VILLAGERS DISPLAY BAD FORM REVERSAL

Miller Pitches Like Champion and Locals Make Timely Mergers With Ball

By WILLIAM J. SLATTERY

No one would ever have imagined that Vernon ever beat the Seals three games in all their lives to look at the way the rival teams shaped up in yesterday afternoon's battle royal on the Oakland diamond. Now the fans are wondering how it was that Vernon won twice last Tuesday and once the day before yesterday. It looked like brute force against class, skill and science yesterday, and perhaps the fact that San Francisco was switched from its own to the Oakland battleground had something to do with it.

Anyhow, Vernon was a badly routed ball team once the home talent started to make runs. The score was a tie for a very short time, just long enough for the Seals to nerve themselves up to the task of slipping a few over on the southern swatters. They delayed matters just long enough to keep the southrons and the fans wondering what they were about to pull off, but when they did commence to soup things up it was good night for Hogan.

This victory came at an opportune time for San Francisco, and now it rests in second place in a day anyhow. The very fact that Oakland was trimmed down south by the Angels and Portland was routed on its own battlefield by the sliding Senators gave San Francisco a nice edge. It was the only first division club to get by with a game, and it managed to cut right into the lead held by the champions.

There was not much hitting in yesterday's transbay mixup, but the hitters did leave the bats of the rival sluggers were good juicy ones and they generally counted for something. The Seals won on five hits, while the Villagers got one less. Two of the latter, unfortunately, were wasted and this helped boost the cause of the local aggregation along.

Young Gipe, the southern high school lad, mounted the slab for the Hogan chores and pitched a fine game of ball. He pitched well enough in fact, to put an ordinary game in the can, but there was no luck thrown in for him. The men behind him were not hitting the ball and the pitcher who opposed him was working like a champion. This made a lot of difference.

The Villagers were first to break the monotony of a useless game and they quickly rushed a tally through in the fourth spasm. After Kane had faded away, Big Patterson found a safe spot in the left garden. Brashear laced one down to McArdle, which the Seal shortstop allowed to go past him. Pat made third on this miscue and on the hit and run play, he arrived while McArdle and Moskman were getting rid of sliverer Stinson.

When the Seals did start in their half of the same round, they made a good job of it, going for three runs and practically breaking up the game without further ado. They gave Gipe a fair facing and besides, they had a reasonable amount of lucky stuff.

Gipe made the mistake of walking George Weaver, the first man to face him, and he pitched a fine game of ball. He pitched well enough in fact, to put an ordinary game in the can, but there was no luck thrown in for him. The men behind him were not hitting the ball and the pitcher who opposed him was working like a champion. This made a lot of difference.

Billiard Stars Coming to Graney's Place

If the plans of Eddie Graney materialize, billiard enthusiasts of this city will be treated to the same great exhibitions that held away two years ago, when such stars as Willie Hoppe, De Oro and Demaree were here. Graney is negotiating with the best known billiardists of the age to appear here in the Scripps building.

It is Graney's plan to bring Calvin Demaree here and pit him against Alf Schaefer, the last time this game was played was back in the '90's, when Jake Schaefer, Frank Liles, Billy Cotton and other stars measured cues.

GAMES TODAY

Vernon at San Francisco.
Oakland at Los Angeles.
Sacramento at Portland.

It was about time for the Seals to come on and take one from the Villagers yesterday afternoon after losing three straight. This little victory came in handy, too, for it boosted the boys up into second position, which we hope they will hold for the balance of the week, anyhow. Vernon in the meantime slipped back to third place, while Oakland took another falling from the Angels down south and is now in the fourth hole. Sacramento's effort against Portland was a most noble one at this stage of the game, and if yesterday's performance can be duplicated today San Francisco will not be so far behind the champions.

ANGELS FATTEN ON COMMUTERS

Southerners' Slim Percentage Gains in Size After Yesterday's Game

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—"Flame" Delhi was too much for the Oakland Commuters today. The big "red top" held Wolverton's men to five hits and one run. The Commuters got to second base but three times during eight innings and in these sessions the enemy gleamed but three hits and an error.

The Angels, on the other hand, took kindly to Able's offerings in the early stages of the game. Four runs, plenty to win, were scored in the second. With one down, Delmas singled and went to second on Akin's Texas leaguer. Smith walked, filling the bases. Abbott cracked out a single, scoring one man, and two others romped home when Delhi slammed the ball against the board. Daley's single scored Abbott, who had gone to second on Dillon's grounder.

Moore completed the circuit in the third after he had been hit by a pitched ball. He took second on Delmas' error. Rupp, who had been hit by a pitched ball, scored on Moore's error. Delmas' single scored Abbott, who had gone to second on Dillon's grounder.

McFarland Anxious to Meet Champion

CHICAGO, July 6.—Packey McFarland of Chicago has returned from Albany, N. Y., where he knocked out "Young" Ahern, McFarland said last night that he is anxious for a fight with Ad Wiggast, the lightweight champion. James Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter, has wired McFarland a guarantee of $5,000, with a privilege of 30 per cent of the gross receipts for a 20 round bout with Wiggast on Labor day in his Colma arena. McFarland is willing to fight them, but the weight question, which has kept the fighters apart, may again interfere.

JUVV OR SPOOK HARRIES SNOOK

Heretofore Invincible High School Pitcher Is Easy for Senators

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

PORTLAND, July 6.—Young Fred Snook of the Sacramento high school appeared against his townspeople, the Senators, as pitcher for the Beavers this afternoon and did not fare so very well, the hostiles registering copious runs. Koestner replaced him in the fifth. It was no use, the statesmen from Sacramento romping away with the pastime, 5 to 3.

Making up for their inability to whang the offerings of Ferdinand Henkle on the previous day, the Senators betted with a right good will, acquiring five runs and eight hits in five innings off the shoots of the high school sprout and one trying to three hits from those benders which the man of iron, Koestner, pasted over the tureen in four innings.

Nothing loth, Jolly old Jimmy Shinn started the artillery work for the guests of the afternoon by slashing a single through the pitcher, O'Rourke sacrificed and Van Buren banged a single into the center, bringing in the man of iron, Koestner, who was engaged.

After fanning for the first time, Van Buren was distinctly among the present. He had a fine time—always happy and gay, corraling four safe clouts in five expeditions. In the second, Helster drew a free ticket and stole second. Neblinger's out going to third from which he followed he cashed in a run on Nourse's slam to center.

POOR VICTORIA GOSH-WALLOPED

SPOKANE, July 6.—Spokane players broke all records for 11 years in the Northwestern league and several years' organized baseball, getting a total of 29 runs and 30 hits off three Victoria pitchers. Schwenk held the visitors at all times and was relieved by Manning, a new recruit, in the seventh.

COAST ATHLETES SCORED WELL IN TRIALS

Complete details of the great championship meet held at Pittsburg last Saturday afternoon show that the Olympic club and Seattle athletes did better than at first thought, that is, so far as qualifying for the final events was concerned.

In the 100 yard heats Courtney of Seattle and Campbell of the Olympic club both qualified in the first heat. Martin qualified in the second, Nelson of Seattle placed second in the third heat and Pete Gerhardt won the fifth. In the finals Martin was the only coast man to place, getting third.

In the 220 yard dash Gerhardt again won his heat in 23 3/4 seconds and Nelson of Seattle won the third heat in 22 flat. Martin also won his heat. In the final Nelson took first and Gerhardt second, with Courtney and Wyman third.

The trials have been held here so far to the exact number of points scored by the Olympic club. Some reports have been published that the trials last Sunday gave the correct number of points as 11.

Spedgair's javelin record has been highly praised by all of the eastern critics and his efforts are given considerable space in the various eastern papers. He is looked on as the greatest all around athlete the Pacific coast has ever sent east.

LONG SANGUINE ON PROSPECTS

Local Tennis Expert Is on Way East to Play in the Big Tournaments

Melville H. Long is speeding on his way east to take part in the eastern sectional championship tournament in doubles with Carl Gardner, and later to take in all of the other important tournaments scheduled for the eastern part of the country. He preferred taking chances in the Longwood tournament to the Pacific coast championship event, as he claims that his game improves on the turf courts and he figures that for this reason alone he and Gardner will have a better chance to compete in the preliminary tournament to the national championship event.

The winners of the four sectional championships in doubles will come together on the courts of the Onwentsia club, near Chicago, on August 2, in the preliminaries. The Longwood event will be played on July 17 and will bring together some of the strongest players in the country.

Long and Gardner figure to have a good chance of winning the eastern section event. They are both good in poor form, and the team that wins the preliminary tournament at Onwentsia should take the title from the team in the championship match at Newport late next month.

Long expects to put in considerable time at Pittsburg in the Longwood tournament, so as to be in the best possible shape for the event. He will play in the New York state championship tournament if he and Gardner are defeated in the Longwood doubles. He also will represent the Pacific coast in the singles championship of the United States, to be played at Newport late next month.
