Santa Rosa Children and Crown Ups Each to Have their Carnival Ruler

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SANTA ROSA, April 23.—Queen Lucile, who is to reign over the juvenile part of the Santa Rosa carnival, has her royal robes all completed and is ready for her coronation Friday afternoon of carnival week.

Queen Lucile is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Lucien E. Fulwider. She is a winsome child with pretty brown eyes and hair. She will be crowned Friday afternoon and reign at the baby show, which will follow. In this show there will be infants ranging from a few months to 2 years of age.

The committee which had the selection of the queen for crown ups has selected Miss May McMeans, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. A. C. McMeans, pioneer residents of this city. She is a member of the younger social set.

Queen May will be the ruler during the days of May 4, 5, 6 and 7. The selection of her court will be considered after her return from a vacation trip to the coast.

Queen May's coronation will take place Thursday evening, May 4, and will be followed by a coronation ball. The floral parade will occur Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and will be followed in the evening with an illuminated parade, Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon.

noon the big automobile races will take place under the auspices of the Santa Rosa automobile association at the Santa Rosa stock farm racetrack. In connection with the carnival the Santa Rosa women's improvement club is preparing to give a flower show. The club has engaged commodious quarters. To obtain the best exhibits and stimulate interest among owners of beautiful and rare flowers the club has offered the following premiums:

Best display by florists of potted plants and flowers—First, $25; second, $10; third, $5.
Best design by judges—First, $20; second, $10.

S. P. CONSCIENCE FUND ASKS MORE

Company Rewards Payment of 35 Cents By Demanding Another Nickel

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Conscience smitten because he had cheated the Southern Pacific company four years ago out of a fare between Davis and Sacramento, a Lathrop resident has written to James O'Gara, district freight and passenger agent here, enclosing 35 cents in stamps to cover the fare. He had shipped a horse and buggy from Davis to Sacramento and had accompanied it. The company's bill of $4.50 was paid, but the Lathrop man has decided that it did not cover his fare. As the proper fare from Davis to Sacramento is 40 cents, Agent O'Gara says he is compelled, under the law, to demand that the other 5 cents be paid by the man.

RANDLE SUGGESTED FOR ELLERY'S JOB

Governor Credited With Favoring Sacramento Engineer Formerly in State Employ

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SACRAMENTO, April 23.—While the "wise" ones about the capitol are assuring themselves that State Engineer Nat Ellery is to be decapitated by Governor Johnson when it comes to the appointment of a state engineer next month, other "wise" ones are predicting that George N. Randle, city engineer of Sacramento, will be the man named for the position. Randle is no stranger to the job, having served as assistant under State Engineer Nourse some years ago. He is said to be favored by the governor. Ellery's term of office will expire in the middle of May.

WATER FOR SACRAMENTO THROUGH 200 MILE TUBE

San Franciscans Backing the McCloud River Project

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SACRAMENTO, April 23.—The proposition of securing a water supply for the city of Sacramento from the waters of the McCloud river will be taken up at the next meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce, San Francisco capitalists, represented by Judge Denison, have secured water rights to 5,000 inches of the McCloud river, have procured options on reservoir sites and rights of way and are willing to give Sacramento the first opportunity to buy. The plan is to bring the water here over a stretch of 200 miles in a big concrete conduit. The capacity would be 49,500,000 gallons daily. The project would mean the expenditure of several millions of dollars by the city.

BILL FOR SACRAMENTO ARMORY IS SIGNED

[Special Dispatch to The Call] SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Governor Johnson yesterday signed the state arsenal bill appropriating $100,000 for the erection of a state armory in Sacramento. The bill was signed when the city of Sacramento deeded to the state a site for the arsenal at Twelfth and W streets.
