

Ball Cranks Are Treated to Two Close Contests

JO BIFF SEES VISIONS OF SEEBING FOUR BASEBALL GAMES DISAPPEAR THROUGH MEDIUM OF HOLE

OAKS DIVIDE HONORS WITH CELESTIAL BAND

Commuters Win First Game on Their Home Lot, While Angels Nose Out Second

By WILLIAM J. SLATTERY

The trailing Angels showed their gameness till the finish against the Oaks in both games of the double header yesterday. They did not have a peep in when they lined up against the transbay sluggers on the latter's own back yard in the morning, so, as everybody predicted, this game went against them, 3 to 0. But, with Delhi working in the afternoon on the Valencia street battlefield, the cut was switched and the forlorn southrons eventually squeezed themselves into a 4 to 3 victory.

When Delhi pitches Los Angeles is always conceded a chance against any team in the league, but when any of the others work the fans are generally ready to concede the victory to the opposing faction. Therefore, after it was learned that the mammoth bricktop would do the twisting against the Oaks in the afternoon contest, interest began to pick up all along the line and the Angels won over many backers.

At that, the big fellow had an awful tough time of it. Oakland all but clamped the lid down on him and his in many an inning. To the credit of the transbay sluggers, it must be said that the giant Angeleno, a horsehoe running for him during the two hours of the game. To the discredit of Boss Wolverton, it must be said that he tossed his game away because of his failure to put on a pinch hitter when the chance was there.

No fan, no matter how critical, could have asked for a nicer exhibition of the great national pastime, a bye score was always close and some one was always doing something to make the other fellows sorry they had not come fast and clean, though at both sides were guilty of glaring misplays which figured in the final result.

Lefty Miller, the Oakland pitcher recently imported from the northwest, pitched his first full game. Although he performed fairly well, still the fans managed to pick many flaws in his work. Miller is a bit too slow in fielding his position and he grooves them a little too often. But for these faults he surely would have gotten with a victory.

As usual Oakland broke in with the initial run without wasting any time. Pfl, the first man up, got a lead off hit to center which got past Daley and rolled to the center field fence for three sacks. Monte was held on Coy's easy out, but Hoffman put him over while Moore and Dillon were busy making the out.

The Angels tied it up in the third. After Smith had singled to center Delhi had down a fly to first. Delhi reached home and it was one all.

Oakland kept on in a threatening way in the fourth. In the fifth inning enough to walk Zacher and Wares followed by being struck out by Pfl. Moore's infield hit made a full house. Miller was good enough to deliver a long fly to center and easily reached the plate on the throw in.

The next round saw the score deadlocked once more. Old Cap Dillon showed his lads the way with a slashing two cushion smash into the right garden. Smith, who had been out, had Delhi unloaded another great two bagger to the left field bleachers, registering Dillon. But Miller easily got rid of Bernard and Howard.

The southrons kept their consistent work in the sixth and drew away for the first time. Daley drew a pass and scooted down to second on Moore's drive to right. Delmas produced a sacrifice, Akin hit to Cutshaw and while the play at first was being made, Daley sneaked a run in. Another good chance, but bad base running crabbled it. Dillon walked and tried to start a delicate double steal with Moore, who was on third. The Oaks, however, were laying for this and Moore fell an easy victim.

After the Commuters had set the hearts of the fans fluttering again in their half of the sixth round by "almost" deadlocking again, the Angels went for their fourth tally in round eight. The lucky hole in the ceiling was in the cellar when it all started. Moore, who met the ball a la Cobb all afternoon, produced his third hit, a single to second. Then he stole on Pearce. When Delmas had been passed Moore took another chance and stole third, his third theft for this afternoon. Here Mr. Miller got his stuff tangled up and heaved a wild pitch, which let Moore come across.

Oakland did not look at all dangerous in the ninth after Pfl had faded away. But much action followed. Coy put the wood against one that speeded its way to the right field boards for a double, and Hoffman immediately followed with another two station hit which just got away from old man Dillon down the line and it was all excitement, for Oakland had a man on second, one down and only a lone-some tally to the Cutshaw look-alike, who was on third. Pfl was neatly taken off the fence by Bernard. The generally reliable Zacher popped up a soft one to Smith and then everybody started to make the big getaway.

The Oakland fans blame Wolverton for not putting in a pinch hitter when there was a grand chance to break it up in the sixth. With the Oakland boss on first, Wares on second and Pearce on third and only one down, Miller came up. The pitcher is not noted for his hitting prowess, while either Hilling, Mitze or Tiedeman, three good hitters, could have been called upon.

But Wolverton the pitcher to take his chance with the club. The last he had was a simple grounder to Moore who handily tossed Wolverton out at the pan. Pfl followed with a grounder down to Delmas who whipped the ball over and spoiling the best chance the Oaks had to head their opponents off.

The contest was full of action all along the line and there never was a dull moment for the fans. The work of the teams was about evenly divided, but the Angels had a break on the luck and at this may be attributed their close victory. Delhi was not up to his

SEALS OVERLOOK A FINE OPPORTUNITY

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Portland	W. L. Pct.
San Francisco	44 37 548
Oakland	42 40 512
Vernon	40 39 508
Sacramento	38 41 468
Los Angeles	31 40 388

RESULTS OF GAMES

Oakland 3, Los Angeles 0.
Los Angeles 4, Oakland 0.
Sacramento 7, San Francisco 2.
Sacramento 4, San Francisco 3.
Vernon 9, Portland 2.
Vernon 6, Portland 1.

GAMES TODAY

Portland-Vernon at Los Angeles.

What a grand chance the Seals had yesterday and how they let it slip by! Just think—a double victory over the Senators would have placed them right behind Portland, for Vernon gave the champions two lickings. But instead the Seals took a double beating and now they are worse off than they were the day before, for the reason that Oakland held her own against Los Angeles and, therefore, gained a couple of games, not to mention the Villagers, who boosted themselves up over the .500 mark, just half a game behind Oakland, which seems to be in a fair way to press the Seals hard. However, it can't be helped and we will have another chance this week.

NOTES OF THE GAME

It's the same old story so far as the Angel pitchers run. Delhi won his two games and Hill, the new man, took the other, but where would the southrons be without Hill?

Evidently Wolverton believes that Miller is some steeper, but the fans don't hold the same view of it. Why the Oakland boss did not put one in to bat for the pitcher in the sixth is still a mystery.

Four men, Pfl, Hoffman, Zacher and Wolverton, made all the Oakland hits in the morning game. Pfl, Zacher and Wares each had one, while the other two fell to Hoffman. Pfl put two of the runs over.

The Oaks pulled a very pretty double in the seventh frame over the home crowd, when Dillon sent in his young Santa Clara recruit, Agnew, but this kid did not have anything that might tend to mystify the home folks.

Cap Dillon thinks so well of the young pitcher, Bob Dillon, that he has lined him up and will take him to Sacramento with him. Dillon has been pounded all over the lot. He is a San Francisco boy, and has the longest record of his work this season with the Oakland independent team.

The San Francisco fans who made the excursion trip to Sacramento yesterday for the purpose of rooting for the Seals came home a very tired and disheartened lot. None of them here that their presence was a joy, for the Seals had won their game, a few were reported on the job. It was the first trip of its kind in years and proved a big success.

Home Heilmuller is not for sale, but wants to come out here, and this is why the Baltimore management is so anxious to get him. Heilmuller has notified Baltimore that his last year in the eastern league, and, naturally, he will be back here in the fall. He is a San Francisco boy, and has the longest record of his work this season with the Oakland independent team.

The Seals left Sacramento last night and tomorrow they will open up a seven game series with Vernon. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

The last one was put over in the next period. Hoffman started by driving the right fielder against the right field fence and was bunted to third by Cutshaw. Zacher polished it off with a drive to the left garden, and Hoffman came home with run number 2.

VERNON PLAYS ROLE OF WORM

Turns on Beavers After Four Defeats and Wins Double Header

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

LOS ANGELES, June 18.—After losing four straight to the Beavers, the Villagers came to life today and took two games of the double header so decisively as to make one wonder what ailed them earlier in the week. They showed all their old time "pep" and swatting ability for the first time in the series and played rings around the leaders in both games. Koestner and Seaton, who had fooled them completely in their previous outs, were caught and punished.

Koestner got his in the morning game by a 9 to 2 score, Vernon making a single run in the eighth round, the afternoon and Henkle finished the game, which ended 5 to 1 in favor of the Seals. Hitt held the champions to six swats in the morning frolic, and Stewart allowed them only three in the afternoon.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

Portland managed to bunch three hits on Roy Hitt in the fifth frame, and aided by the regular Villagers face, scored its only two runs. Vernon waited until the eighth to do business with Koestner, when he pitched to score him and nine of them made connections with the home plate. The inning which ended the game was a walk in that round ended the same way, although in neither instance of the four sackers was the runner on the path. Eight runs were scored after two outs were made.

STANDING OF CLUBS IN MAJOR LEAGUES

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago	W. L. Pct.
New York	35 19 648
Philadelphia	34 21 618
Pittsburgh	30 23 598
St. Louis	25 25 538
Cincinnati	25 29 498
Brooklyn	20 34 378
Boston	15 42 238

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Detroit	W. L. Pct.
Philadelphia	33 18 647
New York	28 25 598
Boston	25 25 538
Chicago	25 23 521
Cleveland	24 24 414
Washington	23 27 377
St. Louis	15 30 278

RESULTS OF GAMES

(National League)
Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.
Chicago 4, Philadelphia 3.
New York 5, St. Louis 4.
(American League)
Detroit 16, Chicago 15.
Cleveland 10, St. Louis 7.

BROOKLYN WINS IN TIGHT GAME

Trolley Dodgers Bunch Their Hits in First and Second Innings

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

CINCINNATI, June 18.—Brooklyn defeated Cincinnati today by bunching hits off Keefe in the first inning for one score and duplicating the trick in the second. Edmond's wild throw in the sixth presented the visitors with one more run. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

Brooklyn's first man up, Rucker, hit a home run in the first inning, and the Dodgers bunched their hits in the first and second innings. Rucker was hit hard, but tightened up in pinches. Score: Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 1.

STOCKTON FANS SEE SEALS GET WALLOPED

Senators Then Do the Job Up Brown by Licking Them Again at Home

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

STOCKTON, June 18.—Stockton was given a taste of Coast league baseball this morning when Sacramento and San Francisco came here to play off a postponed game before a record breaking Sunday morning crowd. Doctor Moskiman, who was once captain of the old Stockton State league team, was sent in to pitch for the Seals as a mark of recognition to the Stockton fans, with whom he is immensely popular. But Moskiman failed to "come back." The Senators had their batting clothes on and hammered him unmercifully. In the sixth inning, after 10 hits had been made off him, five of which came in one inning, he retired in favor of Zamlock. Incidentally Sacramento won the game, 7 to 3.

Manager Danny Long of the Seals and W. L. Curtin and Charley Graham of the Sacramento club expressed themselves as well pleased with the reception given the Coast league in Stockton and an effort will probably be made to amend the schedule so as to give this city Sunday morning baseball when Sacramento has home days.

The crowd which filled grandstand and bleachers and lined the fence was a reminder of the old outlaw days, and showed that Stockton is anything but dead as a baseball town. The fans will turn out if they are shown the class.

The game was a sluggers' exhibition. Both teams walloped the ball at a lively rate, but good fielding kept down the score. The score: Sacramento 7, Stockton 3.

MORNING GAME

Stockton	W. L. Pct.
Sacramento	7 3 215

Shaw, 3b, 4 0 0 0 2 1
McArdle, ss, 4 0 1 0 2 0
Mehler, 2b, 4 0 1 0 2 0
Tennant, 1b, 4 1 1 12 0 0
Mehler, r. f., 4 0 1 0 0 0
Tennant, l. f., 4 2 2 1 1 0
Madden, c. f., 3 0 2 0 0 0
Moskiman, p., 2 0 1 0 2 0
Zamlock, p., 0 0 0 0 0 0
Total..... 31 8 11 21 10 2

AFTERNOON GAME

Stockton	W. L. Pct.
Sacramento	7 3 215

Shaw, 3b, 4 0 0 0 2 1
McArdle, ss, 4 0 1 0 2 0
Mehler, 2b, 4 0 1 0 2 0
Tennant, 1b, 4 1 1 12 0 0