NEW RULES TO BE TRIED THIS WEEK

Yale, Harvard and Princeton Scheduled to Play Their Opening Games

Premium Placed on Agility Is Likely to Develop Many Surprises

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—This week will see the new football rules brought out for public inspection at most of the big eastern colleges. Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth, Brown, West Point and Annapolis will all play their opening games this week.

Yale, completing a two weeks' season of elementary practice at Lakeville, Conn., on Tuesday, will be back on Yale field Wednesday for the opening game with the Wesleyan eleven. Yale will use the new football cautiously, in accordance with the crafty Yale system of perfecting new plays in practice before exhibiting them to the public eye.

WALTER CAMP OF AMERICAN FOOTBALL HERE COMES TO SEE HOW RUGBY IS PLAYED

Yale's Famous Director Not Entirely in Sympathy With New Rules But Thinks Old Game Is More Popular Than Ever

WALTER CAMP, the "father of American football," arrived at the St. Francis last night from New York. Camp has a whole lot to say about the game in general, the new rules, the future of the sport and how they compare with the Rugby game, our newly adopted pastime, which is practically unknown on the other side of the Rocky mountains.

"Much as I admire the game of Rugby, I do not think that the present generation will ever see it played extensively in the east," says Camp. "Of course, some of the athletic clubs may take the game up, but in my opinion it will never go among the colleges. They have their good old American game and they like it. The enemies of the sport have done all in their power to kill it off, but still it's a greater game than ever it was and it is bound to become greater each year."

"There is no question in my mind but that there will be plenty of complications in the new rules. It will take the veteran college players some time to get used to them, and in the meantime you may expect to hear of some queer upsets such as that of the Pennsylvania-Ursinus game of Saturday. Pennsylvania lost, 8 to 5, when anybody who knows anything about football knows that Pennsylvania figured to win about 40 to 0."

NO STRANGER TO SAN FRANCISCO

Camp will remain here about two weeks, and in the meantime he will make a flying trip to Los Angeles to make a study of the Rugby and American football conditions as they exist in the southern part of the state.

LEXINGTON HORSES TO BE RACED HERE

A number of owners who will race their stables at Emeryville during the coming season bought horses at the sales which opened at Lexington Tuesday. Some high class yearlings were among those secured for California racing.

Mrs. W. G. Yanke, wife of the partner of Colonel W. E. Applegate, bought the brother to Donau, winner of the Kentucky derby, paying $1,000 for him. He is a bay colt by Imp Woodthorpe-Alone.

John T. Ireland recently purchased the contract which Senator T. D. Sullivan of New York held on J. Moore, an apprentice, paying $2,500. The bay colt Starport a winner at Lexington on the opening day and gives every indication of becoming a good jockey.

John Bruen, son of the former starter, died at Salt Lake City last week. Bruen was accounted one of the fastest money takers in the book making business. His home was in St. Louis.

O'SHEA'S HOUNDS DIVIDE THE PURSE

Golden Rule and Turkey's Best Are Favorites in Betting at Ingleside

The coursing at Ingleside yesterday was marked by long, grueling races in which several of the dogs which figured as likely winners were put out of the running owing to having too much racing. Tom Flinn, Mile Rock and Scamp, which looked like stake contenders, were withdrawn, after having races which exhausted the purses.

Golden Rule showed up in her old time form and ran a very clever race against Royal Gold. Considerable money changes hands at every race as the result of the course. Tom Flinn ran a corking good race against Georgetown, but unfortunately the going was too long and he was withdrawn in the second.

The results of the courses follow: Open stake—First round—Lady Barge beat Blackbird; May Sutton beat Fort Miller; Gentle Anne beat True Wing; Myrtle beat Marguerite; Miss Loxley beat Blackbird; Kory beat Teddy Blue; Mile Rock beat Carmel; Golden Rule beat Lady Barge; Turkey's Best beat Theodore M. Tom Flinn beat Georgetown; Gertrude beat Peralta; Boy; Scamp beat L. M. M.

Second round—May Sutton beat Lady Barge; Gentle Anne beat True Wing; Myrtle beat Marguerite; Miss Loxley beat Blackbird; Kory beat Teddy Blue; Mile Rock beat Carmel; Golden Rule beat Lady Barge; Turkey's Best beat Theodore M. Tom Flinn beat Georgetown; Gertrude beat Peralta; Boy; Scamp beat L. M. M.

Third round—Gentle Anne beat May Sutton; Golden Rule beat Royal Gold; Turkey's Best beat Gertrude; Boy; Scamp beat L. M. M.

Fourth round—Golden Rule beat Gentle Anne; Turkey's Best a bye.

Final—Turkey's Best and Golden Rule divided.

The Oakland game departed last night for Portland and tomorrow afternoon the two leading teams will open up a series of six games. It is not necessary to state that this will be one of the greatest series of the season, quite as exciting as the last Oakland-Portland series. Oakland goes with a full lineup, save Cameron, who will not be eligible for another week.

It is estimated that 8,500 fans saw the morning game at Oakland. This is without doubt the largest crowd that ever attended a diamond contest on the other side of the bay. This is what a winning team does for a town.
