Neither San Francisco Nor Los Angeles Represented in the Free Conference

Assembly Confers Bound to Provisions of Bill Designed to Rob Both Cities

By GEORGE A. VAN SMITH

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—The fate of the reapportionment bill and San Francisco's part in the legislation of California for the next 10 years is in the hands of a free conference committee.

That conference committee took up its work at 5 o'clock tonight with the senate conferees bound to a fair deal for San Francisco and Los Angeles and with the assembly conferees bound to the provisions of a bill designed to rob both Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The senate conferees are Stetson, Alameda, Roseberry, Santa Barbara, Boynton, Butte. The representatives of the assembly are: Jones, Contra Costa; Judson, San Diego; Bohnet, Santa Clara. Neither Los Angeles nor San Francisco is represented on the conference that is charged with the disposition of a question vital to both.

The assembly conferees are all members of the county caucus which was organized for the avowed purpose of taking over the constituent rights away from the two big counties.

DAY FULL OF INCIDENTS

The appointment of the free conference came after a day full of incidents, none of which was wholly unexpected. It was known that the senate committee had agreed late last night to stand by the provisions of the Thompson bill. When the senators learned early this morning that there was to be no surrender without the semblance of a fight for fair play and for the rights of the senate the gloom that had been thick Thursday night lifted.

No senator was proud of the part that they believed the senate would play in Thursday night. It was suggested that for the first time in the history of the upper house to surrender not only the rights of the people but its own rights without a fight.

When Thompson called up the amended assembly bill, there was no oratory except that expended in explaining to Larkin that his lone vote was not sufficient to carry an amendment to the bill, and that he could not amend an amendment. Several amendments were pending. That was finally made clear to him and he cast the one dissenting vote on the final passage of the bill. His dissent was based on the senate's refusal to give him a three county district with population nearly sufficient for two districts.

SENATE IN A ROW

Meanwhile there had been informal discussions between the leaders of the two houses on the subject of joint rules and the assembly became embroiled in a vigorous row over proposed amendments to the joint rules for free conference. The senate finally adopted amendments as strange as much of the work of that body and by which any senator or assemblyman appointed to a joint conference would be expected to a subsequent free conference on the same bill. Apparently that unique provision was aimed at Senator Thompson of Los Angeles county by Randall of that county, who is responsible for the organization of the county caucus and for any loss of her constitutional rights that may be suffered by Los Angeles.

The refusal to accept the amendments was not voted by the assembly until mid-afternoon and the appointment of joint conference committees by both houses was not accomplished until after 10 o'clock.

Resolution by Senator Burnett, providing for the distribution of 500 copies of the supplementary public utilities act, passed by the senate.

Resolution by Senator Caminito, petitioning congress to grant federal aid in cleaning the Sacramento and Joaquin rivers, adopted by the senate.

The Lurline Ocean Water Baths, Bush and Larkin streets, supply free to women bathers elaborate shampoo rooms, hot air hair driers and electric curling irons.

POLICEMAN TO FACE CHARGE—Accused of a lie that started in the St. James police station, a man charged with possession of the Mission station mail charges at the meeting of the police commission Thursday night.

When Wallis announced his selections for the free conference committee Campbell of San Luis Obispo lost a fit of temper and some language because it seemed to him that he was being refused to attend the conference.

That the progressives feel much the same way about it was indicated by the manner in which they gave Caminito a district that drops one republican senator out for at least three years and deprives San Joaquin of an opportunity to vote for a senator for that period.

FEAR IS EXPRESSED

Campbell's anger gave rise to the fear on the part of some of the senate leaders that reapportionment might finally fail. That same fear had been freely expressed earlier by some of the senators who are more deeply interested in the passage of a reapportionment bill.

SENATE REVERSES RIGHTS OF PEOPLE

Presidential Primary Bill Decried as Promoter of Boss Rule

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—By a vote of 29 to 8 the senate refused today to give the people of California a presidential primary election law that would enable the electors of the several congressional districts to choose their own delegates to the national conventions of their parties.

Tired by the prolonged debate Stetson of Alameda again threw off the mask and admitted that the bill as programmed after its original introduction was a political measure and by inference that it was designed to inaugurate a solid delegation for La Follette in the next republican convention.

The attempt to amend came from the democrats who denounced the measure as one that should be entitled an "anti-promote boss rule."

Wolfe of San Francisco read from a letter from Senator La Follette to the governor, in which the Wisconsin senator declared that it would be a misfortune if the San Francisco and citrus fruit belt congressional districts sent Taft delegates to the national convention.

Wright denounced the measure as one designed to prevent his district—a fruit growing section—from having any voice in the making of the national platform of the republican party.

The bill as passed provides that all candidates for delegates to national conventions shall be elected at large and that presidential candidates on the organization in charge of their campaigns may designate what delegates may be described as for that candidate.

The senators who voted for the district autonomy that has been the rule in the republican and democratic parties throughout the nation for years and which is the basis of every particular call for national convention, are Cartwright, Curtin, Hare, Julliard, Martineau, Sanford, Wolfe and Wright.

Assemblyman Griffiths Slams Graft Prosecutor for Speech a Year Old

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

CALL HEADQUARTERS, SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—Francis J. Heney was bitterly excoriated in the assembly today by Assemblyman W. B. Griffiths of Napa county because of an address made by Heney last winter in the senate chamber in favor of the recall of the judiciary.

Griffiths, who was the chairman of the committee on public morals during the last legislature and was largely responsible for the passage of the anti-race-tracker bill, seized the opportunity today to reply to Heney's strictures on the signers of the United States constitution.

The house was considering Senator Boynton's concurrent resolution relating to the teaching of patriotism in the public schools. Frank M. Rutherford, a supporter of the measure, spoke forcefully against Griffiths. Griffiths then launched into a sensational attack on Heney as follows:

"I'm heartily in favor of the resolution, but believe that we should go further and take in men higher up guilty of the same offense. Half the members within the hearing of my voice were in the senate chamber last winter and heard Heney there in speaking for the recall of the judiciary—which I heartily favored—defame the founders of our constitution, saying that it was framed behind closed doors and that the army of the revolution was composed of the rag tag and riff raff of the country."

"That man came into prominence through his connection with one of the most sensational cases in the state. He furnished the fireworks and Hiram Johnson furnished the brains. The fact that I refer to is Francis J. Heney."

TEXTBOOK COMMITTEE AWARDS LONG CONTRACT

Eight Years' Term Given Hygiene Primer Publication

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—The state textbook committee, consisting of Governor H. W. Johnson, State School Superintendent Edward Hyatt and Dr. Frederick Burke, principal of the San Francisco state normal school, met this afternoon in Governor Johnson's office to award a contract for an eight year contract for the new primer of hygiene.

This matter has been before the committee for some time, but the action today, with the signing of the contract, closes it.

The committee decided that it would act in accordance with the state law in changing prices of textbooks. Prices will not be raised or changed in any way at any other time than the regular June meeting of the committee.

This decision was reached and the announcement made because of the long and arduous work of the committee during the year.

ATTITUDE OF THE HOUSE TOWARD RUSSIA SCORED

Kent Writes Letter to the Supervisors

The following reply from Congressman William Kent to a letter enclosing Supervisor Walsh's resolution regarding Russia's attitude toward United States citizens of Hebrew blood yesterday received by Clerk Hagerty of the board. The letter was written before the abrogation of the treaty of 1832. It follows:

The resolutions passed by the house of representatives exceeds any request that might be made by any one, in the matter of Russia's attitude toward our citizens. I take it for granted that Russia has discriminated against our citizens, and that that action meets with our disapproval. We, on our part, are discriminating against her citizens.

It should like to have the treaty abrogated, for the reason that it provides unlimited right of citizenship to the children of the citizens of each country by the citizens of the other. Neither can nor will we live up to such stipulation.

We could have abrogated the treaty without swagging around with our mouths full of hypocrisy and buncombe, insulting a friendly nation, American diplomacy will not profit by such action.

Republican National Treasurer Repeats Denial That Colonel Is Candidate

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the republican national committee, commenting upon the publication of correspondence between himself and Theodore Roosevelt regarding the Harriman campaign conducted in 1904, and alluding particularly to his own letter, said that it was written at Colonel Roosevelt's request.

Sheldon took exception to the inference that publication of the correspondence at this time indicated that the colonel was a candidate for the 1912 presidential nomination.

"Colonel Roosevelt has not told me that he is a candidate," Sheldon said. "On the contrary, he has told me repeatedly that he is not a candidate."

"Colonel Roosevelt and myself were aboard a train together some 10 days ago, and this matter came up in conversation of the republican party. I said: 'Why was the truth never told about this whole business, so that it could be shut up?' Colonel Roosevelt replied: 'Why can't you tell it now? That is all there is to it.'"

Questioned as to whether he regarded it as wise to revert at this time to the Harriman contribution incident, Sheldon replied: "I regard it as wise to revert at this time, but Colonel Roosevelt asked me to write the letter and I did so. It was purely a matter of friendship on my part. The letter, which is the whole truth and ought to stop comment."

The improvements in question were made along Beale street.
