MAYOR MOTT BIDS COUNCIL FAREWELL

Achievements of Six Years Reviewed in Special Message to Body

Executive Thanks Outgoing Officials for Public Services in Three Administrations

OAKLAND, June 26.—Mayor Frank K. Mott bade farewell tonight to the old city council, which convened at the city hall for the last session before the expiration of the incumbent administration, and the successor commission form of government next Saturday, with a new and modern charter. The farewell message complimented the council and the present city officials for their arduous and upright work during the years of public service, and reviewed the events of that period. He said in part:

"An event of the greatest importance in the history of the city is that of the culmination of the litigation of more than 30 years' standing with respect to the water front of the city. The decision of the United States court, the agreement entered into by the city government with the former claimants to water front property and the grants from the state legislature have given Oakland a control of the shore line, and operations have been begun which are destined to make of Oakland one of the great maritime cities of the world."

"In the East Oakland basin one of the most modern concrete wharves is under construction. It will be 300 feet long by 125 feet wide and will be thoroughly equipped with freight buildings and railroad tracks."

"On the Oakland harbor or southern line a quay wall more than half a mile long is being built of solid concrete. It is to be 22 feet wide at the bottom, 5 feet wide at the top and 14 feet high."

"On the western line, at what is known as the Key Route basin, there is a large concrete wharf, 800 feet long, being filled with fill which will soon commence by dredging a channel from deep water in the bulkhead to a deposit of the removed material back of the bulkhead. This, in connection with the Key Route development of a water front, will eventually revert to the city, will give some 400 acres of land on which factories and warehouses may be erected and built out by the city."

"A belt line railway has been planned to connect the docks and wharves and factories and railway depots along the water front from the Key Route line to San Leandro bay."

"Among the larger works which have engaged your attention are the franchises or permits for the extension of the Key Route system and the Oakland traction lines, the latter resulting in a single fare from San Leandro on the line to the Contra Costa line on the east through the city, and the acquisition of rights to the Western Pacific and other lines, the renewal of rights of the Southern and the Central Pacific and the extension of the latter to the seventh street bulkhead, the electrification of that and other branches, provision for a belt line and the line from the city to the bay, and through a large portion of the residence section, for the Home telephone company; for the Central light and power company, and for the entrance of the Oakland trolley line to the near center of the city."

"To them you have added a determined and persistent effort for the condemnation of a plant for the supply of water to the city."

"Not least among the matters of pride upon which we are able to reflect as the result of the efforts of the administration is that of the new city hall. Within a few months of the completion of time of that administration the phrase, 'the new city hall' will have become a thing of the past. A magnificent monument towering more than 350 feet toward the sun, at once an object of beauty and distinction visible from every quarter and a housing worthy of the city government of the great population and the progressive citizenship of this favored community."

"Under the provisions of the state law which allow but a scanty 90 days for the purpose you prepared the way for the formation of a new city government by a spirit of radical change of methods of municipal government arising largely from certain defects and shortcomings of former methods."

"Special attention was paid by the mayor to the fiscal affairs of the city and the community. He pointed out that the assessed valuation had been increased from $51,656,242 in 1904 to $121,452,750 in 1910. In this connection the mayor also recounted the appropriation of money for public improvements through bond issues. He said:

"Shortly before the present administration there existed a spirit of hostility to bonding, except possibly for school purposes and for the acquisition of the park lands were devoted. But during the period of the administration the citizens have voted $250,000 for schools, $488,500 for sewers, $992,000 for parks, $2,503,000 for development of the water front, $38,000 for a suitable building for the police and fire alarm telegraph system and $1,150,000 for a magnificent city hall; total $3,733,000. Items of $22,000, $102,000, $134,000 and $148,000 for sewers in the annexed districts, and more recently still $2,493,000 for additional school uses and $500,000 for a municipal auditorium; a grand total for six years of $3,871,000."

"The record of building permits issued for the last six years to June 17, 1911, shows a total number of 1,000 with a total cost of $40,185,055.50, of which fees paid amount to about $84,500, an average of $10,750 per year."

"Taking up the subject of parks and playgrounds, the message continued: 'The city has now 475 acres of park land exclusive of the wide extent of the lake, itself a proud park possession which many a city would give millions to be able to duplicate.'"

"At school houses and at certain of the parks, playgrounds are now in full operation. At the 'Pumpkin' in Garfield, the Clawson and Fruitvale No. 3, as well as the Garfield annex school and at Bushrod Bay, new playgrounds are now established."

"The wholesome influence of the playgrounds is already noticeable. It is a distinctly educational movement and a valuable adjunct to the school work."

"In conclusion, the mayor related the crises through which the city passed at the time of the San Francisco fire, and the threatened epidemic of bubonic plague. He commended the outgoing officials for their services in those times."

BERKELEY, June 26.—Elks and their friends will make merry in the auditorium of the Berkeley high school Thursday night when a vaudeville show and entertainment will be staged for the benefit of the handsome new clubhouse, which the lodgemen will erect on their recently purchased property in Alhambra adjoining the Shattuck hotel.

Abbott, announced today that an attractive program had been arranged for the evening's enjoyment. A feature will be a comedy entitled "The Cowboy's Revue," in which the histrionic talent in the lodge will be shown to advantage.

APPEAL IS TAKEN IN DARGIE CASE
Court Asked to Pass on Status of Widow

OAKLAND, June 26.—An appeal was taken today from the order of Judge Brown allowing Mrs. Erminia P. Dargie, widow of the late William E. Dargie, $1,000 a month pending the distribution of her husband's estate. It was taken by Mrs. Bessie S. Dargie and Andrew G. McCarthy, her son in law, as guardians of Thomas Malvern Dargie, nephew of the late publisher and son of Mrs. Bessie S. Dargie.

Involved in the appeal will be the questions as to Mrs. Erminia P. Dargie's status which were argued at great length before Judge Brown when she asked the court to allow her $1,500 a month. Attorney Sidney Pelkoto, representing Dargie's nephew, argued that Mrs. Dargie was not the widow of William E. Dargie, and therefore not entitled to a widow's allowance. He contended that an interlocutory decree of divorce, granted Mrs. Dargie in 1906, became final automatically at the end of a year without the necessity of a final decree being made by court. The Dargies were reconciled before the end of the year. Pelkoto also argued that a division of property, made at the time of the interlocutory decree, became final six months after if no appeal were taken, and that in this case it settled forever the property rights of Mrs. Dargie. It was opposed by Attorney Stanley Moore, who represented Mrs. Dargie.

ELECTRIC SERVICE IN EFFECT TODAY

New Cars on Webster Street Line to Run on Old Schedule

OAKLAND, June 26.—The new electric service on the Webster street line of the Southern Pacific, extending from the Alameda mole to the station at Fourteenth and Franklin streets, will go into effect this morning.

The same schedule will be in use from the hours of 8 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon for the first few days of the week and beginning Thursday of this week the regular all day service as now used will be in force.

But two car trains will be run at the beginning until it is ascertained how many cars will be necessary to take care of the traffic. It is expected that during the busy hours of the day four coaches will be put on regularly in the latter part of the week.

The new cars, which are made entirely of steel, with the exception of the wicker seats and are the only cars of this kind on the Pacific coast, are much larger than the old cars, three of the new cars having the seating capacity of five of the old ones.

This is the first of the Oakland lines of the Southern Pacific upon which the new electric service will be used. Work on the other Oakland lines is going on rapidly and it is expected that before the end of the year the work of electrification will have been finished.

The Southern Pacific is spending $11,000,000 on this work. The system is now in operation in Alameda.

FIVE MEN PICKED IN DALTON CASE

Jury to Try Accused Assessor Will Be Locked Up to Prevent Tampering

OAKLAND, June 26.—Five men were selected today out of the 12 who will be asked to determine whether or not County Assessor Henry P. Dalton is guilty of having taken a bribe of $5,000 from the Spring Valley water company for agreeing to reduce that corporation's assessment in Alameda county by $2,500,000.

The jurors chosen are: Jacob Mueller, 1711 Filbert street, Oakland; retired merchant; Gustav Mueller, 2927 Quis street, Berkeley; retired builder; John W. Watson, 1927 Parker street, Berkeley; retired farmer; Joseph Smith, 225 Hollis street, Oakland; grocer.

Henry W. Allen, 2308 Fulton street, Berkeley; retired; formerly in auditing department of Southern Pacific company.

The Dalton jury will be under the custody of the sheriff during the trial, and the five men who were finally accepted this afternoon were put in the care of Deputies Ed Sweeney, George Sturtevant and George Wales when court adjourned. They will sleep and eat at the Key Route inn until the end of the trial, with the officers in constant charge of them to prevent any possible tampering.

Twelve men had been temporarily passed this afternoon when the exercise of peremptory challenges was begun. Assistant District Attorney Hynes used two of the five peremptory challenges allowed the prosecution by law in excusing Charles J. Bond, a retired farmer of Irvington, who in his examination said he had always voted for Dalton and worked for his political success; and in excusing also James Nolan, a retired dairyman of 159 East Tenth street, Oakland.

The defense used up five of its ten peremptory challenges. Attorney Charles H. Fairall, after consultation with Attorneys E. E. Gehring and Burton J. Wyman, announced that he wished to excuse Ed Pringle, a carpenter, of 685 East Twenty-fourth street; Daniel M. Denahy of 820 Adeline street; H. A. Petersen of 578 Kennedy street, a retired government employe; Carl Kreiling of 3495 Redwood road and George W. Howard of 2425 Hillmeadow avenue, Berkeley, a retired fur merchant.

Fairall, in his examination of these men, tried hard to get them off the jury for cause.

Fairall wanted very much to get H. A. Petersen off the jury without having exercised any of his peremptory challenges to accomplish it. Petersen and Dalton had some trouble several years ago, when Petersen's property was assessed higher than he thought it should have been.

James H. Beany was excused by consent, because he used to own stock of the Spring Valley water company and had affiliations with various other public service corporations. Henry Lefman was excused because of his personal acquaintance with parties on both sides. E. J. McIntyre, John L. Graves and J. H. Miller were excused. The work of getting the other seven jurors was resumed late this afternoon. The following were drawn to be questioned: Frank P. Adams, Thomas L. Wise, Charles A. Wakefield, Frederick H. Lehre, L. J. Kendrick, James H. Perkins and George Howson.

Adams had been passed when court adjourned.

DIVORCE SUITS FILED—Oakland, June 26.—The following new suits for divorce were begun today: Elizabeth against Benjamin Remmel, conviction of labor; Isabel against Albert Geertz, failure to provide.

GOLDEN WEDDING ENDS PUBLIC LIFE

Dr. John Knox McLean Retires as President of Pacific Theological Seminary

BERKELEY, June 26.—The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Dr. John Knox McLean and Mrs. McLean today held a deeper significance even than is usual at a golden wedding, for the occasion marked also the completion of half a century of active work in the ministry and the formal retirement of Doctor McLean as president of the Pacific theological seminary. The reception at which Doctor McLean and his wife greeted their friends at their home in Channing way was planned with beautiful simplicity, and while more than 500 cards were sent out an effort was made to bring the old friends together as informally as possible. During the afternoon and evening a continual stream of callers brought their felicitations to the host and hostess, the guests representing nearly every walk of life.

The home was filled with a wealth of the season's bloom, the lower floor being made into a floral bower. Scotch broom, yellow poppies, cornflowers and other flowers of golden hue were used in the profuse decorations which were relieved by the green of bamboo and feathery ferns.

WEDDING GARMENTS SHOWN
Mrs. McLean wore an exquisite robe of gray chiffon over pale pink satin. Her wedding dress, a beautiful gown in the fashion of half a century ago, made of the richest white silk, with all the appointments of veil, sandals, fan and handkerchief, was the center of interest, being displayed on a model which shared attention with a second lay figure wearing the wedding garments of Doctor McLean.

Prominent in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Olney Jr., Mrs. Olney was formerly Miss Mary McLean, the only child of the couple. As a member of the faculty of Stanford university, Mrs. Olney won distinction as a scholar before her marriage.

More than a score of the oldest and closest friends of the McLean family were asked to assist in the receiving line. They were:

Mrs. William H. Chickering, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Warren Olney, Mrs. Thomas Olney, Mrs. C. S. Nash, Mrs. Thomas Addison, Mrs. Lewis Hicks, Mrs. Charles L. Goddard, Mrs. Robert Burgess, Mrs. F. F. Barbour, Mrs. W. B. Thorne, Mrs. A. W. Wilder, Mrs. Lewis J. Richardson, Mrs. M. M. Brook, Miss Ethel Olney, Miss Mary Alexander, Miss Ruth Wilder, Miss Lucy Herick, Miss Mary S. Williams, Miss Isabel Lacey, Miss Martha Lacey, Miss E. G. Thobson.

VALUABLE REMEMBRANCES
The remembrances which were showered upon Doctor McLean and his wife, represented a small fortune in gold, silver, cut glass and bric a brac.

Doctor McLean is the pioneer Congregational minister on the coast. In 1851 he graduated from Princeton theological university and the same year Miss Sarah M. Hawley became his bride at her home in Salem, N. Y. His first pastorate was in Fairview, N. Y.

In 1872 he came to California, assuming charge of the First Congregational church of Oakland and remaining its pastor for a quarter of a century. Many of the smaller churches of his denomination about the bay were organized from the First Congregational church during Doctor McLean's pastorate.

During the last 14 years he has held the presidency of the Pacific theological seminary. He is president of the California state board of charities and correction, of which he has been a member eight years. He is also president of the California oriental mission. Doctor McLean is a life director in the American bible society, a director for California of the Religious educational association and a member of the advisory council of the international committee for moral training. Mrs. McLean has been her husband's staunch supporter in all his undertakings.

Recently Doctor McLean celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday. He was born in Jackson, N. Y., March 31, 1834.

FALLING HAIR
You Run No Risk When You Use This Remedy

While many people in their prime doubt the assertion that "the hairs of our head are numbered," yet there is today many a man and woman fast reaching the point where this statement is literally brought home to them. If you suffer from irritation of the scalp and from dandruff, or if your hair is falling out, do not wait until you reach the point where you can actually count how many hairs are left on your head.

Most cases of baldness are caused because the roots lack proper nutrition. In such cases there is a microbe which bores through the scalp along the line of the hair into the root and when it lodges there it begins to destroy the fatty matter around the hair roots. When the scalp and hair roots are strong and healthy it is impossible for these microbes to get in their deadly work.

We can promise you that, if your hair is falling out, and you have not let it go too far, you can repair the damage already done by using Revell "93" Hair Tonic. It is a scientific, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal preparation, that destroys microbes, stimulates good circulation around the hair roots, promotes hair nourishment, removes dandruff and restores hair health. It is as pleasant to use as pure water, and it is delicately perfumed. It is a real toilet necessity.

We want you to try Revell "93" Hair Tonic with our promise that it will cost you nothing unless you are perfectly satisfied with its use. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., 719 Market street, 718 Market street, Post street and Grant avenue, Sixteenth and Mission streets, Fillmore and Geary streets.
