver, each lost 11 pounds.

None of the men felt the effects of the fast, they said today, and all would be willing to try it again. The first two days, according to Cox, were the hardest to stand, as there was a craving for food. After that period had been passed, however, they felt little discomfort.

None of the trio indulged in smoking and they said they had no desire for the weed. Today they commenced to take light meals to prepare their systems for their regular diets.

CHINESE CONFESSES TO ROBBERY OF STORE

Chin Ling Admits Part in Bold Holdup

OAKLAND, June 1.—In violation of all the traditions of Chinese prisoners Chin Sing, who was arrested in Chinatown last evening by Detectives Emigh and Quigley on suspicion that he was implicated in the robbery of Kim Yuen's store, 321 Eighth street, on May 13, has confessed his guilt, but refused to disclose the identity of his accomplices.

In company with three other Chinese, Chin Sing entered the place at night, bound and gagged the owner and stole $20 worth of opium and $50 in money. The captive declared that his craving for opium impelled him to commit the crime.

BAR ASSOCIATION HAS DISMISSED DE LANCEY Name of Convicted Attorney Stricken From Rolls OAKLAND, June 1.—The Alameda County bar association has struck from its list of members the name of John S. Delancey, former attorney for former Public Administrator George C. J. Decey, who was convicted of embezzling $10,000 from the estate of the late George Hite Cook, and is now serving a six years' sentence. His conviction of a felony disbarred him automatically from practice in the courts of the state.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT IS SECOND IN DEBATE Howard Krueger Runner Up in Prohibition Contest BERKELEY, June 1.—Howard H. Krueger, a senior student in the college of letters, was second in the intercollegiate prohibition contest at Mount St. Mary's, in a debate with an opponent on "Prohibition Within the State." Frank W. Robinson of the University of Southern California won the first prize at the contest and will debate in the national competition in the east.

CITY TO ASSIST IN REMOVING A SHOAL OAKLAND, June 1.—After listening to a protest from the Sunset lumber company, to the effect that its business had been seriously interfered with by the formation of a shoal of silt resulting from the recent dredging operations in Lake Merritt, the board of public works this morning recommended that the city council appropriate $500 to cover half the cost of dredging away the shoal. The lumber company agreed to bear the remainder of the expense. The shoal is located near the foot of Fallon street.

ALUMNI TO ORGANIZE Alameda, June 1.—President of the Alameda high school will meet tomorrow night in Assembly hall for the purpose of organizing an alumni association.

FASHION ATTENDS Charming Girls of Oakland and Alameda Are First of June Brides

OAKLAND, June 1.—At a brilliant wedding this evening in Christ Episcopal church in Alameda Louis Weimann claimed Miss Alice Teller as his bride. Several hundred friends witnessed the marriage service, which was read by Rev. E. W. Cooper, rector of the church.

The entire interior was transformed into a bower of flowers, pale pink sweet peas and ferns lending the motif. The bridal procession was led by the honorary ushers, William Weimann and Frederick P. Marzocchi, followed by Mr. Coogan, Alfred Durney and Sidney Escher.

Miss Mary Swayne and Miss May Bissell were the bridesmaids. They were gowned in pattern robes of pink chiffon cloth over pink satin, which were handsomely embroidered. The gowns were draped in pink roses. Each of the maids carried a wreath of pink sweet peas and ferns.

Miss Louise Connor and Miss Teller's maid of honor, Marie were a charming robe of pink tulle over pink satin and carried a shower of Dorothy Perkins roses. Little Miss Dorothy Penfold was the flower girl, wearing a dainty French gown with pink ribbons and carrying a gilded basket of sweet peas.

Miss Teller, who is one of the prettiest girls of the city, made a charming bride. Her gown was an exquisite creation of white French satin. It was made with straight lines ending in a long court train. The bodice was fashioned entirely of point applique over which were draped pink tulle and embroidered in lilacs of the valley. A half wreath of orange blossoms and orchids held the bridal veil in place. Miss Teller carried a spray of orchids and lilacs of the valley.

Edward Cunha assisted Weimann as best man. Following the ceremony at the church an elaborate reception was given at the Teller residence in Central avenue before the wedding people left on their honeymoon. Masses of Easter lilies and pink sweet peas were combined in the beautiful decorations throughout the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Weimann will establish their new home in Alameda. The marriage is one of the notable events of the year, uniting two of the best known families of Alameda. Weimann is a graduate of the University of California, where as an undergraduate he was prominent in student activities. He is engaged in the practice of law with offices in San Francisco. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Teller. She has been one of the best liked girls of the younger set and since the announcement of her betrothal has been the motif for a continual round of gayety.

At a prettily planned home ceremony this evening Franklin Blair and Miss Miriam Summers were married in the presence of half a hundred close friends. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Summers, in El Dorado avenue. Attending Miss Summers in the bride party were her two sisters, Mrs. William Kincaid and Mrs. William H. Jordan Jr., as matrons of honor. They each wore their own wedding gowns and carried showers of pink sweet peas, the fragrant flower used as the bride's bouquet.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin, exquisitely hand embroidered and trimmed in lace and pearls. The veil was caught with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Leading the bridal procession were Miss Margaret Ewing and Ewing March as ribbon bearers. Dorsey Ewing assisted the bridegroom as best man.

The marriage service was read by Rev. Clifton Macon, rector of Trinity Episcopal church. After their honeymoon in the north Mr. and Mrs. Blair will return to Oakland, where an attractive home awaits them.

At a tea given this afternoon at the home of Dr. J. M. Snider, 3209 Fourth avenue, announcement was made of the engagements of the two daughters of the household. The honored guest of the occasion was Miss Cecilia Harold of East Oakland, a popular and accomplished social set and former University of California student, who will leave for New York.

The engagements announced were those of Miss Bertha Stalder to Edward R. Leach and of Miss Grace Stalder to H. A. P. Harmon Jr. Edward Leach is a son of F. A. Leach, former United States fire chief, of mints and now president of the People's water company. Harmon resides in East Oakland, and is the owner of extensive mining properties.

The Stalder is one of the best known Oakland families. The dates of the weddings have not been decided upon.

SLUMBERER IS ROBBED IN RESTAURANT BOX Suspicion Is Directed Toward Missing Woman Companion OAKLAND, June 1.—Oscar Hartman, living at 589 Eighth street, reported to the police that he had been robbed of $15 while he was indulging in the luxury of a nap in a box at the Optimo restaurant, 460 Ninth street, during the wee hours yesterday morning. Hartman directed suspicion upon a young woman who was his companion when he fell asleep, but had vanished when he awakened.

Petty thieves were active in Oakland on Decoration day. Among those who complained of being robbed were: Edward Rollin, 2101 Broadway, who reported the loss of 25 pounds of tin foil; Pacific States telephone company, box of tools valued at $35; George Whalen, 388 Hageman street, purse containing $5.

PHONOGRAPH RECORD TEMPTED DENTIST Merry Chase Ends in Capture of Puffer OAKLAND, June 1.—After leading a policeman and several salesmen a merry chase through the business district S. C. Smith, who says that he is a licensed dentist of this city, was arrested in Broadway last evening while he was attempting to escape with a phonograph record which he had taken from Kohler & Chase's music store. Smith is a middle aged man, well dressed and of decidedly respectable appearance. He gave no explanation of his escapade, but secured his release by depositing $25 bail, after a charge of petty larceny had been preferred against him.

Hans Holm, Who Is Making Study of Fermentation

ZYMOLOGY EXPERT TO STUDY ABROAD

Brilliant University Graduate to Take Courses in Europe and East

BERKELEY, June 1.—Hans C. Holm, a graduate of the state university with the class of 1907 and chief assistant to Prof. F. T. Biotelli, head of the department of viticulture, will make a visit to Europe this summer and then return to the United States to take a three years' course at the Massachusetts institute of technology.

Although a young student, Holm's investigations in the department of zymology have attracted wide attention. He has been especially successful in his work upon ferments used for the making of denatured alcohol. He succeeded in isolating and cultivating enzymes which can be used for practically all kinds of waste materials employed in the manufacture of this fluid. His method is extensively used in this coast.

Holm will depart for Europe June 29. He will visit friends in Denmark and then go to Paris and other centers of science to study. He will return in September to enter upon a three years' study of mathematics and physical chemistry, as well as viticulture in all its several branches. Since graduation Holm has been connected with the department of viticulture of the university and has held the position of instructor in zymology.

CANTATA PRESENTED WITH GREAT SUCCESS

Sunday School Children Enlarge Fund by Entertainment

OAKLAND, June 1.—The children of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Sunday school presented the cantata, "The Golden Sickle," at Alcatraz hall, Peralta and Seventh streets, tonight to a large and appreciative audience.

The rehearsal of the presentation had been going on for several weeks under the direction of Mrs. Clara MacDonald, and the faithfulness with which the little patrons of the fund made itself apparent throughout a successful production from both an artistic and financial point of view. The proceeds went to the Sunday school fund.
