Watt Powell Is Back In the Squad Again

Many Candidates Must Fight It Out for Positions In the Seal Outfield

By JOE MURPHY

A bit of good news was received by Manager Long of the Seals yesterday, but the rotund leader of the local baseball squad showed no outward expressions of satisfaction, though those who know him best say that he has been relieved of a great worry. A letter from Charleston, W. Va., bearing the signature of Watt Powell, outfielder of the Seals, was handed to Long. Powell stated that he had planned to leave for the coast last Monday, so, figuring it out, Powell should be in town today.

This chap was one of the holdouts. He wanted more change to play during the coming season, and the officials of the Seals thought that he was getting dollar for dollar for his services and declined to give his salary a cut. Watt threatened to stick it out until doomsday unless he was given more money and his boss was just as stubborn about the matter.

According to the letter at hand, says Long, Powell did not bring up the matter of salary, and as Long views it he believes that Watt, after looking over his contract a few times, decided that he could not do any better. Probably when Powell arrives he might bring the question up again in a nice, gentle way, and his appeal might have some effect.

The local club could not very well afford to lose Powell this year, as he is a very valuable man. While he was out of the game a great deal last season through illness, at the same time, when he was in harness, he proved a very handy man to the club. He was the leading hitter as well as being the best base runner, and also a mighty good fielder.

Powell looks like a certainty to land job in the outfield. McIvor, one of the new outfielders, is being highly boosted by Long and he will probably get the berth. Rafferty is well known here and everybody knows that he is a cooking good man, so it is hard to figure how he can be kept out of harness. Long has a few other men who are going to try for the outfield, so there is sure to be some keen contention for jobs. Hartley, Moore and Mundorf will be fighting for places in the outer garden, and they are all good men.

Misdeeds of all descriptions came into the Recreation park office yesterday from ball players who have signed up for the local team for the coming year. In the next couple of days Long expects that nearly all of his men will be on hand. There are diagrams from hand from the various railroad officials notifying Long that transportation had been taken up by his players.

A letter was received from Howard Mundorf, who has been down at Madrono. He notified Long that he would be here shortly. There was a telegram on hand that Mundorf had left Birmingham February 23, so he is due in a couple of days.

Pitcher Noyes is on his way from Nebraska, and Westmoreland had left La. Fayette. He notified Long that he would be here shortly. There was a telegram on hand that Mundorf had left Birmingham February 23, so he is due in a couple of days.

Strand has left on the Shasta Limited for this city. He is coming from Seattle, Wash. Toner is on his way from Denver, and Jackson left El Paso February 29.

When Long received word from the above players and also the letter from Powell yesterday could be termed a day of joy for the Seals' leader, as he has his men rounded up so there is little to worry about.

Long is confident that Harry Suter, his big left handed finger, and Catcher Schmidt, whose arm is remaining holdouts of the team, will be back before the team departs for Paso Robles. Suter appears to be determined to stick it out and nothing has been heard from Schmidt. Long says that they will be on the job when the season starts.

It is a well known fact that Long has always had a fondness for right handed pitchers, but for some unknown reason he has failed for the most part to get the right kind of men. Up to date he has given no reason why he has changed his views. It may be that Long has a certain team dotted out as he has taken and figures that left handed twirlers will prove effective against this club.

In former years the pitchers who represented the local club were mostly right handed fingers. This year it will be different, as many of the men who will occupy the hill for the Seals deal them from the left side. If Suter gets in line and Baker lives up to his former record there will be no better left handers in this league.

To show his faith in Otto McIvor, the new outfielder whom Long has signed for the coming season, the Seals' manager has appointed him business agent for the club. Long feels sure that McIvor will make good in the out-

MAYOR OF CHICAGO BOOSTS FOR BOXING

CHICAGO, March 1.—Mayor Carter H. Harrison today authorized a statement that he is in favor of the resumption of boxing in Chicago if it can be accomplished in such a way that the public will be safeguarded from fake fights and other exploitations of unscrupulous promoters.

"You may say for me," the mayor replied when asked what his attitude toward boxing in Chicago would be if the legislature passed a bill authorizing it in Illinois, "that I think boxing is a clean, manly sport.

"The unfortunate tendency of present day promoters to bunko the public has attached a certain odium to the pastime which really should be directed at the men themselves."

LUCK TALK MAKES McCREDIE LAUGH

Portland Boss Intends to Show the Other Magnates a Few Stunts

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

PORTLAND, March 1.—"McCredie luck" is the slogan of some of the magnates in the southern part of the circuit, and but recently one club owner in the south is quoted as saying that the fortunes of the Beaver championship would lead him the coming year.

When asked concerning his luck, McCredie said: "Well, if they call it luck to have about 20 more games scheduled on the road than at home, like we did last year, and then beat them out for the pennant, the word has a different meaning than when I last saw it in the dictionary.

"Any time a team can go through a schedule of that kind and come out on top I consider it more than merely getting the breaks of the game. We have seen some schedules that are as far as playing away from home is concerned, and I am not claiming that I will win any pennants nor that any team will finish at the bottom of the ranks. When the other magnates talk of my picking up so many good men they forget that I had a few lemons myself which never ripened, and that my players were injured when I needed them most."

"If Tom Seaton threw that game at Oxnard for a money consideration, I would not be surprised. I always found Tom a fair and square fellow when in the ball club. I had looked for him to be given a chance with the Phillies and I hope that will be the case. Following an investigation, he is cleared of the charges made against him."

"The sooner the matter is cleared up the better. It is not right to him to let his friends and critics to keep the matter in abeyance."
