OAKLAND, Sept. 13.—With several new high class attractions and four clever acts retained from last week, when they competed for first honors, the Oakland Orpheum this week presents a show that maintains the high standard of vaudeville that has marked its offerings throughout the season.

Among the newcomers are Erwin Connolly and wife, in the comedy drama, "Sweethearts," who hold the keenest attention of the crowds. Charming from start to finish, the sketch is proving a drawing card. It was written by W. S. Gilbert, author of the "Mikado." "Pinafore," and other operas for which Sir Arthur Gilbert wrote the music.

The original Six Kaufmanns, in their cycling act, perform with grace and skill. Al Jolson continues to hold his place in the front line with his songs, whistling and comedy. Minnie Dupree, in the sketch "The Ministers' Wife," sustains the hit she made last week, and Renee, "the goddess of music," who sprang into instant popularity, performs on a variety of instruments.

McKay and Cantrell, from New York, have a lively lot of patter and song of the sort the multitudes never tire of, and the Kragis trio, two powerful men and a woman, from Europe, give an unusually clever exhibition of trapeze work and other athletic stunts.

HEARING OF CHILDREN IS FREQUENTLY FOLLOWED BY POOR HEALTH

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health of the mother. This supreme crisis of life finds her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and with no ill effects, or chronic troubles. Every expectant mother should safeguard her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

BARFOOT DANCER SCUFFS UP SLIVER

Some Real Agony Thrown Into Dying Scene in "Death of Eve"

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—When Mme. Margaret Barry, enacting the role of Eve in the recent presentation of "The Death of Eve" at the union meeting of the Adelphean club, died dramatically in the final act she expired with a sliver in her right heel. The sliver was originally in the play on in the pink heel it formed a part of a board on the stage.

In the last act Mme. Barry danced in her bare feet to the music of Chopin's "Funeral March." As she sank to the platform in the death scene she felt a sharp pain in her right heel. She "died" in agony. Vigorous applause greeted the scene. When the curtain fell the barefoot dancer limped to her dressing room and had the sliver drawn forth.

"As I sank to the floor in the dying scene," said Mme. Barry, "and stiffened in the throes of simulated death I felt something sharp pierce my right heel. I surmised that it was a sliver. I could not ease the pain or remove the splinter without spoiling the scene and therefore I bore the suffering. Previous to doing the barefoot dance I sought to have a canvas cover spread over the stage, but none was to be had."

WOMEN OF EBELL CLUB ENTERTAIN

Officers of the General Federation Are Guests of the Oakland Organization

OAKLAND, Sept. 13.—Ebell women had the unique honor of entertaining the two highest officers of the General Federation for Women's Clubs as their guests of honor at the brilliant luncheon which today formally opened the club year.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore, president of the national organization, and Mrs. Josiah Evans Covles, first vice president, shared the compliments with Mrs. Cora E. Jones, past president of Alameda district federation; Mrs. Annie Little Barry, president of the local district; Mrs. A. J. Black, president of San Francisco district; Mrs. H. L. Margrove, president of San Joaquin district; Miss Ethel Moore, Mrs. Robert J. Watt, Miss Eva Powell and Mrs. Charles J. Woodbury.

Mrs. Moore in an informal after luncheon talk, told the women how she appreciated the promises which they had made for the biennial meeting in 1912, but how she was endeavoring to keep her mind free of prejudice until she had seen what the women of Salt Lake City were offering in friendly rivalry. She admonished them not to call themselves the "Ebell club," nor yet a "study" club, nor prefix any adjectives which limited the scope of their work as a club.

Speaking of the plans of the general federation for the coming year, Mrs. Moore touched upon the history of the general federation which would be published in celebration of its twenty-first anniversary in the next few months. The creation of an endowment fund which might be used for department work in the general body was the second feature which she emphasized.

Mrs. Covles, who will formally present the invitation of the California federation to meet in San Francisco in 1912 to the board of directors of the general federation at their first session, was an enthusiastic speaker who entertained no doubts as to the acceptance of the hospitality of the western clubs for the important gathering.

Man Dressed as Laborer Passes Four Fictitious Checks in Berkeley

BERKELEY, Sept. 13.—The police are close on the trail of a check passer who has been operating extensively in this city during the last week and an arrest is expected within a few days. The Huston shoe company, 2111 Center street, and the California shoe store, 2068 Shattuck avenue, are the latest victims of the check passer, who seems to have a penchant for swindling shoe companies.

In both cases the forger gave the name of Tom Weber, and was dressed like a laborer. In each instance a pair of shoes valued at $1.50 was purchased, and a check for $11.55 tendered in payment. The checks were drawn in the name of Tom Weber and were indorsed by the J. H. Wittich Co. of San Francisco. Inquiry at the First national bank, on which the spurious papers were drawn, revealed the fact that they were worthless.

The man has been operating here for the last week and has already passed four checks. He dressed in a pair of overalls and a blue jumper, and said he was a laborer. He is about 28 years of age and weighs approximately 145 pounds. He is dark complexioned and smooth shaven.
