

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

Special Election Will Decide Proposed Amendments to State Constitution

Woman Suffrage, Direct Legislation and Recall Are Some of Questions

Proposed constitutional amendments of exceptional importance will be submitted to the voters of the state at the special election to be held October 16. Woman's suffrage, direct legislation, enlargement of the powers of the railroad commission and other great issues are to be decided by the people.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 2 provides for the submission of the question of woman's suffrage.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 22 provides for the initiative and the referendum in state legislation.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 23 provides for the recall by the electors of the elective public officers of the state.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 24 provides for county charters to be framed by a board of 15 freeholders and to be approved by a majority of the electors of a county, these charters to provide for home rule and permit the regulation of all matters not in conflict with the constitution.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 25 provides that no judgment shall be set aside or new trial granted in any criminal case on the ground of misdirection of the jury or the improper admission or rejection of evidence or for error in pleading or procedure, unless, in the opinion of the court, the error has resulted in a miscarriage of justice.

AMENDMENT FOR RECALL. Assembly constitutional amendment No. 25 proposes an amendment to section 13, article XX, of the constitution to provide that electors shall be competent in all charters of cities, counties or cities and counties framed under the authority of the constitution to provide the manner of electing officers.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 45 proposes an amendment to section 8 1/2 of article XI of the constitution to provide for the recall and the civil service tenure in cities and counties and to validate any such provisions now incorporated in the charter of any such city or county.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 17 proposes to amend section 14 of article I of the constitution to provide that the taking of private property for a railroad run by steam or electric power for logging or lumbering purposes shall be deemed a taking for a public use, and any person, firm, corporation or company taking private property under the law of eminent domain for such purposes shall thereupon become a common carrier.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 22 proposes to add section 21 to article XX of the constitution to provide that the legislature may create and enforce a liability on the part of all employers to compensate their employees for injury and provide for the settlement of any disputes arising under such contemplated legislation by arbitration, an industrial accident board or by the courts.

JUSTICE COURT'S AMENDMENT. Assembly constitutional amendment No. 48 proposes an amendment to section 14 of article IV of the constitution to include the justice courts in the district courts of appeal among those state officers who may be impeached.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 25 proposes an amendment to sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of article VI of the constitution to provide for the abolition of justice courts.

Assembly constitutional amendment No. 23 proposes to amend sections 14 and 21 of article VI of the constitution to strike out the provision for the election of a clerk of the supreme court and to provide for the appointment of the clerk by the court.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 5 proposes an amendment to section 2 of article IV of the constitution to provide for a divided session of the legislature, a recess to be taken not more than 30 days after the opening of the legislature and to last not less than 80 days. On the reassembling of the legislature no bill shall be introduced in either house without the consent of three-fourths of the members of the house in which it is introduced.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 19 proposes an amendment to section 2 of article XI of the constitution to provide for the borough system of government for chartered cities and to simplify the section as to the procedure in adopting and amending municipal charters.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 19 proposes to amend section 19 of article XI of the constitution to provide that the members of the board of supervisors may establish and operate public works for supplying its inhabitants with light, water, power, heat, transportation, telephone service or other means of communication and may furnish such services to inhabitants outside its boundaries, provided that it shall not furnish any service to the inhabitants of another municipality supplying the same service to such inhabitants, without the consent of such other municipality.

Assembly constitutional amendment No. 56 proposes an amendment to sections 49 and 51 of article XII of the constitution to provide that no railroad or other transportation company shall raise any rate or charge for the transportation of freight or passengers except on showing before the railroad commission that the increase is justified; and to provide that the commission may authorize such a company to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for the transportation of persons or property.

RAILROAD COMMISSION. Assembly constitutional amendment No. 6 proposes an amendment to section 22 of article 12 of the constitution to make the railroad commission, instead of an elective board of three members, an appointive board of five members to be named by the governor and to hold for six years, except that of the members of the first appointed board one member shall hold until January 1, 1917, two until January 1, 1919, and two until January 1, 1921.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 47 proposes to give the railroad commission jurisdiction over every commercial railroad, interurban railroad, street railroad, canal, pipe line, plant

ROADS DENOUNCED AS MCCARTHY HIRELINGS

Editor Call: In your issue of the 27th inst., there appears a statement to the effect that the Mission Heights and Church Street Improvement association has endorsed the candidacy of P. H. McCarthy. This is unequivocally false.

This organization is strictly non political, as provided in its bylaws. The members of it, however, are united in their support of the candidacy of their distinguished fellow-Missionite, James Rolph Jr. In supporting his candidacy, however, they act as individuals.

Permit us to state that at last Tuesday evening's meeting about 20 McCarthy employes, under the leadership of A. C. Gilson, secretary to Olaf A. Tveitmo; James Frappier, who last week was appointed by McCarthy assistant superintendent of playgrounds, and J. J. Doyle, McCarthy's private carpenter, realizing that our members are united for Rolph, disturbed our regular meeting by stuffing the membership roll and when the president refused to entertain a political motion forced him from the chair and set up their ring leader, Gilson, as chairman. They then decided to notify the press that the association had endorsed McCarthy.

Not content with this, the usurpers decided to move the meeting place of the association into the McCarthy headquarters in Eighteenth street, corner of Church, in a grog shop, which was given its license through McCarthy's intervention, although it was within the prescribed distance from school property and in the immediate neighborhood of the Mission park, the Youth's Directory and the McKinley orphanage.

Two days afterward the same worthies daubed with white paint the sign on the association's hall. The headquarters still remain at Nineteenth and Church streets, where the organization has met since its inception, three years ago.

This action of the McCarthy hirelings has won many votes for Rolph in our locality. In conclusion we desire to say that, although we reside in McCarthy's home district, we would consider ourselves unworthy citizens were we to support McCarthy and his reputable manager, Jerome Bassity.

Yours sincerely, MISSION HEIGHTS AND CHURCH STREET IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION. ELLIS WORRALD, President. GEORGE L. LONG, Secretary.

or equipment for the transportation of passengers, express matter or freight or the transmission of telephone or telegraph messages, the production, etc., of heat, light, water or power, or storage or wharf facilities. Counties or municipalities, however, having commissions in charge of such utilities may retain such jurisdiction unless a person owning property valued at $5,000 or more.

Senate constitutional amendment No. 45 proposes an amendment to section 16 of article 29 of the constitution to provide that the term of office of any person heretofore or hereafter appointed to hold office or employment during good behavior under civil service laws shall not be limited to four years.

Assembly constitutional amendment No. 2 proposes an amendment to section 7 of article 5 of the constitution to provide that the textbooks when adopted shall continue in use not less than four years "without any change or alteration whatever which will require or necessitate the purchase of new books by such pupils."

Indorsements for Rolph. A routing meeting was held by the James Rolph Jr. club of the Thirty-third district Friday evening. Rolph was the only topic of discussion permitted, though several applicants for office addressed the gathering. The speakers were C. F. Markwith, George E. Gallagher, Joseph J. Phillips, Fred Eggers, Charles McCarthy and Theodore Pinther. Club headquarters are maintained at 19 Milford street.

By the end of this week the city will be blazing with Rolph signs and banners. Nearly all the posters and placards necessary to cover the city thoroughly are ready and will be distributed this week. The 2,000 Rolph hangers, suitable for placing in windows, etc., will be ready tomorrow.

The Upper Market Street Nonpartisan Club was organized in Improvement hall, 2263 Market street, Thursday night. Albert T. Roche was elected permanent chairman and Ellis Worrall secretary. The following campaign committee was appointed: H. P. Coles, Dr. J. C. Perry and J. Doran. Among the speakers were George C. Heinz, J. H. McClellan, John W. Sweeney and F. J. Churchill.

An O. C. Wilson Nonpartisan club was formed in the Thirty-seventh Assembly district Thursday evening and 65 Wilson boosters signed the roll. The following officers were elected: President, W. R. Twamley; vice president, Howard Segelken; secretary, Roy Gottelmer; treasurer, W. E. Meyer; chairman of the executive committee, Frank M. Hultman; chairman of the membership committee, Sig. Green.

McCarthy Club Organized. The Forty-third District P. H. McCarthy club was organized in the Market and Fourth streets headquarters last night. Doctor Teller was elected president, William Perer secretary and Abe Cohen treasurer.

At a meeting held last night the Finnish-American Political club indorsed P. H. McCarthy's candidacy for re-election. The Thirty-second Thomas Finn club was organized in McCarthy's hall, 2700 Bryant street, last night, also indorsed the candidacy of the mayor.

In New Era hall, 2121 Market street, last night the Thirty-fourth District P. H. McCarthy club held a meeting and entertainment. Among the speakers were J. A. Brown, William H. Schoeller, Professors George Barron and H. C. Hall, W. R. Haggerty, C. A. Nelson, John O. Walsh and J. I. Nolan.

THREATS USED TO SECURE PLEDGES

Saloon Men Claim That They Are Forced to Display McCarthy Signs

Methods like those employed by the municipal Social club in securing pledges for McCarthy have been adopted in placing his signs over saloons throughout the city, according to reports made to John W. Rogers of the municipal conference. The Municipal Social club is requiring city employes to bring in the names of 10 voters pledged for McCarthy, under an implied threat that they will lose their city positions if they fail. The saloon men, it is charged, are permitting McCarthy signs to be placed over their places of business, fearing that they will lose their licenses if they object.

"It is almost compelled to accept McCarthy's sign over my saloon, even though I do intend to vote for Rolph for mayor," said one saloon man in the Mission, whose experience has been that of several others.

"When the men began putting up the McCarthy sign I asked them what they were doing. They replied that they were doing nothing. I said, 'I am asking them who had given them permission. They said they had a card directing them to do so, and that was all there was to it. I was given to understand that if I objected to the sign I might lose my license. What can I do?'"

It has come to light that the Municipal Social club insists that the women employed by the city shall be as active as the men in pledging voters to support McCarthy. Miss Sadie De Vere, a nurse at the relief home, has been doing her utmost to get signs for McCarthy. When a newspaper canvasser called on her a few days ago seeking a subscription, Miss De Vere promised to subscribe for every 10 McCarthy pledges secured by the collector.

James Rolph, Jr., will make the first public address of his campaign in the Globe theater, 211 Mission street, Saturday evening, August 12. The theater is in the heart of the Mission, near the center of the Thirty-fifth district, and not three blocks from Rolph's home. It is in Mission street, between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth, within easy walking distance of the Thirty-second, Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth districts, and easily accessible from all parts of the city.

Many prominent men have signified their desire to be on the stage with Rolph when he makes his first public appearance. The Rolph club organized in the Mission district are planning to make this night the biggest one of their campaign.

McGee Outlines Platform. John A. McGee, one of the candidates for district attorney, addressed a meeting at Knights of the Red Branch hall in Mission street last night. Edward O'Dea presided. McGee devoted his speech to faying the influence of Jerome Bassity and characters of the underworld in municipal affairs and promised if elected to relegate them to their proper sphere.

There is no sack behind his campaign, he said, and he lacked the support of a certain eastern millionaire. He said, he said, he was financing the campaign of one of the other candidates for the same office.

"I am making this fight," he said, "singlehanded, except for the help of many good friends, and shall carry my platform directly to the people, having faith in their ability to discriminate between idle words and promises made in good faith."

It Is Not What You Pay for Stock It Is What Stock Pays You

Wise investors buy at the lowest possible price and sell at the highest. There is just one way you can buy San Francisco Home Builders stock at the same price the directors paid, and that is to buy before August 1 for the third day the price advances.

The value of an investment should not be measured by the price paid for the stock nor by the size of the immediate dividends. The future should be considered.

We of San Francisco can forecast the future prosperity of this city for the next months and months before investing in any project. IT HAS HAPPENED. The fair site is now known to the world and great good will result to all the people by the wise selection made by the fair directors, that there are just two ways to make money out of the opportunities that stare you in the face. One is, buy before the first advance, and the other is, buy before the second advance, for all things will certainly advance, particularly homes and home sites.

HOMES ARE THE FOUNDATION OF ALL CITIES. The San Francisco Home Builders is not yet on a dividend-paying basis, but it offers investors the most opportunity to participate in the future profits, which must surely be large on account of the extraordinary opportunities this city will present to the world for the next five years.

SAN FRANCISCO HOME BUILDERS. It is organized and conducted along sure and sound business lines. Its officers are good honest businessmen who have been prominent in the building of this state, and they have decided to give you an opportunity until August 1st to join this splendid corporation at the same price they paid for stock.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS. N. B. CAMPBELL, President, Member of the Trust Department of the Marine Trust and Savings Bank, San Francisco, California. J. E. LANDERKIN, Vice President, Builder, Oakland, California. J. D. HYNES, Secretary and Treasurer, Public Accountant, brother of the City and County Auditor, City of San Francisco, California. W. W. ELLIS, Secretary of W. G. Stafford & Co., Coal Merchants, San Francisco, California. H. E. IRISH, Merchant, Santa Cruz, California. F. W. SWANTON, Capitalist, Santa Cruz, California. F. H. DEAN, Stocks and Bonds, San Francisco, California.

JUST A WORD. The people of San Francisco have been waiting for something to happen for months and months before investing in any project. IT HAS HAPPENED. The fair site is now known to the world and great good will result to all the people by the wise selection made by the fair directors, that there are just two ways to make money out of the opportunities that stare you in the face. One is, buy before the first advance, and the other is, buy before the second advance, for all things will certainly advance, particularly homes and home sites.

CO-OPERATION. The San Francisco Home Builders is in a particularly strong position, having stock holders from coast to coast and from Alaska to the canal zone. Every stock holder is a booster, and "co-operation" is our watchword. With the present rate of increase of stock holders it will be hardly possible for any one to come to this beautiful, fair city without hearing of the great work we are carrying on.

BUILDING OPERATIONS. San Francisco Home Builders are preparing to build their first house in Richmond, and we have dozens of other applications on file. The world is full of people who are always going to invest in something tomorrow, but tomorrow never comes. Consequently their lives are one long list of lost opportunities.

Prepare yourself for the present opportunity. Buy San Francisco Home Builders stock today. You can reasonably expect to get 8 per cent dividends for the coming year and enjoy an advance of about 50 per cent over the present selling price of the stock. That is much better than getting 4 per cent at the bank, and remember you will have homes back of every share. Prepare to purchase in the San Francisco Home Builders.

We want to sell a million shares of stock before August 1st, and this is your last opportunity to get in at the ground floor price of 10c per share. Stock is sold for cash or on the ten payment plan.
