

LOCAL STOCK MARKETS WITH VARIATIONS FEW AND NARROW

BUYING ORDERS BOOST STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Buying orders which accumulated over the weekend stimulated the stock market on Saturday. The day's movement was a whole lot back steadily until little was left of the advance. Some stocks, including United States Steel, Reading and Lehigh Valley, fell. The market seemed to indicate that it was still of a transitory character.

Passage of Utility Bill Is Not Thought to Be Inimical to Public Projects

N. Y. Journal of Commerce Fails to Understand Why Canal Should Be Opposed

By PAUL SINSHEIMER

While local financial interests are watching with keen interest the special session of the legislature, there is general agreement that the new public utility bill will not tend toward impairment of values. Railroad men are outspoken in their approval of the measure.

The only feature that has been subjected to adverse criticism is the proposed regulation of stock and bond issues. It is probable that in practical application this section will tend rather to strengthen than to weaken the market of securities.

The New York Journal of Commerce joins with those who have already admonished the transcontinental carriers against an endeavor to nullify the Panama canal.
