Paternal Blessing Is Given at Surprise "Breakfast" at Cafe

ALAMEDA, Sept. 8.—Miss Winifred C. Hosford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Hosford of this city, slipped over to San Francisco yesterday afternoon and there became the bride of J. F. C. Addison of Alameda. The service was read by Rev. Charles C. Champlin of the Park Congregational church of San Francisco.

The witnesses to the wedding were Mrs. William J. Hosford, James Addison, a brother of the bridegroom, Miss Jennie Hosford and Bert Talbott. Following the marriage the wedding party met the bride's parents who had been invited to dinner by Bert Talbott, in a downtown cafe.

Neither Dr. nor Mrs. Hosford were told of the marriage until they met the bride at the restaurant, where they quickly overcame their surprise and gave the couple their parental blessing.

The engagement of Miss Hosford and Addison was recently announced at a house party, but relatives and friends of the young couple did not expect that the marriage would take place for some months.

For the present the couple will make their home with the parents of the bride.

BERKELEY JOINS SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Mayor Orders Investigation of All Nickelodeons in the City

BERKELEY, Sept. 8.—Officials of this city, led by Mayor J. Stitt Wilson and Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Christian Hoff, have taken up the crusade begun by The Call in San Francisco against "death trap" moving picture show houses.

Calling attention of the council to the action of District Attorney Donahue and of the Oakland council in regard to proper regulation of nickelodeons, Mayor Wilson ordered the police and fire department to make careful investigation of the conditions of all theaters in this city.

Commissioner Hoff will direct the work, and whatever action may be deemed necessary to safeguard public life will be taken by the council. Commissioner John A. Wilson made the rather startling statement that the Berkeley high school auditorium, which is frequently crowded at mass meetings, is also a firetrap. Mayor Wilson said he would take up that question at once with the board of education.

At the request of several fraternal orders the mayor also ordered that the investigation in regard to the fire law be extended to all large buildings and meeting places in the city.

"I believe that at least a majority of the places have kept the law," said Mayor Wilson, "but it is best to prevent catastrophes. Let local conditions be thoroughly investigated to avert any possible accident from illegal conduct of amusement places."
