All Accompany Commissioners to Choose Sites for 1915 State Buildings

Governor R. S. Vessey of South Dakota has notified President Moore of the Panama-Pacific international exposition that he will in all probability accompany the members of his commission, who are coming here March 28 to select a site for the South Dakota building. This means that within the next 10 days there will be five western governors in this city. Among those who are now on their way are M. E. Hay of Washington, William Spry of Utah, James H. Hawley of Idaho and Edwin L. Morris of Montana.

Chairman Julius L. Meier of the Oregon state commission returned to Portland yesterday and before leaving called at exposition headquarters to express his appreciation of the courtesies shown to the members of the Oregon delegation during their stay in this city. He expressed himself as being entirely satisfied with the site and said that the commission would get to work as soon as he returned to Portland. Meier was accompanied by Colonel Jackson, one of the best known newspaper men of Portland.

FRANCIS GUEST OF HONOR

David R. Francis, former president of the exposition at St. Louis, was in conference with the exposition officials yesterday and gave them the benefit of his knowledge on exposition affairs. Tomorrow he is to be the guest of honor at a dinner to be tendered him in the concert room of the Palace hotel. It is expected that Governor H. W. Johnson, Mayor Ralph, President Moore, Director in Chief Frederick J. V. Skiff and former Governor Francis will deliver speeches.

Invitations to the presidents of fairs and the secretaries and managers of festivals in Washington, Oregon and this state have been sent out by P. T. Clay, chairman of the committee appointed by President Moore, to attend the congress to be held in the rooms of the board of directors of the exposition company, April 2. This probably will be one of the most important congresses held in this city in many months, as it means the bringing together of various cities in the west for the purpose of increasing the attendance of eastern visitors at the festival that are being held in this section of the country.

They have pledged themselves to subscribe $250,000 for the exposition. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of E. L. Wagner, F. G. Roney and Police Commissioner I. H. Sprio.

Joseph Pennell, the world's famous artist who was sent to this city by one of the leading magazines to illustrate the pre-exposition work of the universal exposition of 1915, was taken over the site yesterday by Director Rudolph J. Taussig and was captivated by the location of the site and the climate of this city. Pennell is to meet President Moore tomorrow to discuss art and to give his advice regarding exhibits to be made in that line at the coming exposition.

These vessels are designed for the defense of the Pacific coast against invading fleets and when warring battleships draw near the submarines will go out to meet them and call on the captain through the bottom of the hull. Each submarine carries four standard torpedoes. They are twin screw vessels, driven by heavy oil engines, will carry 18 enlisted men and 2 officers. BOLTS AND BARS CAN'T HOLD HUBBY

"Bohemian Route" With Affinity Irresistible Combination, Says Mrs. Westover

Bolts and bars failing to prevent the nightly disappearance of her husband, Mrs. Blanche H. Westover yesterday received an interlocutory decree of divorce from Clyde C. Westover, a customs house employe, on the ground of cruelty. Mrs. Westover told Judge E. P. Morgan that she sought to win back her husband's affections after they had been transferred to Mrs. Sophie Peterson Hyde, but that, though she locked her husband in the house at night, he slipped out after first throwing a bundle of clothing from a window. The plaintiff declared that Mrs. Hyde was employed by a wine firm, and that she led Westover over the "Bohemian route." Mrs. Westover had several friends in court who testified in substantiation.

The couple were married April 2, 1898, and she alleged that the defendant deserted her March 2, 1911, at Fruitvale. The wife declared that Westover told her he believed in trial marriages. No alimony was demanded, as the couple settled their financial difficulties outside court.

Other interlocutory decrees of divorce granted yesterday were: By Judge Graham—Ray from John H. Mosher, failure to provide; Lawrence B. from Edna Haas Cower, cruelty; by Judge Trout—Vendo E. from John D. McCarthy, cruelty. By Judge Hursky—William from Ruth Cox, cruelty. By Judge Van Nostrand—Leonard A. from Lucille D. Tomlinson, desertion.

Petition for the annulment of her marriage was filed yesterday in the superior court by Aileen Annie Russell from Frank C. Russell. The marriage took place April 27, 1907, when, the plaintiff alleges, she was 15 years old. She declares she left her husband in November, 1907. The plaintiff asks to be allowed the restoration of her maiden name of Aileen Annie Kelly. The following complaints in divorce were filed yesterday in the superior court: Mabel against H. H. Harkey, failure to provide; Edna against Max Esler, cruelty; George J. against Louise White, cruelty; Bertha against Joseph Levy, failure to provide; Anna A. against Charles F. Moore, failure to provide; Mary E. against Ernest J. Hawkins, desertion.

Police Provide Lodging for Aged and Peniless Victim

Burglars broke into a saloon at 115 Mason street early yesterday and stole $5.60 from the cash drawer. Pickpockets robbed Edward Johnson of Bay Point of a purse containing $100 in gold while he was slumming on the "coast" early yesterday.

Mrs. J. Carter, 2373 Washington street, reports that a thief stole a chicken, a roast, some milk and some cream from her larder on the back porch Sunday.

Pickpockets stole a watch and chain from Fred Hatomson, 46 Clara street, yesterday, while he was riding on a Third street car.

OYEZ! TEXAS TOMMY, COME INTO COURT

Wife Refuses to Dance New Hop-Wiggle; Whence Cruel Words and Divorce Suit

Whether refusal on the part of a protesting wife to dance the "Texas Tommy" and the "Caterpillar Crawl" in a Barbary Coast resort is justification for abusive words will be determined by Judge Graham when the complaint of Mrs. Mabel Adella Knorre for divorce from Fred James Knorre will come to trial. The defendant is proprietor of a furniture company at 941 Mission street, and yesterday Judge Graham issued an order restraining him from disposing of the property or of his funds pending the suit. The business is listed in the complaint as community property worth $10,000; Knorre's income is set at $250 monthly and the plaintiff asks $100 a month alimony, costs and counsel fees.

Knorre also has been cited to appear before Judge Graham next Friday to show cause why he shall not pay alimony during the pendency of the suit. The couple were married December 30, 1903, but it was not until a year ago that acts of cruelty, as alleged in the complaint, were first committed. The plaintiff charges that Knorre visited the Barbary Coast almost every night and that his explanation of his absence was "out with the boys."

The defendant urged Mrs. Knorre to accompany him to the coast one evening, and then became enraged because she refused to dance ragtime. At that time he was cross, irritable, sulky, impudent, unloving, cruel, mean and domineering, according to the complaint.

A further act of cruelty alleged was that once when she embraced him he pushed her away with the exclamation that she was breaking the cigars in his pocket. The plaintiff asks permission to resume her maiden name of Mabel Adella Goddard.

Speaking of Spring Clothes
There's all the difference in the world between "WOOD" SUITS and the other kind. It's such an easy matter for a manufacturer to save a few cents on materials, a few more on linings, to pay little less for his canvases and construction, and to omit the charges for proper shrinkage, examination and sponging. This can be done and still the suit will look all right. It is only when you come to wear it that the difference will be apparent, and that's a bad time to find out about a suit. In the manufacture of "WOOD" CLOTHING just the reverse happens. We put a little more into the cost of the cloth, pay a little more for the linings, add a little extra expense to every operation, with the result that both the appearance and the service of these suits are largely increased. This applies to every "WOOD" SUIT, whether the price is $10 or $40.
New Spring Suits at $15
Comprehensive assortments of new spring suits for men, including the new "English Cut Models," with the narrower shoulders, the high cut, six-button vest, with the watch pocket inside the top breast pocket, and with trousers of narrower cut. Staple models, built on American lines, in all the new chevils, in browns, tans, oxford blues, grays, etc., are also included at this price. Inspection of these wonderfully good suits is invited, and a comparison of their values with anything else in San Francisco is courted.
