

CENSOR BOARD MOVES TO BALK PICTURE PLANS

Demands That Chief of Police Martin Stop Them All Pending Decision

Special Resolution Calls for the Suppression of Jeffries-Johnson Films

Pictures Condemned By Negro Ministers

CHICAGO, July 11.—The African Methodist Episcopal ministerial association of Chicago and vicinity today adopted a resolution condemning "the presentation of any exhibition of the brutalities of the prize fight, whether it be in the ring itself or by moving picture reproductions," and requesting the mayor of the city "to prohibit the fight pictures" of the Johnson-Jeffries contest.

Fearing that the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight might be exhibited with the sanction of the courts and despite the opposition of the municipal authorities, the board of censors, meeting in the rooms of police commissioner yesterday afternoon, began the work of warring in whatever loop holes there might exist, a sweeping request being given to Chief of Police Martin to prohibit the reproduction of boxing contests of any kind and the Jeffries-Johnson affair in particular until passed upon by the board. Furthermore, some of the members of the board having learned that efforts would be made by the picture men to give the exhibitions under the guise of incorporated clubs, it was decided to confer with City Attorney Long and to make preparations to offset such a move should it be attempted.

While they did not come out flatly and put the official ban on the exhibition of the fight pictures, the members of the board, it is pointed out, decided that when the time came they intended to crush it.

DECISION IS UNFAVORABLE
After witnessing the 15 famous rounds they will give their decision and that decision, they let it be pretty well understood, will be emphatically unfavorable to the hopes of the picture men. "I will follow but the request of the board of censors to the letter," said Chief Martin. "If they have passed resolutions asking me to stop the fight pictures, the pictures will be stopped. It is the duty of the police force to work in harmony with the board on such matters. The value and usefulness of the board would be destroyed completely if the police department refused to back it up."

Present at the meeting of the board were J. C. Astredo, Miss Edith Hecht, Mrs. F. M. Malloye and Norman W. Hall, secretary. The mayor's letter opposing the production of the Jeffries-Johnson pictures was read and was followed immediately by the passage of a resolution calling upon the chief of police to stop all fight pictures until they had received official sanction from the board. There was no dissenting murmur to the resolution and neither was there to the motion and resolution calling for the prohibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight. This latter was made doubly sure of the matter and leave out all chances of mistake.

"I do not like condemning the pictures without at least witnessing them," said Miss Hecht. "I do not believe we ought to depart from our usual procedure in this instance. If the picture is unfit for reproduction we can give it the same trial as we give others, provided, of course, the owners of it care to exhibit before the board."

CLASSIFIED WITH UNDESIRABLES
Thus, with these words, the Jeffries-Johnson battle was put into the same class as those questionable melodramas and alleged witticisms. On the minutes of the board of censors it took equal place with "The Story of Lulu as Told by Her Feet," "Her Life for Her Love," "The Temperance Leaders," "By His Own Hand," and others of that ilk.

Having effectually guarded against its production in the regulation theaters without their consent, the members of the board started to prevent the display of the pictures by other than the usual regular methods.

"It has been brought to my attention," said Astredo, "that an effort may be made to show the fight by means of stereopticon views. This will be fully brought to the attention of the board, and, I believe, ought to be prevented."

of the office during Long's absence, would not give an opinion on it.

With the board of censors here supporting the municipal authorities in an opposition to the fight pictures, there was a belief that efforts would be made to display them in South San Francisco, but here also opposition will be met. Town Trustee Thomas Hickey came out emphatically against exhibition there, saying he did not intend to sit passive and see South San Francisco made the dumping ground for that which San Francisco discarded. The question will be brought up before the trustees tonight.

Better Than Some Others
LOS ANGELES, July 11.—In a sermon at St. Paul's pro-cathedral on the much discussed moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, Dean William MacCormack last night declared that he would prefer to have the young people view them to many others that are constantly being thrown on the screens of the cheap class of theaters. Dean MacCormack said:

"Personally, if I had to make a choice, I would rather see the scenes of the prizefight exhibited than many of the scenes that are permitted. In one case, at least, one man gets away fully punished. In the other, the escapee scot free and leaves the impression behind that he is somewhat of a hero."

"The problem is not should the pictures of the prizefight be exhibited, but rather is the moving picture show as it is permitted to operate at the present time a menace to public morals?"

Should Have Been Caged
TACOMA, July 11.—Rev. M. H. Loughlin yesterday preached a sermon bitterly denouncing the Jeffries-Johnson fight and the attempt to show the moving pictures of the battle. He said the effect of the fight would have been less serious to Christianity if all who attended had been caged in the arena and allowed to kill each other like wild beasts.

Britain Doesn't Care
LONDON, July 11.—The British government has no power to prevent the exhibition of pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, according to a statement which Winston Churchill, the secretary of state for home affairs, made in the house of commons today in reply to a question put by Sir Howel Davies. There seems to be little disposition in England to exhibit these pictures. The leading London music halls have declined to show them.

Barred in Philippines
MANILA, July 11.—In fear of the effect which they might have on the Filipinos, the municipal board of Manila has resolved to prohibit the exhibition of the Johnson-Jeffries pictures.

Advertising Talks
"When you say—'A merchant should keep his advertising before the people all of the time' are you not talking merely to sell more space?" ask some merchants.
We are talking to sell more space, but not "merely."
Repetition is the foundation of successful advertising—it has been proved time and time again that the "death rate" in advertising is highest among those who advertise spasmodically. It is a fact that advertising effects increases in proportion to the frequency of its appearances.
We do not advocate "splurges"—setting a pace that can not be maintained—in fact, we advise against anything of the sort.
We do advocate everlasting reiteration of facts—telling your store news every day to as many people as possible, constantly and consistently—playing up quality and price and backing your statements with the goods, because that is the keystone of successful advertising.

Captain William Glennon, for 16 years house officer of the Palace hotel, died yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Boldemann, in San Mateo. Captain Glennon has been falling for six months and death came quietly without pain.

When the new hotel opened in December, Glennon was in poor health and was given his preference of joining the Palace staff or remaining at the Fairmont. He preferred to stay at the Fairmont. About three months ago he gave up his active duties and took up his residence with his daughter.

For many years Glennon was a member of the Chinatown squad of the local police. He had a reputation of having captured more notorious criminals than any man in the department. The deceased leaves a widow, Annie Martinez Glennon, and two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Boldemann and Mrs. Carl Bach. He was 57 years old and was born in Boston. The funeral will take place from Mrs. Boldemann's home, 94 Poplar street, San Mateo, Wednesday morning.

POLICEMAN ONCE MORE RUNS AMUCK

Thomas F. Wren Gets Drunk and Threatens Saloonman When Refused Liquor

Officer Dismissed and Reinstated Again Faces Charge of Intoxication on Duty

No member of the police force ever had a more stormy career or showed more absolute indifference to the rules and regulations of the department or was ever treated with such leniency as Thomas F. Wren. He is in the limelight again.

After being 10 times before the commissioners on various charges since he became a patrolman on September 22, 1902, he was dismissed from the force on November 11, 1904. As soon as the Flannery board took office steps were taken to have him reinstated, and on March 17 last his friends were successful in their efforts. Flannery at the time remarking it was a shame to dismiss him on such testimony.

While on duty last Friday morning Captain Shoen filed a charge of "intoxication while on duty" against Wren, who has not yet been suspended.

About 4 o'clock Sunday morning Wren, while in citizen's clothes and intoxicated, chased a Pinkerton patrolman at Sixth and Market streets, threatening to kill him. He then held up a hackman, compelling him to drive him home.

Wren's record in the department since September 22, 1902, is as follows: March 19, 1903, absent from duty without leave, fined $25.
Same date, visiting saloon while on duty, fined $100.
January 23, 1905, intoxicated while on duty, and neglect of duty, fined $50.
April 21, 1905, intoxicated while on duty and unofficerlike conduct, fined $50.
June 20, 1905, neglect of duty, charge dismissed.
April 10, 1907, unofficerlike conduct, charge dismissed.
March 5, 1908, unofficerlike conduct, fined $50.
Same date, neglect of duty, convicted and reprimanded.
July 1, 1909, leaving beat without cause, convicted and reprimanded.
November 11, 1909, intoxicated while on duty, dismissed from the department.
March 17, 1910, reinstated.
