

FORMER MAYOR
KILLED BY A
DYNAMITE BOMB

Mysterious Crime Ends Life of Virginia Town's Late
Executive

Deadly Weapon Hurlled Beneath
Hammock in Which Victim Was Sleeping

RIDGEWAY, Va., July 25.—Former Mayor H. A. Bousman was assassinated by a dynamite bomb which was thrown from the street under a hammock in which he was lying last evening. He died an hour after the explosion. No clue to the identity of the murderer or the cause of the crime has been found.

Bousman had spent the hot evening sleeping in a hammock on the lawn in front of his residence. About 10 o'clock the dynamite bomb was thrown by some one passing along the street. It landed in the hammock and exploded.
The victim's feet were torn away and his legs frightfully mutilated. He died an hour later.

The community today is worked up over the murder and it is believed that if the assassin is caught he will be lynched.

Negro Murders Two

EL PASO, Tex., July 25.—Frank Lawson, a negro, and formerly a member of the Twenty-fifth United States Infantry (colored) and among those dismissed from the service following the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Tex., forced his way into the home of his father in law, C. C. Shelton, this morning, shot his wife and his mother in law, Mrs. Shelton, and ran.

Postmaster J. A. Smith, who was passing, attempted to capture the negro. The latter fired once, but missed; then as Mr. Smith closed on the negro pressed the gun into the postmaster's stomach and pulled the trigger again, but the gun missed fire. The negro was soon captured and officers rescued him from a mob just in time to prevent a lynching.

Both women shot by Lawson will die.

Negress Taken From Jail

MONROE, La., July 25.—Unidentified men broke into the city jail here early today and carried off Laura Porter, a negro woman prisoner, keeper of a rooming house where white men are reported to have been robbed on several occasions. It is generally believed she was thrown into the Ouachita and drowned. The Porter woman had been warned to leave town many times prior to her recent arrest for larceny. Officers declared they had unearthed a conspiracy which showed that the woman had lured intoxicated white men to her resort, where they were beaten and robbed by negroes.

Mob After Girl's Assault

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 25.—Dispatches from Lancaster, Garrard county, late today stated that officers had left that place with John Grimes, a white man accused of assaulting Mary Ashford, 12 years old, taking him to Versailles, Woodford county, for safe keeping. A mob bent on lynching Grimes was reported forming near the girl's home in Garrard county.

Dying Man Accuses Black

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 25.— George M. Lintz, dying in a hospital from a bullet fired last night by a burglar, has identified Albert McGowan, a negro, as the man who shot him.
After the arrest and identification McGowan was taken to jail and there is a fear that an attempt may be made to lynch him. Men are gathering and the sheriff is preparing to defend the jail.

OHIO REGULARS MAY AGREE ON CANDIDATE

Standpat Republican Leaders
Confer at Columbus

COLUMBUS, O., July 25.—A series of conferences among the republican leaders who are accounted supporters of the national administration began at noon today, the result of which, it is said, will be an agreement upon a candidate for governor before the party's state convention, which opens tomorrow.

Senators Burton and Dick, State Chairman Wade H. Ellis and Colonel William H. Bowland, influential Columbus politicians, were among the participants.

Senator Burton expressed the belief that unless a radical change takes place either Judge C. J. Brown of Dayton or Warren C. Harding, former lieutenant governor, would lead on the first ballot.
The senator added that all candidates would receive votes from the Cuyahoga county (Cleveland) delegation, of which he is chairman, including James R.
Garfield, if the latter should be placed in nomination.

PALO ALTO GIRL AND NEVADAN ARE MARRIED

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SAN JOSE, July 25.—The marriage of Miss Lois Gibson of Palo Alto and F.
J. Hoover of Rawhide was celebrated today in this city. Rev. George Brewster married the couple. Hoover is the brother of Professor Hoover, formerly of Manzanita school. They will make their home in Palo Alto after a trip to the Lathrop beach resorts. Miss Gibson is a well known local society girl and a graduate of the local schools.

Mummy's Here! 's a Live One Back Seat for Hobble Skirt

Miss Enid Gregg in her new mummy gown, which has created a furore in local society.

Newest Gown From Paris Is Destined To Be All
The Rage

THE new mummy skirt has come direct from Paris. The mummy skirt is the latest fad of the moment in the gay capital, and is the last improvement upon or the logical successor of the hobble skirt. Society was resigned to the hobble pattern and was about to adopt the new mode when Miss Enid Gregg returned from Paris with her newest mummy skirt. In fact, there were several hobble skirts in town that have only appeared in the last fortnight, but Miss Gregg wore the mummy skirt yesterday in the room at St. Francis and the hobble skirts were eclipsed. There were exclamations of "Oh!" and "Ah!" from the group of younger girls who greeted Miss Gregg and subdued remarks of "Perfectly stunning" and "Too stylish for anything." There were sighs of chagrin, too, for the hobble skirts that were forgotten in the new craze over the mummy skirt.

The mummy skirt has the distinction of having the oldest name for the newest mode, and is vaguely said to be oriental in conception if not in design. The design is a sort of accentuated hobble. The skirt is more "scant," as some one expressed it, than the hobble pattern. The slight fullness extending from the waist line is gathered in meager pleats into a stiff band that begins below the knees and does not touch the ground.
The real mummy skirt brushes the ankles and is well above the ground, so that one must be shod in the newest footwear to properly finish the costume.

LENGTH INDETERMINATE

The coat has a tailored effect, with lines as long as the wearer may dictate, for Dame Fashion in her latest edict abroad allows the greatest liberty in the matter of coat design when the skirt is mummy. The mummy line should, however, begin at the shoulder, as in Miss Gregg's newest importation, and the coat must fit closely to the figure of the wearer. The slim woman will not have a monopoly of the hobble skirt, but she will have an advantage. There is no pardon for an obese mummy. The curves that have begun to find favor with society women will have to be banished without further toleration.
The mummy line is the thing.

Miss Gregg wore a new crush hat with the mummy costume.
The hat was of soft black velvet, perched coquettishly over the wearer's face and trimmed with a white breast and wing. The suit was of dark blue serge, by the way, with a fine stripe of white running lengthwise in the material. Miss Ellyse Schultz, who has been traveling in Europe with Miss Gregg, has returned with one of the new mummy skirts, and wore the marvel at the Palace and the St. Francis during the afternoon.

The gown that Miss Schultz has brought from abroad is after the same model as the one worn yesterday by her friend, Miss Gregg. The second mummy skirt that startled society out of its complacency is of black satin. The lines cling in the latest approved way and the skirt band is a narrow five inch strip that seems to encase the ankles of the fair pedestrian.
The coat is black satin and the facing is of white satin. Miss Schultz wore a black and white hat with the creation.

MUMMY COMES TO STAY

The mummy skirt has come to stay. The woman who greeted the director will have a kind word for the mummy mode with the secret conviction that she will surely look her best and her slimmest in the new gown. The problem is only for the rotund women of the beau monde, who must begin their regime of walking immediately. Miss Gregg is a favorite in Hillsboro, and her example will be emulated by the ultra fashionable elite of that set. Miss Jennie Crocker and the younger clique will doubtless welcome the mummy skirt, and their older friends will have to follow the fancy of fashion.

Miss Crocker was one of the first to bring the new scarfs here last season, and she will find that Miss Gregg has not forgotten the scarf in her newest costume. The smartest touch to the mummy costume is the close fitting satin scarf, that is almost like a band across the shoulders. The ends are finished in satin tassels that have an oriental semblance. The mummy skirts will appear everywhere on the streets soon and will be the correct thing at the teas.

What about the dancing dresses of the debutantes? Will they be mummy, too? A mummy dancing gown seems to be next to impossible, but fashion has achieved strange things. Some of the dainty debutantes of next season may make their bow to society in mummy gowns. In the meantime the mummy gown is the dream of the society girl who is listening for the latest cry from Paris, and the despair of the modiste who is trying to suit madame.

BUTTE POLITICIAN
TO SEE ROOSEVELT

Colonel to Have Conference With Former United States Senator Lee Mantle

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 25.—Theodore Roosevelt today said he expects to meet former United States Senator Lee Mantle of Butte, Mont., in New York tomorrow. Mantle, it is understood, may run for the United States senate against Senator Thomas H. Carter.
He is a progressive republican.
Senator Carter is a regular.
Mantle was in the senate from 1895 to 1899, but was beaten for the senatorship in 1907 by Joseph M. Dickinson.
He had favored Dickinson. The colonel said tonight that he did not have a hand in the contest and remarked that he had a high personal regard for Mantle.

Roosevelt declined to comment upon the Ohio political situation or to discuss the merits of the candidates for the gubernatorial nomination there. Tonight he would not give a definition of what he means by a "progressive" platform, which he favors.
Roosevelt reiterated his intention of not taking part in factional political fights outside of New York.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The German government and that of the kingdom of Saxony are anxious to have the United States represented in the International hygiene exposition to be held in Dresden from May to October, 1911.
Dr. Emil A. Linger, the commissioner of the exposition, has just invited the government to participate. The exposition will be held in the royal gardens at Dresden. Japan promises an extensive exhibition.

Advertising Talks

If you, who read this "Talk," are a merchant with a big store and a fine stock of merchandise—if you have spent a lot of time and money in studying the needs of the public and in trying to provide those needs at fair prices and yet you feel that you are not getting the returns your expenditure of time and money should bring—or, if you are a merchant with a small place of business, and want to branch out and build bigger—if you are willing to listen to a straight sensible talk about that great motive power, newspaper advertising, we want to meet you.
We have plans and suggestions to offer. We can give you facts and figures about the distributive power of advertising that will make you open your eyes.
We can furnish you with a service of copy written for retail merchants by men who have spent their lives studying the problem of selling goods through the advertising columns of the daily newspapers.
If you are an advertiser and think that your advertising is not bringing the results it should—if you are a non-advertiser and think that advertising might be a good thing for your business, call on us or make an appointment and we will call on you and let us talk it over in a businesslike way.

but Is Arrested

John D. Neyerling, a barber, charged with petty larceny, walked into Police Judge Conlan's court yesterday morning puffing vigorously at a cigarette.
"Here," said the judge, "what do you mean? Do you know where you are?"
"Of course I do," replied Neyerling.
"Well, do you know you are in contempt for smoking in court?"
"I thought everything went here," said Neyerling, and the judge ordered him into custody for contempt for 24 hours.

entered his side, piercing his heart. It was not until this morning that Williams was found by the searching party which had been sent out after him. From the position of the body

NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS
PREPARE FOR FIGHT

County Option Plank Will Cause
Convention Battle

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 25.—Delegates to the democratic platform convention will be here tomorrow after gathering. Despite the confidence expressed by opponents of county option, which will be the vital issue to be fought out by the convention, the leaders of the right against county rule were among the earliest arrivals and were active in preparations for solidifying the ranks aligned against county rule. Disappointment was expressed by the followers of William J. Bryan in the struggle for a county option platform plank at the failure of the leader to appear here today.

WELLS FARGO TO HAVE RIVAL HERE

Globe Express Company, Auxiliary of Gould Line, to Come In via Western Pacific

Monopoly Long Enjoyed Over California and Nevada to Be Broken

The Wells Fargo express company, which has had a monopoly of the express business of California and Nevada since its entrance into the field, is to have a strong rival within the next six months, when the Western Pacific railway installs along its line the Globe express company, the company which now serves the cities and towns along the Denver and Rio Grande railroad.

Announcement that the Globe express company would enter the California and Nevada field was made yesterday at the offices of the Western Pacific railway.

HERE WITHIN YEAR

"The Globe will not be ready for business when the road opens for passenger traffic," said a prominent official of the Western Pacific, "but it is safe to predict that the Globe will enter this field before the end of the present year."

A representative of the Globe express company has been in this state recently and a visitor of large number of the towns along the line of the Western Pacific and is said to have chosen sites for the location of offices for the company. It was reported that Denver some months ago that the Goulds had secured the control of the Pacific express company and that that company would be merged with the Globe and the service of the two companies extended over the entire Gould system.

Wells Fargo, the American, United States and Adams are the four big express companies of the country, and with the reported merger of the Pacific and the Globe companies and the extension of their service to the Pacific coast over the Western Pacific, another large company will enter the field.

PLENTY OF BUSINESS

If the Globe and Pacific take over the business of the Gould lines they will have the Wahash, Missouri Pacific, Denver and Rio Grande, Western Pacific, Colorado and Southern and a part of the business of the Burlington to handle.

C. H. Schlocks, first vice president of the Denver and Rio Grande and of the Western Pacific, is the president of the Globe express company.

GIRLS GO TO DANCE
WHEN STRIKE IS ON

Chic Workers Couldn't Withstand Tantalizing Music

CLEVELAND, O., July 25.—Twenty-eight girls employed in the hot rollers, knappers and cutters' room at the American chic company's plant, were in desperation by tantalizing music at a dancing pavilion in a nearby park, went out on strike here today.
The girls have been getting $1 a day. They wanted $1.25, the wages paid the wrappers of chewing gum.
When they were paid for work today the workroom was like a bake oven.
When the demand was taken to the superintendent he asked for 24 hours to consider. The girls refused him a minute. He told them to quit.

The strikers proceeded to the pavilion. There they danced and talked over the wage question.
In the meantime the superintendent got busy. "I've filled the places of all the girls with four exceptions," he announced later in the day.

GOVERNOR SEEKS TO
SEVER POLICE HEADS

Chief and Commissioners Accused of Lax Liquor Rule

LINCOLN, Neb., July 25.—Governor Shallenberger today sent Attorney General Thompson a letter directing that official to institute ouster proceedings against Chief of Police Donahue and Fire and Police Commissioners Fred Hope, William J. Hunter and William F. Wappich of Omaha. They are charged with nonenforcement of the 8 o'clock closing law.

Omaha Chief Surprised

OMAHA, Neb., July 25.—In his letter to the attorney general the governor says complaint has been filed by Charles J. Karbach, fourth member of the board.
Karbach said today he intended to push the proceedings to the finish. He said his efforts had been along the line of stopping the sale of liquor by clubs and asserted that his associates on the board and the chief of police had declined to give him their support.
Chief of Police Donahue said:
"We have been enforcing the liquor law as best we could and I have never heard Commissioner Karbach complain of the manner in which my force was working."

the departure of the provisional battalion of field artillery yesterday weeks' march to Atascadero, all the wives, sisters and sweethearts of the men gathering to say farewell.

At 7:30 o'clock in the morning the three batteries with the accompanying baggage wagons, two rolling kitchens and other paraphernalia started from the cavalry stables, marched past the brick barracks up the road by the new quarters of the Thirtieth infantry made at San Bruno and tonight they will be at Palo Alto.

Major J. M. Keating is commanding

Fifth cavalry, accompanied the command for the purpose of observing and testing the experimental rolling kitchen.

reach Atascadero on August 3 and will engage in target practice until the Wash., July 25.—With a revolver grasped in his hand and a bullet hole in the corpus of a stranger was found in a clump of brush in a field today. The body had been dead at least a week, and there clipped from a Seattle paper of July 21.

NEW USES FOR POSLAM

Surprising Results After One Application—Skin Ailments Eradicated

Those who have on hand a jar of poslam, the new skin remedy, should try it for some of the little skin ailments common to all households, particularly in the summer time. Surprising results will be seen after a single application when poslam is used for sunburn, fever blisters, mosquito bites, burns, rashes, pimples, bites, red noses and irritated and inflamed skin. The complexion is cleared overnight; dandruft is dissolved; itching or chafing feet are speedily relieved.

These uses are suggested apart from the primary purposes of poslam, the treatment of eczema, acne, skin scale, all forms of itch and other serious and virulent skin troubles. There is no skin disorder for which poslam should not be unhesitatingly used and which it will not benefit. Whenever itching is present, it is stopped at once.

According to the uses for which it is employed, poslam may be purchased in 30-cent boxes of $2 jars at all drug stores, particularly The Owl Drug Co.'s stores. A free sample, which will demonstrate its marvelous work, will be sent by mail, upon request, to any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.
