

ORANGE COUNTY GROUNDS CHEER HIRAM JOHNSON

Most Remarkable Demonstration of Welcome During Campaign

Frank Hering's Statements Are Denounced as Unwarranted Falsehoods

By W. RUSSELL COLE

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SANTA ANA, Oct. 27.—Orange county is ambitious to be listed when the votes of November 8 are counted as the banner progressive republican county of California.

In the entire state campaign there has been no more enthusiastic or remarkable demonstration of welcome than that accorded Hiram W. Johnson here tonight on his arrival from Los Angeles.

When Johnson stepped from an interurban car here at 7:30 o'clock it was into the midst of thousands of persons who thronged the street for two blocks.

CHEERS DROWN MUSIC As the car drew up the music of a band was drowned by the cheers of those gathered at the corner where the republican nominee for governor alighted.

He was escorted to a waiting automobile, from which he reviewed a parade of 30 flag decorated machines, led by one carrying the G. A. R. veterans' drum corps, which has been so loyal to the republican standard bearer during all his southern trips.

TWELVE HUNDRED IN HALL Spurgeon's hall, where the meeting was held, was packed with 1,200 persons, many of them standing, long before Johnson entered, and when he stepped on the platform the entire audience arose and gave him a vociferous welcome.

Dr. C. D. Ball, a member of the county republican executive committee, and E. E. Keech, republican state committeeman, met Johnson in Los Angeles and escorted him to this city, while several others joined the welcoming party further on.

Johnson again quoted a number of excerpts from Bell's speeches of four years ago denouncing W. R. Hearst and the latter's papers which are now making Bell's fight, and his sarcastic reference to these quotations provoked storm after storm of prolonged applause.

Johnson referred to the accusations which have been made that he was indulging in personal attacks on his opponent. He said:

There is no ground for such accusation. Let no man assume that I am indulging in personal denunciation, for I am not. It is entirely within the line of legitimate discussion for me to criticize my opponent on his public utterances, and I am not to blame if my opponent continues repeating his own speeches in an attack upon himself.

My sole object in citing these matters is to give you that upon which you may determine for yourself whether my distinguished opponent has remained true to the principles which he espoused four years ago, or whether, in reaching out after votes, he has crossed the line which he then drew.

Johnson made a strong plea tonight for a favorable vote upon the state bond issue for the Panama-Pacific international exposition.

HERING'S STORY DENOUNCED During the day Johnson gave out an informal statement in answer to the unwarranted declaration made by Frank Hering in a public speech and reported to have been repeated by Bell himself, to the effect that Johnson accepted $55,000 worth of Western Pacific stock for defending J. D. Ball.

The two candidates for governor were in closer proximity to each other this morning than at any time since the campaign began. On his return trip by automobile from Pomona, Johnson passed through Pasadena, while Bell was making an outdoor speech. The republican nominee for governor passed directly by the place, but did not stop to listen to his opponent.

SACRAMENTO PLANS BIG TIME SACRAMENTO, Oct. 27.—Indications pointing to a record political gathering when Hiram Johnson comes to Sacramento to speak November 2, and there being no adequate hall to house more than several thousand, the republican central committee has decided to pitch an enormous tent on the lawn at Capitol park.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR TO TURKEY LEAVES POST LONDON, Oct. 27.—A news agency dispatch from Constantinople says that M. Bompard, French ambassador to Turkey, left that city suddenly during the night aboard the French gunship for Panderma.

Merely an Excursion PARIS, Oct. 27.—The foreign office is without advice that Ambassador Bompard has left Constantinople. If he has gone away it believes he is merely making an excursion.

SIAMESE CORONATION SLATED—Bangkok, Siam, Oct. 27.—The coronation of Crown Prince Maha Vajiravudh as king of Siam, in succession to his father, the late King Chulalongkorn, will take place November 17.

He was educated in England. Eight years ago he visited the United States.

PROMINENT BUSINESSMEN URGE ELECTION JOHNSON AND TICKET

THAT the businessmen of San Francisco whose interests are the interests of their city and state appreciate the tremendous importance of electing Hiram W. DEMOCRATS AID KENT BEN LINDSEY'S STAND

The whole of progressive America is interested in the fight to elect William Kent to congress from the second California district. That the success of Kent means as much to the cause of the progressives as the success of La Follette, Beveridge, Murdock and Governor Stubbs of Kansas, is daily evidenced by the eastern press and the statements of progressive leaders throughout the nation.

WILLIAM KENT

In the struggle going on in this country between the people and the special privilege grabbers, where insurgent republicans have made a brave stand against the powers in their own party and succeeded in overthrowing those powers in conventions or at primaries, a progressive democrat, in my judgment, is false to his principles if he permits the powers of privilege to defeat such a republican after he has won such a victory unless he is absolutely certain that the democratic can same principle.

We have the experience in many congressional districts in many states where republican insurgents have won at the primaries, of democratic organizations taking advantage of the enmity and opposition created by as insurgent republican within his own party merely for the purpose of winning a temporary party victory.

No man who pretends to be a good democrat would care to win temporary party advantage at such a price to good government as would be the defeat of men like Kent in California, La Follette in Wisconsin, Stubbs in Kansas, Beveridge in Indiana and some others who have become shining marks for defeat by the privileged interests that are trying to use both parties.

In such a case the election of a democratic candidate, however good it might be, would, in my judgment, make the democratic advantage come at a fearful cost to the progressive movement all over the United States. I am perfectly confident that the defeat of shining marks in his progressive movement like the type of men I have described in the republican party would be held up even to democrats of the same type all over the country, as showing them that the people would not stand by a man who has conspicuously stood by them.

On the other hand the triumph and election of insurgent republicans of the type I have mentioned will put backbone into the heart of every other real progressive democrat who has the best interests of the people at heart and who is making a real genuine fight. We are bound to elect democrats in many states over reactionaries and we ought to; but in those republican districts, where an insurgent republican has secured the nomination and his success is jeopardized by the confusions, deals and appeals by reactionaries to party prejudice and mere party advantage, it is far more important to the cause of real democracy that democrats should have before them during the next two years the example of the people standing faithfully by the men who stood by them, than that they should defeat such a man for the sake of thereby gaining a mere temporary party advantage.

This fight is not between the democratic and republican party as such. It is rather between the men in those parties who are standing by the cause of the people as against the aggressions of privilege. As a party man, therefore, as a democrat, and as a citizen of this republic, looking at the thing broadly, in view of the struggle mentioned, that is within the parties rather than as between the parties, I can wish for nothing better in California than the election of men like Kent, in Wisconsin for the election of men like La Follette, and in India for the election of men like Beveridge and in Kansas for the election of men like Stubbs and Murdock.

I believe that it is a part of the duty of the hour for democrats to put principle above party; to respond to the appeal of patriotism rather than the appeal of party by so voting and working during the present campaign as to make impossible the defeat by the special interest of insurgent republicans like those I have mentioned.

HAWLEY AND POST ARRIVE IN QUEBEC

Pilot's Leg Badly Hurt, but Both Are Glad That Cup Stays in United States

QUEBEC, Oct. 27.—Alan R. Hawley and Augustus Post, heroes of the great balloon flight on record, arrived here tonight after an experience that was more trying than earlier reports indicated, but mightily pleased because the cup for which they contended remains in America.

The first day after leaving the America II at the end of their journey on the banks of the Peribonka river, Hawley's leg was injured so severely that he was laid up for several hours and he has not yet fully recovered.

The arrival of the aeronauts was made the occasion of their first formal welcome back to civilization. Gebhardt Willich, the American consul and businessman of the city, met the party on the arrival of their train from Chicoutimi this evening and escorted them to the Hotel Frontenac, where an informal dinner was given in their honor.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY LUTHER LEAGUE

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—The Luther league of America, which is holding its ninth annual convention here, elected these officers today: President, W. C. Stoeber, Philadelphia; general secretary, Luther M. Kuhn, Omaha, Neb.; treasurer, C. T. Anderson, Chicago.

According to the report of the statistical secretary there are 1,001 organizations in this country, with a membership of 48,199.

WISE WORDS A Physician on Food

A physician of Portland, Ore., has views about food. He says: "I have always believed that the duty of the physician does not cease with treating the sick, but that we owe it to humanity to teach them how to protect their health, especially by hygienic and dietetic laws."

"With such a feeling as to my duty I take great pleasure in saying to the public that in my own experience and also from personal observation I have found no food to equal Grape-Nuts, and that I find there is almost no limit to the great benefit this food will bring when used in all cases of sickness and convalescence."

"It is my experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. To persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach, especially at breakfast, to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work."

"In cases of indigestion I know that a complete breakfast can be made of Grape-Nuts and cream and I think it is not advisable to overeat the stomach at the morning meal. I also know the great value of Grape-Nuts when the stomach is too weak to digest other food."

"This is written after an experience of more than 20 years, treating all manner of chronic and acute diseases, and the letter is written voluntarily on my part without any request for it."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

BODY OF MURDERED VETERAN IS FOUND

LONG BEACH, Oct. 27.—The body of J. S. Ranous, a war veteran 74 years old, who disappeared September 21, was found today under a huge pile of refuse near his shack in the southeastern part of the city. It is plainly a case of murder. Revolver shots were heard the night before his disappearance.

Samuel Spedaco, a Mexican, who bought a revolver here the day prior to the disappearance of Ranous and traded it for a watch the day following, has been in jail several weeks charged with embezzlement of money he had collected for Ranous, by whom he was employed as a hauler of refuse.

D. S. Devore, Ranous' son in law, also is detained by the police.

Chief of Police A. A. Burke signed the warrant and the sum mentioned as being misappropriated is nearly $8,000. Ex-officio City Auditor C. H. Stoddard has been placed in charge of the office. A. E. —get ready to go Sunday

CHAPTER V. The folders for Sunday's sale of lots at "Pullman Park" are ready! Thank goodness for that! They've been swamping us with inquiries and these folders will answer most of the questions at least. "How did you come to get such a gem of a piece?" asked an enthusiastic little Englishman yesterday. "Can I buy a row of lots before the sale starts?" inquired a wise old contractor. "How big are they?" "Can a man buy more than one?" "When will the Pullman Works open?" That's the way they're firing the queries over the counter! A woman wrote from Vallejo. We received a dozen letters from Oakland, two from Sacramento and a score or more from local buyers. So you see we are going to have a sale Sunday that will make history. Therefore, get ready to go. Bring your wife along and make a day of it. Pullman Park is likely to develop into the greatest money maker for small investors that this state has ever known. HOW TO GET THERE Take Key Route Ferry, foot of Market street. After crossing the bay, take Piedmont cars, change at Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue to Richmond car. Get off at "Pullman Park," on Pullman avenue, just as you pass the Pullman works, From Oakland, take Pullman and Richmond cars out San Pablo avenue. Remember this property is passed by a car line and adjoins the Pullman Works. If you can't go Sunday, then go today or tomorrow. BALDWIN & HOWELL 318-324 Kearny Street San Francisco California
