

11 JURORS IN BOX FOR AXTELL TRIAL

Taking of Evidence Is Expected to Begin by the End of the Week

STOCKTON, Oct. 30.—The taking of evidence is expected to begin the latter part of the week in the case of Editor Axtell.

At the adjournment this evening the jurors in the box were:

H. A. D. Peterson, A. J. Turner, Charles W. Ames, J. W. Edwards, J. A. Emerson, George W. Weatherbee, M. J. Single, August Beckman, James E. Faulkner and William C. Fillion.

It appeared for a while today as though progress already made in securing a jury to try S. B. Axtell for the murder of Charles Sollars would be all for naught.

JUROR IN QUARANTINE The fact that P. C. Forman, one of the three jurors accepted, is in quarantine at his home in French Camp was responsible for the trouble.

Forman's daughter is afflicted with scarlet fever. He did not appear in court this morning when the case was resumed.

Attorney George F. McNoble, for the defense, was on his feet in a second and objected to excusing the juror.

County Health Officer Friedberger was called and testified that while the chances of Forman catching the disease were small, he might become afflicted in 10 to 14 days.

J. A. Stewart, one of the three jurors accepted, informed the court that his family was very dear to him and that he did not care to endanger their health.

Judge Norton replied that the objection was well taken and that the juror would have to be excused.

It would be necessary that all the other jurors be likewise excused.

COUNSEL IN QUANDARY The attorneys on both sides did not relish the idea of going over the entire task again in the event of a verdict when Attorney A. H. Ashley, chief counsel for the defense, suggested that the examination of the juror be reopened.

He then challenged Forman for cause, basing his challenge on the ground that the juror might be taken ill, and if so would not be able to give the case full consideration.

The prosecution had no objection and the difficulty was overcome.

NEW VENIRE PRESENT The members of the new venire of 100 men were present today.

H. A. D. Peterson, J. A. Stewart, the two jurors accepted, and three others passed for cause were in the jury box.

The following seven talesmen were called to the box: O. F. Peterson, J. A. Emerson, E. S. Beecher, James Cassidy, George W. Weatherbee, L. E. Grummeaux and Louis Parker.

J. A. Emerson was the first examined. He had read of the case and had talked to friends about the shooting, but had no fixed opinion.

DEAF MAN IN BOX James Cassidy pointed to his ears when addressed by one of the attorneys.

"Hear hard of hearing?" some one remarked.

"Are you hard of hearing?" inquired the court.

Cassidy made no response. He was excused.

Peterson was not on the assessment roll and was excused.

Weatherbee was passed for cause. All others were challenged and excused.

Five more talesmen were called, as follows: W. M. Munsey, M. J. Single, J. E. Hunting, John L. Driscoll and August Beckman.

Munsey was opposed to capital punishment and was excused.

COMMANDER'S OUTFIT HELD UP TO RIDICULE German-French Clash Recalls Count Waldsee's Story

A French contemporary, apropos of the desire of the Germans to get a piece of Africa, speculates as to what the personal equipment of the German commander will consist.

It will be as extensive as that of Count Waldsee, when he went to China in connection with the Boxer rebellion.

The intimate friend of the kaiser had a trunk of dressing gowns, a vast quantity of "chemises de nuit," boots by the dozen pairs, with felt socks and gaiter perches, overalls, and fur lined waistcoats.

The count also carried a portable kitchen, the fittings being of nickel and silver.

Four courting dogs, barrels of biscuit and a domestic to look after the dogs accompanied Waldsee, whose life was insured for $20,000.

MODESTO HEARS MOTOR LINE TOOT Engine and Three Cars Enter Town, Establishing Promised Competition

MODESTO, Oct. 30.—Railroad competition for Modesto became a reality today when the motor engine of the Modesto and Empire Traction company arrived in Modesto, bringing three cars of freight over the Santa Fe consigned to local merchants.

Wednesday a regular service between Modesto and Empire, five miles east on the Santa Fe, will start. Close connections will be made with all Santa Fe passenger trains, giving Modestans an opportunity to travel direct to the bay by a road other than the Southern Pacific.

The motive power of the new road is a gasoline locomotive and the little road has a full equipment of passenger and freight cars.

The road is owned entirely by local people and was built to give Modesto an outlet to another transcontinental railroad and to give the county seat better communication with the towns in the eastern portion of the county, whose only rail connection with this city has been by way of Stockton or Merced.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach. A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength. Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY. You can't afford to accept a novel nostrum as a substitute for this non-doubtful medicine of known composition, not even though the agent dealer may thereby make a little higher profit.
