

RANCHERS RIDE MILES TO HEAR G. O. P. LEADER

Thousands Gather Around Candidate for Governor at Open Air Meeting

Welcome to Stanislaus County Marked by Enthusiasm for Insurgent Doctrine

By W. RUSSELL COLE

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

MODESTO, Sept. 29.—Hiram Johnson broke two records tonight. He addressed one of the largest gatherings that has been held since the beginning of his state tour two weeks ago and his meeting was the largest political rally ever held in Stanislaus county. It was an outdoor meeting for the simple reason that there was no hall in the city large enough to accommodate the immense crowd that was expected and that materialized.

Modesto's local committee had hired the theater, seating less than 500 persons, but last night the plans were changed and today an inclosed and covered stand was erected in the courthouse square just to the east of the county building, and seats were provided for 1,200 persons.

It was not an audience of 1,200, however, but one numbering between 2,000 and 3,000 that listened to the doctrine of republican insurgency preached to-night by the party leader.

RANCHERS FROM ALL PARTS From miles in every direction the ranchers of Stanislaus county came to Modesto tonight in every conceivable kind of conveyance. The streets around the courthouse square were crowded with rigs and the streets on the side in front of the stand was jammed for a block with automobiles, wagons and buggies filled with people.

Hundreds stood in the rear of the seats or sat on the ground, and every bit of available space within sound of the speaker's voice was occupied. The stand erected for the speaking was draped with the national colors and lighted by scores of incandescent lights, while strings of lights were stretched over the seats.

SUPPORT FROM SPEAKERS The night was warm and still—ideal for outdoor speaking. Johnson was followed by Judge G. Burnett, candidate for election to the appellate bench of the third district, and Congressman J. C. Needham, both of whom eulogized him personally and spoke strongly in behalf of the doctrine of progressive republicanism for which he stands.

Johnson's welcome into Stanislaus county was brimming over with enthusiasm and sincerity. He was met at 7 o'clock this afternoon at Crow's Landing by three automobiles filled with admirers from this city, while further on the road others fell into line and joined in the parade which occurred when the city was reached at 5 o'clock. The machines traversed the principal downtown streets.

APPLAUSE FROM CROWDS Firecrackers were exploded along the way, the curbs were crowded with men, women and children anxious for a glimpse of the republican standard bearer. At 6 o'clock this evening Johnson left the Tyrone hotel for the courthouse square. The Johnson club of Modesto, 100 strong, was lined up to escort him.

As he passed between the lines of men a cheer was given and the parade was taken up by the crowd and wafted along the streets through which he passed. A dozen automobiles led the parade to the courthouse and were followed by the club members. When he entered the zone of lights before the stand Johnson was greeted with a storm of applause that continued for several minutes. The entire crowd arose and cheered wildly as he passed to the stand.

SQUARE DEAL FOR PEOPLE In the course of his speech Johnson declared that the republican party had taken the only positive, determined and decided stand against the domination of California's government and politics by William F. Herrin and the Southern Pacific railroad company.

He reiterated his promise to kick Herrin and the Southern Pacific out of the government and called attention to the fact that his democratic opponent had never in his speeches mentioned Herrin's name, but had dealt in generalities, "prating about a square deal for the Southern Pacific."

PURPOSE OF CAMPAIGN Johnson said:

"I want to tell you that I want to see you prosperous, that I want to see factories running, that I want to see you happy and every other community in the state increase tenfold in population if that is your desire, and that I intend to exert all my efforts to bring these conditions about. But I have something more important to speak of."

Advertising Talks

Here is a story which proves that theories aren't worth a cent to the man who thinks for himself.

When the present manager of the Union hardware and electric company of Providence, R. I., took charge he knew that the common belief among dealers was that hardware advertising would not pay. But what others thought and believed did not influence him at all.

He came over from Wapamaker's New York store, had a thorough knowledge of merchandising and knew from experience what advertising could accomplish. He saw no more reason why a hardware store should wait for customers and depend on chance sales than should a department store, so he applied the Wapamaker idea to the Union hardware and electric company.

He employed a competent man to handle the advertising, bought enough space in the newspapers to make a showing, held sales events and advertised quality and price every day in the week.

A great deal of the advertising was directed to the women of Providence, and they responded every time, exploding another fond theory that women are not interested in so prosaic a thing as hardware.

The business of the Union hardware and electric company increased enormously, will continue to increase under its very life, very wide awake manager, who goes out after business instead of waiting for it, who believes in his goods and makes others believe in and want them.

And thus it is that good advertising pays in the hardware business or any other business when intelligence, energy and honesty are put into it and when a persistent policy is pursued.

There are numerous merchants in San Francisco who could acquire great success through legitimate, dignified, convincing advertising.

Johnson Draws to Modesto the Largest Political Rally Ever Held in the County

Hiram Johnson, republican candidate for governor, addressing an open air meeting in the mining town of Sonora, Tuolumne county.

If that is the kind of political speech you want to hear just take it for granted that I favor all these things. Of course I favor them just as every man with the interests of his state at heart favors them.

But what place have such things in this campaign? My opponent is giving them much time and great consideration, but I come to with true issues, not generalities. I came here to do just what I said I was going to do when I opened the primary campaign last spring. I am fighting to do with in the government of the state just what has been done within the republican party, and that is to kick out of the government William F. Herrin and the Southern Pacific.

Johnson was given a magnificent ovation at the close of the meeting. Hundreds pressed around him to shake his hand and express their sympathy with his fight.

The meeting was opened by Chairman G. H. Bertram of the county committee and was presided over by T. C. Hocking, managing editor of the Modesto Herald.

Johnson left Stockton at 11 o'clock this morning and made his first speech of the day at Crow's Landing, where about 100 persons gathered about his car.

A good crowd attended the street meeting in Newman at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The members of the party from this city who made the trip to Crow's Landing to welcome Johnson were Chairman Bertram of the county committee, Secretary T. P. Kewin of the county committee, Mayor Charles A. Post, T. C. Hocking, chairman, T. T. Moss of Johnson club, John Dunlap, L. Holtham, Major Morris, J. C. Mier, F. C. Hunt, Frank Gomes, F. S. Rice and J. W. Brown.

On his trip out of Stockton this morning Johnson was piloted as far as Banta by a car containing F. S. Dietrich and Sheriff Cibley of Stockton.

Counties in Stampede

[Special Dispatch to The Call] PAJARO, Sept. 29.—San Luis Obispo, Monterey and Santa Cruz counties are lined up solidly behind Johnson, and great preparations are being made all along the line to receive him. It is a stamped. Johnson unites the party as it never has been united for 20 years. The people know he is deadly in earnest and transparently honest. Everywhere the opinion prevails that he will be elected by an enormous majority.

Not to Contest

Declaring that though he had ample proof of fraud in the counting of the ballots, Friend W. Richardson of Berkeley announced last night that he would not contest the nomination for state printer.

"After going into the matter thoroughly," he said, "I am convinced that a state contest would raise so many legal questions that the ballots would be printed before the legal points could be decided. I made a good race and am satisfied with the results. I am particularly pleased that I do not have to move my family away from Berkeley."

"I have no regrets at losing, and in fact I feel that I am relieved of much responsibility and worry. My only desire in seeking the office was to inaugurate certain reforms in the state printing office, which I hope will be made by the person elected."

Club Attends Meeting

The members of the Regular Republican Johnson-Wallace club attended the meeting of the republican county committee at Claremont and Fourth avenue last night in a body, and in order to make a demonstration of the affair engaged the special car Hermosa to take them across the city.

Wednesday night they had also held a meeting at Gymnasium hall, 4172 Hayes street, ocean side, for the election of club officers. The officers elected were: Alexander Russell, president; W. W. Thayer, first vice president; D. A. Lane, second vice president; J. G. Deatler, secretary; Robert W. Baranoff, treasurer; R. H. Fitzgerald and C. W. Kyle, executive committee.

DISCORD MARS SINGER'S CONNUBIAL HAPPINESS

May Adele Case-Beam Carols as Husband Seeks Her

[Special Dispatch to The Call] HEPPNER, Ore., Sept. 29.—Mary Adele Case-Beam, songbird, is in Heppner; William McEneaney, her husband, is hiking to the east in search of her. This is the condition of affairs in the household of Beam in San Francisco, which was broken up by the wife's sudden departure therefrom last week.

Mrs. Beam will sing in public in Heppner Tuesday night. She is accompanied by her mother. She would make no statement, even when asked if it were true, as reports from San Francisco had it that her husband had said that she had run away from him.

Willard McEneaney Beam evidently got off on the wrong scent. He is supposed to be hastening toward Chicago. His wife, he told San Francisco friends, telegraphed to him that she was going there. He talked of a pupil from whom he accused his wife of receiving too many attentions. eBeam has been lost from public view for three days.

LANDSLIDE AT CULEBRA CUT DOES BIG DAMAGE Mountain of Earth Slips Into Panama Canal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—A large section of the Panama canal prism was filled up by a great landslide on the night of September 15. The earth and rocks not only covered all the tracks on the east side and filled the canal ditch, but spread over one track on the west side.

The slide occurred in Culebra cut at Cucuracha, where the cut is deepest, and the inconvenience will continue until the end of the month.

Five hundred thousand cubic yards of earth and rock slowly moved down the mountain side, and having exhausted every other means to stop it the engineers have made up their minds that all of this material, representing more than a half of 1 per cent of the total excavation in Culebra cut, must be slowly dug out and removed.

YALE'S FINANCES SHOW BEST YEAR IN HISTORY University Fund Shows Increase of $1,906,448

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 29.—Total gifts to both income and principal of the university's finances, amounting to $2,388,291, are shown in the first annual report of the new treasurer of Yale university, made public today, as compared with $1,250,952 for last year.

Additions to the university fund show a net increase of $1,906,448, as against $1,294,050 for last year. The most important additions to income were $49,000 from the alumni fund and $34,351 from the Carnegie foundation. Financially it has been the best year for Yale in her history.

The revenues of the whole university and departments was $1,197,569, and the total expenditures $1,177,165, showing a credit balance for the year of $20,404.

DIES FROM INJURIES—Frank Guild, a laborer from Staten Island, died at St. Luke's hospital yesterday and his body was taken to morgue. Last Saturday he jumped from a car on his way to the hospital to see his brother, and fell, fracturing his skull.

STATE TROOPS TO VISIT ATASCADERO

Second, Fifth and Seventh Regiments Will Start for Camp Saturday

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

CAMP ATASCADERO, Sept. 29.—The California state troops, consisting of the Fifth, Second and Seventh regiments of infantry, companies A and B of the signal corps and two troops of cavalry, will leave their armories and embark on trains Saturday evening, arriving in camp Sunday morning.

All preparations have been completed for the 15 days of hard military training which the regulars will put them through, a regular program of maneuvers having been arranged, with problems for their officers to solve.

The state troops will be camped with the regulars, enabling them to receive full instruction. Besides field movements, such as advance and rear guard formations, outpost duty and trenching, they will receive instructions in cooking and hospital work, which includes sanitation.

The 19 field officers, including General Tasker H. Bliss, who is in command of the camp, will start on their annual 90 mile test ride Sunday morning. They will ride horseback 30 miles a day for three days in accordance with regulations of the war department.

From the west slopes of Corral hill about 500 men and women today witnessed the terribly destructive effects of shrapnel fire.

Firing from a distance of a mile and a third, the batteries of Captains Albert U. Faulkner, George M. Appel and Lieutenant John A. Crane smothered a line of trenches containing 60 silhouetted figures of men in kneeling and prone positions.

Private Papka of Company H, Thirtieth infantry, was thrown from his horse this afternoon, and falling on his head was rendered unconscious. The surgeon states that his injuries, while serious, are not dangerous.

Mrs. Chubb, wife of Colonel C. St. J. Chubb, Thirtieth infantry, Mrs. W. M. Wright and Mrs. and Misses Green, wife and daughter of Major Green of the signal corps, visited the camp today.

Lieutenant Edgar Fields, Thirtieth infantry, is in the hospital suffering from some minor ailment.

SURETY BLAMES STATE AGENTS FOR SHORTAGE

SEATTLE, Sept. 29.—The surety company which furnished to the state a $20,000 bond for Adjutant General Otis Hamilton, now serving a term in the Walla Walla penitentiary for embezzlement of state funds, denies that it is liable for any part of Hamilton's shortage.

The company's reply to the state's suit was filed today and said that the loss sustained was due to the negligence of the state agents.

Hamilton's thefts amounted to nearly $50,000.

MRS. J. P. QUINN IS GIVEN HER LIBERTY

Released From the Custody of Mrs. C. Tingley by Judge's Ruling

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 29.—In the superior court this afternoon Judge Lewis ordered Mrs. Julia P. Quinn released from the custody of Mrs. Catherine Tingley and her agents at the point Loma homestead. The order is the result of the writ of habeas corpus sued out several days ago by George L. Patterson, brother of Mrs. Quinn.

At the hearing there was a showing that Mrs. Quinn, daughter of the late Harriet P. Thurston, whose will bequeathed $150,000 to Mrs. Tingley, has been unduly restrained of her liberty. The taking of evidence was completed and the case argued today. Judge Lewis reviewed the testimony at some length and concluded by saying:

"It is the order of the court that from the cause shown she is discharged. It is further ordered that she be given into the custody and care of the petitioners."

According to his present plans George L. Patterson will start with Mrs. Quinn at once for her old home at Newcastle, Pa.

It takes a widow to flirt and make a man believe that she doesn't.

BELL PARTY RESTS AS PLANS GO AWRY

Imperial Meeting Abandoned Because of Misunderstanding Regarding Dates

Bourbon Candidate Insists That He Should Be Rewarded for Fight

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 29.—Theodore A. Bell and Timothy Spellacy, the democratic standard bearers, are resting in San Bernardino instead of holding a meeting in Imperial as was originally announced by the democratic state central committee. Because of a slip in dates, Bell and Spellacy will not go down into the desert for a meeting.

The only speech of the day was delivered at Colton at 10 o'clock this morning.

C. A. Rouse, chairman of the county central committee; Attorney J. W. Curtis of San Bernardino, and M. Earle Cook of Redlands, secretary of the county central committee, met the candidates at Colton this morning on their arrival from Riverside, where they spent the night.

SPEECHES IN OPEN AIR W. Steck, a prominent merchant of Colton, presided at the meeting and presented Bell and Spellacy as the speakers. Spellacy entertained an audience of about 500 persons in front of the Anderson hotel, and made an appeal in behalf of Bell's candidacy for governor. He added that he would try to be of much assistance to Bell in the event of their election.

Bell followed Spellacy with a discussion of the issues of the campaign in which he alleged that he had been the pioneer in the fight against the activity of the Southern Pacific in state politics and insisted that he was entitled to the reward for ending the domination of the railroad political bureau.

After the meeting Bell and Spellacy visited the Colton cement works and other places of business in Colton and then came to this city, where luncheon was served at the Biks' club.

INTRODUCED TO VOTERS During the afternoon Bell and Spellacy were taken in hand by a committee consisting of O. Warner, editor of the Free Press and member of the state central committee; C. A. Rouse; J. W. Curtis, former postmaster; James H. Boyd; W. M. Parker, treasurer of the county central committee, and A. J. Wilkins, a lemon shipper of Highland, and introduced to many voters in this city.

Bell and Spellacy will visit the Santa Fe shops tomorrow and then proceed to the Southern California State hospital at Patton, where speeches will be made by them. A meeting will be held later in Highland, after which the party will proceed to Redlands, where a street meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock. A meeting will be held in the pavilion in this city Saturday night.

FIRST VOTERS CLUB Plans for the formation of a first voters' democratic club are being arranged by Henry Van Wyck Jr., chairman of the democratic county campaign committee, the purpose being to organize the democratic voters who have yet to cast their first presidential vote.

Bell and Spellacy clubs were formed last night in the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth assembly districts, the former at a meeting in Phelps' hall and the latter at 1013 Steiner street.

Similar clubs will be organized tonight for the Thirtieth district at a meeting to be held at 1778 Bush street, and for the Forty-third at 1208 Pacific street.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE—Joseph Daniels, 72 years of age, an inmate of the Old People's home, 2307 Pine street, attempted to commit suicide yesterday afternoon at the home by shooting himself in the head. He was taken to the Lane hospital.

FURBETH TO SPEAK—Andrew Furbeth, secretary of the sailors' union of the Pacific, will give an address at the luncheon of the Commonwealth Club tomorrow. "America's Seamen and Their General Status." The luncheon will be held at the Palace hotel at 12:30.

TEDDY TAKES HOME OLD GUARD'S SCALP

Goes to Bed Early and Prepares for Strenuous Campaign Season

Takes Up Cudgel in Behalf of Farmers' Wives at Fair Grounds

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Theodore Roosevelt returned early this evening from Saratoga with the scalp of the republican old guard of New York state added to his big collection of trophies.

Colonel Roosevelt went to bed early tonight to get a good night's sleep, for he expects to have little rest until after election. He was tired and hoarse when he reached Sagamore Hill, but in fine spirits. He expressed himself as well pleased with the result of the convention, but had no other comment to make on anything related to politics.

The colonel took a train from Saratoga at 8 o'clock this morning. On reaching New York late in the afternoon he started at once for Oyster Bay by automobile. He had no visitors this evening and said that he hoped to have a quiet time for the next few days, as some will be no letup when once the campaign is fairly under way. He has placed his services at the disposal of the republican state committee and hopes to make at least one speech in every county in the state.

A week from today he is to start on his southern trip, which will extend over a little more than a week. On this trip he will speak at Knoxville, Tenn., before the Appalachian exposition, in Atlanta at the Uncle Remus day celebration, and in Hot Springs, Ark. Then, turning north, he will speak at Peoria, Ill., before the Knights of Columbus, and will make a campaign speech in Indiana for Senator Beveridge.

In the latter part of October the colonel is to go to Massachusetts to help Senator Lodge by a campaign speech, and to New Hampshire to speak for Robert Bass, the republican candidate to go to Ithaca, N. Y., for a day's tour of abandoned farms.

At his offices in New York tomorrow the colonel will hold some conferences to lay the first plans for the campaign.

Champions Farmer's Wife

POUGHKEEPSIE, Sept. 29.—Colonel Roosevelt arrived in Poughkeepsie at noon, and after taking luncheon with William L. Ward, went to the fair grounds to speak.

"We have had a middling busy time the last few days," the colonel said, "and a particularly satisfactory time. Every thoughtful man ought to do all in his power to help the men in the open country. I want to see the farm life so arranged that there shall be a better outlook for the farmers, and especially for the farmer's wife."

Colonel Roosevelt paid a high tribute to the mother who does her duty. "You often hear of woman's rights," he said, "every man should think of woman's rights all the time and the woman should think of her duties."

Sherman Resigned

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Vice President James S. Sherman of this city, in speaking of the state convention, said: "I am entirely content with the result. The platform is exceptionally clear and forceful, save only in reference to direct nominations. "In that regard it needs explanation of its meaning, and explanations will differ. I preferred the minority plank, which was clear and unequivocal."

"The ticket named is most excellent. Of course, the convention was absolutely dominated by one man and its every action was taken at his bidding. That, however, I regard as not basic. I accept the result complacently and shall, of course, support the ticket nominated."
