Structure to Cost $100,000 to Be Built at Fourteenth and Franklin Streets

OAKLAND, Jan. 23.—With preliminary work started this morning on the $175,000 depot to be built by the Southern Pacific at Sixteenth and Clay streets, the corporation has also completed plans, it is reported, for a four story stone and steel structure to be erected on the narrow gauge depot site at Fourteenth and Franklin streets.

The proposed structure is to face Fourteenth street with wide entrance through heavy stone archways. Awnings composed of a network of metals and supported by steel columns will serve as a protection to passengers in inclement weather.

The lower floor will be in triple arch form which will permit of passage beneath the building from one street to the other without going through the rooms of the building proper. The entire lower floor will be used for waiting rooms, ticket offices and news stands.

The building is to be completed soon after the electrification of the Southern Pacific local lines in Oakland and Alameda county. The 500 persons composing the mailing force of the company are to be brought from San Francisco and housed in the new building. The fourth floor of the building will be given over to the mailing force.

The second floor will be offices for officials of the company and an information bureau. This floor will also contain the publicity and advertising bureau. The third floor will be used as a telegraph department and as general offices. The building will be erected along Spanish architectural lines.

The erection of this building will result in a marked increase in the value of property in this section. With the recent sale of the First Presbyterian church property, directly north from the depot, and other sales recently made, the long looked for improvement of this district will begin. It was said today that the purchasers of the church site, E. M. Fitzgerald, J. P. Carlson, Milton Markle, L. J. Goodwin, H. L. Hynes, Mrs. W. G. Palminter, P. E. Sewell and George Hoffman, have agreed that if a buyer can not be found soon the present owners will build a 10 story structure.

Gibson fought the officer, but Holmberg overpowered and handcuffed him. Captain of Detectives Petersen identified the prisoner as a convict three times.

Gibson will be charged with the burglary of Dr. A. P. Piercy's office in the Macdonough building, from which were stolen jewelry and surgical implements. The police expect to prove him guilty of other similar crimes.

Gibson has used the aliases of Joseph Williams and Frank Vonders. As Joe Williams he was convicted of burglary in the second degree in San Francisco, being sent to San Quentin July 4, 1902, for 18 months. He was convicted of second degree burglary in the same city May 17, 1904, and returned to San Quentin for three years. FINAL ASSEMBLY OF SEASON WILL BE ATTENDED BY YOUNGER SMART SET

OAKLAND, Jan. 23.—The second and last dance of the winter given by the recently organized Friday Night dancing club, for which Mrs. C. C. Clancy, Mrs. Martin W. Kales and Mrs. William H. Creed are acting as patronesses, will be a brilliant event Friday night.

The dance will be given at 10 o'clock of the younger set in Ebell club house. The assemblies have proved delightful, as the membership of the small club includes those who have known each other for several seasons, the many friendships creating an atmosphere of informality. To precede the dance several small dinner parties are being planned.

The February dance of the week will be the February assembly of the Saturday Night club, which also will be held in Ebell club house. Two hundred guests are expected.

A number of the girls of the smart set will cross the bay tomorrow afternoon to attend the tea at which Miss Vera de Sable is making Miss Maudie Wilson, dancee of Edgingham Sutton, the guest of honor. The betrothal of the young couple was told several weeks ago. Since then Miss Wilson has been the inspiration for much of the gaiety of the later season. Sutton is a Berkeley man, the son of Mrs. A. M. Sutton.

Miss Mary Martin, who went abroad some time ago to finish her study of the piano, is in Paris, where she is doing some notable work under Egbert Swayne. Miss Elizabeth M. Martin, now serving Swayne as an assistant instructor, the honor having come unthought to the gifted woman, who is widely known in the bay cities. Miss Simpson, who has been offered flattering inducements to remain abroad, has determined to return to Oakland next summer.

Considerable interest is being taken in the betrothal of Bertrand York and Miss Ruth Sadler, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sadler of Berkeley. The matter has been discussed by the city council and tomorrow morning the city council will be asked by the board to bring the matter up at the polls at the municipal election this year.

For several months La Loma club has petitioned the board for the use of the Hillside schoolhouse as a headquarters for dramatics. The board turned down the request by a majority vote on the ground that the insurance on the schools would be invalid if the buildings were used for other than school purposes.

Attorneys advised the club that the board's ruling was wrong, and the board secured a counter legal opinion to the effect that the insurance would not be voided. The school board, not willing to make a final ruling in the controversy, has asked the council to let the people of Berkeley decide the matter at the polls.

The young couple expect to live in San Francisco on the return from their honeymoon.

Mrs. Martin has only one more week to spend in the county jail, as the 30 day stay of execution that Judge Wells gave her will expire. She will then be taken to San Quentin penitentiary. She says she will be glad to go, and Matron White says she will be glad to have her go, as a fiction has existed between them ever since Mrs. Martin was placed in the county jail. Mrs. Martin will prepare her appeal at the penitentiary.

A report that papers were missing from her case was denied this afternoon by Chief Deputy County Clerk A. E. Johnstone, who made an investigation.

Yoakum, for several years pastor of the Congregational church at Hannibal, Mo., has accepted the pulpit of the Park Congregational church, California and King streets, South Berkeley, and preached his first sermon yesterday on the subject of "The Dreamer and His Dreams."

Although a young man Rev. Mr. Yoakum has won a reputation in the middle west as a pulpit orator and deep thinker. He succeeds Rev. F. M. Price, who three months ago resigned the pastorate of the local church to do missionary work at Tai Ming Fu, China.

With the coming of his new pastor the congregation is making plans to remove their church to Fairview and Ellis streets, where a larger lot has been secured.

BIG SYNDICATE TO LEASE HOTEL

Million Dollar Oakland Caravanary Sought by Great Combine of Capitalists

OAKLAND, Jan. 23.—It was stated in financial circles today that eastern and European capitalists, who control a chain of hotels in the principal cities in the United States and Europe, have taken preliminary steps toward securing a lease of the new Hotel Oakland, which is being built at a cost of $1,000,000. It is understood that they have asked for a lease of 10 years, with an option for another 10 years.

This rental would be equivalent to $6 per room on an investment of $1,000,000 for a period of 10 and probably 20 years, and would result in the stockholders in the hotel project being secure in their investments and would also assure Oakland one of the best conducted, most elegantly equipped and most attractive hotels in the west.

It is known that some weeks ago an eastern man, representing the hotel syndicate, was in Oakland, looking over the site and the work done on the hotel. He was favorably impressed with what he saw and the building will be ready in August, 1912.

SCHOOL BOARD MAY APPEAL TO VOTERS

Special Election Suggested to Settle Fight Over Use of Buildings by Clubs

BERKELEY, Jan. 23.—The controversy between members of the board of education and the members of La Loma improvement club and other civic organizations as to the use by the club of the schools as a meeting place, will probably be deferred to the voters of Berkeley for a decision. The matter has reached a climax and tomorrow morning the city council will be asked by the board to bring the matter up at the polls at the municipal election this year.

For several months La Loma club has petitioned the board for the use of the Hillside schoolhouse as a headquarters for dramatics. The board turned down the request by a majority vote on the ground that the insurance on the schools would be invalid if the buildings were used for other than school purposes.

LIFE OF PIONEER WOMAN IS ENDED

Widow of Manufacturer, Who Made Her Way to Coast Alone, Dies

BERKELEY, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Hannah A. Goss, relict of the late Leonard Goss, pioneer of the state and founder and member of the pioneer firm of Goss-Lambert company, machine manufacturer of Sacramento, died yesterday, one day after she had passed her eighty-seventh birthday. Mrs. Goss, after her marriage in the east, came to California by the way of the isthmus of Panama unaccompanied in 1853.

She was born at Auburn, Me., January 20, 1824, and was married in New England to Leonard Goss. Shortly after the wedding he came to California and settled at Sacramento, where he founded one of the machine shops and foundries which was known in the Sacramento valley and mining districts of the state for 20 years.

Mrs. Goss followed her husband in 1853 to this coast. Alone she went by steamer to the isthmus, made the arduous trip across the 57 miles of land separating the two oceans and embarked for Sacramento. She met her husband in San Francisco and then went to their home in Sacramento, where she lived until she came to Berkeley 33 years ago. Goss was a charter member of Golden Gate commandery, Knights Templar, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Goss had made her home with her son, Homer Goss, 2119 Channing way. She is survived by him and five grandchildren—Orville R. Goss, a student at the university; Howard L. Eleanor C. Douglas W. and Donald H. Goss.

The funeral will be held from her late residence in this city tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The body will be shipped to Sacramento Wednesday for interment by the side of her husband.

FROM THIN TO PLUMP—GIRLS

The expressions of happiness and gratitude of several of his young lady patients for whom he has prescribed this recently successful flesh forming product, known as three grain hypno-cubane tablets, is related by a physician in one of the medical publications and it comes as a surprise to the ordinary layman to learn the heart throbs of distress which seems to affect so many young people who are abnormally thin. Also to learn that the weight can be so readily increased by the use, regularly for several months, of this peculiarly named preparation, now obtainable of the best physicians and apothecary shops in sealed packages with complete instructions for self-administration.
