MISS LIGDA GIVES AN INFORMAL TEA

Young Woman Entertains in Honor of Brother's Fiancee, Agnes Magnuson

OAKLAND, Dec. 10.—Miss Valentine Ligda gave an informal tea today at her home in Thirty-fourth street, making Miss Agnes Magnuson her guest of honor.

The dozen or more friends who were asked to meet the young bride elect surprised her with some dainty offerings for the tressouae. Among those who shared the hospitality of the Ligda home were:

- Miss Magnuson Miss Etta Campbell
Miss Helen Marshall Miss Clara Westover
Theobald Miss Vera Berry
Miss Vera Berry Miss Rita Labellet
Miss Edna Duffey Miss Adelaide Granger
Miss Edna Duffey Miss Elizabeth Mitchell
Miss Magnuson's engagement to a brother of her hostess of today was announced a week ago at a prettily planned card party at which she entertained more than a score of friends at the family home in College avenue.

The marriage of Miss Magnuson and P. V. Ligda will be solemnized early in the year. The bride elect is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Magnuson. Her fiance is in business across the bay. Those to whom she confided the interesting news of her approaching marriage were:

- Miss Valentine Ligda Miss Jessie Spangenberg
Miss Maude Marshall Miss Theobald
Miss Adelaide Granger Miss Rita Labellet
Miss Vera Berry Miss Edna Duffey
Miss Edna Duffey Miss Elizabeth Mitchell
Miss Edna Campbell Miss Genevieve

Miss Marie Lazarus Miss Alma Blake
Miss Chester Cromack Miss Clara Westover
Miss Emily McCornack Mrs. Edward Adams
Miss Carmelita

There is general regret that Mr. and Mrs. William Murcell have found it necessary to make their future home in Sacramento. Murcell's business interests in the capital city have demanded the change. Mrs. Murcell, who is prominently known in musical circles in that section of the state, will be missed because of her beautiful contralto voice with which she was exceedingly generous at church and charity affairs. Recently a beautiful recital given in Adams' Point was completed by Mr. and Mrs. Murcell and of which they had taken possession but a short time ago. Neither Mrs. Murcell nor her husband goes to Sacramento as a stranger, for they have many friends in that section of the state. Mrs. Murcell is a sister in law of Mrs. Percival Walker.

A delightful affair of the early week was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turley received 80 friends at their Twelfth street home. Among those who contributed to an informal program were:

- William F. File Miss Kitty Webster
Miss Alice Anst

After a European tour of six months Captain Robert Mines and Mrs. Mines, Miss Viola Mines and Miss Eleanor Eschen will arrive in Oakland before Christmas. They included France, Germany, Italy, Norway and Sweden in their itinerary.

The third in the series of dances which Le Beau Morde club is giving this winter in the Home club, will take place Wednesday evening. Nearly 200 guests will attend.

Among the card hostesses of the week was Mrs. Houghton Sawyer, who entertained a number of friends at her Piedmont home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Cynthia R. Lee celebrated her four score years on Monday of this week, her daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Scott of East Oakland, arranging a beautifully planned reception in her home to which were bidden the closest friends of her mother. Mrs. Lee came to California in the early fifties and for many years has lived in Oakland, where her sons and daughters are prominently known. Among those who greeted her on Monday were:

- Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Leet
Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Eaton
Miss Cynthia Leet
Mrs. Charles H. Leet
Mrs. O. G. Leet
Mrs. M. C. West
Mrs. R. J. Sherman
Mrs. De E. Price
Mrs. W. S. Harris
Mrs. C. C. Marsh
Mrs. J. H. Leet
Mrs. Richard B. Leet
Mrs. Charles Brewster
Mrs. C. H. Williams
Mrs. Harry Barnes

Mrs. W. A. Stevens is entertaining as her house guest Miss Elizabeth Nelson of Los Angeles.

An interesting wedding of Christmas week will be that at which David G. Duncan will claim as his bride Miss Lona Vivian Lawton. Miss Lawton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Lawton. Her fiance is a son of Mrs. Thomas Thompson. The bride elect is planning a home ceremony.

Mrs. Fred Bostwick left Monday for New York, where she will continue her musical studies. Before her departure she was made the guest of honor at an informal dinner which her cousin, Mrs. J. H. Wood, gave at her Ninth street home.

The boys of the Junior dancing class which meets in Mowbray hall, gave a dance Friday evening to a number of the younger set of Piedmont. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. H. C. Capwell, Mrs. Granville Abbott, Mrs. C. E. Hill and Mrs. William E. Sharon.

Mrs. M. J. Coakley will preside as hostess over one of the larger dinners of Christmas day.

A barn dance was given Monday evening by Miss Alberta Church and Miss Alta Church at the Church home in Piedmont Heights, 30 young persons joining in the affair. Masses of bouquets and Christmas berries gave a festive scene which was cleverly lighted with incandescents. Those who attended were:

- Miss Ruth Dwyer
Miss Marie Blaine
Miss Thelma Blaine
Miss Claire Fields
Miss Ruth Litch
Miss Carol Grey
Miss Emily Cowley
Miss Morgan
Miss Lea Pellon

BUSY WEEK SPENT BY THOSE IN SOCIETY ACROSS THE BAY

Miss Inez Eudey, who was guest of Miss Valentine Ligda at tea given in honor of Miss Magnuson, and Miss Marguerite Kennedy, feted on return from southern trip.

MISS INEZ EUDEY

covers being laid for a score of guests.

The announcement of the betrothal of Miss Emma E. Bagley and Ralston Dyer, a ranch owner of the San Joaquin valley, is interesting to the friends of the bride-elect about the bay.

Today Mrs. Harry Eastland made Miss Alberta Higgins, the guest of honor for the afternoon at cards at her home in Piedmont.

Mrs. Henry Kennedy Jackson was a card hostess on Thursday evening, claiming the members of one of the winter's clubs as her guests at an informal occasion. In this category of friends who are meeting together frequently for five hundred, are:

- Mr. and Mrs. John Ellsworth
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Taylor
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jackson
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Burrill

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Roy Browning, formerly Miss Hazel Pitcher, are established in a cozy home in southern California, where Browning is engaged in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Turner entertained two score guests this week at their home in Ridgway, asking them to meet Dr. William S. Morgan, who has recently come to California from Albany, N. Y. Doctor Morgan comes to the west with letters of introduction from Governor Hughes of New York and many high officials. He is an authority on economical and social questions and has had unusual opportunity to study, both here and abroad, where he was associated with Professor Poliak. Doctor Morgan is a lecturer of note and in the informal talk which he gave before the guests of his host and hostess confined himself to matters of civic interest about Rome. Doctor Morgan is connected with the Pacific Unitarian school of the ministry.

The second of a series of three dances was given by the gemstone club Friday night in Maple hall. The affair far surpassed the first dance of the series. The ballroom was elaborately decorated with chrysanthemums and the gold and silver pennants of the club. More than 300 attended the dance.

The officers of the club are: President, Henry Claudius; vice president, Arthur Miles; secretary, Roy Reed; treasurer, Charles Feenan; directors, Thomas Clancy, Jack Willis, H. W. Mau, Richard Glesman and Gene Van Antwerp.

The entertainment committee, which had charge of the dance, is composed of Jack Willis, C. A. Leuckling, Roy Reed, Eugene Van Antwerp, Henry Claudius and Archie Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry tum Suden of East Oakland, celebrated the forty-eighth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday night in their home, 1227 Thirteenth avenue, where they have lived all the 48 years of their married life.

The tum Sudens are pioneers in Oakland. There are seven children, all of whom were present at the anniversary celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Naylor, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Jessie Naylor Cole, are planning to leave here early in February for a tour of Europe and the Holy Land. The party will go direct to Jerusalem and Paris, and is the first of the new year.

Miss Vivian Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Davis of this city, is being showered with congratulations over the announcement of her engagement to Albert Wallace Smith, a young businessman of San Francisco. The wedding will take place about the first of the new year.

A notable wedding of the week was that of Walter Carlton and Miss Helen Wierda, who were united in matrimony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pier Wierda, 2217 Jefferson street. Rev. R. S. Eastman, pastor of the Knox Presbyterian church, officiated. Miss Margaret Furrer attended the bride as maid of honor and David S. Roberts was the groomsmen.

Among those present were:

- Herman Wierda
Grace Wierda
Mrs. Hendricka Herget
Mrs. Hendricka Herget
Kate Carlton
George T. Clow
Mrs. J. Matson
Margaret Furrer
Nannie Mackinnon
William Clow

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton will make their home in this city.

Local society is interested in the engagement of Miss Cornelia Comstock, a prominent society girl of Santa Rosa, and W. S. Matthews, Jr., son of Rev. W. S. Matthews, who lately gave up the pastorate of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church of this city to accept the pulpit of a Boise City Methodist church. The wedding will be solemnized during the winter season.

Feel Tired—So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof.

It's the sure remedy you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, bad smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used.—A. F. Dreiser, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended and sold by THE OWL DRUG COMPANY

IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Dec. 10.—A number of informal social affairs have been given in honor of Miss Marguerite Kennedy, who has lately returned from a three months' tour of the southern part of the state. Miss Kennedy, who is a handsome member of the Berkeley younger set, has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Boyden de Ventura, and she also visited other friends in the south.

One of the week's "at home" socials given for her was at the residence of Prof. Albin Putzker, whose daughter, Miss Anita Putzker, was the hostess for the afternoon and a group of young women also entertained for her sister, Kennedy also entertained for her sister, the affair being largely attended.

A number of the members of the North Berkeley set surprised William
