

TERMS OF THE PHONE ORDER INTERPRETED

Injunction Does Not Prohibit Removals in the Ordinary Course of Business

Lawlor Directs Company to Submit Lists of All Subscribers Shut Off

In response to a request from the plaintiffs in the injunction suit brought against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company by O. L. Scott to prevent the dismantling of the Home telephone plant, Judge William P. Lawlor yesterday afternoon defined the terms of his temporary order as limiting the telephone company from taking any steps that would not be included in the ordinary course of business.

Further this morning, Judge Lawlor directed the telephone officials to submit a list of all instruments removed or "plugged out" since the injunction was issued, and to notify the court and the plaintiff of the removal of telephones of the Home system as shut off for any reason whatsoever.

HEARING SET Attorneys for both sides were present in court to argue on the petition for a permanent injunction, but Judge Lawlor asked them to furnish him with their lists of authorities before proceeding, and put the hearing over until April 12.

Three affidavits were filed by Attorneys William Thomas and Robert N. Frick, for the Home company, and E. S. Pillsbury and H. D. Pillsbury for the Pacific company. In one of these affidavits, sworn to by Ivey Marshall, chief clerk in the book keeping department of the Home Telephone company, it is declared that O. L. Scott, who brought the injunction suit, was in arrears to the extent of $12, and that his telephone was removed for this reason.

Another of the affidavits, signed by Robert N. Frick, as vice president of the Home company, gave a complete account of the sale of the plant, and the third, signed by Henry T. Scott, as president of the Pacific company, denied that the transfer was the result of a conspiracy to defraud the city, as alleged in the complaint of the plaintiff.

ARRAERS THE EXCUSE Attorneys W. S. Crist and Albert L. Johnson, representing O. L. Scott, told the court that the Home phones are being taken out by the hundreds in answer to this, Pillsbury said that the Pacific company had only been shutting off subscribers who are in arrears. He said there were nearly 2,000 who were not entitled to the service on this account.

Judge Lawlor said he could not prevent the company from proceeding with its business in the usual way, but as a safeguard against the dismantling of the system, he directed that complete lists be furnished of the subscribers shut off.

MRS. ANNIE LANGDON SUMMONED BY DEATH Mother of Former District Attorney to Be Buried Tomorrow

Mrs. Annie Langdon, mother of former District Attorney William H. Langdon, died at her home at 2510 Eddy street yesterday at the age of 73 years. Mrs. Langdon came to California in 1860 and was noted as the most extensive woman farmer in California. For 20 years she engaged in cattle raising and farming in Alameda and Contra Costa counties, being the first woman to conduct a large wheat farm in this state. For the last 20 years she lived in Bush street. She is survived by four daughters, Katherine, Sarah, Margaret and Mrs. F. J. Spaine, and one son, William H. Langdon. Her husband died in California in 1875. Mrs. Langdon was born in Ireland and came to this country when 10 years of age. Funeral services will be held Friday morning.

WORLD'S FINEST DAIRY RANCH CHANGES HANDS Syndicate Takes Over Famous "Riverside Farm"

[Special Dispatch to The Call] STOCKTON, April 3.—The Riverside farm, which for one time one of the most famous dairies in the world, has been sold to San Francisco and Seattle capitalists for $100,000. The farm is on Route and Ready roads, adjoining the White ranch, and comprises 633 acres.

Half of the purchase will go to the widow of Charles L. Pierce, who is now the wife of Doctor Breyfogle of New York. The rest of the money will go to the daughters of Frank Pierce. C. L. Pierce bought the land in 1910 and the stock was imported from Europe. Pierce had the best herd of Holstein-Friesians in the world.

Wilcox of San Jose, graduate of the university.

STRIKERS ATTACK BOLD POLICEMAN

Fishing Fleet Mob Makes Unsuccessful Attempt to Rescue Ringleader

A serious riot occurred shortly after 10 o'clock last night at the corner of Stockton and Greenwich streets, when a mob of Italians, Greeks and Filipinos, who have been on strike, attacked Policeman John Stelzer when he attempted to arrest one of the ringleaders for carrying a concealed weapon. The foreigners have been on strike for higher wages for their work aboard the Alaska fishing fleet. A large number of the men have families to support and have been short of food for several days. Yesterday several dozen decided that they would return to work on the fishing fleet. Adamo de la Santos, the leader of the strikers, heard of their move and gave warning that if any went to work they would have to account to him. He then armed himself and was on his way to the docks when Policeman Stelzer, who was advised of the trouble, intercepted him. The policeman was taking him to the station when a large number of the strikers swarmed around him and tried to take his prisoner away. The policeman fought back and was compelled to draw his revolver before the rioters would stop. He arrested Octomaro Rivera and Jose Paris.

LONG AND SHORT HULL CASE BEFORE COMMISSION

Northwestern Pacific Seeks to Meet Electric Road Rate The railroad commission held a further hearing yesterday in the long and short haul provision. The arguments were presented before Commissioner Edgerton. The Northwestern Pacific applied for permission to deviate from the long and short haul requirements on the ground that it was compelled to meet the competition of an electric railway. The commission ordered the joint rates between the Northern electric and the Western Pacific into effect at once. The original order has been sustained by the commission. The Western Pacific will file its schedule of rates under protest. An informal conference has been called by the commission to consider the regulation of stock and bond issues.

NOT SALTS, OIL OR PILLS, BUT CASCARETS

No Odds How Sick Your Stomach; How Hard Your Head Aches or How Billious—Cascarets Make You Feel Great You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important. Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermented food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.
