

EVENINGS IN THE COUNTRIES BORDERING ON THE BAY OF SAN FRANCISCO

MARRIAGE HELD WEALTHY MADERA LAND OWNER WEDS DAUGHTER OF WELL KNOWN JURIST

OAKLAND, June 2.—At a charmingly simple wedding this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Miss Nellie McGraw became the bride of Joel Hedgpeth. The marriage was solemnized in the presence of the members of the immediate families and a few of the most intimate friends at the McGraw residence in Chestnut street. Masses of La France roses and pale pink sweet peas made the pretty decoration of the afternoon's event. Miss McGraw wore an exquisite white lingerie robe and carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Edith McGraw, as bridesmaid. Frederick McGraw assisted the bridegroom as best man.

The marriage service was read by Rev. Frank Goodspeed, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. After an informal reception Mr. and Mrs. Hedgpeth left on their honeymoon, the final destination to be the handsome home which awaits them at North Fork, Madera county.

The bride is the daughter of Judge E. W. McGraw, prominent throughout the state. She is a woman of unusual ability and for the present is spending a few months in the Indian question in California. Although for the last few years she has spent only the midsummers in Oakland, Mrs. Hedgpeth claims a wide circle of friends about the bay. Hedgpeth is a large land holder in Madera county.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Braden, with their daughters, Miss Winifred Braden and Miss Louise Braden, will leave tomorrow evening for the Yosemite valley, where they will spend the month of June. Mrs. Braden plans a later tour of Alaska.

Mrs. Frank Lamson Brown is opening her handsome new summer place at Ben Lomond this month, planning to entertain a number of large house parties during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIlroy have returned from their honeymoon, which was spent in the southern part of the state and for the present are spending the charming young bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Plummer, in Alameda. Later in the summer they will take possession of one of the attractive bungalows in Mill Valley. Before her marriage in May Mrs. McIlroy was Miss Florence Plummer.

During her visit in Oakland Mrs. James Brown Whitehill will be extensively entertained, this being her first return to the bay cities since her marriage of a few seasons ago. Mrs. Whitehill was formerly Miss Bessie Pratt. She plans to remain a month or more as the house guest of her parents, Dr. A. H. Pratt and Mrs. Pratt.

The score of matrons of the Monday club went out to San Leandro today to accept of the hospitality of Mrs. E. B. Stone at the annual all fresco affair at which she entertains them during the cherry season. An hour about the bridge tables and luncheon under the trees were the diversion offered at the handsome suburban home.

Miss Laurilla Murdock, whose marriage with Omerod Schiesinger will be an event of the late summer, is spending some delightful weeks near Santa Barbara as the house guest of Mrs. William Cooper.

The women of the dramatic section of the Adelphi club entertained their friends at a delightful affair this evening at the clubhouse in Alameda, offering an interesting program as the diversion of the hour. Miss Elsie, who is one of the newer branches of club endeavor, has accomplished some splendid work during the last season, as was shown in the two skits which were presented.

"Help Wanted," a comedieta in two acts, Mrs. I. N. Chapman, Mrs. W. C. Halsey, Mrs. Louis Ward, Mrs. George Sturtevant, Mrs. J. H. Rohr and Miss Edith Kahn assumed the roles. Mrs. Sherman McDowell and Mrs. John Laughlin presented "A Fair Encounter." The other numbers on the program included a violin solo by Chester Kelly; song, Miss Geneva Ellis; dance, Miss Ruth Burnham; Miss Bernice Quinn; monologue, Miss Lucy Knowland.

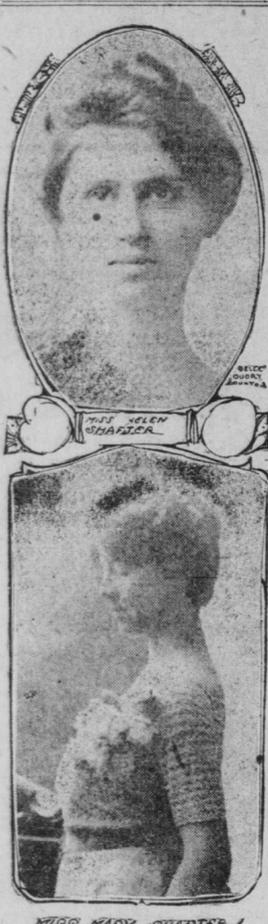

Renner-Bull Marriage ALAMEDA, June 2.—Miss Gertrude Renner, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Renner, became the bride of Clarence Bell of San Francisco this evening, the wedding being celebrated at the residence, 2429 Buena Vista avenue. Chaplain W. H. U. S. A., retired, performed the marriage ceremony. The attendants were Miss Ada Renner and Walter Bell.

MACHINES CRASH IN HEAD ON COLLISION Son and Daughter of W. R. Scott Have Narrow Escape BERKELEY, June 2.—George Scott, son of W. R. Scott, division superintendent of the Southern Pacific company, had a narrow escape from death when his sister and his machine he was driving at the corner of Durant and Telegraph avenues yesterday afternoon collided with a Pierce machine in a head on collision. None of the occupants of the cars was thrown out, but the Pierce machine had the running board knocked off and Scott's machine had a front wheel smashed besides other damage.

HOT IRON EXPLODES BOTTLE OF GASOLINE Cleaning Establishment Is Set Afire as Result OAKLAND, June 2.—The accidental contact of a gas iron, which was being used by one of the employees of De Bloom & Goldberg's cleaning and dyeing establishment in Jefferson street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth, with a bottle of gasoline caused an explosion this morning which ignited the woodwork of the building and necessitated the summoning of the fire department. Damage amounting to $300 was done.

PLUMBER'S TORCH CAUSES SMALL FIRE Gasoline Explodes and Causes Damage Amounting to $250 BERKELEY, June 2.—A plumber's torch in the hands of Edward Pierson of the plumbing shop of George Stoddard, University and Shattuck avenues, exploded shortly before 1 o'clock today and set fire to the shop and an adjoining barn, the loss being $250. The fire in the middle of the business district attracted considerable attention. Pierson was not badly injured.

Sisters in Role of Hostess and Guest At House Party

MISS MARY SHAFTER

SOCIETY MAID TO TRAVEL IN EAST Friends Say Farewell at House Party Given by Her Sister

OAKLAND, June 2.—Miss Mary Shafter, who with Miss Teulida Le Conte will leave for the east within a few days, was the inspiration for a congenial house party at which her sister, Miss Helen Shafter, entertained over the weekend.

Miss Shafter included a dozen close friends of the younger set in her invitation to spend several days at her attractive summer place at Inverness. Miss Le Conte will tour Europe before returning to California.

WIDOW ACCUSES REALTY DEALER Swears in Court That H. E. Wolcott Swindled Her

OAKLAND, June 2.—Mrs. Josephine Henninger, a widow aged 59 years, stated before Superior Judge Ogden today that her faith in H. E. Wolcott, a local real estate man, cost her approximately $15,000. On the witness stand she testified that Wolcott came to her while she was ill and wheedled money out of her for investment purposes.

A piece of property was purchased in Berkeley, Cal., and was traded for another piece of property, which in turn was traded for a third piece of property. At the end of the trading Mrs. Henninger states that she found she had practically nothing.

She asserted that Wolcott had afterward sold the second piece of property for a sum much in excess of what she had paid for it and she is suing for the difference. The trial of the case will be continued tomorrow.

WILLIAM B. MCINTYRE DIES AT LOS GATOS Was Veteran of San Houston Texas Campaign

BERKELEY, June 2.—William B. McIntyre, one of the oldest residents of this city, and one of the last of those who fought the general campaign in Houston in the days when he led his band of warriors against Santa Ana and the Mexicans, died at Los Gatos, Sunday night.

McIntyre was a native of Scotland, and his father was an admiral in the English navy during the Napoleonic wars. In the early days of emancipation McIntyre went to Chicago, where he was a close friend of Abraham Lincoln and an acquaintance of Stephen A. Douglas, whom he heard in many of their famous debates.

After erecting a plumbing supply house at the corner of State street near the Marshall field store's present site he was burned out in the fire of 1872, and came to San Francisco, where his business was again built up and again destroyed by fire in 1906.

His health broken by the strain of long years he moved to Berkeley, recently making the trip to Los Gatos for recuperation. He leaves a widow and one daughter.

OAKLAND PUGILIST TRAINS WITH WIFE Woman Arrested for Trying Solar Plexus on Neighbors

OAKLAND, June 2.—"The trouble with you is that you are too peaceable," said Lucile Bond to Annie Omerod, wife of "Dutch" Omerod, a pugilist now confined in the city prison, during a conversation at the corner of Seventh and Franklin streets last evening.

"Is that so?" was Mrs. Omerod's sarcastic response, and she proceeded forthwith to disprove the allegation. As a result she and her companion were locked up on charges of disturbing the peace by fighting.

Mrs. Omerod was arrested on a charge of vagrancy at about the same time her husband was sent to jail, but was released on probation in order that she might care for her young child. Judge Smith imposed a fine of $10 upon her this morning, and she secured her liberty again by paying it.

ACCUSED LAWYER HAS JUMPED BAIL BOND Two More Warrants Charge Watts With Embezzlement

OAKLAND, June 2.—John F. Watts, an attorney for whom the police have been looking for the last two weeks, was still missing when he was called to answer a charge of battery in the police court this afternoon. Judge Smith ordered his bail of $30 forfeited.

Watts was accused of having assaulted James P. Montgomery in Justice Quinn's courtroom several weeks ago. Since his disappearance, two warrants charging felony embezzlement have been sworn out against him.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS SHY AT KINDERGARTEN Voters Must Decide if They Want Schools Founded

BERKELEY, June 2.—The board of education has decided the kindergarten question, which the mothers' clubs and others have indorsed, and has by resolution asked the city council to submit the matter to the people of this city without recommendation. Superintendent of Schools Bunker recently issued a statement to the effect that the schools could be instituted by a special tax. The board agreed that if the residents of this city vote the money the schools will be established.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO GIVE TOURNAMENT Offer Valuable Prizes of Cut Glass

OAKLAND, June 2.—The women of Piedmont parlor No. 57, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will give a whist tournament next Thursday evening, June 3, at Rice hall, Seventeenth street and San Pablo avenue. The prizes will be of cut glass and hand painted china. The committee in charge is composed of Miss Hazel R. Cohen, chairman; Mrs. Murdin, Miss Frances Maynard, Mrs. Winnie Buckingham and Mrs. Winnie Bergelin.

CONGRESSMAN KNOWLAND ON WAY TO THE COAST ALAMEDA, June 2.—Congressman Joseph R. Knowland left his way from Washington to California, and is expected to arrive at Lake Tahoe Sunday. He will attend the grand parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, which convenes for four days at Lake Tahoe, opening Monday. After the adjournment of the grand parlor Congressman Knowland will spend one day with his parents here, and then depart on his return trip to the national capital, where his family is at present.

CARMAN ACCUSED OF HEART FAILURE VIOLINIST DIES

Harvey Maxwell Kennedy, Educated in Europe, Passes Away in North Berkeley

BERKELEY, June 2.—Harvey Maxwell Kennedy, pupil of Hair and of the great Giose, and known as an excellent violinist of this city, died last night from an attack of heart failure at his home at 1535 Euclid avenue and he will be buried tomorrow afternoon. He was only 39 years of age.

Kennedy was born in Warren, O., and came to this state in his early youth. As a child he was known as a musician, and on account of his talents was sent to Paris and other centers of music on the continent to study under European masters.

Six years ago he returned to California with honors won abroad and gave several recitals in the bay cities and in the southern part of the state, where his brother, Ellis Kennedy, a Riverside business man, is well known.

Besides several brothers and sisters and his parents, who resided in Sierra county, Kennedy is survived by a widow, Mrs. Allen Schmidt Kennedy. With simple ceremonies the funeral will be held from his late residence in North Berkeley followed by incineration at the Oakland crematory.

MILLIONAIRES MAY YET JOIN HILLSBOROUGH Special Election Called to Determine Their Fate

HILLSBOROUGH, June 2.—George A. Newhall and the other millionaires who thought they were members of this aristocratic town, but found they were not, owing to their homes having been left out in the mapping of the territory covered by the city limits, will have an opportunity to be gathered into the fold in a special election to be held July 5.

The trustees of Hillsborough decided at a meeting tonight that they would give their flock a chance to determine whether or not they want to be in the cold millionaires as fellow townsmen.

Those whose fate will be decided in the special election are: George A. Newhall, A. L. Stone, E. L. Hoag, W. L. Hoag and George F. Lyon. The Pope estate was left out in the original makeup of the town and its annexation will also be considered.

Newhall and E. L. Hoag will be judges, and Duane Hopkins, Templeton Crocker's private secretary, inspector of the election in Hillsborough.

COURSES IN OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOLS INCREASED Number of New Positions Created by Education Board

OAKLAND, June 2.—A number of new positions were created in the local high schools by the board of education last evening, including a department head of English, mathematics, stenography and typewriting in the manual training and commercial high school and a head of the department of languages at the Fremont high school.

There is to be a second vice principal of the manual training and commercial high school, as well as an assistant principal in the manual training and commercial high school, and a head of the department of languages at the Fremont high school.

Teachers elected last night were Miss Madeline Cook, to serve in the manual training and commercial high school; Miss Mary Christensen, to teach domestic science; Miss Shirley Poore, manual training; and Miss Edna E. Metzger, manual training.

PUPILS OF RICHMOND TO RECEIVE DIPLOMAS Commencement Exercises to Be Held in Opera House

RICHMOND, June 2.—The schools of the city will hold their annual commencement exercises at the local opera house Friday and Saturday evenings. The programs will consist of class songs and choruses, addresses and the presentation of diplomas.

The presentation of the classes of 1910 will be made by Principal Bert S. Tucker of the Richmond Union high school, and the diplomas will be distributed by B. B. McLellan.

The program of Friday will be for the graduating class of the Union high school, and the following will receive diplomas: Maude Elizabeth Pritchard, Helen Campbell, Octavia Norton, Jamie Marguerite Butterfield, Frederick Karl Weyand, Elmo Russell, Zumwalt and Carroll Eugene Marshall.

GEORGE GRAY SUED BY ATTORNEY FOR FEES Former Public Administrator Defendant in Civil Suit

OAKLAND, June 2.—Former Public Administrator George Gray was the defendant in a civil suit brought by Attorney George L. Merrill in Judge Smith's court this afternoon.

Merrill says that he entered into an agreement with John S. De Lancy, former attorney for the public administrator's office, who is serving a sentence in San Quentin for embezzlement, whereby he was to receive half of the attorney and administration fees all paid by the court in the settling of the estate of Thomas Carvey in October, 1908.

He declares that he has been unable to collect his share, which he fixes at $309.17. The case was continued.

CENSUS LISTS MAY BE OPEN TILL JULY Supervisor Burke Will Follow Course of San Francisco

OAKLAND, June 2.—Census Supervisor Burke announced this afternoon that his lists would not be closed any sooner than those of San Francisco. The supervisor of census in San Francisco has wired to Director Durand at Washington, D. C., for permission to hold his lists open and to continue enumeration until July 1.

He had a conference this morning with the census supervisor of San Francisco and will act as he does," said Burke. "If Director Durand permits him to keep the census lists open until July 1 we will do the same. My office intends to give every possible opportunity for enumeration of all persons, not only in Oakland but in the whole third congressional district."

EDWARD C. BAKER, UNIVERSITY MAN, PROMOTED IN CHINA

Edward Carlton Baker Is Promoted to Consulship at Port of Centung

BERKELEY, June 2.—After four years' work in the far east, Edward Carlton Baker, a graduate of the university with the class of 1905, has been promoted to the consulate at Centung, China, according to letters received by his fraternity brothers in the Alpha Delta Phi of the university.

Baker is one of the most popular members of his class, and his family is prominent in Alameda, where he formerly resided. He was graduated from the university in 1905 and immediately made a vice consul at Foochow on the recommendation of Prof. John Fryer, head of the department of oriental languages and literature at the university.

In 1907 he spent a year as vice consul at Amoy, and last year came to the United States to take examinations for promotion to a consulship. He spent last year in Washington, D. C., as assistant secretary of the far eastern affairs, department of state. He was made consul at Centung at the close of his term in Washington, according to letters received here, shortly after his arrival in China to take his new post.

At the university Baker was known as a brilliant debater and student of Chinese. He was a member of the Winged Helmet junior society, as well as the Golden Bear, the order of seniors.

SAME JAG, JUST 10 DAYS OLD Court Sends Protesting Prisoner to Jail to Recover

OAKLAND, June 2.—A record of 12 arrests for drunkenness in half as many months confronted A. J. McOscar, a driver for the Whosever Will mission, when he reappeared in Police Judge Samuel's court this morning. He was released with a reprimand by the court 10 days ago.

But McOscar was not a whit nonplused by his predicament. When his name was called he arose solemnly and told the judge that he had not yet recovered from the "jag" which caused his last arrest and that it was his legal right not to be tried twice for the same offense.

Judge Samuel couldn't see it that way, however, and imposed a sentence of 25 days in the city prison upon the protesting prisoner.

CECILIA CHORAL CLUB GIVES ANNUAL CONCERT Hallelujah Chorus, Given After Program, Arouses Audience

OAKLAND, June 2.—The Cecilia choral club, with 109 trained voices, gave its twenty-fourth concert at the First Unitarian church tonight.

At the conclusion of the program, the Hallelujah chorus from Handel's "Messiah" was rendered, and the audience rose to its feet in appreciation of the excellent manner in which the number was sung.

The soloists were Mrs. Ashley R. Paul, soprano, and Miss Blanche Morrill, violinist. The accompanists were Mrs. J. W. Cook, piano, and Miss Harriet B. Fish, organ.

CHILDREN'S PLEA SAVES THEIR PET

Tears Prevent Policeman From Shooting Savage Dog Which Had Bitten Him

OAKLAND, June 2.—The tearful pleas of two children saved the life of a collie dog which sprang at Policeman Harry Gilbert and bit him severely in the arm when he stopped to pat its head near the corner of Telegraph avenue and Twenty-ninth street last evening.

The policeman drew his revolver to kill the animal when the children sprang in front of him and pleaded for its life. Even in his pain the officer was touched by the devotion of the little ones to their pet, and he put the weapon away and led the dog and its small masters back to their home, where he warned the grown up owners to keep the collie off the streets.

The dog sank its fangs deep into Gilbert's elbow, and he was obliged to go to the receiving hospital for treatment. He is now under the care of a physician, and every effort is being made to guard against blood poisoning.

TWO OAKLAND PARKS HAVE CHANGED NAMES Commissioners Desire $537,332.50 to Expend Next Year

OAKLAND, June 2.—Two Oakland parks were rechristened by the park commissioners today, the names of the West Oakland park being changed to Bay View park, and that of Independence square to San Antonio park. The latter park is situated in East Oakland and is one of the most attractive in the city, while the West Oakland park is one of the new public recreation grounds which has been purchased by the park commission. The names were changed upon recommendation of Commissioner James P. Edorf.

A resolution recommending the inclusion of an appropriation of $537,332.50 for the use of the park commissioners in the budget for the fiscal year was adopted this afternoon. This amount covers a provision of $42,000 for the proposed purchase of the Merritt hospital grounds on the eastern shore of Lake Merritt. The city, if it acquires this property, will have completed its chain of park lands around the lake.

Plans were submitted by Architect Walter Reed for the proposed fountain in Lakeside park, but the board took no action upon them today. Reed was authorized to submit a model of his fountain in plaster at a later meeting of the commission. It is estimated that the fountain will cost $8,500.

ALAMEDA PIONEER'S WILL FILED IN COURT Late Fritz Boehmer Left an Estate of $25,000

OAKLAND, June 2.—The will of Fritz Boehmer, a pioneer who recently died in his home in Alameda, was filed for probate this afternoon with the county clerk. An estate of $25,000 is disposed of. Specific bequests amounting to $1,900 are made to his children and wife.

The residue is divided into four parts, one part being left to Alma E. and Frederick Boehmer, one part to Emma K. Logan and the fourth part to be divided equally between two grandchildren, Alma Shelby and Lulu Schneider.

Prior to his death the testator provided for his wife, leaving to her property valued at $25,000.
