SUFFRAGE FORCES INVITE DR. AKED College Women Want Him to Deliver an Address at Their Next Meeting

OAKLAND, April 30.—The local members of the College Equal Suffrage league are arranging a public meeting in Oakland similar to the Tuesday gatherings across the bay, inviting Dr. Charles A. Aked, formerly of New York, but now of San Francisco, to address them.

The most brilliant gathering in club circles this week will be the annual breakfast of the Twentieth Century club on Tuesday at the Hotel Shattuck in Berkeley, when several hundred women find their places about the board.

A dozen members of the club will appear in a "spring dance." The musical numbers will be given by the choral section and by the Soloists, Neustadt, who will appear in costume.

Tuesday afternoon the members of Ebel will give their attention to purely routine matters. After the disposal of the month's business the annual reports will be read by the retiring officers and committee chairmen.

On May 9, following the May luncheon, Doctor Farree of Constantinople, who is a graduate of Johns Hopkins university, will address the guests on "The Part of the Turkish Women Played in Forming the New Constitution of Turkey."

A stereopticon lecture by Ellsworth Huntington, "Across the Himalayas to the Unexplored Deserts of Chinese Turkestan," and an evening of readings by Mrs. Edith Coburn Noyes will conclude the month's program.

The members of the Shakespeare section of Ebel enjoyed a matinee party on Saturday afternoon, witnessing Richard III. in the title role of "Hamlet." Hotelling last year was the guest of the Shakespeare section, appearing in a program of reading before them.

Readings and music will make up the program at the union meeting of the Adelphi club on Thursday afternoon. The club, which heretofore has been holding Saturday apart for these general gatherings, is setting a new precedent, and for the first time will meet on Thursday.

The Adelphi club is organizing a choral section, the success of which is already assured, as the membership boasts many talented vocalists. The initial meeting of the new class is called for Thursday morning, May 11, Mrs. F. J. Collier will be the leader.

The art history section of the Adelphi club has planned an interesting month with two outings to celebrate the end of the year. Tuesday the members will make a tour of Clark's pottery works in West Alameda, completing their study of American pottery, Tuesday, May 16, they will take luncheon in Golden Gate park and visit the Ceramic section of the museum.

The current events section meets on Wednesday afternoon, when the following program will be presented: "What Women Are Doing," Mrs. Frank Otto; "Woman's Condition in the Countries," Mrs. George Plummer; "Race Prejudice in the World," Mrs. Agnes Brown; "The Face Comedians," Mrs. H. A. Hebard; "Semitropical Fruits and Grape Culture in California," Mrs. E. E. David.

An adaptation of scenes from Maeterlinck's Blue Bird will be presented by the dramatic section of the Oakland club at Starr King hall on the evening of Wednesday, May 31. Rehearsals for the production are now going on under the direction of Miss Anna Moore and the evening promises to be an artistic success.

The forest scene, which is a plea for the preservation of forests, will be an especial feature. The musical accompaniment will lend additional charm to the play. Following the dramatic presentation, dancing will be enjoyed by the club members and guests. Mrs. A. L. Frick and Mrs. O. E. Caldwell will be hostesses for the affair and Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew will have charge of the music. Among those in the cast will be:

- Mrs. Fred A. Hinz Mrs. J. W. Wylie Mrs. F. H. Greene Mrs. J. H. Blome Mrs. I. A. Breen Mrs. O. B. Caldwell Mrs. Leon Hall Mrs. James Pennock Mrs. Gladys Harrison Mrs. S. L. Taylor Mrs. F. A. Bush Mrs. A. L. Frick Mrs. A. H. Horton

The Oakland Social Settlement held its annual meeting this week, following the disposal of routine matters with an informal reception in the clubhouse in Linden street. Prominent among the Settlement workers are:

- Mrs. S. T. Alexander Mrs. C. H. Gorrell Mrs. Louis Tashiro Mrs. E. G. Glickinger Mrs. Murray Johnson Mrs. J. R. Farrell Mrs. A. W. Palmer Mrs. Ruth Tedale Mrs. Mary Alexander Mrs. Mabel Rice Mrs. Ethel Moore Mrs. Charlotte Plyter Mrs. Emma Weljman Mrs. Sarah Horton

The May meeting of the West Oakland home will take place on Monday, the luncheon to be followed by an important business session.

Many local members will cross the bay Tuesday morning to attend the regular meeting of the Music Teachers' association of California, when it meets in Century hall. Matters of importance will be discussed at the business meeting. The program of the hour includes a lecture by E. M. Payson on "Laws of Association."

The Cap and Bells orchestra of San Francisco crossed the bay Thursday afternoon for a prettily appointed luncheon in Idora park. Covers were laid for a score of the gifted women who are so popular in club circles on this side as in their home city and who have contributed some excellent programs before the local organizations this season.

At the Thursday meeting of the Bay View Reading club, Mrs. R. D. Holmes will be the guest of honor. The club is making an interesting study of the early literature of India under the direction of its president, Mrs. O. E. Caldwell.

It is the nature of women to suffer uncomplainingly, the discomforts and fears that accompany the bearing of children. Motherhood is their crowning glory, and they brave its sufferings for the joy that children bring. No expectant mother need suffer, however, during the period of waiting, nor feel that she is in danger when baby comes, if Mother's Friend is used in preparation of the event. Mother's Friend relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the different ligaments, overcomes nausea by counteraction, prevents backache and numbness of limbs and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. Its regular use fits and prepares every portion of the mother's system for a proper and natural ending of the term, and it assures her a quick and complete recovery. Mother's Friend is sold as drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

New tracks will be laid in the section of the local line between Fruitvale and East Oakland. The work will be finished in this section by the track gang, and the whole line will be electrified in similar portions, so that the main line trains to Niles, Newark and Stockton may be operated without interruption. It is the first section between Fruitvale and Melrose the men are laying a fourth track and removing one of the old rail lines.

From the foot of Tenth avenue to Melrose will be four tracks, the two nearest the bay shore being kept for main line trains, and swinging into the First street tracks at Tenth avenue. The electric trains to Melrose will operate on two tracks, a complete history of the personal events of the students on the campus and elsewhere. JUNIORS COMPLETE WORK ON ANNUAL Blue and Gold, Class Publication, Will Be Distributed Today

BERKELEY, April 30.—The year's labors of the junior class of the University of California on its annual of 1912 were ended today when the Blue and Gold came from the binders. It will be distributed to the members of the class and put on sale to others, at the co-operative store on the campus tomorrow.

For more than a year Editor R. H. Clark and Manager R. C. Ingram and their respective staffs have been at work on the book which, with its 566 pages, will be one of the largest annuals ever issued by a junior class. Advance copies of the publication show it to be unique in cover design, engraving, printing and attention paid to details. All departments of university students' activities have been covered for the year, even the recent spring sports forming a part of the contents, a precedent which the class of 1912 has set.

The book has a strong athletic department, and more space is devoted to sports than is usual in a Blue and Gold. Photographs illustrating the various competitions with Stanford and other universities are a feature.

The art work is of higher order than the usual junior publication, due to the fact that the students of the California school of design of the university contributed most of the work. Arthur Matthews, head of this school, drew the first page, and Xavier Martinez, the Piedmont artist, has a drawing of Harmon gymnasium at night, the first of the kind attempted.

Tricolored inserts mark the beginnings of each of the dozen college departments in the book. The marginal work has been done in the University of California colors, matching the brilliant leather cover of the publication, which shows a bright yellow poppy on a background of deep blue.

The Josh department, presided over by Thomas Yelich, is a complete history of the personal events of the students on the campus and elsewhere. Much is made over the recent fire at the Alpha Omicron Psi sorority house.

The class will be supplied with 522 copies of the book, and the rest will be sold to other students on the campus. More than 100 students of the class actually did work for the publication. Editor Clarke was assisted by Newton B. Drury, managing editor in charge of copy; M. A. Cartwright, in charge of special details; Mildred Jordan, in charge of photographs.
