STOCKTON IN GAY ATTIRE FOR FOURTH

City Prepares to Celebrate Independence Day; Parade Will Be Record Breaker

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
STOCKTON, July 1.—Stockton's business streets are gayly decorated for the fourth of July celebration. Hundreds of flags have been strung across the thoroughfares and the business houses have been trimmed in the national colors.

The industrial feature of the morning parade promises to eclipse anything seen here before. The committee that will decide on the best team in the parade will be Tom Donovan, John Galway and Will Davis. E. A. Whiting, George Stevers and D. S. Matthews will award the prize for the best industrial feature.

The Pioneers will hold a public reception in Pioneer hall from 2 to 4 p. m. Mrs. M. Thresher will tell of her first fourth in California, and Mrs. Mary P. Merrill will recite some original verse entitled "The First Fourth of July Celebration in California."

Among the singers will be Mrs. Flanagan, Mrs. Walter, Pauline, Miss Shubert, Miss Murray McAdams and Miss Ellen Martin.

Mrs. May Parker and Mrs. Emma Barney of the Native Daughters will assist the members of the Ladies' auxiliary to entertain.

The aquatic events as arranged by Prof. O. G. Verby of the Y. M. C. A. promise to excel anything held on the local waterway in years. The program of events follows:

- 2 p. m.—Potato boat race—Condit, Padock, Russell and Higgins; swimming race across channel—Bentley.
- 2:30—Launch race—Boell, Wellman, Thompson and Wolf; final heat of swimming race.

VALLEJO TO VOTE ON BIG BOND ISSUE

Trustees in Secret Session Recommend City Hall and Reservoir Projects

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
VALLEJO, July 1.—The members of the board of city trustees, sitting in secret last night as a committee of the whole, decided to recommend that a bond issue for the following municipal improvements be submitted to the voters:

Seventy-five thousand dollars as the city portion of a $125,000 joint city hall and branch court jail.

Ninety thousand dollars for the construction of a 12,000,000 gallon reserve reservoir at Fleming hill and the laying of a pipe line to this city.

The committee also decided to disapprove the following projects and recommend that they be withdrawn:

One hundred and forty-five thousand dollars for the construction and equipment of a municipally owned and operated electric light, heat and power plant.

Ten thousand dollars for an intercepting sewer along the water front.

It is likely that there will be a warm battle when the matter is taken up by the trustees in regular session next week.

YEAR'S IMMIGRATION AMOUNTS TO 1,035,545

Arrivals Increase 283,759 Over Last Twelve Months

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The number of immigrants admitted at all ports of the United States during the last fiscal year reached 1,035,545, according to a statement issued today by the general census office. This is an increase of 283,759 over last year.

The nonimmigrant aliens admitted, that is, those coming to the United States temporarily, reached 145,421 which is a falling off of 47,028, while the total number of all persons admitted during the year was 24,200.

Last year 11,008 were debarred. The remarkable increase in the number of those debarred is looked on from different standpoints among immigration officials. Some claim that the class of immigrants is not so high as it was a year ago.

The figures indicate a grand total of arrivals at all ports of 1,190,968, an increase of 244,421 over the previous year.

During June it is estimated the immigrant aliens admitted at all ports aggregated 99,000; nonimmigrant aliens, 15,000. Total, 114,000, against 2,350 persons barred from admission.

PORTERVILLE, July 1.—Reports which have just been completed by the secretary of the chamber of commerce show that during the 11 months closing with June 15, there were received at the chamber of commerce no less than 2,500 inquiries. Of those who wrote more than 100 eventually settled either in Porterville or the immediate surrounding country.

Within the city limits, new residents brought here through chamber of commerce publicity, invested $50,000 during the period named.

Beginning July 1 the advertising appropriation of the chamber is doubled, and an advertising campaign through the eastern states will be inaugurated.

SANTA BARBARA MAYOR WILL RETAIN OFFICE

Holds Ordinances Conflicting and Inoperative

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
SANTA BARBARA, July 1.—Mayor Clio L. Lloyd will retain his office under a decision rendered today by Judge Walter Bordwell of Los Angeles, presiding for Judge C. E. in the case brought by several citizens who accused him of neglect of duty in failing to enforce laws against disorderly houses.

The judge first ruled that local ordinances on which the complaint was largely based were inoperative, conflicting with the state law.

Then he held, after hearing testimony, that it was not the duty of the mayor to bring prosecution and that if there was such a duty neglect thereof did not call for such severe penalty as dismissal from office.
